Cars From Sixteen States At Derby

Fulton, famed far and wide as the hub of highways and railroads, lived up to its name on July 4th, when the second annual Old Car Derby was held at the local fair grounds. Cars were seen here from sixteen different states, with counties in Kentucky and Tennessee, within 100 miles of Fulton, here in large numbers.

Among those states represented were: Arkansas, Missouri, Mississippi, Alabama, Michigan, Georgia, Louisiana, Texas, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, West Virginia, Kansas, Oklahoma, Tennessee and Kentucky.

During the day, in the downtown district, cars were seen from 31 different states, and one from Hawaii.

Brown Speaks Here In W. Ky. Round

John Young Brown, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Kentucky, this week launched his campaign in West Kentucky, speaking at many points. He spoke here at a good crowd late Tuesday afternoon on the Old Meadow lot here. James Warren, local chairman for Brown, was in charge of the rally, and the speaker was introduced by Steve Wiley, city attorney.

Brown delivered his address from the same spot where he spoke in interest of Senator Barkley one year ago. He promised to free Kentucky's toll bridges, and what he described as a partial explanation of where he expects to get the money to pay the state's maximum old age pensions of $30 per month. The present administration he said, "could have freed the spans with money they have pocketed as a result of questionable bridge deals." One bridge deal he mentioned was that of the Madison bridge upstate from which, he charged, Lyter Donaldson, campaign chairman for Keen Johnson, his opponent, received a commission of $50,000.

He criticized what he called the administration's "political assessment," an alleged two per cent levy on state jobholders to finance Chandler's recent senatorial race and his opponent's present campaign. Brown said the money situation in brief is this: Start Smith and Donaldson to making an honest living and you will bring in a lot of money. He pledged his support to Barkley, to President Roosevelt and the New Deal, and in reply to Johnson's attacks on his C.I.O. affiliation, Brown replied that "John L. Lewis never came into Kentucky but once, and that was to speak in behalf of 'Happy' and Keen."

PARKER MCCLURE INJURED IN RACER

Parker McClure, who lives on Peachall St. in South Fulton, and is an employee of Brower Milling Company, was probably critically injured at the Fair Grounds July 4th, as he rode with H. P. Allen, driver of an old racing car, which turned over while going around the dirt track prior to the races. It was at first thought his injuries would be fatal, with possible brain concussion and skull fracture, but his condition is believed to be improved.

The accident occurred on the south curve of the track as Allen and McClure were warming up a 1920 Buick racer for the Old Car Derby race. The car was demolished and could not enter the race.

According to present plans the new over-pass bridge on the State Line, at the south end of the I. C. Railroad yards, will open Monday, July 10.

PARKING SITUATION PROBLEM IN FULTON

The parking situation has always been a real problem in and during recent months, and has shown no improvement. There has been a noticeable lack of observance of parking regulations by motorists, and especially has this been true along arterial highways routes through the business district of the city.

Parking zones have just been remarked by the police department in an effort to improve the condition. Vehicles are warned to park in these zones correctly, and violation is subject to fine. Special attention is called to drivers of trucks and busses, who stop on main thoroughfares and block traffic.

There has been a safety drive underway here during the past few months, through the schools and various civic organizations, and motorists are urged to observe traffic rules and regulations for their own safety and in observance of the law. Where stop signs are located at street intersections, vehicles should come to a full stop and wait their opportunity to go ahead.

Unless this appeal to observe the law is complied with stronger methods will be necessary, it has been pointed out.

Work Begun on Court House At Hickman

Work has been started on the Court House steps in Hickman. A crew of men started the cutting and fabrication of the steel re-enforcements for the steps last week. An appropriation of an additional $1,500 has been allotted to this WPA project to supplement the original $1,300 allocated to it.

For several months this traffic lane has been shut, following the removal of old steps by WPA workers. The new construction should be an improvement that will last many years.

Safe and Sane July 4th In Fulton

"It was the safest Fourth of July in years." That's what K. P. Dalton, chief of police, said after the big day in Fulton. No serious traffic accidents were reported here on Independence Day, and only one person was arrested for drunkenness. The day had been so peaceful and quiet, that he was released under 30 days suspended sentence.

Yet on this year's safe-sane Fourth came the Second Annual Old Car Derby, and it was a great day for driving, picnicking and other outdoor activity.

Handling of the traffic situation in Fulton on the Fourth was carried out nicely by the local police, and everything went off smoothly.

Crowd Estimated at 18,000 to 20,000; Robert Wadlow, World's Tallest Man, Was Present

A crowd started gathering early in Fulton on July 4th, when from 18,000 to 20,000 people attended the Second Annual Old Car Derby, sponsored at the Fulton fair grounds under the auspices of the Young Men's Business Club. Robert Wadlow, the world's tallest man, appeared downtown and at the Fair Grounds, and thousands flocked to see him. A parade was staged through the business district and to the park, where Union City and Fulton engaged in a ball game in the morning.

At race time ten old jalopies were at the starting pole to race 50-miles or 100 laps around the half-mile dirt track. "Sleepy" Thompson of Union City, Tenn., driving a 1926 model packard came in the winner, covering the distance in the record time of 70 minutes and three seconds.

Coy Hicks of Wingo was second, Buck Bushart third; and Johnnie Gwens, fourth.

All cars finishing the race this year broke the time record of last year. The fastest time last year was 77 minutes.

Several cars were compelled to withdraw from the race after many laps had begun to show up the weaknesses of the old jalopies. Two cars started the race which are not even manufactured today; one a 1912 model Woods-Mobollette driven by A. L. Hunt of Paducah, made a good run until it withdrew from the race when it was about half run; another a 1923 model Jewett which was also forced to leave the race due to motor trouble.

No accidents occurred during the race, but excitement ran high when in the trial runs, H. P. Allen of Fulton, driving a 1920 model, overturned on the south curve, wrecking his car and sending his mechanic, Parker McClure, to the hospital with severe head injuries.

HENRY VS. FIELDS ENDED IN COURT

One among the long list of cases decided by the Court of Appeals before it adjourned the other day for the summer was that of J. D. Henry vs. J. Curry Fields tried in the Fulton Circuit Court at Hickman, Kentucky in September 1937. Fields sued Henry for assault and battery, claiming that Henry knocked him down with a stick and jumped on him and kicked him, breaking two ribs on the left side. Fields sued Henry for $2500 damages and recovered for $1080, interest, cost and penalty. Henry is in the insurance business in Hickman and Fields is engaged in the cafe business. Much interest was manifested in the trial of the case and for that reason most of the jurors sitting on the case came from this end of the county. The case was vigorously argued by Herschel T. Smith who represented Curry Fields and Hester & Stahr of Mayfield and Hickman, who represented the defendant, Henry. No case has been tried in the Hickman end of the county in many years which aroused the interest this one did. The Court of Appeals affirmed the verdict and judgment of the lower court and in all probability there will be no further litigation over the matter. The Court of Appeals is not likely to grant a rehearing in a case of this character.

THE FORUM

By J. PAUL BUSHART, Editor

A column conducted for news, views and comments, in which readers of The News are invited to participate. Mail contributions care of THE FORUM, this newspaper.

There are a few little matters that should be mentioned from time to time lest we forget them. Such as cleaning up, beautifying and making our city more attractive; tearing down old, dilapidated buildings in our midst; providing better housing for our own people and those who now work here but live outside; a unified recreation program with more playgrounds and adequate supervision.

These things are important to Fulton. They are fundamental things that must be done. Most of them cannot be done in a few weeks or a few months, but by keeping everlastingly at it, we can eventually make Fulton one of the finest cities of its size in the nation, and we will attract new business and new industries. To accomplish them there must be real community spirit and real cooperation.

Most of our citizens, we believe, are willing to cooperate, anxious to do their part, if they knew what to do. They want to be given a definite job to do. That is why there must be coordinate leadership through the various civic and service organizations. In some respects, a good start has been made. But there should be more activity, more active leadership.

There has been a lot of comment around town about Fulton being the hub of highways in this territory. This is really a fact. Highways converge here from all directions, and traffic traveling north, south, east or west come through Fulton. We have many advantages to offer, and as a result travelers drop thousands of dollars in our city each year. We should strive to bring more visitors to our city by continued efforts to sell Fulton to the outside world.

More than thirty-two thousand persons lost their lives in motor vehicle accidents during 1938. In addition there were more than a million persons who suffered non-fatal injuries. Altogether the dollar damage from traffic accidents approximated one and a half billion dollars.

In calling attention to these figures the National Safety Council points out that traffic accidents declined during 1938. If they had continued at the rate of former years another seven thousand persons would have been killed during the year.

This decline in traffic accidents in 1938 is contrary to previous experience. For over thirty years with one exception, there has been an annual increase in traffic deaths, which offset the decline in deaths from occupational, home and other public accidents in the past.

The future looks brighter! The eighteen per cent reduction in traffic fatalities make one realize that attempts to prevent traffic deaths are not in vain. Let the good record continue.

JOHN YOUNG BROWN CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR

Prominent in Kentucky politics for the past half dozen years, there has been a young man who has attracted state-wide as well as national attention for his evident sincerity and determination of purpose in combating those who seek to take the government of the state from the hands of the people and place it in hands of a few possessing only selfish interest in furthering their personal ambitions.

Because of his evident honesty and sincerity this young man has won the respect and endorsement of the nation's most important citizens of today, including President Roosevelt and Senator Barkley, the two men who have done more for Kentucky than any other two or three hundred men in the history of the nation and state.

Throughout the years of his political life John Young Brown has clung to the same ideals until he has won over to his side many of those who had previously fought him, because they see in Mr. Brown a man who can give to the people of Kentucky a clean, honest government with every phase of life in the state given due consideration.

John Young Brown has always been the champion of the masses; his record proves it. He battled the sales tax to the last ditch and cast a deciding vote against the measure. He has fought and stood for the rights of the laboring man of the state. Last year he aided in one of the greatest fights of recent years in Kentucky when he supported for re-election the farmer's greatest friend—and all true Kentuckians' friend—Senator Alben W. Barkley.

Mr. Brown early in life worked on a farm as well as in the coal mines of western Kentucky and for that reason is fully aware of the problems facing the farmers and laboring men in their daily duties.

Today in his race for the gubernatorial nomination of the Democratic party in Kentucky, Mr. Brown has the endorsement of that great mass of voters who supported Senator Barkley last year as well as many thousands of other voters who have for years held an interest in the work of this young Democrat who has done so much for them.

Because of his past record, Kentuckians see in John Young Brown a man who will devote four years of his governorship to the betterment of his state and improvement of conditions in his state. He will not use the office of chief executive of the commonwealth as a stepping stone to some other political venture or to line his own pockets with the taxpayers' money while spending his winters in Florida, his summers in the Canadian woods, the spring California, the all in fighting the national leaders of the Democratic party and the intervening weeks at the millionaire's spa, White Sulphur Springs.

A 1939 poll is hardly to determine who Kentuckians are for this year as they did in 1938 when they cast their lot with the national leaders of the Democratic party. The case will be the same this year. There are not enough jobs nor enough money in Frankfort or in the Liberty League to swerve Kentuckians from their determination to make John Young Brown the next Governor of Kentucky.

PIONEER DAYS IN AUSTRALIA IS THEME OF "CAPTAIN FURY"

Dramatizing the roaring adventure and rich romance of the frontier days in Australia in the early 19th Century, Hal Roach's "Captain Fury", co-starring Brian Aherne, Victor McLaglen and June Lang, will have its premiere showing at the Fulton Theatre on Sunday thru United Artists release. Rounding out the hand-picked casts of stars who portray the heroes and heroines of those dauntless days are such well known Hollywood players as John Carradine, George Zucco, Paul Lukas, Virginia Field, Douglas Dumbrille, John Warburton, Lumaden Hare, Mary Gordon, and Claud Allister.

Because the story is filled with dramatic impacts and thrilling historic episodes, Mr. Roach decided to direct the film personally. Most of the production was filmed in the rugged Malibu Hills of Southern California, where the topography was surprisingly similar to the brush country of Australia down to the Eucalyptus Groves.

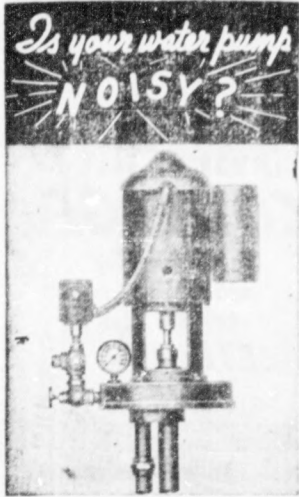

Briefly, the story concerns the high, wide and handsome adventures of Captain Fury, a political prisoner from Ireland, who arrives in Australia to discover the perfidious and greedy practices of land barons who are trying to oust the settlers and colonists so that they can establish vast feudal estates and rule them like mediaeval tyrants. Fury is set to work, shearing sheep, on the compound of Arnold Trist, a cold-blooded villain who has been terrorizing the entire settlement, a few hundred miles outside of Sydney. How Fury outwits this man and brings civilized law and order to the community provides a thrilling climax to the story which is filled with many hair-raising, blood and thunder episodes.

Little Stories about GREAT HYMNS

"The national anthem of our country was written in 1832 by the Rev. Samuel Francis Smith while a student in Andover Theological Seminary. It was first sung at a Fourth of July celebration for children in Boston. The Rev. Mr. Smith was born in Boston and was graduated from Harvard in 1829, in the class with Dr. Wendell Holmes.

CAPITOL COMMENTS

Charles D. Arnette, democratic candidate for Governor, opened his campaign in Louisville last week, calling on all democrats to throw off factional dictatorship and support him for Governor.

One hundred and sixty-one candidates who filed for the two factions in order to name the election officers at the polls. They had no intention of running and filing will cost the State approximately thirty thousand dollars more to print the ballots.

The present law permits various blocks of candidates to name a proportion of the election officers at the polls, that is, if 4 candidates filed for each office and three of them were from one faction of the party, they could name 75 per cent of the election officers.

We believe the election officers should be fair, and this practice of dummy candidates filing, stopped. A stiff filing fee would do it, and the next session of the Legislature should consider some such measures to do away with wasteful practice.

R. M. Bagby, business executive candidate for Lieutenant Governor, will open his campaign Friday night with a radio address over WHAS.

Keen Johnson, John Y. Brown and Judge Cooper and Swope will see you soon for the election is just a short month away.

R. M. BAGBY OPENS CAMPAIGN

R. M. Bagby of Grayson, Carter County, candidate for the Democratic Nomination for Lieutenant Governor is the son of the late Captain James T. Bagby, owner of the steamboat, "Fannie Dugan" which use to ply the waters of the Ohio.

He was born on a farm in Greenup County and from there his father moved his family to Grayson, Ky., where R. M., at the age of 6 received his first experience in the business field, by selling newspapers.

Mr. Bagby later entered into commercial circles in Grayson by establishing a drug store and mercantile business. In 1920 he became interested in lumber and organized the Bagby Lumber Company. His commercial methods have always borne the closest investigation and scrutiny and his well formulated plans, his determination and courage have carried him steadily forward.

In addition, he is Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Commercial Bank of Grayson, Publisher of the Sandy Valley Enquirer, and operates farms in Carter and Woodford Counties.

He is active in the Methodist Church, and has long been a member of the Board of Stewards of that organization.

Fraternally he is a Mason and was recently made Charter President of the Grayson Rotary Club. His interest in political affairs has led him to give active support to the Democratic Party, having on numerous occasions been campaign manager for Carter County. He usually attends all State Conventions as a Delegate and was a Delegate to the National Convention in Chicago and Philadelphia.

He is an ardent advocate and supporter of the Public School System having served as a member of the Grayson Board of Education for over 20 years and it was largely through his efforts as Chairman of that Board for 15 years that one of the best high school systems in the State was developed.

He is a man of exceptionally pleasing personality and of unusual business ability and he knows that every citizen is interested in clean politics and good government. And he favors legislation which is beneficial to those who earn their bread by the sweat of their brow.

Mr. Bagby, when elected, will use every effort to continue his outstanding career by giving to the people of Kentucky a successful administration.

Mr. Bagby will address the voters of Kentucky, Friday, July 7, at 6:45 Central Time over WHAS.
