Syrup of Figs

Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Co., San Francisco, Cal., is Nature's Own true Laxative. It is the most easily taken and the most pleasant effective remedy known to cleanse the system when bilious or costive; to dispel headaches, colds and fevers; to cure habitual constipation, indigestion, etc. For sale in 50 cents and $1.00 bottles by H. B. Garner, Hopkinsville, Ky.

South Kentucky Telephone Company.

An important and significant meeting was held in the law office of Landess & Clark, Monday morning. It was for the purpose of signing adopted articles of incorporation for the establishment of a Telephone Exchange. The incorporators are T. J. Morrow, Jas. M. Howe, C. F. Jarrett, C. M. Latham and S. H. Turner. Mr. James Howe was unanimously chosen as the company's President, with the following officers in order named: C. F. Jarrett, Vice-President; T. J. Morrow, Treasurer, and S. H. Turner, Secretary and General Manager, with Judge J. I. Landess, Attorney. The capital stock is $30,000, in shares of $25 each. This worthy enterprise should receive the encouragement and liberal patronage of every business man of Hopkinsville. The gentlemen who have the affair in hand are business men of our city and deserve the help and influence of everybody interested in the welfare of our city. It is the purpose of the company to first establish an exchange in the city, then extend its lines to every town and hamlet of the county. Too much commendation can not be given Mr. S. H. Turner for his immediate instrumentalities in pushing this matter to an organization.

C. E. Dupier, of Equality, Ill., lost smell, taste and hearing by Catarrh, but got them back by Lac-cu-pi.

Clarksville's Blaze.

Friday evening two frame storage warehouses, belonging to M. A. Settle, opposite the Louisville and Nashville passenger depot, in the eastern suburbs of Clarksville, were discovered on fire. The alarm was given by a switch engine which happened to be switching cars on a side track. Before the fire company could arrive the building was enveloped in flames and totally destroyed, with contents. The building was filled with lime, corn, hay, lumber, etc. A few days ago, Mr. Settle had all the machinery of his flour mill stored in the building with the determination to move to Cerulean Springs to erect a mill. He had several men working in the building at 1 o'clock. The origin of the fire is a mystery. For some time it was thought that the L. & N. depot would be destroyed, but a change in the wind prevented it. Mr. Settle's loss is estimated at $5,500, with insurance on the building of $450, on mill machinery $4,500, and scales and grain sacks $500.

Trying to Gobble Cadiz.

The I. A. & T. proposition to Cadiz is that the district shall give them the right of way and $13,000 to build the nine miles of road. It's a nice little scheme of the L. & N. Co., to defeat the pending proposition of the Ohio Valley Co. But it will not work; the people of Cadiz are too intelligent to be taken in that way. If they do bite at this they will never get another road. If they take the O. V. they will have the double chance of the extension to Columbus almost an assured thing now—and this very same thing which the L. & N. & T. is so anxious for them to take now, because, as is quite obvious, the I. A. & T. will be glad to get into Cadiz—only nine miles off—at any time, especially after the O. V. has made a break through the heart of the (the I. A. & T.) territory.

Mrs. Rose Hawthorne Lathrop tells a short story in the September American. The gift of graceful narrative in the Hawthorne family is evidently not confined to the male line. Bessie Chandler and Mrs. Chauncy also contribute complete stories.

The colored County Teachers Institute met in this city yesterday and will continue in session to-day and to-morrow. The people of the county should encourage our colored friends in their educational enterprises, as their greatest usefulness and highest happiness lies in that line.

The Christian County Colored Teachers Institute convened at the Court House yesterday and will be in session until Wednesday. A full quota of teachers are in attendance. The programme was filled with many interesting subjects, which were ably discussed by the teachers.

Several irresponsible parties gave currency yesterday to a very improbable and sensational report that a killing occurred in South Christian and also that Trenton was the scene of a bloody encounter. Various rumors were rife, but a thorough investigation failed to throw any light or even a semblance of truth on the report.

Last Friday night the residence of Sheriff John Boyd was burglarized. Efforts were effected through an open window on the east wing of the building. Boyd's pants were found on the floor with the pockets turned inside out and money to the amount of twelve dollars in silver had been abstracted therefrom. The bold robber was evidently bent on obtaining money only, as jewelry and other valuables were in easy reach but left unmolested.

It is a trial all—Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Dr. T. G. Keen Dead.

It was announced in this city Sunday morning by a private telegram to Mr. S. E. Trice, that Dr. T. G. Keen was dead. The intelligence will be sad news to the entire community. The distinguished divine, who for over a quarter of a century was the pastor of the Baptist church of this city, died at Evansville, Ind., Sunday morning at 3 o'clock of paralysis. He was at the time of his death 72 years of age. Three children survive him. They are Mrs. John C. Armistead, of Petersburg, Va., Mrs. F. K. Roach, of Evansville, Ind., and Mr. Randolph Keen, of Texas.

In 1841, Rev. T. G. Keen was called to the pastorate of the Baptist church here and remained in charge until 1845, when he resigned to go to Petersburg, Va. In 1844, while the clouds of war were still lowering over our divided country, when brethren and families in the same churches in Kentucky were often found in the ranks of opposing armies, the church in Hopkinsville formed no exception, and when the subject of calling a pastor was discussed by the few who dared mention the matter to each other, it was hardly thought possible to find one sufficiently conservative to unite two factions. Dr. Keen was mentioned. He had been here for four years before the war. He was unanimously called to the pastorate, accepted the call, passed through the lines without molestation by either party, and entered upon his work. At a meeting of the church in Dec. 5th, 1863, a letter was read from Mr. Keen, tendering his resignation, to take effect the first Sunday in March 1864. The church being satisfied that it was Dr. Keen's decided wish to rest from the regular duties of his pastorate, accepted his resignation, and adopted appropriate resolutions, expressing their warm affection for him etc. On Sunday March 2nd 1864 an immense audience assembled at the Baptist church to listen to Dr. Keen's farewell address, which was reproduced in the Louisville Courier-Journal, showing the high esteem in which the distinguished pastor was regarded by all classes of people in Hopkinsville. Mr. Keen went from here to Evansville, Ind., where he resided with his daughter, Mrs. F. K. Roach. Dr. Keen was endowed by nature with an uncommon capacity for work, an iron constitution and a singularly unselfish disposition. He took a great interest in public affairs, and became, by force of his rare intellectual endowment, a shining light among the brilliant minds of the city. As in public life, so it was in every relation of private life. He was a man of strong convictions, and genuine Christian integrity, devoted to all the services of the church, and liberal in its enterprises.

The remains will arrive on a special train this afternoon, leaving Evansville at one o'clock. The body will lie in state in a cloth-covered casket, in the Baptist church. The funeral services will be held at the church Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. J. N. Presbridge officiating. Interment will be at the city cemetery, where a handsome family monument is already standing. The pall bearers will be R. E. Petree, Dr. Jas. Rodman, J. W. Rust, John P. Campbell, J. O. Ferrell, S. G. Buckner, J. C. Woolbridge and S. E. Trice.

Death of Mrs. Manser.

Mrs. Catherine Manser, who celebrated her 50th birthday, August 4th, died Sunday night about 10 o'clock. The venerable lady fell asleep as peacefully as an infant upon the bosom of its mother. Mrs. Manser was born and reared in Virginia, and came to Kentucky in 1827. She was a kind hearted and noble-minded lady, beloved and esteemed by all who knew her. Her remains were shipped to Newport, Ky., where they will be interred.

Habitual Constipation

And kidney and liver ills, depending on a weak or inactive condition of the kidneys, liver or bowels, are successfully and permanently cured only by the use of the gentle yet effective laxative and diuretic, Syrup of Figs. Its advantages are evident; it is easily taken, pleasing to the taste, acceptable to the stomach, harmless to the most delicate system, and truly beneficial in effect.
