

12-3-1931

The Ledger & Times, Section 3, December 3, 1931

The Ledger & Times

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.murraystate.edu/tlt>

Recommended Citation

The Ledger & Times, "The Ledger & Times, Section 3, December 3, 1931" (1931). The Ledger & Times. 173.

<https://digitalcommons.murraystate.edu/tlt/173>

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Newspapers at Murray State's Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Ledger & Times by an authorized administrator of Murray State's Digital Commons. For more information, please contact msu.digitalcommons@murraystate.edu.

INAUGURAL TO BE BRILLIANT AFFAIR

No Tickets Required As All Events Are Cordially Open to the Public.

Frankfort, Ky.
The City of Frankfort will be splendidly and span for the Inaugural Ceremonies on Tuesday, December 8th. Mayor T. E. Kenney, who is also Chairman of the General Inaugural Committee, has a corps of workmen cleaning up the streets of leaves, polishing up the street lights and has called upon Frankfort citizens to clean their premises in preparation for the Inaugural Ceremonies.

The parade will be colorful and beautiful. Airplanes will carry Democratic streamers and drop roses upon the grandstand and the assembled hosts. The city will be artistically decorated and the Capitol building will be brilliantly illuminated. A display of fireworks lighting up the entire city will precede the Governor's Reception and Inaugural Ball.

The Inaugural Ceremonies will be held on a stand erected in front of the Capitol at noon. The parade will start from North Frankfort about 10:30 o'clock.
The line of march will be on Main, St. Clair, Second and Capitol Avenue to the Capitol. A reviewing stand will be erected on the steps near the Goebel monument from which the incoming and outgoing Governors and Lieutenant-Governors will witness the parade. There will be bands from Louisville, Lexington, Madisonville, Frankfort, Covington, Newport and other towns.

Louisville and Lexington police will assist Frankfort traffic officers in handling crowds.
Lieutenant Colonel Frank H.
Dusse is grand marshal of the parade with Major C. W. Longmire and Major Carl Norman, all of Frankfort, aides.

After the inaugural ceremonies

SHOP EARLY
ONLY 18 MORE SHOPPING DAYS
UNTIL CHRISTMAS

Governor Laffoon will greet visitors, who will be unable to attend the night reception, in the State Reception room of the Capitol.

Judge Laffoon, Mrs. Laffoon and family will come here the Monday before Inauguration and will be guests of Judge and Mrs.
C. W. Hay at "Scotland" until Inauguration Day when they will move into the Mansion.

Music for the ball will be provided by three orchestras to be stationed on the third floor of the Capitol and the Senate and House retiring rooms in the Rotunda.

No invitations will be issued for the ball and reception. It is open to the public. The reception will begin at 8 o'clock and the receiving line of the elected State officials and their wives will stand in the State Reception room. The reception will last until 9:30 when the ball will begin with a grand march to be led by Governor Laffoon and Mrs. Laffoon who will be followed by Lieutenant Governor Chandler and Mrs. Chandler, the other state officials and their wives. Other guests will then take their places in the grand march.

Everything is being done to the multitude of people visiting the Capital. Organized Committees are covering every phase of the day's requirements, and nothing will be left undone to make the occasion successful.

Automobiles will be parked on Steel street, east end of Second street, and the north ends of Shelby, Steele, Murray and Capitol Avenue. The parking committee will have placards posted at all parking places and will have directing signs for the convenience of motorists.

Woman, 99, Leaves 157 Descendants

ARLINGTON, KY., Nov. 28.—
Mrs. Mary Hite, 99, died at Milburn.

She leaves seven children, 67 grand-children and 93 great-grandchildren.

If she had lived until March 4,

she would have been 100 years of age.

Applications of limestone, phosphate and nitrate of soda produced 92 bushels of corn to the acre in Powell county.

Davies county farmers are considering using their low-grade tobacco for fertilizer.

Health Demonstration Program Will Be Given at Martin's Chapel Friday, 2 p. m.

An interesting health program will be given at the Martin's Chapel school Friday afternoon at two o'clock. Martin's Chapel was selected by the county health department as the model health school of the county and as a testing field.

Following is the program:
Good Health Band—Primary
grades.

Reading, "I've an Awful Lot of Trouble"—James Robert Mar-ton.

Song, "Too Many Green Apples"—Second grade.

Reading, "Fence or Ambulance"—Willie Mae Richerson.

Play, "Troublemakers in the Vegetable Garden"—Primary and intermediate grades.

Indian Dance—Intermediate
grades.

Drill, "Milk Bottle Fairies"—
5th and 6th grade boys.

Duet, "Wont You Come and be My Playmate?"—Azzilee Charlton and Mary Ella Marton.

Play, "Doctor Health"—all
grades.

Reading—Maxine Taylor.

Play, "A Child's Song of Thanksgiving"—Intermediate
grades.

Song, "We're the Cutest Kids in Town"—Mildred Suiter, Azzi-lee Charlton, Maxine Taylor, Mary Ella Marton.

Reading of the prize winning essays.

The demonstration is sponsored by the Murray Woman's Club.

Awarding of prizes, Mrs. B.
Warterfield.

The roster of student in the school is as follows:

Billy Ray Atkins, James Carroll, Autrey Carroll, Buron Richerson, George Ed Hargrove,
Doris Charlton, Fred Eugene
Atkins, James Robert Marton, Hafford Carroll, Darrell Hargrove, Loyce Morris.

Dora Louise Morris, Dona Lee
Morris, Helton Camp, Dorothy Suiter, Dorothy Faye Hargrove, Azzilee Charlton, Maxine Taylor,
Mildred Frances Carroll, Oyna
Charlton, Robbie Faye Richerson, Lillian Frances Suiter, Thelma Jo Brewer, Margaret Camp, Mar-cella Taylor.

James Charlton, Charles Rosers, Mary Ella Marton, Kathryn Charlton, Willie May Richerson, Elroy Suiter, Dulcie Mae Swann, teacher, Ophelia Brewer, Noel win is an employee of the Mayfield Bottling Co.

Miss Thelma Jones, teacher of the 5th and 6th grades, was absent Wednesday on account of illness.

The weekly chapel assembly
last Tuesday, was entertained
with a Thanksgiving program
given by the fourth grade, sponsored by Miss McDaniel.

Miss Lorne Gibson, from Desh-ler, Ohio, has entered school at Lynn Grove as an eighth grade
student.

Members of the faculty attended the P. D. E. A. at Murray, during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Three carloads of Caldwell county cattle will be sent to the fat show at the Bourbon Stock Yards in Louisville in November.

Garrard county farmers have made ready enough rock to keep a state time crusher busy for a
year.

Lynn Grove H. S.

Because of ad weather, the Old Time Fiddler's Contest, planned for Thanksgiving night, was postponed. It will be held Friday night, December 4.

The Lynn Grove-Concord has kethall game scheduled for Friday night on the Lynn Grove floor.

For the second time this year
Dan Cupid has shot his arrow into the hearts of the freshmen class. His Thanksgiving arrow pierced the heart of Miss Mary Frances Lockhart. She was married Wednesday night to Mr. H.
L. Erwin of Mayfield. Mr. Erwin is an employee of the May-

field Bottling Co.

Miss Thelma Jones, teacher of the 5th and 6th grades, was absent Wednesday on account of illness.

The weekly chapel assembly
last Tuesday, was entertained
with a Thanksgiving program
given by the fourth grade, sponsored by Miss McDaniel.

Miss Lorne Gibson, from Desh-
ler, Ohio, has entered school at Lynn Grove as an eighth grade
student.

Members of the faculty attended the P. D. E. A. at Murray,
during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Three carloads of Caldwell
county cattle will be sent to the
fat show at the Bourbon Stock
Yards in Louisville in November.

Garrard county farmers have
made ready enough rock to keep a state time crusher busy for a
year.

Bring Christmas Joy to Every Heart

Everyone is thrilled by Jewelry. Not only mothers, Wives, Sweethearts, Sisters and Grandmothers, but Fathers, Sons, Brothers, Grandfathers and Uncles.

The first Christmas gifts were jewels. Beautiful jewels imply the spirit of giving. More than anything else, they are an eloquent expression of the Christmas message. That is why gifts are best bestowed in terms of jewelry.

Here at Bailey's is a wonderful assortment of gifts for everyone on your list. There are many, many beautiful articles priced extremely low for friends you wish to remember inexpensively, as well as more valuable gifts for those nearer you.

Do not be puzzled by what to give. Bring your list to Bailey's where there's any appropriate selection for everyone.

Jewelry--Truly The Gift Everlasting!

YOUR GIFT STORE
18 YEARS OF DEPENDABLE SERVICE TO PEOPLE OF THIS SECTION

H. B. BAILEY

THE QUALITY JEWELER

FREE ENGRAVING AND GOLD LETTERING

Kindly remember that we do free engraving on metals and free gold lettering in 22-karat gold on all Leather Goods, Fountain Pens and Pencils purchased at our store. Ask for this service.

Best Wishes Expressed in LEATHER!

Bailey's has a wonderful selection of Leather Goods.
Large and small pieces, from bill folds to fitted cases.
Nothing is overlooked.

And your lucky friends and relatives will be glad that while you had one eye on beauty you managed to keep the other eye on practicability. For Bailey's Leather Goods are made by master craftsmen, downright beautiful, distinctive and practical.

REMEMBER

that a small down payment will reserve any article in our store until you are ready for it.

The Strength of Any Bank Is The Men Behind It

THE BANK OF MURRAY

Wishes to Present Its

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Who Stand Back of This Bank

E. S. DIUGUID, furniture and hardware, E. S. Diuguid & Son, President of Bank.

W. S. SWANN, tobacconist, Kennedy & Swann, Vice-President of Bank.

M. T. MORRIS, farmer and stockman.

BEN GROGAN, Vice-President of Bank.

T. O. TURNER, merchant and state senator.

J. D. SEXTON, hardware, Sexton Brothers.

EDD FILBECK, cashier of Bank.

W. L. WHITNELL, farmer.

TREMOR BEALE, hardware, A. B. Beale & Son.

E. A. LASSITER, assistant cashier of Bank.

Men and Money Make this Bank Secure!

Bank of Murray

YOU ARE INVITED TO MAKE THIS BANK YOUR BUSINESS HOME

THE LEDGER & TIMES

Consolidation of The Murray Ledger, The Calloway Times and The Times-Herald, October 26, 1923.
Published by The Calloway County Publishing Co., Inc.
Fourth Fourth Street, Murray, Ky.

Joe T. Lovett, Editor
Entered at the Postoffice, Murray, Ky., as second class mail matter.

MEMBER
KENTUCKY PRESS ASSOCIATION
Member 1931
NATIONAL EDITORIAL ASSOCIATION

Subscription Rates:—In First Congressional District and Henry and Stewart Counties, Term, $1.00 a year; Kentucky, $1.50; elsewhere, $2.00.
Advertising Rates and information about Calloway county market furnished upon application.

Brother Pigue

One of the last of the old-time stalwarts of the church, a man gracious and good and kindly and sincere with a sincerity that we all might well emulate, a man who has "fought the good fight" and labored long and faithfully in the vineyard of the Lord, went on to reward and glory last Sunday.

And as the soul of the Rev. Richard Hugh Pigue was wafted upward to Mansions of Light, thousands of hearts were sad and thousands of eyes were salty with tears throughout the entire Memphis conference and where ever else this beloved man was known.

Brother Pigue was a militant soldier in the army of Christ. Compromise, even the slightest yielding, with any principle was not his nature. He fought hard and cleanly for the cause of Christianity and for his church.

Few men have had the privilege of being as close to the hearts and lives of the people of this community as Brother Pigue. As a young man, with the enthusiasm and energies of youth, he served our people; in his aging years, enriched with the experiences of lifetime, he continued to minister to us in our sicknesses, in our hours of woe and sadness, and rejoice with us in our happiness.

Thousands of families have known him as an intimate friend in joyful times and in bitter days. Always he has stood, Gibraltar-like, a friend when friendship and helping kindness were most needed.

To perpetuate his name and carry on his service to fellow man, Brother Pigue leaves six splendid sons. To these dear boys, who spent their happy childhood days in this county, the abiding sympathy of Brother Pigue's thousands and thousands of friends goes out in unbroken measure.

Truly may it be said of him,

GREETING CARDS

WISH your friends a happy holiday season by greeting card. For distinctive cards select them here.

CARDS to suit every taste at all prices.

JONES DRUG COMPANY

At Your Service

"He gave his honours to the world again. His blessed part to heaven. And slept in peace."

"All's Well That Ends Well"

The old saw that "he who laughs last laughs best" was well borne out by the 1931 football team at Murray State College. The boys have a hearty laugh at their critics who direly predicted at the start of the season that Murray would have her worst gridiron record in years.

Even the Thoroughbreds' most dependable rail birds shed tears when the boys floundered through their first three games with two defeats and only a tie with an admittedly inferior Delta Teachers eleven.

And the boys were a little bit uncertain of themselves. However, reasons are ample. In the first place, it was a green team with a majority of sophomores facing high-class college competition for the first time.

Secondly, and this is important too, the system of play was radically changed this year from the mode that had been followed here for the past several years. It was a big job to take a green eleven and mold it to an entirely new style of performing.

Hopes fell with a thud when the Racehorses merely tied Delta and even then had to come behind in the last half after trailing 12 to 0 at the mid-game armistice.

But the boys suddenly found themselves at Bowling Green and held a strong Western eleven to one touchdown while giving the Hilltoppers the most exciting afternoon of the current fall.

And they finished the season in scintillating glory with five straight victories under their belts.

The Ledger & Times takes an especial "home town" pride in this year's edition of Thoroughbreds, because it was captured by a Murray boy, Paul "Cricket" Perdue. A gamer little bundle of dynamite and scrap than "Cricket" never walked on any man's football field and we congratulate him and his teammates on their glorious record achieved under handicaps and unfavorable circumstances.

The coaching staff comes in for a lion's share of the praise. Head Coach Cutchin, Coaches Morgan, Stewart and Miller have done a splendid piece of work. Truly Murray College acquitted herself nobly in her birth year in the S. I. A. A.

Sudan grass, tried this year by Owen county farmers, furnished an abundance of pasture during the late summer and early fall, when other grasses were short.

Job Printing
REASONABLE PRICES
LEDGER & TIMES

JUST JOTS

By Joe

Perhaps there's not such a paradox after all in both wells and dries claiming an increase in number. Maybe there's just more folks than ever talking dry and drinking wet.

Batten, Barton, Durstine & Osborn, a leading advertising agency, says business was suffering from fever in 1929 and didn't know it. In 1931, business is suffering from chills and seems to be well aware of it.

Raskob was a show down on whiskey. That will be generally satisfactory as long as it is voluntary and no hip-pocket searching allowed.

You will notice that appeals are now made for the "more unfortunate" instead of the "less fortunate".

A Kentucky educator says Kentucky doesn't have a surplus of good school teachers. There's never a surplus of able persons in any line of endeavor.

The turkey gets his revenge on your stomach the day after.

Joe Costello of the Cynthiana Democrat, is kind enough to call us "one of the leading Democratic papers of the state" (Get that word, "leading"). All wise little boys know when Christmas is nearing.

21,392,190 persons voted for Herbert Hoover in 1928 and 2,392,000 of them are sorry of it.

Two greatest foes of mankind in the past two years are drouth and depression. Now that Jupiter Pluvius has the drouth down and gasping for breath let's all light in and lick the depression.

Unemployment is against the wishes of most everyone. If you don't believe it, just consider the number who would like to be the highway commissioner for the first district.

Our frank opinion is that if there's a charity football game between the Paducah and Mayfield football teams there'll be none for the players on the other side.

The 1932 automobiles are now out but what we're looking for is that promised 1932 prosperity.

Eighteen more shopping days. DO IT NOW!

Stop!
Do you have a news item? We want it. Our readers want it. It only takes a minute to tell us, mail it or phone it. Call 55.

How to Walk on The Highway

We have not yet gotten the habit, in this section, of walking on the correct side of the highway.

It is many times safer to walk on the left side of the highway. There are several reasons why.

The principal one is that you face directly oncoming traffic and have a better opportunity to side-step it. Traffic overtaking you passes safely to your right.

When you walk on the right-hand side of the road, as we have become accustomed in this territory, you run the risk of being run down by cars coming on from behind. Ofttimes, in walking down the road we become pre-occupied by our thoughts and do not hear the warning horn, if the motorist is thoughtful enough to sound it. And experience has demonstrated that there is a certain number of motorists who had just about as soon run down a pedestrian as run around him.

The principal danger comes when children use the highway going to and from school. If your little boy or girl is obliged to use the highway to reach school, caution the little folks to form the habit of walking down the left-hand side of the road and don't forget to do so yourself.

Many lives and serious accidents can be saved in this manner.

Stella Gossip

The Thanksgiving services at Union Grove were well attended. Three gospel preachers were present. By the way Old Eagle ate a big dinner (at home) of fat chicken, pumpkin pie and etc., that he came out like Amos n' Andy at Madam Queen's Thanksgiving dinner!

Premiums at Coldwater's fiddlers contest were awarded to Marine singing quartet, John Key and Dr. Adams best duet, best harp player, Jennings Turner, best banjo player, Earle Youngblood, best string band, Coldwater, best fiddler, own selection Cloys Lawrence; guitar solo, Chester Marine; best whistler, Boyd Carter; best best fiddler playing Soldier's Joy, Cecil Bazzell; best all-around fiddler, Cecil Bazzell; and Old Eagle got $1.50 premium for playing "Bonaparte's Retreat" then the roof went off!

James Stone and Waymon Greer of Clifton visited Irlean Smith. They report eight thousand bushel corn crop and five wagon loads of cotton, 500 bushel of potatoes.

Hill Adams, our faithful milk man is very busy "rocking the cradle". They have a week old son.

Emmit Glover of Lake county has moved back to Mrs. Eula Slaughter's farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Bearl Darnell are teaching an up-to-date school at Coldwater.

Rain! rain! "Dark days" by Hugh Conway. For three days the sun has ceased to shine on my old Kentucky home. "Hope enchantments never die".

"Jots by Joe" said, "The young mother who used to spank her son for playing 'seven-up' with King and queen cards is now the champion bridge player at the club". Yes, Me and Jimmie Bazzell and Mack Dunaway slipped off from the old (?) folks one November night to the back of the field and were playing cards and suddenly a star fell, we quit! Thought it was judgement day. In ten years the old folks were playing Eucre 'till midnight. Then was when the world was "flat". Now this nigger don't play nothing!

If you want to die early, just fuss and growl all day long, especially at meal time and don't never laugh. This recipe is to be served boiling hot!—Eagle

The Madison county tobacco crop is said to be the best in the history of the county, and probably as good as any grown in the burley district.

Union county farmers report a return of 90 cents to $1.30 a bushel from wheat fed to hogs, when the local wheat price was 30 cents a bushel.

PUT US TO THE ACID TEST

YOU CAN SAVE MONEY HERE

One Profit, Close Margin, Quick Sales
WE BUILD OUR HARNESS RIGHT HERE IN MURRAY

For people who want something better than Eastern-made—Quality considered, price asked
You owe it to yourself to investigate before you buy

SPECIAL PRICE ON PUTTING CELLULOID IN CAR CURTAINS FOR NEXT SIXTY DAYS

BRAUSA & REDDEN

Located on Balcony in Rear of Wilkinson's Barber Shop, Next to Capitol Theatre Front and Rear Entrance
LOOK FOR OUR SIGNS

Everything in Toys

Come See Our "Bigger Than Ever" Christmas Selections!

SPECIAL FOR SATURDAY—A Big Box of Rich Chocolates, Cellophane Wrapped, 10c each (Limit 5 boxes to a customer)

H. A. McELROY & CO.

5c to $1.00 STORES

Gifts at Turner's Sale Prices

Make This a Practical, Sensible Christmas of GIFTS TO WEAR!

Now, if ever, is the time to be practical at Christmas time, and that means practical gifts to wear for everyone on your list. "Naught Can Compare With Gifts to Wear."

My sale is still going on and New-Fall and Christmas goods just received are going at sales prices, too.

No one has too many clothes and big folks and small folks will appreciate something comfortable to wear much more than gew-gaws that will be forgotten before the first of January.

Give the women-folks Hosiery, Underwear, a Coat, a Dress, Lingerie, Dress Goods. Give the men-folks an Overcoat, Suit of Clothes, Hose, Boots, Shoes, a hat, a warm jacket. Give the little folks a Sweater, Stockings, Boots, an Overcoat, a Suit of Clothes, a Coat. BE PRACTICAL!

A LOT OF LADIES COATS JUST RECEIVED TO GO AT REDUCED PRICES!

Get Our Prices Before Buying

T. O. TURNER

SHROAT BUILDING

CORNER STORE

BASEMENT

Attention!
Mrs. Housewife
You Will Smile
Your Approval of

"Thor-o-bread"

Our New Loaf

Which will be ready

Monday, December 7

Developed by Parker Bros. in collaboration with an expert of Fleischmann Yeast Company.

If your neighbor isn't using Parker's Bread ask her to try the NEW "THOR-O-BREAD"

Parker Bros Bakery

"A Modern Plant for a Modern Community"

MURRAY, KY.

We Will Continue Our 5c Loaf

Hazel Route 3

We are having some rainy weather in this community. A few cold rains.

Mr. Ira Wilson and friends, left for their home in Detroit, Mich., Wednesday morning after spending six weeks visiting parents and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Clark and daughter, Miss Pearl, spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Garlon Clark.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmus Wilson and son, Earl, left Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. Naylor Clayton.

Mr. Jake Perry has not cat, but he has "The Dog That Came Back".

Mrs. Hattie Wilson and Mrs. Stella Wilson visited Mrs. Mary

Warren, who is on the sick list, Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Tom Elkins is very low. Inflammation of the gums, from having her teeth extracted.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Craig and daughter, Miss Mary Sue of Flint Michigan, are here visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Craig, and Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Wilson.

Miss Pearl Clark visited Miss Opal Vick of Providence Saturday night. "Tilda".

If you spend your money for PRINTING in Murray, you get a second chance at the same old dollar—

When that dollar goes out of town it's gone! Gone! Gone!

If it's Printing—we can do it THE LEDGER & TIMES

FREE MOVIE TICKETS LOOK FOR YOUR NAME

Capitol

THEATRE

HOME OF MODERN ENTERTAINMENT

Murray :::: Kentucky

Showing Continuous—2:30 till 10:30 P. M.

ADULTS, MAT. 25c; Nights 35c CHILDREN 10c

"HIS WOMAN"

"THE AVENGER"

With Gary Cooper and Claudette Colbert
MRS. VERNON STUBBLEFIELD

With BUCK JONES
MRS. C. C. DUKE

MONDAY and TUESDAY, December 7-8

THE STAR OF STARS

RUTH CHATTERTON

"Once a Lady"

A Paramount Picture

Officially—Listed as Dead, ACTUALLY—

The Most Notorious Woman in Paris!

MRS. H. I. SLEDD MRS. H. P. WEAR

WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY, Dec. 9-10

RICHARD ARLEN

AND JACK OAKIE

"TOUCHDOWN"

CARLISLE CUTCHEN MISS GWENDOLYN HAYNES

Underneath each picture add some person's name or names will be found. If persons finding their name under any add will clip this entire add and present it to the doorman of the Capitol, he or she will be admitted FREE to see the picture of which their name is underneath.

While in St. Louis stop at Hotel CLARIDGE

ON LOCUST AT 18th

Effective Now

In keeping with the trend of the times and maintaining our leadership in hotel values—We Announce a reduction in all departments

Garage Service

Popular price Coffee Shop & Dining Room

Club Breakfast 35¢

Luncheon 45¢

and the BEST 75¢ DINNER IN ST. LOUIS

When in Memphis stop at Hotel Claridge same management

350 ROOMS

EACH WITH PRIVATE BATH & SHOWER

CIRCULATING ICE WATER

from $2.00

TARRY at the CLARIDGE

AND SEE ST. LOUIS WITH TARRY FOR SAVE

Christmas in California A Century Ago

Charles Frederick Wadsworth

When one thinks of the traditions of Christmas celebration in New England, the Middle States, and even farther West, in the early part of the Nineteenth century, it is to vision snow-covered ground, sleigh rides, and the jingle of sleigh bells, with Christmas trees and Santa Claus, much as today in those sections. Whole families go gift visiting in the bob-sled, to partake of the Christmas feast built around the turkey!

Those were great times and days, and their annals live in the words of famous literati of the East coast when our Republic was comparatively young.

But at the same time a mighty civilization was being built on the West coast, though how different was the Christmas observed in the sparsely settled and undeveloped land that is now California! And how few to leave record!

However, Albert Robinson, a clerk who left Boston for California in July, 1828, and after 110 days reached Valparaiso, and Monterey on February 15, 1829, has left in his "Life in California," published in the late forties, description of a Christmas celebration held at the mission in San Diego that shows the contrast between such events on the east and west coasts at that time.

Robinson's business took him to various parts of the (now) state, and while on a visit from his headquarters in San Francisco to his friend Don Jose Antonio Estudillo, comandante of San Diego, wrote of the Christmas festivities he had witnessed.

"Don Jose Antonio . . . was ever on the alert seeking for some new device for my gratification. It was nearly time for the religious festival of 'la noche buena' (the holy night) and he directed the customary exhibition of the 'pastores' (the shepherds) rehearsing night after night, till at length Christmas arrived, and I had an opportunity of beholding the midnight mass and the subsequent performances.

"At an early hour illuminations commenced, fireworks were set off, and all was rejoicing. The church bells rang merrily, and long before the time of mass the pathways leading to the presbytery were enlivened by crowds hurrying to devotion. I accompanied Don Jose Antonio, who procured for me a stand where I could see distinctly everything that took place. The mass commenced, Padre Vincente de Oliva (died 1848) officiated, and at the conclusion of the mysterious 'sacredness' he produced a small image representing the infant Saviour, which he held in his hands for all who chose to approach and kiss.

"After this, the tinkling of the guitar was heard without, the body of the church was cleared, and immediately commenced the harmonious sounds of a choir of voices. The characters entered in procession, adorned with appropriate costumes, and bearing banners. There were six females representing shepherdesses, three men and a boy.

"One of the men personated Lucifer, one a hermit, and the other Bartolo, a lazy vagabond, whilst the boy represented the archangel Gabriel. The story of their performance is partially drawn from the Bible, and commences with the angel's appearance to the shepherds, his account of the birth of our Saviour, and exhortation to them to repair to the scene of the manger.

"A dialogue is then carried on of considerable length relative to the attributes of the Deity, which ends in the submission of Satan.

"For several days this theatrical representation is exhibited at the principal houses, and the performances at the conclusion of the play are entertained with refreshments. The boys take an enthusiastic part in the performance, and follow about from house to house, perfectly enraptured with the comicallities of the hermit and Bartolo.

"How different from the gay Christmas celebrations of California's present millions! And how different from what was taking place on the east coast!

(The 1794, Western Newspaper Union)

(The 1821, Western Newspaper Union)

Our Christmas Gift Record

by Clara Aggie Hays

AN OLD, old lady told me something strange one time, "Santa Claus," she said, "is the saint of little children. But there is a grownups' saint at Christmas time, too, who stands beside us measuring our gifts and recording them truly. He wouldn't judge by the means we use. For, the old, old lady said sweetly, 'Love makes a gift great at Christmas time.'"

In a small bungalow at the edge of a western town, a woman named Martha, and her daughter, Ruth, sewed. They and their house were a bit shabby. But that does not matter at Christmas time.

"Dear me!" Martha sighed as she took the last stitches, "I dread Christmas every year. It means work and sacrifice. I could have had a good pair of stockings for what I paid for Aunt Caroline's present. But I'd be ashamed to send her less."

"Yes!" Ruth snapped. "She and Anna probably think we're trash anyway. And look at what they give us! Last year Anna sent a bunch of fancy boxes. Imagine what on earth we'd do with them!"

"Anna's selfish, that's what!" Martha nodded with sudden conviction. "She wouldn't work the way you've had to. She'd think it was beneath her."

The idea enraged Ruth. She glared. "I'll show her some day, the insane snooty thing! I'm going to be somebody. And she with her pampered life!"

Martha nodded. "She's just like her mother, Caroline always had her way. Always laughing and proud. I never could understand why your uncle married her."

"Huh!" Ruth wrote their names on the tags. "Me, either! What a life he must lead with those two."

"With them it's always 'me and mine.'"

"And Anna is as crude as she can be. Remember the time—"

But the recording saint went on. He had found the value of their gifts. And he was anxious to see Aunt Caroline and Anna.

They were in a large living room before a merry fire. There were great holly wreaths in the beautiful windows. And from the kitchen came the song of the cook.

Anna smiled across at her mother. "Almost through with Aunt Martha's present?"

Aunt Caroline nodded. "Yes. And if you've finished Ruth's handkerchiefs, we'll get the package off. I hope Martha likes this."

"She will. Aunt Martha's a dear. Wouldn't it be great if they could spend Christmas with us some time?" Anna's eyes glowed.

"Wouldn't it? You and you and Ruth can't know each other better. You're so near the same age. Martha writes that Ruth is working hard. She's going to amount to something!"

Anna arose to write the names on the tags. "I'll bet she does. Remember when she was a little girl, she used to be so ambitious? I'm going to use this pretty tag on her package. Isn't it fun getting things off to them! I wish we could send them something nice."

Caroline smiled. "Martha is sensitive and I wouldn't hurt her by sending things so much better than she could afford for us. Little things can express our love just as well. I'd be happy with only a card from them. It's the thought, you know."

Anna smiled and placed each package tenderly into a box. And the packages passed each other in the mails. By chance they had the same kind of tags:

"Merry Christmas and love from Ruth and Aunt Martha."

"Merry Christmas and love from Anna and Aunt Caroline."

But the grown-up Santa made very different notations. For Christmas is a memorial to a Prince whose greatest commandment was "Love one another" and who said "Judge not" and "Revenge not."

What will our Christmas gift record be? For who can prove that the old, old lady was not, right?

(The 1921, Western Newspaper Union)

Hazel News

Mrs. Patty Lowry Moor and children, Gene and Billie Dean, left Friday morning for their home in Indiana after being called home to attend the funeral of her brother, Gains Lowry.

Miss Maude Walker who works in Paducah spent Thanksgiving with her sister, Mrs. F. W. Grubbs and Dr. Grubbs.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Herron spent Thanksgiving in Treasent as guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Herron.

Mrs. Dona Mansfield and daughters, Mrs. Frank Hovercamp, Mrs. Lynn Boyd Phillips of Paducah, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Turnbow Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Ed Shelton and mother, Mrs. Mansfield of Paducah, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Clanton Wednesday.

Miss Johnson of Paducah, were Hazel visitors Thursday afternoon.

O. B. Turnbow J. E. Middleton, Ralph Mayer, Joseph Miller and others attended the Murray-Memphis football game at Murray Friday afternoon.

Miss Cornelia and Charles George Jr. of Paducah spent Thanksgiving with their aunt, Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Overby and Sadie Nell Outland, Porter White Jr. and Billie Swann of Murray.

Freston Perry was in Paris, Tenn., Sunday, visiting friends.

C. D. Paschall was in Trenton, Tenn., Tuesday and Wednesday on business.

Miss Laura Mae Hill of Paris, Tenn., spent Thanksgiving here visiting her cousin, Miss Virginia Wilson.

A. H. McLeod and wife and their visitors, Misses Virginia Wilson, and Laura Mae Hill, were Memphis visitors a few days last week.

J. B. Mayer and Mrs. Myrtle Osborn spent Sunday in Murray with Mrs. Amanda White and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Thompson spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Billie Hendon near Cherry.

Dowdy Walls was in Murray Monday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Marshall of near Concord were, week-end visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Miller Marshall.

Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Blackburn spent the week-end with Mrs. Blackburn's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Wilcox, near Cherry.

E. M. Mason and O. B. Turnbow spent one day last week in Paducah.

Mrs. Koffman and children of Trenton, Tenn., are here on a few days business with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Miller.

Otha Clark of Providence was in Hazel Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Craig and little daughter, Mary Sue of Detroit, Mich., are here on a visit to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Craig and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wilson, of Providence.

Misses Bertha Lee and Velma Booker were Saturday guests of Misses, Ellie and Lois Mathis.

Nellene and Imogene Lovett were Sunday guests of Edna and Opal Lee. Mr. Jess Lovett and family visited their mother, Mrs. Lula Lovett of Olive.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Oakley of Palmer were Thanksgiving guests of Mrs. Oakley's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Hopkins of Dexter Route 1.

Mrs. May Hopkins of Benton is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lagon Nanny.

The little daughter of Kell Tucker is able to be out again after a case of diphtheria.

Mr. Will Lee of Dexter Route 1, is visiting his son, John Lee, of Hardin Route 2. "Rose Bud"

Playlet, "Victoria and the Book-tolks". Characters were: Victoria, Pauline Houston; Heidi, Lillian Pruett, Jack and Jill, Khadra Delle Duncan and Fate Roberts, Rebecca Or Sunny Brook Farm, Edna Lee, Robin Hood, Vernon Billington, Alice, Ralpa Ross, Mad Hatter, Leon Caldwell, Huckleberry Finn and Tom Sawyer, Troy Bogard and L. V. Ross, and Pled Piper, L. V. Ross.

Playlet, "Maggie Tulliver Visits the Gypsies". Characters were: The Old Gypsy, Woman, Olene Caldwell; Young gypsy woman, Marie Gay; Leader of the Gypsies, Vernon Billington; Maggie Tulliver, Edna Lee, and Mr. Tulliver, L. V. Ross.

Playlet, "The First Thanksgiving". Characters were: Governor Bradford, L. V. Ross; Captain Standish, Rafe Brooks; Elder Brewster, Vernon Billington; Mistress Brewster, Dortha Williams; Remember, Louise Tatum; Priscilla, Edna Lee; and Mary, Olene Caldwell.

Recitation, "The Bill of Fare", Dortha Mae Burken.

Song, "Autumn Hearts", by four girls.

Recitation, "Thanksgiving Time" by Opal Lee.

Song, "Railroad Flagman's Sweetheart", Dortha Mae Burken.

Recitation, "Thanksgiving Day" by Louise Tatum.

Song, "Lullaby Yodel", Dortha Mae Burken.

Recitation, "A Perpetual Thanksgiving", Edna Lee.

Mrs. Emily Jones of Dexter Route 1 had as her guest this week, her sister, Miss Bertha Lee.

WANTED TO BUY CALVES, COWS, HOGS, LAMBS, Etc.

We Will Pay Market Price For Stuff Delivered ANY DAY

Truck Runs to St. Louis Three Times a Week

SHROAT BROS.

of Hardin.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Brooks and son, Rafe, spent Thanksgiving with their daughter and sister, Mrs. Treva Oakley of Aurora.

Misses Bertha Lee and Velma Booker were Saturday guests of Misses, Ellie and Lois Mathis.

Nellene and Imogene Lovett were Sunday guests of Edna and Opal Lee. Mr. Jess Lovett and family visited their mother, Mrs. Lula Lovett of Olive.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Oakley of Palmer were Thanksgiving guests of Mrs. Oakley's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Hopkins of Dexter Route 1.

Mrs. May Hopkins of Benton is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lagon Nanny.

The little daughter of Kell Tucker is able to be out again after a case of diphtheria.

Mr. Will Lee of Dexter Route 1, is visiting his son, John Lee, of Hardin Route 2. "Rose Bud"

Playlet, "Victoria and the Book-tolks". Characters were: Victoria, Pauline Houston; Heidi, Lillian Pruett, Jack and Jill, Khadra Delle Duncan and Fate Roberts, Rebecca Or Sunny Brook Farm, Edna Lee, Robin Hood, Vernon Billington, Alice, Ralpa Ross, Mad Hatter, Leon Caldwell, Huckleberry Finn and Tom Sawyer, Troy Bogard and L. V. Ross, and Pled Piper, L. V. Ross.

Playlet, "Maggie Tulliver Visits the Gypsies". Characters were: The Old Gypsy, Woman, Olene Caldwell; Young gypsy woman, Marie Gay; Leader of the Gypsies, Vernon Billington; Maggie Tulliver, Edna Lee, and Mr. Tulliver, L. V. Ross.

Playlet, "The First Thanksgiving". Characters were: Governor Bradford, L. V. Ross; Captain Standish, Rafe Brooks; Elder Brewster, Vernon Billington; Mistress Brewster, Dortha Williams; Remember, Louise Tatum; Priscilla, Edna Lee; and Mary, Olene Caldwell.

Recitation, "The Bill of Fare", Dortha Mae Burken.

Song, "Autumn Hearts", by four girls.

Recitation, "Thanksgiving Time" by Opal Lee.

Song, "Railroad Flagman's Sweetheart", Dortha Mae Burken.

Recitation, "Thanksgiving Day" by Louise Tatum.

Song, "Lullaby Yodel", Dortha Mae Burken.

Recitation, "A Perpetual Thanksgiving", Edna Lee.

Mrs. Emily Jones of Dexter Route 1 had as her guest this week, her sister, Miss Bertha Lee.

WANTED TO BUY CALVES, COWS, HOGS, LAMBS, Etc.

We Will Pay Market Price For Stuff Delivered ANY DAY

Truck Runs to St. Louis Three Times a Week

SHROAT BROS.

Almo Homemakers

The Almo Homemakers' meeting was opened by the president calling the house to order. Roll call was answered with "What I Am Thankful For". Twelve members were present. The members came attired in colonial costumes. No lesson was given, as Mrs. Moore, leader, was not present.

The social hours was spent pleasantly, being conducted by Mrs. Rayburn. The hour included a reading by Mrs. Mayde Beale; talk on Thanksgiving by Mrs. Phillips.

Apples, pears, and peanuts were served as refreshments in old time split baskets.

The meeting was held with Mrs. L. Rayburn Wednesday afternoon, November 25th.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Keys Futrell on December 18. Don't forget the date.

We Can--

STRETCH YOUR DOLLAR AND TURN MORE OF YOUR GRAIN INTO MILK

34% Cow Chow—A Perfectly Balanced Highly Digestible Protein Supplement.

300 LBS. HOME GRAIN 100 LBS. 34% COW CHOW

This mixture costs less than $1.00 per cwt., and it'll make lots of milk and profit

Come in and let us show you

WE WANT YOUR PRODUCE

J. W. Clopton & Co.

MURRAY PHONE 38

Profitable feeds for livestock and poultry. They lower your cost of production and make you more profits.

PURINA CHOWS

Money--Saving Specials

ON GETTING YOUR CAR READY FOR WINTER

Extended Through December

Account Unseasonable Weather PASSENGER CAR BRAKE RELINING

Genuine Chevrolet Parts Used TWO-WHEEL CHEVROLET BRAKES

Regular December Price Spec'l Price

Service $5.30 $4.00

Emergency 4.75 3.75

Service and Emergency 8.75 7.50

FOUR-WHEEL CHEVROLET BRAKES

Regular December Price Spec'l Price

Service—Front $5.30 $4.00

Service—Rear 5.30 4.00

Emergency 4.25 3.50

All Service 10.60 8.00

Service and Emergency 14.00 11.50

For Winter Comfort We Can Supply You With

CHEVROLET HOT WATER HEATER With Thermostat $14.00 Installed

WEED TIRE CHAINS For Safety $5.00 per set

RUBBER MATS Felt Lined $1.75 Each

COOLING SYSTEM Your cooling system should be properly flushed and all leaks stopped before using any anti-freeze.

MOTOR TUNE-UP Includes checking spark plugs, breaker points, distributor, carburetor and fuel pump, fan belt and fan, checking and setting ignition timing and road test car $1.25

GRIND VALVES and Clean Carbon SPECIAL FOR DECEMBER—4-cylinder Chevrolet $2.50

6-cylinder Chevrolet $3.50

Our Complete Service Includes GENERAL REPAIRS CAR WASHING and POLISHING

DUCOING and REFINISHING

UNITED STATES TIRES

Batteries and Battery Repairs Electric Service

Farmer-Purdum Motor Co.

Brook's Chapel

Rain in abundance. Tobacco stripping is the order of today. Nobody through stripping yet. Few are done gathering corn. Large percentage still in the field. The crop is heavy and people rushed but few have finished harvesting.

Mr. Walter McClain is no better. Rented places here are all taken up for the first time in many years.

Some of the croppers have no places yet and don't know where they will go.

Mr. Willie Sims has finished carpentering for Mr. Oscar Lovett near Olive.

Very few have any wood up for winter thus far.

Mr. and Mrs. Toy Jones were in Murray Friday.

Last week, T. A. Jones, Taz Jones, Mr. Dug Jones, Mr. Charlie Burken and others have large fat hogs ready to kill as soon as the weather is cold enough.

Mrs. Bell Dug Jones presented Mrs. Nannie Stricker and Mrs. Mollie Starks some fine sausage Thanksgiving.

Mr. Charlie Burken surprised Mrs. Mat Chadwick, widow, with the gift of a barrel of fine corn.

Mr. Like Sims of Paducah has come to stay a while with his son, Mr. Willie Sims and family. Some are enjoying bird and rabbit hunting while others are so busy working they can't take time to hunt.

Mrs. Ollie Burken and son, Robert, were guests of her stepson, C. L. Burken and family, Thanksgiving night.

Mr. George Reed, who has been living on Mr. Cary Tarry's place several years, will move near Hardin New Years.

Read: Proverbs 29:2—Old Glory.

WISWELL NEWS

Every one is busy stripping tobacco.

A. C. Long and J. P. Jones are wishing for a tobacco buyer.

Most all people far and near attended Brother Pigue's funeral at Pleasant Grove church Monday afternoon. A large large crowd was in attendance.

Mr. Jim Miller is very low. He is not expected to live.

Mr. Glasgow isn't any better. Mr. Erwin and Mr. Dick Paschall are on the sick list for the last week.

Roy Miller and family are expecting to return to Detroit any time for the winter but are coming back to farm in the spring.

There was preaching at Sinking Springs Sunday. The rainy weather accounted for a small attendance.—Blue Bird.

The Christmas Gift

Two stockings hung from either side of the mantel-piece of an old-fashioned room. They were well filled. They bulged in artfully but generously at every possible place. Over the pictures on the walls were large branches of spruce green. In one corner of the room stood a small Christmas tree, gaily bedecked with tinsel and favors and on the very top was perched a cardboard Santa Claus who still appeared as ruddy and festive as he had when first he had stood there seventeen years before.

The stockings which hung so heavily looked as though they would drop their load any minute but they were securely fastened and held down at the top by heavy hooks.

"Mum'sie," cried a girl's voice. The front door had just opened.

"Hello," came back the answer from the living room. She gazed with half-wistful eyes at the stockings, then she answered, although she knew the answer.

"Yes! Who is it?"

"Oh, Mum'sie," the girl exclaimed as she came in the door, "how lovely the house looks! And you've trimmed the stairway since I've been gone. Did you put some green in the pulpit?"

Louise Waterbury ran out of the living room and up the stairs, around the bend of which was an opening which strongly resembled a pulpit architecturally. There again and again as a child Louise who had sat on the stairs, the sole listener to her oft-repeated text and sermon on the theme she loved the best. It gave her a chance for so many repetitions, and again and again in her own way she would give her text.

"Samuel, Samuel," and he answered "Here am I!" Again and again the Lord would call Samuel in Louise's recollection, she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see India's conical straws, the great icy mountains of Greenland and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire, dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So they had sat every Christmas eve now for seventeen years. Mum'sie had waited until Louise was a year old to decorate the house.

"Haven't we better be having supper now? We're a long evening ahead."

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mum'sie one little happy tear did escape her, and Mum'sie felt it on her cheek.

"What's the matter, dearie?"

"Nothing at all," Louise exclaimed. "Only I've been thinking that the most wonderful gift of all—the most beautiful Christmas gift, or gift of life or anything and everything, is the way you have always made us have so much happiness and so much joy out of keeping 'days' and entering into the spirit of them, and in making the day-by-day living something so beautiful and so happy. Oh, Mum'sie, you put the spirit of Christmas into every moment of the year."

And Mum'sie hugged Louise and said:

"My dear, you're the secret of it all. It is because a young, young creature such as you, has never, never made me feel old!"

Read the Classified Ads.

S. Pleasant Grove

A beautiful Thanksgiving service was held here Thursday afternoon. The weather was bad. Some sixty assembled and took part in telling of blessings they were thankful for. Among blessings mentioned was the life lived by Brother Pigue who had been their pastor here for five years; for Bro. W. L. Ensor, who has done so much for young people, in his work here; for a bountiful harvest; for being reared in a Christian home; and where there was a family altar; for all their children being Christians; for a church to attend; and for Brother Baker, our new pastor, and Mrs. Baker. Brother and Mrs. Baker were present and took part. If they really try few churches need fail in having an interesting Thanksgiving service. The services were conducted by Leslie Ellis, Sunday school superintendent, assisted by Miss Justine Wrather, Lucian Gupton, choir leaders, and Mrs. Bert Taylor at the piano.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller and daughter, the latter who teaches in Tennessee, arrived early Thursday for a few days visit with relatives, among whom is Mr. Jim Morgan Miller, father and grandfather, who has been bedfast for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Erwin and family enjoyed Thanksgiving with Paducah relatives.

Mrs. Kosko Jones entertained with a dinner, last Thursday, for the fifth and sixth grades of her school.

Paul Boyd of Beech Grove was a week-end visitor with his brother, Mr. Dennis Boyd, and family.

A large crowd attended the funeral of Bro. R. H. Pigue here Monday afternoon. Among some from a distance were many relatives whose names will appear in the obituary.

Mrs. Nat Ryan, Rev. J. O. Ensor, Messrs. Vernon Stubblefield and Ben Grozan, Murray; Rev. Mathis, an old friend, who made a nice talk, Mr. and Mrs. Edward James, Lynn Grove and others, from that vicinity.

Rev. and Mrs. O. W. Wrather, Paris; Brother Wrather, who is presiding elder of Paris district, was the leader of the services. During the 74 years of Brother Pigue's life he leaves friends who are numbered by tens of thousands.

"I am going to heaven," was a favorite saying, which was mentioned by Brother Wrather in the funeral. Recently in Pleasant Grove Sunday School, of which he was one of the teachers, he was asked about fermented wine for sacramental purposes and he was strong against the use of fermented wine for the sacrament. Brother Pigue's expression is backed by a Bible quotation which says, "Look thou not upon the wine when it is red, when it moveth itself awright; for at the last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder."

His body is resting in Pleasant Grove cemetery, but words

Harris Grove

In last week's issue "Eagle" said, "He cried for rain and then he cried for it to stop." Something wrong! Still raining over here!

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Orr and children spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Page.

The children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Eaker gathered at the home of their parents and spent Thanksgiving day.

The Rev. R. H. Pigue, a widely known and much-loved Methodist minister, died at his home, Sunday.

Uncle Dick Warren is very low at this writing.

Sunday was a very rainy day but the friends and relatives of Mr. John Tidwell celebrated his sixtieth birthday.

Earnest Keso was in St. Louis, Mo., the first of the week on a business trip.

T. R. Murdock was in Gleason, Tenn., Sunday night, making a short stay with his daughter, who is teaching in that place.

Mr. Johnnie Robertson, a very noted tobacco buyer, was in this neighborhood, Monday, looking about some of the good crops.

Robert Keso has traded his Model T Ford for a high powered Model A sedan. Dressed up, yes sir!

There are several in this neck of the woods that have finished stripping tobacco and are now ready to sell or give away.

Suppose you are out of ever-dine.

Being broke ain't any crime. Tell the world you're feeling keep a goin'.

"Busy Bee"

1st Christian Church

Too many folks let the rain scare them off last Sunday and our attendance in Sunday school was the smallest we have had this year. Next Sunday we want to have two hundred present.

The pastor begins his eighth year in this pastorate next Sunday. In recognition of that fact every resident member of the church is urged to be present at the morning service. We want to make it a great service.

The choir will sing an anthem "My Jesus As Thou Wilt" by Wolcott. At 5 o'clock next Sunday evening the choir will give a sacred concert. The pastor will preach a short sermon. Everybody cordially invited.

Junior and Senior Christian Endeavor at 6:15 P. M. Sunday. Official Board meeting Friday night at 7 o'clock.

"ALL ALWAYS WELCOME" E. B. Motley, Pastor

A Guernsey cow owned by Bonnie Lynn Miller, a Jefferson county 4-H club boy, produced 4,503 pounds of milk and 226 pounds of fat in six months.

Card Of Thanks

Because your hearts have bled with ours during our great bereavement, we the members of the immediate family of Rev. Richard Hugh Pigue, wish to take this method of thanking the wonderful people of the Harris Grove neighborhood, Murray and other Western Kentucky communities for the great help and sympathy which they have extended us. Wherever we may go, we shall carry with us memories of a people to whom there is none more tender or who know better how to cheer breaking hearts.

MR. R. H. FIGUE, MARVIN, WILL, WHITTEN, MUNGE, BOB, RICHARD, JR., SYD AND PAUL FIGUE, and MRS. W. S. MILLER

Pleasant Grove and Penny News

We have had another fine week's work.

This part of Calloway is getting its share of the rain. This has been a real rainy week as it has precipitated nearly every day.

All the farmers are busy stripping tobacco.

We practiced on our Christmas plays all day Thursday.

Some of the pupils are missing school as they are helping strip tobacco. We are very sorry and wish them a speedy return.

Miss Marie Patton was host to four of her pupils last Wednesday night. They were Misses Ruby Jones, Marrelle Workman, Dorothy Neil Jones, and Annie Parker. A fine time was reported by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cochran were Sunday night callers of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Brewer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hale, who reside east of Murray, visited Mrs. Hale's sister, Mrs. Joe Cochran and Mr. Cochran, Sunday.

Thanksgiving services were held at Union Grove church Thursday afternoon.

Miss Nitaree Brewer was host to her teacher, Miss Marie Patton, and her pupils, Miss Myrtle Mae Ray, Tuesday night.

Miss Marie Patton spent Monday night with Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Peeler.

Mrs. Mary Farless, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. H. L. Parker, is confined to her bed most of the time now.

I am very sorry that Mr. Terry Ray's name was left out of the list of visitors at Pleasant Grove school last week.

Misses Marie Patton and Nitaree Brewer were Wednesday night guests of Miss Myrtle Mae Ray.

Mr. Ray has moved his stock

Card Of Thanks

of goods to his store which he has just finished repairing.

Mr. T. J. Nix and Mrs. Betty Nix were Sunday visitors of Mr. Bun Ray and family. In the afternoon they motored to Mr. John Holland's, who resides east of town near Shiloh.

Miss Reva Mae Cain, who lives in Kirksey vicinity, is spending the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cunningham.

The Gooden Epworth League had a party at the home of Mr. Clayton Ray. An appreciative crowd attended.

Miss Nitaree Brewer spent Saturday night with Miss Reva Mae Cain who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Paul Cunningham.

Mr. Clay Brewer visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Brewer, of Graves county, last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Brewer and daughter, Nitaree, were Saturday night callers of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cunningham.

On Sunday, November 22, a delightful surprise birthday dinner was given to Mr. W. H. Cook in honor of his 65th birthday. Dinner was served out in the yard where the sunbeams danced merrily over the table loaded down with many good things to eat which was enjoyed by all. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Cook, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Cook and little son, Buddy Joe, Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford Belcher, Miss Allie Cook, Mr. Gus Wright, Miss Eva Sue Cook, all of Paducah; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Venable and son, Arielle, Mr. and Mrs. Zelma Russell and son, Z. B., Mr. and Mrs. Will Belcher and family, Miss Della Cook, Mr. Fred Cook, and Mr. W. H. Cook.

—Star

DR. L. D. HALE

Physician

East Main Street

East of Bank of Murray

Office Hours 9 to 3

Office Phone 95

Home Phone 320

RE-ROOF RE-SHINGLE

for Winter Rains and Snows!

Don't let valuable property go to rot by neglecting your roof. That's the poorest economy there is.

Have your roof fixed now—without another day's delay.

We carry a full line of composition roofing, also wooden shingles, and every other material for putting your roof in first class condition.

Bring your building problems to Calloway County Lumber Co., the firm that brought down building costs.

GLASS—Window, Door and Automobile. Winter is at hand. Stop up those heat leaks. We have every kind of glass for every purpose

C. L. SHARBOROUGH, President

CARLOS ELKINS, Assistant

Calloway County Lumber Co

Incorporated

TELEPHONE 72 THIRD and WALNUT

Keep Your Eye

on CHEVROLET

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 5

Farmer Purdom Motor Co.

Incorporated

Murray, Kentucky

FOR DOUBLE

ANTI-KNOCK

PROTECTION

ETHYL

SINCLAIR H-C GASOLINE

FOR ADDED

MOTERING

PLEASURE

Ask for Sinclair H-C Gasoline

with Ethyl

The addition of Ethyl compound to the famous H-C Gasoline doubles your assurance of perfect anti-knock performance. Let us fill up your tank with this new Highway Contentment—Sinclair

H-C Gasoline with Ethyl.

Sold and recommended by

JACKSON PURCHASE OIL

COMPANY

East Main Street Murray, Ky.

Notice to Tobacco Growers of Calloway and Adjoining Counties

I wish to announce that I will operate a loose leaf floor in Murray this season. My floor is located up in town south of the court square (the old Hood-Moore Lumber Co. building) which I have remodeled and equipped into a very modern and up to date loose floor, with plenty of room and light. I have an inside driveway sufficient for unloading fifteen wagons at one time, also have free stalls inside of building for your stock and a convenient wagon yard for your wagons, also free sleeping quarters.

I will conduct daily sales on this floor with prompt settlement after each sale.

This floor will be open day and night for receiving your tobacco with experienced and competent men in charge. May I add that I have had long experience in the tobacco rehanging and loose floor business, was connected with the very first loose floor ever operated in Murray, and all employees on this floor will be men of experience—such as bookkeepers, weighmen, etc. Mr. J. K. Farmer, who was manager of the Farmer's Loose Floor for several years, will be on this floor this season. Mr. Roberts has had several years of practical experience in the marketing and growing of tobacco, and will be ready at all times to assist and advise you in the marketing of your tobacco to the very best advantage. Mr. Will Washer and Bunnie Farris will also be on this floor this season.

I am fully aware that some growers prefer selling their tobacco at the barns, while others prefer the method of loose floor selling, therefore I am only soliciting your business in the event you prefer the loose floor method of selling, or that part of your crop that you may not be able to sell at your barns.

It will be my desire at all times to operate this floor to the best of my ability for the best interest of the grower, and assure you that all tobacco placed on my floor for sale will have my very best attention at all times, and will do all in my power towards making your tobacco bring the very highest market price.

I will be able to offer you Free Government Grading Service this season. This service will be available to all growers at no cost, however it is optional with the grower and those who do not desire it have the privilege of delivering their crops without grading.

In preparing your tobacco for the loose floor market I wish to urge upon you the real importance of proper ordering and grading of your tobacco, as this is very necessary in order that you obtain the highest market price. You should give special attention to your tobacco at the time of stripping, being careful to separate the different colors and lengths, and always avoid tying your tobacco with off-colored leaves.

Since you have a good stripping season I wish to urge upon you not to rush your tobacco on the early sales in large quantities, but just try the market with a small part of your crop, for it is my opinion that the general buying trade will prefer buying on the early sales rather slowly, therefore I am confident you can sell your tobacco to a much better advantage in this manner rather than rushing it all on the market at one time which would only result in blocked sales and depressed prices.

Growers Loose Leaf Floor

J. K. FARMER, Owner and Manager.

Brook's Chapel

Rain in abundance. Tobacco stripping is the order of today. Nobody through stripping yet. Few are done gathering corn. Large percentage still in the field. The crop is heavy and people rushed but few have finished harvesting.

Mr. Walter McClain is no better.

Rented places here are all taken up for the first time in many years.

Some of the croppers have no places yet and don't know where they will go.

Mr. Willie Sims has finished carpentering for Mr. Oscar Lovett near Olive.

Very few have any wood up for winter this far.

Mr. and Mrs. Toy Jones were in Murray Friday.

Last week, T. A. Jones, Taz Jones, Mr. Dug Jones, Mr. Charlie Burken and others have large, fat hogs ready to kill as soon as the weather is cold enough.

Mrs. Bell Dug Jones presented Mrs. Nannie Stringer and Mrs. Mollie Starks some fine sausage Thanksgiving.

Mr. Charlie Burken surprised Mrs. Mat Chadwick, widow, with the gift of a barrel of fine corn.

Mr. Like Sims of Paducah has come to stay a while with his son, Mr. Willie Sims and family. Some are enjoying bird and rabbit hunting while others are so busy working they can't take time to hunt.

Mrs. Ollie Burken and son, Robert, were guests of her stepson, C. L. Burken and family, Thanksgiving night.

Mr. George Reed, who has been living on Mr. Cary Tarry's place several years, will move near Hardin New Years.

Read Proverbs 29:2—Old Glory.

WISWELL NEWS

Every one is busy stripping tobacco.

A. C. Long and J. P. Jones are wishing for a tobacco buyer.

Most all people far and near attended Brother Pigue's funeral at Pleasant Grove church Monday afternoon. A large large crowd was in attendance.

Mr. Jim Miller is very low. He is not expected to live.

Mr. Glasgow isn't any better.

Mr. Erwin and Mr. Dick Paschall are on the sick list for the last week.

Roy Miller and family are expected to return to Detroit any time for the winter but are coming back to farm in the spring.

There was preaching at Sinking Springs Sunday. The fairly weather accounted for a small attendance.—Blue Bird.

Two stockings hung from either side of the mantel-piece of an old-fashioned room. They were well filled. They bulged in artistically but generously at every possible place.

Over the pictures on the walls were large branches of spruce green. In one corner of the room stood a small Christmas tree, gaily bedecked with tinsel and favors and on the very top was perched a cardboard Santa Claus who still appeared as ruddy and festive as he had when first he had stood there seventeen years before.

The stockings which hung so heavily looked as though they would drop their load any minute but they were securely fastened and held on at the top by heavy hooks.

"Mum!" cried a girl's voice. The front door had just opened.

"Hello," came back the answer from the woman sitting before the fire in the living room. She gazed with half wistful eyes at the stockings, then she called, although she knew the answer.

"Yes! Who is it?"

"Oh, Mum!" the girl exclaimed as she came in the door, "how lovely the house looks! And you've trimmed the stairway—since I've been gone. Did you put some green in the pulpit?"

Louise Waterbury ran out of the living room and up the stairs, around the bend of which was an opening which strongly resembled a pulpit architecturally. There again and again as a child Louise had preached "sermons" to Mumie who had sat on the stairs, the sole listener to her oft-repeated text and sermon on the theme she loved the best. It gave her a chance for so many repetitions, and again and again, in her own way she would give her text.

"Samuel, Samuel," and he answered "Here am I." Again and again the Lord would call Samuel in Louise's recitation. These gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

S. Pleasant Grove

A beautiful Thanksgiving service was held here Thursday afternoon. The weather was mild. Some sixty assembled and took part in telling of blessings they were thankful for. Among blessings mentioned was the life lived by Brother Pigue who had been their pastor here for five years; for Bro. W. L. Enser, who has done so much for young people, in his work here; for a bountiful harvest; for being reared in a Christian home; and where there was a family altar; for all their children being Christians; for a church to attend; and for Brother Baker, our new pastor, and Mrs. Baker, Brother and Mrs. Baker were present and took part. If they really try few churches need fail in having an interesting Thanksgiving service. The services were conducted by Leslie Ellis, Sunday school superintendent, assisted by Miss Justine Wrather, Lucian Gupton, choir leaders, and Mrs. Bert Taylor at the piano.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller and daughter, the latter who teaches in Tennessee, arrived early Thursday for a few days visit with relatives, among whom is Mr. Jim Morgan Miller, father and grandfather, who has been bedfast for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Erwin and family enjoyed Thanksgiving with Paducah relatives.

Mrs. Koska Jones entertained with a dinner, last Thursday, for the fifth and sixth grades of her school.

Paul Boyd of Beech Grove was a week-end visitor with his brother, Mr. Dennis Boyd, and family.

A large crowd attended the funeral of Bro. R. H. Pigue here Monday afternoon. Among some from a distance were many relatives whose names will appear in the columns. Mr. and Mrs. Nat Ryan, Rev. J. O. Enser, Messrs. Vernon Stubblefield, and Ben Grogan, Murray; Rev. Mathis, an old friend, who made a nice talk, Mr. and Mrs. Edward James, Lynn Grove and others from that vicinity. The Rev. and Mrs. Ope Wrather, Paris, Brother Wrather, who is presiding elder of Paris district, was the leader of the services. During the 74 years of Brother Pigue's life he leaves friends which are numbered by tens of thousands. "I am going to heaven," was a favorite saying, which was mentioned by Brother Wrather in the funeral. Recently in Pleasant Grove Sunday School, of which he was one of the teachers, he was asked about fermented wine for sacramental purposes and he was strong against the use of fermented wine for the sacrament. Brother Pigue's expression is backed by a Bible quotation which says, "look thou not upon the wine when it is red, when it moveth itself awright—for at the last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder."

His body is resting in Pleasant Grove cemetery, but words

Harris Grove

In last week's issue "Eagle" said, "He cried for rain and then he cried for it to stop." Something went wrong! Still leaving over here! Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Orr and children spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Page.

The children and grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Eaker gathered at the home of their parents and spent Thanksgiving day.

The Rev. R. H. Pigue, a widely known and much loved Methodist minister, died at his home, Sunday.

Uncle Dick Warren is very low at this writing.

Sunday was a very rainy day but the friends and relatives of Mr. John Tidwell celebrated his sixtieth birthday.

Earnest Keso was in St. Louis, Mo., the first of the week on a business trip.

T. R. Murdock was in Glasgow, Tenn., Sunday night, making a short stay with his daughter, who is teaching in that place.

Mr. Johnnie Robertson, a very noted tobacco buyer was in this neighborhood Monday, looking about some of the good crops.

Robert Keso has traded his Model T Ford for a high powered Model A sedan. Dressed up! Yes sir!

There are several in this neck of the woods that have finished stripping tobacco and are now ready to sell or give away.

Spose you are out of ever-dine.

Being broke ain't any crime.

Tell the world you're feeling keep a goin'.

"Busy Bee"

1st Christian Church

Too many folks let the rain scare them off last Sunday and our attendance in Sunday school was the smallest we have had this year. Next Sunday we want to have two hundred present.

The pastor begins his eighth year in this pastorate next Sunday. In recognition of that fact every resident member of the church is urged to be present at the morning service. We want to make it a great service. The choir will sing an anthem, "My Jesus As Thou Wilt" by Wolcott.

At 5 o'clock next Sunday evening the choir will give a sacred concert. The pastor will preach a short sermon. Everybody cordially invited.

Junior and Senior Christian Endeavor at 6:15 P. M. Sunday. Official Board meeting Friday night at 7 o'clock.

"ALL ALWAYS WELCOME"

E. B. Motley, Pastor

A Guernsey cow owned by Bonnie Lynn Miller, a Jefferson county 4-H club boy, produced 4,503 pounds of milk and 226 pounds of fat in six months.

Card Of Thanks

Because your hearts have bled with ours during our great bereavement, we the members of the immediate family of Rev. Richard Hugh Pigue, wish to take this method of thanking the wonderful people of the Harris Grove neighborhood, Murray and other Western Kentucky communities for the great help and sympathy which they have extended us. Wherever we may go, we shall carry with us memories of a people to whom there is none more tender or who know better how to cheer breaking hearts.

MRS. R. H. FIGUE, MARVIN, WILL, WHITTEN, MUNCE, BOB, RICHARD, JR., SYD AND PAUL FIGUE, and MRS. W. S. MILLER

Pleasant Grove and Penny News

We have had another fine week's work.

This part of Calloway is getting in share of the rain. This has been a real rainy week as it has precipitated nearly every day.

All the farmers are busy stripping tobacco.

We practiced on our Christmas plays all day Thursday.

Some of the pupils are missing school as they are helping strip tobacco. We are very sorry and wish them a speedy return.

Miss Marie Patton was host to four of her pupils last Wednesday night. They were Misses Ruby Jones, Marrelle Workman, Dorothy Neil Jones, and Annie Parker. A fine time was reported by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cochran were Sunday night callers of Mr. and Mrs. Clay Brewer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hale, who reside east of Murray, visited Mrs. H. L. Barker, is confined to her bed most of the time now. I am very sorry that Mr. Terry Ray's name was left out of the list of visitors at Pleasant Grove school last week.

Misses Marie Patton and Nitaree Brewer were Wednesday night guests of Miss Myrtle Mae Ray.

Mr. Ray has moved his stock of goods to his store which he has just finished repairs.

Mr. T. J. Nix and Mrs. Betty Nix were Sunday visitors of Mr. Bun Ray and family. In the afternoon they motored to Mr. John Holland's, who resides east of town near Shiloh.

Miss Reva Mae Cain, who lives in Kirksey vicinity, is spending the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cunningham.

The Gosdon Epworth League had a party at the home of Mr. Clayton Ray. An appreciative crowd attended.

Miss Nitaree Brewer spent Saturday night with Miss Reva Mae Cain who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Paul Cunningham.

Mr. Clay Brewer visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Brewer, of Graves county, last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clay Brewer and daughter, Nitaree, were Saturday night callers of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cunningham.

On Sunday, November 22, a delightful surprise birthday dinner was given to Mr. W. H. Cook in honor of his 66th birthday. Dinner was served out in the yard where the sunbeams danced morally over the table loaded down with many good things to eat which was enjoyed by all. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. O'Fay Cook, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Cook and little son, Buddy Joe, Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford Belcher, Miss Alta Cook, Mr. Gus Wright, Miss Eva Sue Cook, all of Paducah; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Venable and son, Arielle, Mr. and Mrs. Zelma Russell and son, Z. B., Mr. and Mrs. Will Belcher and family, Miss Della Cook, Mr. Fred Cook, and Mr. W. H. Cook.

—Star

DR. L. D. HALE

Physician
East Main Street
East of Bank of Murray
Office Hours 9 to 3
Office Phone 95
Home Phone 320

for Winter Rains and Snows!

Don't let valuable property go to rot by neglecting your roof. That's the poorest economy there is.

Have your roof fixed now—without another day's delay.

We carry a full line of composition roofing, also wooden shingles, and every other material for putting your roof in first class condition.

Bring your building problems to Calloway County Lumber Co., the firm that brought down building costs.

GLASS—Window, Door and Automobile. Winter is at hand. Stop up those heat leaks. We have every kind of glass for every purpose.

C. L. SHARBOROUGH, President
CARLOS ELKINS, Assistant

Calloway County Lumber Co

Incorporated
TELEPHONE 72 THIRD and WALNUT

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 5
Farmer Purdom Motor Co.
Incorporated
Murray, Kentucky

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making a wonderful series of fantastic, fanciful pictures on the walls, all breathed the spirit of the season.

So these two celebrated their Christmas together, one of them old, the other young. And when Louise said good-night to Mumie she had gathered some of her friends together at any time she had formed a choir procession and they had added to the service by singing "From Greenland's Icy Mountains."

It was such a graphic hymn. She could see Louise's coral strands, the great icy mountains of Greenland, and the hot soil of Africa—all vividly in her mind.

Yes, the pulpit had been decorated with great branches of green spruce and pine and hemlock. There was nothing in the house which didn't show that it was Christmas time and the room where they sat, with its four windows, its wreaths at each one, its white woodwork, its huge open fire dancing gayly and throwing shadows and lights and making