WHAT “TRADING AT HOME” MEANS TO YOU AND YOURS

Doesn’t it stand to reason that when you trade at home, you see what you buy, you examine its quality and can talk it over with the merchant who sells it to you.

You see at a glance what you are getting for your money, and you know that it was purchased satisfactory in every respect, otherwise you have no difficulty returning it to the man from whom it was purchased and getting a satisfactory adjustment or refund.

In this manner you and the merchant are building up a friendship and understanding which in itself makes for a better community existence.

Doesn’t your local merchant pay the taxes for your city and county, and isn’t he always a leader in every good movement by cooperating with every section of this county in every worthy cause? Then how can he continue to help if you fail to patronize his place of business.

Don’t overlook one important factor about your local merchant. He is your friend and neighbor! He not only invites your patronage and offers you 100 per cent satisfaction, but is ready to stand behind everything he guarantees. Can the same be said of purchases made away from home? The answer is obviously, NO!

Your money spent away from home help only those who contribute nothing to the upbuilding of your community. Trade with your local merchant and you help all... your own friends... neighbors and loved ones.

Screen's Topmost Entertainment To Be At Fulton Theatres

“Juarez” Coming To Fulton Theatre

Pursuant with four weeks of presenting entertainment of the highest order, the Fulton Theatre announces that “Juarez,” a dramatic historical picture which has been described as “a romantic western epic,” will open on the first of July.

“Juarez,” with Bette Davis, John Garfield, Claude Rains, and others, portrays the ill-fated “golden” period of the Mexican Revolution under the direction of John M. Dieterle and the producing of Bryan Foy.

This picture is in the second annual event, and the crowd of 15,000 which attended the first night is expected to be surpassed this week.

Fulton Theatres Attract Thousands of Patrons Each Month

The main Fulton attraction, under the management of Bryan Foy, has been attractively exhibited, in the hope that large crowds will come to support Paul Muni and Monte Blue are listed among the stars of this picture.

The University of the South announced today that the much-anticipated Tucker Memorial dormitory would be dedicated later this year.

The Tucker Memorial dormitory is a $10 million project that will provide housing for over 500 students. The dormitory is named after the late Robert Tucker, a prominent alumnus and philanthropist who made a substantial donation to the university.

The dedication ceremony will take place on October 11, 2021, and will be attended by university officials, students, and members of the local community.

The Tucker Memorial dormitory is expected to open its doors in the fall of 2022, providing much-needed housing for the university's growing student body.

The University of the South is a private liberal arts college located in Sewanee, Tennessee. It is known for its strong academic programs, close-knit community, and beautiful campus.

For more information about the Tucker Memorial dormitory, visit the University of the South's website or contact the admissions office.
