Snap Shots at the Fair

Of the 25 commonwealth cases on the criminal docket the first day of court 15 were liquor cases. Of the liquor cases nine were continued to the next term of court, one was dismissed, three passed to later in the term and two disposed of. Alvin Ayers pleaded guilty to selling liquor and was fined $100 and given 30 days in jail by Circuit Judge J. E. Warren. John Armstrong also pleaded guilty to selling liquor and was fined $100 and given 30 days. The only other case disposed of the first day was that of Jesse Harrison, who pleaded guilty to petit larceny and was given 30

The only ones who can put a stop to this nuisance are the motorists themselves. If drivers will refuse to accept these strangers at face-value, even though it does seem a bit hard-hearted, they will soon put the "hitch-hiker" off the highway. On the face of it, it looks cruel to refuse one a ride, when there is plenty of room in the car. Not all of them, by any means, are of the same type. Most of them are respectable and entitled to favors. Because since a lot of them are not, and it is impossible to tell the good from the bad, there is but one safe course open to the motorist.

Mayfield, Ky.—The rains that have fallen in this county in the past few days are bringing the tobacco crop out to a great extent, according to reports from farmers of the county. According to tobacco buyers of the county, the crop no doubt will come far above all previous estimates. The pastures of the county are showing an abundance of grass.

BEN WILLIAMSON IS MAKING ACTIVE RACE

MANY FRIENDS GIVE SUPPORT

Ashland Business Man, Leader in Crippled Children's Movement and Road Development, in First Campaign.

NEW FIGURE AS CANDIDATE

Ben Williamson, of Ashland, Democratic nominee for the short term for United States Senator and running mate of Judge M. M. Logan, the candidate for the long term, is receiving letters from all over the state pledging support to him and to the ticket.

Mr. Williamson fills the bill when a business man for public office is sought. He is at the head of one of the largest business enterprises in Kentucky, the second largest wholesale hardware company. In addition he is interested in banking, mining, real estate and manufacturing.

For fifty years Mr. Williamson has given unselfish service to the Democratic party and to the people of Eastern Kentucky. He never before has been a candidate for public office. He has been vitally interested, however, in public and humanitarian movements. He was a member of the first Kentucky Crippled Children's commission and has remained a member of that commission since, was a member of the state board of charities and corrections and is now a director of the International Society for Crippled Children. He was appointed a director in the international society at the sessions in Geneva, Switzerland, which he attended because of his interest in the program in Kentucky.

Mr. Williamson also has been a leader in promoting road improvement in the state and was particularly active in the development of the Midland Trail and of the Mayo Trail.

To politics, Mr. Williamson brings the business man's viewpoint. Because they know him and are pleased that he is willing to make the race for the short term at the call of the Democratic party, friends who have been associated with Mr. Williamson in various kinds of work for the party and for the state have sent him personal letters and offers of assistance in the campaign.

It is freely predicted that Mr. Williamson will receive the largest vote ever given to a Democratic nominee in his present home county, Boyd, and in the counties of Eastern Kentucky where he best is known.

Mr. Williamson is making a vigorous campaign and will visit many Kentucky counties in the interest of the ticket.

Lesson for September 21

JONAH: THE NARROW NATIONALIST REBUKED

LESSON TEXT—Jonah 2:1-5, 10; 4:1-11.

GOLDEN TEXT—And Peter opened his mouth, and said, "Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons; but in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is acceptable to him."

PRIMARY TOPIC—God's Love for All the World.

JUNIOR TOPIC—God's Love for all the World.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What Is True Patriotism?

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Patriotism and World Brotherhood.

In teaching this lesson it will be necessary to sweep into view the entire Book of Jonah.

I. Jonah's Call and Commission (Ch. 1:1, 2).

Jonah, a Jew, was called to go and preach repentance to a Gentile city. (Gen. 12:3, 2). The story of Jonah graphically portrays the history of Israel as a nation. God separated Israel to be the channel through which his mercy and salvation are to be carried to all nations. They, like Jonah, have been recreant to duty. Because of this, God has caused them to be swallowed up by the nations which will one day spew them out upon dry ground—Palestine. After severe chastisement, they will discharge their obligation, and the nations through their ministry will repent and turn to God.

II. Jonah's Flight From Duty (1:3).

He turned his back upon God and attempted to flee from his presence. In the same way Israel has become an apostate people.

III. Jonah's Correction (1:4-2:10).

1. Overtaken by a storm (v. 4).

Trouble soon came upon the disobedient servant of God. So with the Jews, misfortune after misfortune have overtaken them because they turned from God. They are now tossed about by the surging of the nations.

2. Cast overboard (v. 15).

In their perplexity the sailors cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah. According to his own direction they cast him overboard. God had prepared a great fish which swallowed him.

3. Jonah's deliverance (Ch. 2).

Jonah in his affliction turned to God and prayed (James 5:13). God miraculously preserved him while in the belly of the fish, and he has miraculously preserved Israel in the heart of the nations. The fish could not digest Jonah, neither can the nations digest Israel. Jonah repented while in the fish. So Israel will repent as they go into the great tribulation. God made the fish to vomit out Jonah. So he will at the proper time cause the nations to cast out Israel.

IV. Jonah's Commission Renewed (Ch. 3).

His experience made him willing to do God's bidding.

1. His field (v. 3).

He was to go to Nineveh, a large city, the people of which were cruel. Israel's field is the Gentile nations.

2. His message (v. 4).

He was instructed to "preach the preaching" commanded by God. Forty days were given to the people in which to repent. God's supreme desire is that all should repent (II Peter 3:9). This message represents the heart of God in his dealing with sinners.

3. Repentance of the Ninevites (vv. 5-8).

(1) They believed God (v. 5).

They believed that God was speaking to them through Jonah about their sins, and was announcing impending judgment.

(2) They proclaimed a fast (vv. 5, 8).

The king and people joined sincerely in this movement. They put on sackcloth, the sign of penitence.

(3) They reasoned that God would repent (v. 9).

The sending to them of a prophet encouraged them to believe that God would show mercy if they repented.

V. Jonah's Behavior (Jonah 4:1-11).

1. He repines at God's action (vv. 1-3).

He now makes known the real reason for his flight from duty. He knew that the gracious God would spare the people who repented. The treatment of the Israelites at the hand of the Ninevites was such that Jonah did not want God to forgive them. We have here a case of a preacher of repentance mortified when the people repent and are pardoned.

2. God reproves Jonah (vv. 4-11).

By means of the gourd God showed him his error. This closing scene affords a striking example of the patience and pity of God in contrast with the hard-heartedness of man.

Our Religion

Our religion is, indeed, a thing between God and our own soul; but it is also a thing between us and society, and to attempt to isolate and secrete it is to deprive it of a thousand influences and excitements essential to its perfection.—William L. Watkinson.

IF KING CORN FAILS

In many ways corn is more important as a crop in this country than wheat. Converted into pork and beef, it is the greatest of all mortgage lifters. It is the backbone of agriculture in every part of the country that can grow it, and when it fails for any reason more farmers by far are sufferers than if the wheat crop should be a failure. Possibly that is why Fulton residents have long been accustomed to hearing the statement that "Corn is king."

Town and city people, as a rule, are not aware that if the farmer can solve his food problems his other troubles will take pretty good care of themselves. Neglect and ignore the livestock on the farms of this country and agriculture will slip back fifty years in a single season. That is why, during the severe drought of June and July, the reports to receive the most serious consideration were those predicting an almost total failure of the corn crop. It was livestock that was suffering far more than anything else, and with indications that it faced a famine a little later on. The tears of joy that came with the drought-breaking rains—and we understand they were shed in many sections—were really for the salvation of the country's livestock. For livestock is the nation's meat.

Just try to figure out how long this country could operate with nothing on the table but wheat-bread, corn-bread and vegetables. Then you will understand the importance of livestock. And since livestock is dependent on corn, maybe that is why we are accustomed to declaring the "corn is king."

POULTRY

(By J. T. Watkins)

The other night I was listening to Amos and Andy over the radio, and Amos told Andy "It aint no use argufying about dat." Well I can use the same words in starting this story about the Union City Fair, held last Thursday, Friday and Saturday. It aint no use argufying but it was a GOOD fair and County Agent Cleland, with his corps of assistants deserve great credit for the good display in every department.

As usual the first place I visited was the chicken show, and I was more than surprised at the number of entries and the quality of the stock. I did not have time to get the winners, but there were about 450 birds entered, divided into 12 breeds and entered by 82 different exhibitors. Truly this was a wonderful show.

I did not have time to examine the stock very close, but there was one display that must be mentioned. This was a trio of Emden geese, entered by Frances Marshall of Woodland Mills, and they were way above the average. Pure white, large bodied, right up to the standard.

In the baby beef class there were 36 head of cattle entered, mostly Herefords, some short-horns and some polled angus. I understand all this was 4-H club stuff. If so and they take the winners to Memphis fair the boy who wins over them will have to go some.

In the dairy cattle there were about 25 entries but not being up on this stuff I wont express my opinion, but I was told there was some wonderful stuff entered.

Over in the hog department four different entries of ton litter hogs sure gave promise of lots of sausage, souse, etc., this coming winter, while in the single class there were about 25 head and all good.

The agriculture display was as good as will be seen anywhere this season. I really think they hung it on the Fulton fair, but will say it was close. The farm products exhibited were all good, and I told one man it dont look to me like a drouth had bothered Obion county very much, and there was no need for anyone going hungry in that county this winter.

In the woman's department was the usual display of fancy and plain sewing, quilts, comforts and rag rugs, with a large display of canned goods, jellies, pickles and chow chow. Pies, cakes and fancy candies finished out this department in good style.

There were three community booths and each was a picture of good things to eat, things raised on a farm, where us poor city guys never get a whack at it unless we are out in the country and invited to take a meal with some farmer. Oak Grove won first display; Community Pride, second; Sunnyside, third.

Well, I dont want to give it all to Obion county, so will say something favorable to our own show. I was really surprised on the morning of the third day of our show to receive a letter from the Morris-Jones Shoe company, located on Lake street, with a check in it for $5.00. Thanks, it helped out wonderfully and took the place of one of the thirteen merchants who were listed in the premium list as donors who reneged on their promise.

MID-SOUTH FAIR STARTS AT MEMPHIS SEPT. 21.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 18.—Built around an elaborate program of entertainment and amusement, Mid-South Fair opens here Sunday with predictions that 200,000 people will visit it. The Fair will last all week, starting September 21.

A challenge to drouth and slow business conditions, the Memphis exposition will be greater in all respects than any of its twenty-two annual predecessors. Agricultural exhibits will be fully as large, while the livestock, dairy, machinery and other displays are better.

The fact that a great many people will look to the Memphis Fair this year as their chief entertainment and vacation for the year, has led to the booking of more amusement attractions than in former years.

A gorgeous musical comedy, declared to be the best musical show ever brought to Memphis, will be the nightly attraction before the grandstand. It will be a girly-girly show of elaborate staging and scenic effects.

The Royal Scotch Highland band is being brought for a full week's engagement. Free vaudeville of the best type will be given between the afternoon harness races. Daily and nightly airplane flights and stunting acrobatics and aerial fireworks will amuse the crowd. The show fully twice as large as any previous one will be an attractive feature. A "sausage" balloon, such as used for observations during the World War, will take passengers aloft daily. Automobile races on the concluding day will bring America's best dirt track stars here.

As a final number, a gorgeous wedding ceremony, with a Memphis couple as the principals, will be staged in front of the grandstand with the musical comedy settings and personnel lending color. It is to be "the perfect wedding," legal in all respects and very solemn and correct, and doubtless will be the most elaborate as well as the largest attended function ever witnessed here.

FARM SUGGESTIONS

By County Agent H. C. Brown

The Fall Garden

It is not too late to grow something to eat from the garden. Such garden crops as kale, lettuce, turnips, radishes and onions can still be grown successfully.

KALE. Kale is a plant belonging to the cabbage family. It is in reality a dwarf variety of headless cabbage. This plant is widely grown throughout the middle and northern states to furnish greens or salad throughout the fall, winter and spring seasons. Kale planted now at once will grow rapidly and soon be large enough to eat. This plant is very hardy, living through the winter and in this section will no doubt furnish considerable greens even in the middle of winter. Kale is far superior to mustard, turnips and other plants most commonly used for greens in this section. Kale does not have that bitter taste so common to the other plants mentioned. Get some seed and sow it at once. Once you have grown kale and become accustomed to its use you will not be without it.

LETTUCE. Why not have some lettuce to eat and to garnish the other dishes? Grand Rapids and Black Seeded Simpson are the most dependable varieties for fall sowing. With favorable weather leaves will be large enough for use in 4 to 6 weeks. Beds protected with ordinary tobacco canvas or sash will furnish the table to Christmas time. The writer has grown lettuce in ordinary cold frames and hot beds in the dead of winter.

MUSTARD. Mustard, if sown at once, will be large enough for use as a salad in 5 to 6 weeks. Mustard is quite hardy to frost and will furnish greens till heavy freezing occurs. Southern Giant is a good variety.

TURNIPS. It is a little late to expect much of turnips sown now for the turnip itself. However, early maturing varieties such as Milam, may still make tubers. Turnip tops will still make greens, but the variety Seven-Top is an exceptionally hardy sort that is used for greens only, and may be planted at any time in September for fall and winter use.

ONIONS. Plant bottom sets (Yellow Globe, etc.) immediately for green onions; large sets will be ready for use in about 4 weeks; Plant Potato, Multiplier and Egyptian onions sets by October 10 for green onions next spring.

RADISHES. Scarlet Globe and Icicle varieties mature in 25-30 days after sowing, with favorable weather.

If you have a garden do not fail to try some or all of the above mentioned garden crops. Every one likes fresh vegetables, so why not try them? Mr. R. C. King Tells a Wonderful Story About Rats. Read It.

"For months my place was alive with rats. Losing chickens, eggs, feed. Friend told me to try RAT-SNAP. I did. Somewhat disappointed at a first not seeing many dead rats, but in a few days didn't see a live one. What were not killed are not around my place. RAT-SNAP sure does the trick." "It means so much to the children..."

"Frank and I always felt that we could get along without a telephone—it actually took the children to show us what we have been missing."

"Since the children have entered high school they have made a number of friends and they missed not being able to talk to them over a telephone of their own. Most of their friends have telephones and use them to arrange their social activities—parties, theatre, visits. So Frank and I decided that we must have a telephone and when we found how little it cost we ordered one installed at once."

"Of course we said that we were doing it for the children, but I was in for quite a surprise. I believe I actually use it almost as frequently as the children."

There's no need for any family to do without a telephone nowadays—its small cost is more than offset by the comfort and convenience it brings. For immediate installation call the Business Office—or see any telephone employee.
