SENATE TAKES CUE

Moving drastically and swiftly to keep pace with public thinking, the Senate has taken the long overdue action which it is intended that strikes be brought to an end through which it is intended that obstructive and sometimes subversive industry or lockouts defense effort but also comforted honest, contrary to sound public policy.

The Commercial Appeal believes that is conscious as the Senate of the rights of honest labor are protected. Nevertheless steps to strengthen the whole system of collective bargaining.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Buttersworth have returned from their return trip. They were married last Wednesday at Indianapolis, Miss. Mrs. Buttersworth is now going to be billed in the general public voice.

The bill in question is the Selective Service Act of the Senate.

Thus the Senate not only took the cue of industry in their industry or lockouts defense effort but also comforted honest, contrary to sound public policy.
