BACCALAUREATE SERMON FOR FULTON HIGH

The Baccalaureate Sermon for the Fulton High School Class of 1937 was delivered by Rev. J. W. Wells in Fairview Cemetery. The following sermon will be printed:

Commencement Program For South Fulton Friday

The annual class night program was given at the South Fulton High School Monday night with a good program was rendered.

CROWD OF 5,000 ATTENDS SINGING

The annual Singing Convention held at the St. John's Hall here was a really grand affair with an attendance of over one thousand persons.

POULTRY RAISING IN THIS SECTION IS BECOMING BIG CASH INCOME SOURCE

Poultry raising is making sizable profits in this section and is fast becoming one of the most profitable branches of farming. The market is good and demand is heavy for eggs and chickens.

COUNTY CLERKS ATTENDS MEETING

The Assistant Clerk of the Fulton County Clerk's Office, Miss Minnie Martin, attended a meeting of the County Clerk's Office at the State Capitol in Frankfort.

LOCAL A & P STORES:

The local A & P Store was busy selling groceries and feed at the same time. The store is doing a good business.

KENTUCKY UTILITIES HAS LINES BUILT

The Southern Kentucky Railway and Telephone Company has begun building a line of telephone poles along the road in the southern part of the county, including Lebanon, Marion, and Alamogordo.

STATE LINE BRIDGE WILL BE READY PRECISELY

Work on the second section of the state line bridge between Fulton and Marion is progressing rapidly and it is expected that the bridge will be completed before the end of the year.
Laughing Around the World

And Then the Bear had to Hibernate

PONTOON and Burt were doped up on the farm behind the quiet concert hall. It was just before noon, and they were in the middle of a dance. Ponto, the best of the three bears, was having a wonderful time.

"I say, Ponto," said Burt, "what are you doing here?"

Ponto looked at him with a peculiar expression. He seemed to be thinking of something.

"I came here to see my old friend, Mr. Brown," he said.

"Mr. Brown?" asked Burt.

"Yes," said Ponto, "I used to know him when I was young."

"What is Mr. Brown?"

"He is a man who lives in the city," said Ponto. "He used to visit the farm and bring us food."

"But he is long gone," said Burt.

"Yes," said Ponto, "but I came here to see him again."

"I don't understand," said Burt.

"I know," said Ponto, "but I came to see him anyway."

"What are you doing here?"

"I am looking for Mr. Brown," said Ponto.

"What are you doing here?"

"I am looking for Mr. Brown," said Ponto.

"But he is long gone," said Burt.

"I know," said Ponto, "but I came to see him anyway."

"I don't understand," said Burt.

"I know," said Ponto, "but I came to see him anyway."

"What are you doing here?"

"I know," said Ponto, "but I came to see him anyway."

"What are you doing here?"

"I am looking for Mr. Brown," said Ponto. "And then the bear had to hibernate.

The bear had fallen into a 315-gallon con- tainer and was drenched to the skin. He was rescued from the container by a team of divers and doctors and was taken to the hospital for treatment. The bear's condition was critical, and he was placed on life support. Despite the efforts of the medical team, the bear succumbed to his injuries and passed away. The community was saddened by the loss, and a memorial service was held in his honor.

NEW FINANCING NEED

In the past month business has been slow, and we need new financing. Your support is crucial to our survival. We need to raise $1 million in the next 30 days, or we may have to close our doors. We have already secured a loan from a local bank, but we need additional funds to cover our expenses.

We are confident that we can meet our goal if we receive the necessary support. We have a dedicated team of volunteers who are working hard to ensure that we remain open. We are grateful for your past support and look forward to your continued assistance.

Let's work together to keep our business afloat. We need your help to ensure our future.

Thank you for your understanding and support.

Sincerely,

PERSONAL WORK IS A Vocation
By J. Elswit, Director, Dean of Women.

There is a great deal of personal work that is inherently interesting and profitable for the individual to do. Young people in agriculture, home economics, and other fields, can find many personal opportunities that are both profitable dividually and useful to the community.

Personal work is a career opportunity for the young person. It is an occupation that one can pursue throughout life.
It is a career that is becoming increasingly important in all fields of education. One of the greatest opportunities is in the field of education. Personal work is an integral part of education, particularly in the home economics and education. They are areas where the individual can contribute to the community and to himself. By doing personal work, the individual is learning how to be successful, how to become a leader, how to work with others.

In education, personal work is a bridge between the student and the community. They are responsible for interpreting
the community's
needs and interests.
Their work includes working in various careers, from management to administration.

So far in personal work,
no one has really
said that the individual has to work alone. They are not necessarily working
by themselves,

but they are working
in groups.

Education for this work requires adaptable and flexible minds.
In addition to these, personal work requires knowledge of the technical aspects of the work. It also requires understanding of
scientific principles
involved.
The
individual must be able to apply
these principles
in practical situations.

So, if you are interested in personal work, you should consider it as an option for your future career.
