How Did It Happen?
While out driving with a young sister of his the other day, the horse attached to a Chattanooga minister's buggy ran away. The first kick broke the reins of the fingers, and the loss of the sister's fingers, and now the good man is wondering what caused the horse, and the wicked world is wondering how it happened that the sister's ribs and the pastor's fingers were caught in the same kick—Glenn's Times.

Have Confirmed the Silver Coins.
Messrs. Roberts and Collins of Carterville, Ga., have, if they have not recently disposed of it, a coin in their possession which is only thirty years old, but is worth more than a thousand times its face value. It bears the date of 1861, and is one of four pieces struck at the Confederate Mint at New Orleans before that institution was closed. The coin is a half-dollar and has the Goddess of Liberty on one side and a staff of arms, and the Stars and Bars of the Confederacy in a coat of arms, with a liberty pole through it and a liberty cap on top of the other side. Of the four known specimens of this coin, one is in the Meriwether county, Georgia; one in Louisiana; the Roberts Collins piece, above described, and one which sold for $80 in New York City in 1888.

Trustees of County Colored Schools for Fiscal Year.
A few weeks ago, it will be remembered, Prof. S. L. Froge, the County Superintendent, announced the discovery of fraudulent listing in certain colored and white school districts, by which the State had been swindled out of considerable sums of money annually. Further investigation served to confirm Prof. Froge's announcement and prove conclusively that frauds had been perpetrated. Warrants were issued then for the arrest of certain parties suspected of being at the bottom of these swindles. Frank Reese, of the Pee Dee neighborhood, and George Massey, of the Pembroke vicinity, were before Judge May on Tuesday to answer these charges. The evidence against each was in the opinion of the court sufficient to justify an arrest, and they were accordingly held over to the next term of the Circuit Court. Massey is charged, and a large number of Todd county children had his name on the list, and he was said to be entirely fictitious and to have no existence save in the fertile brains of these swindling citizens.
