BEAUTIFUL TROPHIES NOW ON DISPLAY

While touring in the West two weeks ago, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Elam, Lincoln, Ill., took time to visit the Fair. There they saw the two cups being sold which are to be given to the best poultry shown in the Horticultural. One cup is being donated by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. H. Watkins, or "chicken" as he is known to everyone here in Fulton. The other cup was won last year by Mr. D. O. Perdue, on a White Wyandotte. He was the only one who entered the poultry show last year, and it is for the best bird entered in the poultry show this year. The cups were presented by the Fulton Agricultural Society to the poultry show. And that is the kind of support the fair gets from individuals, and is the reason for the fair's success.

Well, I guess we have your permission list, and have looked it very, very carefully. When we asked what chickens you are going to put in the list of those you would make and mail, we want to make sure that they are the ones you want. We have a number of them that have never been on your list before. We want to make sure that these are the chickens you want to make and mail.
