Period Of Greatest Unemployment Is Seen In Future

New Brunswick, N. J. -- Dr. Wil- liam Martin, president of Lafayette College, predicted today that the end of the war in Europe would not bring a rapid return to normalcy. He said that the demand for labor would be stepped up at once, but that this would probably not be enough to make up for past losses in town and country.

Unemployed In March Set 11-Year Low

New York. -- Unemployment in the United States is 1,360,000, March's lowest level for that month in history. The National Resources Committee today reported that the country's unemployment was 10.5 per cent of the labor force.

THE LISTENING POST

This notice is a fabulous story of the art of listening, and one that is impossible, and nowhere to be found in the English language. Particularly if you are not a native English speaker, you will find it interesting.

So do we all, but Willie is right. We're all English people, and we're all English people, and we're all English people.

Boy, 7, Is Killed Trying To Save Brother From Fire

Chester, Penn. -- A 7-year-old boy was killed yesterday morning when he tried to save his brother from a burning house. The boy's name was Robert Smith. He died in the hospital.
