Students To Vote Again On Adkinson, Thompson

ATHLETES BECOME CHORUS BEAUTIES IN 1942 FOLLIES

Wayne Johnson Is Featured; Hahn Directs Revue

The "M" Club Follies, annual presentation of the varsity athletic club at Murray State College, was held Wednesday night, April 8, in the college auditorium here. Capably directed by Jess Hahn, LaPorte, Ind., the athletes had as a background for their production this year the music of Wayne Johnson and his band, a new orchestra at Murray State.

The Kick-Step Chorus, perennial feature of the Follies, was composed of the following athletes: Harrell Kirkpatrick, Russellville; Bob Fiser, Benton; Durward Culp, Sharpe; Hyland Grimmer, Paducah; Wild Ellison, Corbin; Ray Moore, Waverly, Tenn.; Harold Fuson, Corbin; and Carl Ferrara, Neptune, N. J., who gyrated wildly to the rhythms of "Siboney".

Solos by M-Clubbers included "Melancholy Baby" by Jess Hahn; "Whispering" by Fred Ganas, Sanford, Fla.; and "Dear Mom" by Bob Salmons, Beloit, Wisc. Hahn and Salmons collaborated on a song made famous here in last year's Follies, "Don't Send My Boy to Western."

An example of what too much college physical education can do was portrayed by Fritz Weber, Pottsville, Pa., as he wrestled an imaginary opponent. Weber also told two stories in Pennsylvania Dutch dialect.

A Brooklynese version of Shakespeare's "Taming of the Shrew" was presented by Kenny Keane, Asbury Park, N. J.; Carl Ferrara, Harrell Kirkpatrick, and Clifford White, Shaker Heights, O. Keane screamed out an imitation of the radio character "Tizzie Lish" in addition to his dramatic endeavors.

Appearing in the skits were Coach Jim Moore, who also announced for the entire Follies; Danny Altman, Sanford, Fla.; Joe Fulk, Kuttawa; Fred Ganas; Salmons; Margaret Bradley, Paducah; Barbara Holt, Sturgis; and Frances Nelson, Mayfield.

The recognition of the trainer for all varsity athletics at Murray State, Levi Oliver, Eddyville, was culminated by his receiving a pie in the face a la Mack Sennett.

The M Club Follies of 1942 was closed with the orchestra's playing of "The Star Spangled Banner" while Bob Salmons read the poem "In Flanders Fields".

Plans Are Made By Sock and Buskin For Annual Banquet

Final preparations were made for the annual Sock and Buskin Club banquet and formal initiations in a meeting of the club Tuesday night, March 31, at 7 o'clock. The date set for the banquet was Thursday, April 23. It will be held at the Hotel National.

At this meeting tickets were also issued to the various members for the production, "The Gondoliers." This musical will be presented on May 1, according to Bill Wetherington, president of the club. The club will meet next on Tuesday, April 14.

LaFollette Is In Demand As Speaker, Judge

Prof. A. C. LaFollette was not the person referred to in the old adage, "A standing pool stagnates".

Since Murray is the only school in Kentucky that offers as much as a minor in speech, he is in demand as a lecturer and judge at numerous speech contests and meetings.

On April 3 he addressed the speech section of the Tennessee Education Association meeting at the Noel Hotel in Nashville.

The Kentucky Speech Festival, sponsored by the Kentucky High School Forensic League, claimed his services as judge on April 10-11.

KEA TO BE HELD IN LOUISVILLE, KY.

Classes Will Adjourn Close of Day, April 15; Reconvene April 20

The Kentucky Education Association will hold its 71st annual convention, April 15-18, at Louisville with prominent speakers from practically every state in the union. The spring vacation at Murray State will begin at the close of classes Wednesday, April 15, and will end at 8 a.m. Monday, April 20. One of the highlights of the musical program is the appearance of Carl Friedburg, a contemporary of Fritz Kreisler.

Of especial interest to the faculty of Murray State is the Alumni Breakfast which will be held Friday, 8 a.m., in the ballroom of the Kentucky Hotel.

A. B. Austin, former dean of men at Murray and now vice-president of the Kentucky School Boards Association, will speak Thursday afternoon at 1:45 on the subject, "War and the School Board's Responsibility."

John W. Brooker, chairman of the Murray State board of regents and state superintendent of Public Instruction at Frankfort, has as his subject Thursday, 12:30 p.m., "Our Program of Education in the War Emergency." Mr. Brooker will speak at the Roof Garden of the Brown Hotel.

160 Seniors to Hear Paul McNutt May 28

Baccalaureate To Be Held May 24 At Murray State

The Hon. Paul Vories McNutt, Federal Security Administrator and coordinator of all health and welfare activities affecting the national defense, will deliver the commencement address to approximately 160 seniors of Murray State College at 10 o'clock Thursday morning, May 28, in the college auditorium.

This will be the first war-time graduation ever held at Murray State; also it marks the last commencement exercise to be conducted here under the semester system, since the institution will adopt the quarter system for units beginning with the summer term.

The baccalaureate sermon will be delivered Sunday, May 24, in the college auditorium, but according to Miss Alice Keys, executive secretary, the speaker has not yet been selected. The Alumni banquet is scheduled for May 27 in Wells Hall.

Murray State's commencement speaker, Paul McNutt, was born in Franklin, Ind., and received his AB degree from Indiana University in 1913, his LLB from Harvard in 1916, and his LLD from Notre Dame and Indiana University in 1933. He also attended Bethany College, University of the Philippines, and received an LHD from Florida Southern College.

Admitted to the Indiana bar in 1914, Mr. McNutt began practice in Martinsville. He was made professor of law at Indiana University in 1919, became dean of the law

College News Wins Six Prizes in State Press Meet

Murray Publication Receives Awards In Contests for Best Paper, Ad, Sports, Feature, Cartoon, and News Photograph

The College News, official student newspaper of Murray State College, won a total of six prizes in the semi-annual contests sponsored by the Kentucky Intercollegiate Press Association, it was announced by the KIPA president at the spring meeting at Union College, Barbourville, Friday night, April 10.

Last fall, the College News won first place as best all-around college newspaper in Kentucky. Its rating this spring was third, with the Kentucky Kernel of Lexington ranking first.

Prizes won by the College News this spring: Best makeup, first place; best advertisement, first place; best all-around newspaper, third; best sports story, second; best news photograph, third; best original cartoon, third.

Staff members of the College News attending the meeting are Austin Adkinson, editor-in-chief; Rayburn Watkins, business manager; Clara Mae Breckenridge, managing editor; Tommy Dodd, general staff. They were chaperoned by Miss Mayrell Johnson of the social science department.

MUSIC WEEK IS OBSERVED AT MURRAY STATE COLLEGE

"The Seven Last Words of Christ" sung by the college chorus in the college auditorium, opened the twelfth annual observance of Music Week at Murray State, Sunday evening, March 29.

This selection by Dubois, was directed by Prof. Leslie Putnam, with solo parts taken by Miss Nancy Alexander, Glen Hawley, Herbert Lax, Bob Arnold, Fred Wells, and Fred Johnson.

Assistant student directors were Ted Haley and Wayne Reynolds. The second in the series of musical programs was a concert given by the college band, Monday, March 30. The band was directed by Prof. William Fox and Prof. Clair McGovern was the guest soloist. Mr. McGovern played a piano arrangement of "Rhapsody in Blue" by Gershwin with the band as accompaniment. Other numbers played by the band were: "The Golden Sonata", Purcell; Overture, Euryanthe, Von Weber; "Intermezzo", Grandos; and "Arkansas Traveler", Guion-Clark.

A faculty concert, the third of the program given during Music Week, was presented Tuesday night, March 31. The concert featured Miss Marian Beers, pianist, and Prof. Clair McGovern, pianist. Mrs. Ruth McGovern accompanied Miss Beers, who played numbers by Mozart, Albeniz, Scott, and Popper. Mr. McGovern's selections were from Chopin and Schumann.

Music Week at Murray State was brought to a close by the college orchestra's concert on April 1. Prof. Price Doyle directed the orchestra, which was assisted by the A Cappella Choir under the direction of Prof. Leslie R. Putnam. The string orchestra presented the first numbers by Mozart, followed by the entire orchestra playing the "Sakuntala Overture", by Goldmark. The A Cappella Choir sang "Hymn to the Soul" by Rachmaninoff. Concluding the program the orchestra played "Symphony No. 2, D. Major" from Brahms.

THE GONDOLIERS TO BE PRESENTED

Two Casts Chosen For Production Says Director

"The Gondoliers," which has been selected as the annual musical production, will be presented by Sock and Buskin and Sigma Alpha Iota at Murray State College May 1, according to Miss Helen Thornton, dramatics instructor.

Two casts have been chosen so that each character will have an understudy. The two casts, as announced by Miss Thornton, are as follows:

Duke of Plaza-Tora (selected), Hamilton McKlveen, Lorain, O. Duchess, Marian Fletcher, Gideon, Mo., or Phyllis Dickinson, Taylorsville, Ill.

Casilda, Louise Putnam, Murray, or Dorothy Street, Cadiz. Luiz, Glenn Hawley, Lorain, O., or Frank Shires, Obion, Tenn.

The Gondoliers, Bob Arnold, Leadwood, Mo., and Jimmy Endicott, Carmi, Ill.

Tessa, Drexia Wiley, Mayfield, or Julia Gilliam, Benton. Gnanetta, Nancy Alexander, Milan, Tenn., or Dorothy Eberhardt, Owensboro.

Grand Inquisitor, Herbert Lax, Murray, or Curtis Hughes, Mayfield.

Work on the scenery which will include some 700 roses, and "real canals right on the stage," is already under construction according to Miss Thornton, director.

The plot concerns two gondoliers who are sought after by all the ladies. These two gondoliers are finally forced to choose their wives by a blind method, "leaving the remainder of the women for the rest of the gondoliers."

Fellowship Group To Meet April 21

The Methodist Youth Fellowship Group will meet at 7:30 on Tuesday evening, April 21, in the girls' gymnasium of the Carr Health Building. It was announced by Bogard Dunn, president.

Prof. A. C. LaFollette, head of the public speaking department here, will be master of ceremonies.

RICHMOND LAUDS ENGLAND IN TALK AT BOND RALLY

2000 Attend Meet In Auditorium on Sunday, March 28

"England fought our war for two years and now we're fighting side by side," asserted President James H. Richmond Sunday, March 28, in addressing the Victory Rally held in the college auditorium.

Approximately 2000 persons attended the rally which was designed to stimulate the sale of Defense Bonds and Stamps. Besides Dr. Richmond, other speakers were: Hon. Vego Barnes, Hopkinsville, executive director of the state Unemployment Commission; Lieut. Col. Daniel Hoge, Camp Tyson, Tenn.; Hon. James Bates, Louisville, United States Treasury Department; Atty. Hall Hood, Murray, representing the American Legion.

The college band, directed by Prof. W. H. Fox, the high school band, the college quartet, Prof. Price Doyle, the Murray American Legion post, and the Rev. T. H. Mullins of the Murray Methodist Church were also on the program.

As principal speaker, Dr. Richmond reviewed the causes and developments of the World War.

"People are becoming war conscious," he said, remarking that on his recent trip to Washington he had been encouraged by an attitude of "serious optimism" that prevailed there.

Hitler was right, in one instance, according to Dr. Richmond, in saying the world wasn't big enough for totalitarian and democratic ideals of government.

"Quit peddling rumors," Murray's chief executive exhorted in conclusion. "Quit telling cheap jokes about England. For two years England carried the load alone. England fought our war for two years and now we're fighting side by side."

Mr. Barnes described the present conflict as "an all out war" in which labor, capital, and all agencies must cooperate.

"Whether congress acts on the 40 hour week or not, the rank and file of the workers will do away with the 40 hour week," he prophesied. Approximately 3000 persons at hours to win this war."

Mr. Hood, in welcoming the guests, paid tribute to the efforts of the citizens of Murray who had cooperated in arranging the rally. Among those mentioned were: W. Z. Carter, Max Hurt, George Hart, Kerby Jennings, Harold Van Winkle, Connie Ford, and Dr. A. D. Butterworth.

Announcing that his remarks were not to be construed as reflecting the views of the army or government, Colonel Hoge spoke briefly on the international situation.

Mr. Bates briefly outlined the mutual system of bonds and stamps sales advocated by the federal government. "War is never cheap," he averred.

Western Prexy Thanks Murray For Best Wishes

Dr. Paul Garrett, president of Western Kentucky State, in a letter to Dr. James H. Richmond on April 1 expressed his thanks for the telegrams and editorial tribute written in honor of the "Toppers" record in Madison Square Garden.

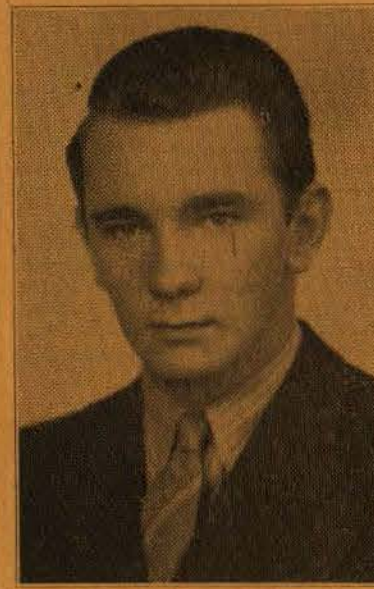

The letter written by President Garrett follows: "I want to thank you again for the two fine telegrams which we received from the members of your student body while we were in New York. I also greatly appreciate the fine editorial in your college paper. You may be sure that all members of the faculty and student body join me in this expression of appreciation."

President Richmond wrote in reply: "Thanks for your gracious letter. The telegrams and the editorial in the College News accurately reflected the sentiments of all the people in our college. It would have given us all great satisfaction had 'Old Man Fate' permitted you to win that brilliant fame. As it was, your team covered itself with glory."

RICHMOND HEADS FUTURE FARMERS

Doran Is Vice-President; Harris Is Secretary of Training School Chapter

Buron Richerson was elected president of the Training School chapter of Future Farmers of America at their meeting Monday night, April 6, for the school year of 1942-43. Harold Glen Doran was made vice-president and Marvin Harris, secretary.

Other officers elected were: Charles Lassiter, treasurer; Galen Thurman, reporter; and Otis Cahoon, watch dog. At the first meeting in October, an assistant to each of the officers will be elected with the exception of president. The chapter has a local constitution and elections and all other business are carried out by its rules.

These boys, who won the Jackson Purchase FFA Field Day here on April 4, voted to take the entire chapter to Louisville the first week in August for the state FFA meet there. Winners at Louisville will compete in the regional contest in Chicago.

On April 17 the club will have its annual picnic. The recreation committee has been empowered to select a place.

Dr. Van Walt Says Allies Fighting For An Ideal

Dutch Lecturer Speaks in Chapel On Nazi Peril

By LOUISE ALLEN

"I am sure we are going to win this war. We are all fighting for an ideal. Germany is fighting for a man," Dr. Harry P. Van Walt said April 1, during chapel in the Murray State College auditorium. Dr. Van Walt, widely traveled psychologist, author, lecturer, and radio commentator, spoke on the subject, "The Nazis Are After Me."

Although he lived in Brussels, Belgium for 10 years before coming to America, Dr. Van Walt was born in Holland and saw the invasion of that neutral country by the Nazis in May, 1940.

"A very queer sensation, my friends, realizing your country is at war," Dr. Van Walt said, and added later that "the Germans had everything very well organized."

As early as 1934, the Germans began preparation for their onslaught when they sent an influx of maids-servants to Holland to act as spies. Also, the German Embassy in Holland fortified loyal German houses with machine guns so that the Dutch troops could be shot as they marched through their own streets.

According to Dr. Van Walt, the Nazi parachute troops that were dropped over Holland were dressed in Dutch uniforms, knew some Dutch language, and could easily be mistaken for Dutch troops after they landed.

RUNOFF ELECTION FOR ORG PREXY TO BE APRIL 14

Oliver Selected Vice-President With 171 Votes

Austin Adkinson, Carrollton, and Jack Thompson, Centerville, Tenn., received respectively the two highest numbers of votes for president of the Student Organization at Murray State College in the election held April 7, and a runoff election between these two candidates will be held Tuesday, April 14, announced Roger Fuller, incumbent president of the Student Organization here.

Adkinson received 131 votes, Thompson 92, and Joe Little, Calvert City, 70 votes.

Levi Oliver, Eddyville, was elected vice-president with 171 votes, followed by Clifford White, Shaker Heights, O., with 80, and Mike Nicholas, Ithaca, N. Y., with 38.

For the position of treasurer both Miss Marian Fletcher, Gideon, Mo., and Ruth Nall, Clinton, received 133 votes, necessitating another balloting on April 14 at the same time as the presidential election. Miss Ruth Armstrong, Madisonville, had no opposition for the position of secretary, and class representatives elected without opposition include: Dan Gregory, Springfield, Tenn., and Matilda Quirey, Clay, senior representatives; Kenneth Keane, Asbury Park, N. J., and Martha Robertson, Murray, junior representatives. John Padgett, Hardin, and Walter Hills, Lexington, Tenn., were named sophomore representatives for 1942. Charles Walsh, Ripley, Tenn., was the third candidate for the sophomore post.

175 Soldiers Are Guests at Dance Given by Sorority

Approximately 175 Camp Tyson soldiers from near Paris, Tenn., and 150 Murray College girls attended the all-soldier dance given March 28 by Tri Sigma, educational sorority of Murray State College. Eleven army trucks were parked in front of the Carr Health Building from 7:45-10:45 p. m. Billy Shelton and his orchestra provided the music.

Mary Jackson, Columbus, Ky., Drexia Wiley, Mayfield, and Barbara Mitchell, Gleson, Tenn., sorority members, were responsible for the decorations. As the Tri Sigma flowers is the violet, large hand painted panels of purple violets alternated with purple and white streamers to adorn the walls. In the balcony usually used by spectators, gliders and screens were put up to form a lounge. Both active and pledges tied white and purple ribbons on their wrists and active members wore nosegays of violets.

"Everybody had a grand time," Ruth Nall, Clinton, corresponding secretary, said. "It was fun to do it for them." Dr. and Mrs. James H. Richmond, Dean Ella Wehling, Prof. and Mrs. A. F. Yancey, Coach and Mrs. Rice Mountjoy and Dr. F. C. Pogue acted as chaperons. "It was a very nice dance," Dr. Pogue said; "the boys seemed unusually appreciative and it went off in very fine fashion."

Relations Group Considers Problems of South America

Members of the International Relations Club discussed the South American problem at their meeting March 30.

The discussion was to present new ideas on the problem for the benefit of Ralph Crouch who will represent this district in the Inter-American Extremopore Discussion contest, at Atlanta, Ga., April 14. Ray Moffet, president, presided at the meeting and Rayburn Watkins, secretary replacing Joe Fitch, read the minutes.

Roberts Visits

Gregory Roberts, former student at Murray State, was a visitor on the campus here, Wednesday, April 1. He is now attending Riverside Military Academy in Georgia.

Remember MacArthur

"Remember MacArthur; forget Pearl Harbor," said Dr. Harry P. Van Walt, widely traveled journalist, psychologist, and student of international affairs, in chapel Wednesday, April 1.

Many students feel that this statement contains the greatest thought that has come from a chapel program this year. The thought contained in "Remember MacArthur" is typically American and signifies VICTORY, bravery, tolerance and preparedness. The thought contained in "Remember Pearl Harbor" is typically looking backward and has not the strong connotations of "Remember MacArthur". It also has the memory of a DEFEAT suffered by the Allies.

We wish to use a slogan which signifies courage and ULTIMATE VICTORY!

Let us, even while straining every fiber of our bodies to win the victory, keep one eye on the peace that is to follow. It would indeed be a great tragedy if we were to win the war and lose the peace. We must formulate plans for peace that will really make the world a better world. We must not insist that our representatives in the peace conference draw up a plan that will be based only on selfish viewpoints. ONLY IF WE CAN FORMULATE A PEACE THAT WILL MAKE A BETTER WORLD, CAN WE BE SURE THAT OUR BOYS HAVE NOT DIED IN VAIN.

(Study Wilson's League of Nations—the League did not fail—we failed the League.)

Congrats, Future Farmers

The Murray Training School Future Farmers, directed by Prof. W. H. Brooks, continued their outstanding string of achievements last Saturday when they won the district FFA contest in competition with 21 other high school chapters of this area. This group, one of the hardest-working aggregations on the Murray campus, scored a total of 143 points in group and individual contests and in enterprise tests, as compared with 75 points garnered by their closest opponent, Lynn Grove.

Especially commendable were the first place honors won by Burton Richerson in the public speaking contest sponsored by the Courier-Journal and Louisville Times, and the first place honors received by Harold Doran in the impromptu speaking division, which was sponsored by the Dairy Products Association.

These boys have their own farm and school projects throughout the year, and are constantly working toward improvement in farming methods and related fields in and around Murray. And Saturday they showed that they could also sing, speak, conduct meetings, keep books, etc., etc.

So, to Mr. Brooks and his group of FFA boys, the College News says, "Congratulations, and keep on plugging."

"The Follies"—A Fine Performance, Fellows

The "M" Club Follies of 1942 beat the weatherman Wednesday evening as a good crowd braved the April showers to see and hear the football, basketball, and boxing stars of Murray State croon their way to a banner performance.

The Follies performance was filled with gags galore . . . plus the swing of Wayne Johnson and his band. To Director Jess Hahn, Business Manager George Speth, and all the others connected with putting over the "M" Club Follies, the College News pays tribute.

It's Just a Week Of Initiation—Not A Wacky Meet

If a stranger had visited our campus during the week of April 6-11, and had not been acquainted with College customs, he might have thought it was the scene of a "wacky's" convention.

First he would have noticed the masculine figures of the "M" Club initiates adorned with flowered skirts and blouses and rather close-fitting skirts and sweaters. He would have seen their delicate features covered with makeup and stylish earrings hanging from their pearly ears.

Then he might have noticed a rather painted group of lovely coeds in swooping gowns and tennis shoes, carrying a bootblack's equipment and a gnawed up loaf of bread, doing such odd things as collecting autographs, picking up straws, counting the blocks in the walks, the tiles in the swimming pool, etc.

These bedraggled young ladies are in the midst of their pledgeship "Hell Week" of Sigma Alpha Iota, girls music fraternity.

Then last but not least he perhaps would have noticed a rather strange looking species pursuing their studies (if hidden by a crop of medieval locks, beards, and mustaches, strongly resembling "Hairless Joe"). They saunter forth into the hot April sunlight bedecked with heavy topcoats and carrying heavy paddles bearing the Greek Letters "P. M. A." These "longhairs" (literal meaning) are pledges to the Phi Mu Alpha Music Fraternity.

To this stranger, of which we are sure there were many, these initiation and pledge rules might have seemed a little absurd, but we think they are fun!

—Martha Robertson

Miss Gentry Is First Co-Ed Pledged By Tau Kappa Alpha

Miss Juanita Gentry, Reidland, Ky., whose latest achievement is being pledged to Tau Kappa Alpha, forensic fraternity, is one of Murray State's outstanding students. She was the first co-ed at Murray to be pledged to this fraternity.

She attended Paducah Junior College for two years and entered Murray State last year. In high school, she was valedictorian of her senior class in 1936 and was a member of the debating team that went to the state tournament two years. She also participated in the national tournament at Wooster, Ohio.

Since the versatile Miss Gentry came to Murray she has won many honors. She is a member of Alpha Psi Omega, dramatic fraternity, and Sock and Buskin, having had the leading role in two presentations, "Death Takes a Holiday" and "It Can't Happen Here".

She was also in the cast for "Naughty Marietta". She helped direct "Faculty Flights" and was student director of "Magnificent Obsession".

Besides being an honor student, she was selected as one of the "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" for 1941-42. Talented in speech, she assists Prof. A. C. LaFollette in his speech clinics. She delivered an address on "The Woman's Place in National Defense" on Citizenship Day here February 23.

Rickman Majors In Music But Plans for War

Jimmie Rickman, senior from Paducah, is a music major at Murray State but at present his main concern is the war.

When asked which branch of service he would prefer, Rickman named the Air Corps as first. He is one hundred per cent for Roosevelt in this crisis and thinks he is doing the job as no other man named the Air Corps as first. Heve the American people are taking the war as seriously as they should.

The particular place in war where he would prefer to be at present is "Over Tokyo dropping bombs". His hobby is reading, including classical and medical literature. Boating on the Ohio River—in the moonlight—also appeals to this musician.

Listed among the "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities", Rickman has been president of Kappa Delta Pi last summer and this year and is a member of Phi Mu Alpha. He plays tuba in the college band and violin in the orchestra and he is also a member of the Vivace Club. Women are wonderful, he says—especially one.

ENGLISH WORKSHOP TO BE INTRODUCED IN SUMMER SESSION AT MURRAY STATE

Miss Rimmer To Have Charge of New Project

With a new project—the English Workshop, and the adoption of the quarter system, Murray State will begin the first term of the summer session on Monday, June 1. The first term will close on Wednesday, July 8. The second term will begin Thursday, July 9, and will close Saturday, August 15.

This is the first time that Murray has ever had the quarter system of credits. The new system was adopted by the board of regents January 26, and it divides the college year into four quarters of approximately 12 weeks each. According to college officials, this new system will not change the length of time necessary for a student to be graduated.

Courses of particular value in a war-time program to help in the present emergency are: health and physical education including first aid, sciences, commerce, mathematics, and aeronautics.

A new project has been added to the curriculum during the first term of the summer session. This project is called the English Workshop.

This workshop will be conducted under the direction of Miss Clara Rimmer, supervising teacher of English of Murray State College Training School. Miss Rimmer's successful and varied experience includes participation in a similar workshop at Harvard University. She will be assisted for at least the first week by Dr. Lou L. LaBrant, professor of English-education at Ohio State University, who was a member of the staff which conducted the workshop in the teaching of English at Harvard University during the summer of 1941. Miss Rimmer and Miss LaBrant will be assisted by the members of the Murray teaching staff.

Opportunities Offered
The English Workshop will offer teachers of English opportunity to attack intelligently problems connected with their subject. Each student will bring to the workshop a problem upon which he wishes to concentrate, preferably one originating in the experience of the participant. These problems may be of wide variety, dealing with the elementary school, junior high school, or senior high school, and may involve pupils of low, average, or high ability. They may deal with the construction of a curriculum as a whole or some particular phase of it; for instance, planning a course for "non-academics" or for particularly gifted children, reading difficulties, reading lists, teaching units for particular grades, audio-visual aids, correlation of English with other fields of work, speech difficulties, debating, dramatics, and student publications.

After a preliminary conference regarding the nature of his problem, each student will be assigned to a staff member with whom he will work closely. He will also confer frequently with other staff members. Small group conferences will be held with students working on related problems. Meetings of the entire group will be held often. Lectures and discussions led by visiting advisors will be arranged. There will be opportunity ty to read widely and to become acquainted with facilities and materials available today for enriching the teaching of English. Some demonstration teaching will be done for members of the workshop. All this will include a variety of points of view and allow exchange of ideas and devices.

Those enrolling in the workshop will receive 8 quarter hours (5 1-3 semester hours) credit on either a baccalaureate or master's degree. The tuition fee is $11.25 for undergraduates and $16.00 for graduates.

Admission of graduates or undergraduates should be arranged in advance by correspondence with Miss Clara Rimmer, College Station, Murray, Kentucky.

Johnson Misses National Tourney

Paul Johnson, sophomore guard from Hindman, Ky., was unable to make the trip this year to Kansas City, Mo., for the National Tournament because of an inflamed tonsil which kept him in bed for a week.

At Hindman, he was a member of the basketball team which went to the state finals in 1939, only to lose to Brooksville, the home of the famed Cooper brothers. However, "Mousy," as he is called by his friends, made the All-State team that year.

The Hindman Yellowjacket entered Murray in 1940 and his outstanding ability on the hardwood immediately won him a place on Coach Miller's Frosh team, of which he became co-captain.

This year, his first on the Murray varsity, he led the Thoroughbreds in scoring in the Morehead and West Tennessee games with 16 and 17 points respectively.

"My greatest thrill of all was playing in the state tournament and being selected as state guard in 1939," said Johnson, "however, I am looking forward to greater thrills next year at Kansas City."

Dr. Lowry Likes Plato, Cornbread And Hominy

By James Harlan

Dr. C. S. Lowry likes Plato, cornbread, and hominy. He was born in Caldwell County but moved to Crittenden County when five years old where he attended the county schools.

He went to Western State Normal for a short while and then taught school four years in Crittenden and Union Counties.

He enrolled at the University of Kentucky in 1923 and received his AB in 1924 and his AM in 1926. He attended Harvard in '28, '29 and '33, '34. He went back to UK in '39 and '40 to receive his Ph.D.

Dr. Lowry, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Lowry, is head of the social science department at Murray State. He married Lillian Jones of Benton, Ky., does not like to travel, (this should be worth a feature story in itself) and wishes Coca-Cola was easier to get.

Misses Grace Ashbrook, LaCenter, and Mary Virginia Henry, Sturgis, were week-end guests of Miss Lodena Hurt, Metropolis, Ill.

Miss Nelson Is Elected by Pledges Of Tri Sigma

At a meeting of the Tri Sigma pledges, Miss Frances Nelson, Mayfield, was elected president, Monday night, March 30, in the art department.

Other officers elected were: Miss Katherine McVay, Evanston, Ill., secretary; and Miss Mary Evelyn Russell, Murray, treasurer.

Miss Betty Phillips, Atlanta, Ga., vice-president of the sorority, read and discussed the pledge rules.

Miss Derexa Wiley, Mayfield, is chairman of the pledging.

Kipa Pi Is All Pled Over Its President

Tommy Dodd of Eldorado, Ill., was elected president and Clara Mae Breckenridge was elected vice-president at the first meeting of this semester, but the army called, and off went Tommy. So, Clara Mae was then elected to the office of president, but here came Tommy back again. He was given back the presidency, and the vice president again is Clara Mae Breckenridge.

Portfolio Club Works With Clay

The Portfolio Club, in an informal meeting Thursday, April 2, worked with clay, wood carving, and lettering, reported Miss Barbara Mitchell, president.

The scheduled meeting for April 9 was postponed.

Measles is causing much of the illness among the girls at Wells Hall as four more cases were added to the list this week. Misses Martha Butler, Salem, and Margaret Clark, Mayfield, are ill at their homes, while Misses Charlotte Van Horn, Wood River, Ill., and Linda Washam, Mayfield, are both ill at the dormitory.

Lancaster Says College Students Are Best Behaved Group of All His Customers at Varsity Theatre

Frank H. Lancaster, manager of the Capitol and Varsity theatres in Murray, says he has had to change his mind about this college town of Murray.

Dreading the trouble usually encountered in college towns, "Frank", as he is known to a great number of students and faculty members of Murray State, came to Murray on November 4, 1938.

"The college students of Murray are the best behaved group I have ever met", Mr. Lancaster stated. "They give the management of the Varsity Theatre less trouble than any other group of customers."

Tall, blond and handsome, Mr. Lancaster is an expert conversationalist and can tell many interesting stories about his 16 years experience in the theatre business. Once while working in Paducah his boss caught him engaged in a hand to hand fight with a drunk trouble maker.

A native of Cadiz, Frank got his first position with the Columbia Amusement Company when he was 17 years old, and worked several years in Paducah before coming to Murray.

When asked about the new student ticket the Columbia Amusement Company is making for the students of Murray, Mr. Lancaster said the tickets will be issued to the students just as soon as they can be made after the students' pictures are taken.

These new tickets, which will cost the show company several hundred dollars, are very similar to those that have been used in Paducah and other large towns for some time. Along with a small picture of the student the ticket will bear the name of the student and the name of some person in authority connected with the college.

Mr. Lancaster stated that these tickets were good advertising and when presented at the box office will reduce the price of admission after 5 o'clock from 30 to 25 cents. He also said that due to the pictures on the tickets they would be absolutely non-transferable.

Abbott and Costello pictures are the favorites with Murray students now and all musical pictures and Spencer Tracy pictures are good box office attractions, according to Manager Lancaster.

A very ardent fan of the Thoroughbreds, Mr. Lancaster says that despite their unfortunate losses this year, he believes them to be as great a team as ever.

Hardy Is Listed Among "Who's Who"

H. L. Hardy, Murray student from Fulton, Ky., has been selected for the "Who's Who Among American Colleges and Universities" this year.

A junior at Murray, Hardy says his chief interest is the Baptist Student Union in which he is president both of the local unit and of the entire state of Kentucky. He is an English major and hopes to receive his degree in that field if he is not inducted into the army. His club membership includes the Kipa Pi journalism club and Tri Lambda. His extra-curricular interests are music, tennis, basketball, and hiking.

Hardy encourages students to attend prayer meeting services at the library every week day at noon. This service, he says, is very popular on the campus.

Miss Anne Worton, transfer to Murray State from Southwestern, has withdrawn from college to return to her home in Paris, Tenn.

A junior, and commerce major, Miss Worton was elected one of the Campus Favorites of '42.

NAVY ANNOUNCEMENT TO COLLEGE FRESHMEN AND SOPHOMORES 17<sup>THRU</sup> 19

You want to serve your country! Why not serve where your college training will do the most good?

Under the Navy's newest plan, you can enlist now and continue in college. If you make a good record, you may qualify within two years to become a Naval Officer—on the sea or in the air.

Who may qualify

80,000 men per year will be accepted under this new plan. If you are between the ages of 17 and 19 inclusive and can meet Navy physical standards, you can enlist now as an Apprentice Seaman in the Naval Reserve. You will be in the Navy. But until you have finished two calendar years, you will remain in college, taking regular college courses under your own professors. Your studies will emphasize mathematics, physics and physical training.

After you have successfully completed 1½ calendar years of work, you will be given a written examination prepared by the Navy. This examination is competitive. It is designed to select the best men for training as Naval Officers.

How to become an Officer

If you rank sufficiently high in the examination and can meet the physical standards, you will have your choice of two courses—each leading to an officer's commission:

1. You may volunteer for training as an Aviation Officer. In this case you will be permitted to finish at least the second calendar year of your college work, after which you will be ordered to active duty for training to become an officer-pilot. Approximately 20,000 men a year will be accepted for Naval Aviation.

2. Or you will be selected for training as a Deck or Engineering Officer. In this case you will be allowed to continue your college work until you have received your degree.

DON'T WAIT...ACT TODAY

1. Take this announcement to the Dean of your college.
2. Or go to the nearest Navy Recruiting Station.
3. Or mail coupon below for FREE BOOK giving full details.

Whites Defeat Golds 18-0 In Intra-Squad Grid Tilt

Ellison Scores Two Touchdowns; Shearer Gets One

To prove that a strong line is as essential as a strong backfield, the first string line and the second string backs, composing the White team, defeated the No. 2 line and the No. 1 backfield, the Gold team, 18-0, in a three-quarters intra-squad game at Cutchin Field, Saturday, April 4.

Ralph Shearer, freshman tailback from Carlisle, Ky., opened the scoring with a touchdown early in the first quarter.

In the same quarter, Wild Ellison, sophomore end from Corbin, received a pass from Ganas and carried the ball for a second touchdown for the White team, bringing the score to 12-0.

Each attempt of the Golds was unsuccessful and they realized only two first downs against the invincible white line during the first half.

Ellison picked up a blocked punt and came through with another touchdown in the second quarter.

Mike Nicholas, guard, was unsuccessful in each of the three attempts for conversion. The score at the end of the half was Whites 18, Gold 0. No points were made during the third quarter.

The lineup:

White	Pos.	Gold
Moore	LE	Burchfield
Hahn	LT	Bruchieri
Nicholas	LG	Puckett
Fuson	C	Carlisle
Hendrickson	RG	Hicks
White	RT	Arwood
Ellison	RE	Dubia
Hill	QB	Lambert
Thompson	RH	Sasseen
Vermillion	LH	Russell
Shearer	FB	Hutt

Substitutions: Whites — Ganas, Shannon, Pritchard, Hill. Golds — Marquess, Cooper, Welton, Smithers.

For a fourth quarter, the first string backs changed into the white jerseys and finished the game first string against second string.

Ganas carried the ball around the end for a touchdown and made the score of the fourth quarter, Whites 6, Golds 0.

M Club Offers Co-Ed Competition

By Hugh Perdue
No folks, the feminine enrollment at Murray State has not increased this week; it is only the new members of the "M" Club being initiated. And they're not trying to evade the draft.

But really, haven't they got that feminine touch, especially "Big John" Padgett? The boys must be doing pretty well as we heard George Speth propositioning Jo(sephine)Fulks for a date, but from the answer he got, the "girl" must have formed a "don't you dare touch me" club.

Moral: The moral of this story is that the real girls had better watch out or the competition is getting strong.

Murray, the Birthplace of Radio.

COLLEGE FUSE THANKS DEAN WEIHING

The Kipsa Pi journalism club and especially the staff of the College Fuse wishes to thank Dr. Ella R. Weihing for the splendid cooperation she gave with respect to the publishing of the College Fuse.

Dr. Weihing, dean of women, gave much of her time to the publishing of the April Fool edition and was never too busy to help us, no matter what time of day we sought her help. So to Dean Weihing we say "Or-chids to you."

—Kenneth Keane

HAHN PRESIDES AT M MEETING

Plans Are Considered For Presenting Annual Follies on April 8

Jess Hahn, director of the "M" Club Follies, was in charge of the staff meeting held in the Carr Health Building Monday, March 30, to consider plans for their annual production April 8.

George Speth, business manager, gave a report on the ticket sales to date and Bob Salmons explained the costumes for the new members to wear on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday preceding the Follies.

New members are: Green Berry Lillie, Brookport, Ill.; James Washam, Mayfield; Dick Roberts, Blytheville, Ark.; Danny Altman, Sanford, Fla.; Herbert Hurley, Benton; Paul Johnson, Joe Fulks, Kuttawa; John Padgett, Hardin; and Robert Caudill, Dawson Springs.

Hahn appointed ushers, stage managers, and stage hands, announced practice dates, and gave a review of the show.

Dr. Harding To Speak in Chapel On April 22

President Arthur McCracken Harding of the University of Arkansas will deliver an address in chapel here Wednesday morning, April 22.

A graduate of the University of Arkansas with the class of 1904, Dr. Harding joined the faculty of the institution one year later as an instructor in mathematics. With the exception of leaves of absence while he was completing requirements for his MA and Ph.D. degrees at the University of Chicago, Dr. Harding has been on the university staff since 1905. He has held successfully the positions of instructor, assistant professor, registrar, examiner, professor, director, dean and president. He organized the general extension service in 1919 and administered this division of the university until his elevation to the presidency.

Mrs. Mary Harder Savage, Linden, Tenn., spent last week-end in Nashville with relatives.

HAHN IS AGAIN PING PONG KING IN INTRAMURALS

Speth Places 2nd, Lamb Is Third, Ferrara Fourth

In a battle of the giants of the gridiron, Jess Hahn, captain-elect for 1942, retained his title as ping-pong champion of Murray State by defeating George Speth, two-time All-State tackle. Hahn conquered Speth in the finals of the intramural tournament which has been in progress for the past two weeks. In a consolation match for third and fourth places Fred Lamb overcame Carl Ferrara.

An extensive program of intramural sports has been inaugurated this year at Murray under the supervision of Athletic Director Roy Stewart. Great interest has been shown as evidenced by the fact that approximately 125 boys have entered the various events.

In order to stimulate interest in intramurals, 15 attractive medals have been offered to the men with the 15 highest scores. Points are given on the basis of 20 for first, 12 for second, 8 for third, and 4 for fourth. With four events left the boys with the highest ratings are James Stewart, 43; Perkins Marquess, 42; George Speth and Tommye Juett, 36; Jess Hahn and Fred Lamb, 31; James Lawrence, Marce Lewis, and James Collie, 29; Wayne Doran, Gene Holmes, and Laverne Bucy, 26; Walter Martin, Carl Ferrara, Bill Miller, and James Tucker, 22.

"Because we had to drop baseball, track, and tennis this year, we are trying to keep the athletic program here at Murray on a high standard by promoting more interest in intramurals," Mr. Stewart said.

Horseshoes and archery will begin immediately after KEA vacation. These events will be followed by the softball and tennis tournaments.

"I would like to clear up one point. If a boy who has left school earned enough points before he left he will be awarded a medal, anyway," Stewart added.

AAUW TO ELECT NEW OFFICERS

Dr. Charles Hire to Address Group April 14 On "Consumer Education"

Officers for next year will be elected by the American Association of University Women in its regular meeting on the second floor of the library Tuesday, April 14, at 7:30 it was announced to the College News by Dr. Ella Weihing, president of the association.

Dr. Charles Hire will address the group with the topic, "Consumer Education," and Mrs. A. M. Wolfson and Dr. Weihing will report on the regional convention held in Tuscaloosa, Ala., on April 13-14.

Besides election of officers for the coming year, suggestions for changes in the constitution will constitute a part of the program.

Scholastic Tests Canceled for First Time in 14 Years

"The scholastic examinations which are given each year for high school seniors have been canceled for the first time in 14 years", announced Prof. M. O. Wrather, of the extension department of Murray State College, today.

The tests, primarily on mathematics, are sponsored by the University of Kentucky. They were previously held during the middle of April at Murray State College for the high school seniors of this section of the state.

The winners in these tests are awarded an honorary medal indicating their scholastic record. The University of Kentucky which sponsors the examinations in all sections of the state, announced the complete cancellation of the tests this year.

Diddle Writes His Appreciation

President James Richmond Murray State Teachers College, Murray, Kentucky

Dear President Richmond:

While we were in New York last week I received two telegrams congratulating our ball club on the showing which it made. One was signed "Students of Murray Kentucky State", and the other was signed "Girls Pep Club of Murray Kentucky State."

Will you please convey to your students our deep appreciation for these two telegrams. Kelly Thompson was broadcasting the games over the Bowling Green station, and he read both of them to those listening in. We have also hung them in the lobby of our Administration Building, and we feel that they will be an inspiration along the line of good sportsmanship to those who stop to read them.

This letter expresses our deepest appreciation and best wishes.

Sincerely,
E. A. Diddle,
Head Coach

P. S. The editorial which was carried in the last issue of your school paper has attracted a great deal of favorable comment. I am sure that it will be through demonstrations of good sportsmanship such as these that our fine rivalry will always continue on a high plane.

To the above letter, President Richmond replied as follows:
Mr. E. A. Diddle
Head Coach
Western State Teachers College
Bowling Green, Kentucky

Dear Ed:

I appreciate your gracious letter of April 2. I don't need to assure you that every one connected with Murray State was "pulling" for Western to win the tournament at Madison Square Garden; and the fine record of your team is most gratifying to us here. Our two schools are great rivals in athletics; but I trust and believe they will always be friendly rivals. That is a wholesome situation for both institutions. Such a rivalry, based upon mutual respect, will develop a fine athletic tradition and establish many abiding friendships.

With cordial good wishes, I am
Sincerely yours
James H. Richmond,
President.

DORM DOINGS

By WALTER MARTIN

It looks as if Spring is just around the corner; anyway, the boys have begun sitting out in front of the dorm soaking up some of Old Sol.

Baseball is in the air, and the thud of a baseball striking against a mitt is a familiar sound these days. Lester West and Cliff Cavender are the best at the present, it seems.

"April showers bring May flowers" is the theme song of Dean Beale as he works with hoe and rake to beautify the landscape at the rear of the dorm.

"The Cross-roads of the Dorm" is the opinion expressed by J. P. Tucker of Suite 214. They drop in to chat or to play Cole's records or to listen in on the conversation. The last test census showed an average of 27 per evening.

When Fred Ganas returned from Louisville, Ralph Cole packed his records and went back to 213, whereupon "Goon" Vincent rushed to the mirror and said, "Another grey hair."

To be serious for a split second, we wish to express regret at the loss of one of our residents, Tim O'Brien, who has moved out of the dorm.

Have you noticed how much better the front of the dorm looks since Kemper has shifted the shrubbery. The man is astounding as and full of ideas as Suites 309 and 310 are of visitors nightly.

DOT WHITE SAYS CIRCUS IS COMING TO CARR BUILDING

Physical Ed Carnival Booked For May 14

Have you been to a circus lately? Dot White, director of the Physical Education Carnival, says one is coming to the health building at Murray State College, May 14, at 8 p. m., when the physical education program will be presented in circus style.

Lasting one hour and thirty-five minutes, the carnival will be much speedier than preceding ones, according to Miss White.

Some interesting features of the program are: body beautiful, which will be presented in Hawaiian manner; the awards for Americans; a tap number on roller skates by Sue Harris, Mayfield, and Mildred Kolb, Paducah; and stances showing international sports of various countries and progress of American sports.

Powell Puckett, Shelbyville; Bud Dubia, Murray; Walter Hill, Lexington, Tenn.; and Charlie Walsh, Ripley, Tenn., are to clown. The program begins with the entrance of the animals followed by an animal act by Guy Gardner, Murray, and Miss Katherine McVay, Evanston, Ill.

Tumbling, pyramids, high bar, Hungarian dance by the Training School, flag dance by Murray High School, and group singing of "Anchors Aweigh", concluded with flag raising and the audience singing "Star Spangled Banner", will be other events of the program.

Head Coach Jim Moore, in reference to the animals, said they were the best he had ever seen outside of real ones.

"The program will show how physical education works hand in hand with National Defense in the making and developing of the body," says Miss White.

WAA INVITED TO PLAY DAY

Murray Co-Eds Receive Invitation to Attend State-Wide Meeting

The Women's Athletic Association has received an invitation to attend a state-wide Play Day at Union College, Barbourville, on Saturday, May 2, according to Miss Dorothy White.

The whole club or representatives will attend this convocation, stated Miss White. If all the members cannot make the trip, delegates will be selected according to their eligibility.

A ping pong tournament is now being held by the WAA. The finals are yet to be played, club officials said.

Swimming was begun at the last meeting Thursday, April 9.

Training Union Convention To Be Held at Murray

The Baptist State Training Union Convention of Kentucky will meet with the First Baptist Church of Murray, April 15-17.

Guest speakers will be Dr. R. G. Lee, Memphis, and Dr. John L. Hill, Nashville.

Despite Bad Weather Grid Drills Are O. K.

Initiation Plans Are Discussed by Phi Mu Alpha

A short meeting was held by the Phi Mu Alpha music fraternity in the auditorium Monday, April 6, to discuss plans for the informal initiation of pledges, April 9.

Before the meeting adjourned, the formal initiation to be held April 14 was rehearsed.

HARRIS CHOSEN COLTS' CAPTAIN

St. Xavier and KMI Are Scheduled By Coach Ed Scales

Marvin Harris, guard on this year's Training School basketball team, has been elected captain of next year's Colt five, it was announced today by Coach E. R. Scales, Mr. Scales also announced 10 lettermen in basketball for the past season. Those named by the coach were: Marvin Harris, John Nanney, Joe Windsor, Paul Haley, Everett Davidson, Mancil Vinson, Homer Bullard, Dickie Wilcox, Galen Thurman, and James Thompson.

"Next year's schedule will definitely include St. Xavier and KMI," stated Scales, who also indicated that negotiations are to be made with College High of Western State Teachers College for a game. The St. Xavier game is scheduled for Friday, December 11, at the Male High gym while the game with KMI will be played the following Saturday afternoon, according to the Colt mentor.

Coach Moore Says Practice "Best We Have Ever Had"

Despite unfavorable weather conditions, the spring grid drills "have been the best we have ever had," Jim Moore, head football coach at Murray State College said last week.

Coach Moore stated that the spring drills up to now have been very informal, with much emphasis on the backfield as well as offensive drills for the line.

"I believe that most of the backs have improved, especially in speed and deception," Murray's coach stated, and added that offensive drills with the linemen were necessary because one line is composed completely of freshmen.

"With one veteran team working among the boys," he continued, "we appear to have one of the best teams we have had in recent years; however, our reserves appear to be weak at this point. Unless they improve or we are able to pick up some strong reserves next fall among incoming freshmen, we may find the going rough."

Coach Moore states that the offense has been simplified, limited to a few plays which seem to be "clicking nicely." He said that the "man in motion" play looked especially potent.

"The draft situation will raise a constant question," he stated, "which we will be unable to answer until next fall."

Miss Lela Belle Prather, Union City, Tenn., was a Sunday guest of Misses Elsie Calhoun, Eddyville, and Martha Meals, Clarksburg.

Kipa Pi Selects Delegates To Go To State Meet

Kipa Pi, journalism club, met Friday, April 3, at 10 a. m. to select delegates to attend the Kentucky Intercollegiate Press Association meeting to be held at Union College, Barbourville, April 10-11.

Students elected to go to Barbourville were Tommie Dodd, Clara Mae Breckenridge, Austin Adkinson, and Rayburn Watkins. The students are to be accompanied by Miss Mayrell Johnson, of the social science department.

Kenny Keane, editor of the College Fuse, gave a report on the success of the College Fuse, April Fool publication of April 1. Keane said that the money obtained from the Fuse publication would be used to pay for the Kipa Pi Shield picture.

Murray Students Vote on Favorite Historical Sites

Murray State College students chose My Old Kentucky Home at Bardonia as the most interesting Kentucky place for visitors in an election held in chapel Wednesday, April 8. Murray, Birthplace of Radio, ranked tenth.

Students were asked to vote on the 17 places in Kentucky which they thought would be most interesting for visitors to see as a part of the Kentucky Sesquicentennial Celebration.

The list of 50 places was compiled by a committee composed of Mrs. Nelle Vaughan, G. M. Pedley, and J. Lyter Donaldson. These 17 places as chosen by the students will be especially marked by the State Highway Commission.

In order of the number of votes received they are: My Old Kentucky Home (Bardonia)—628 votes; Kentucky Dam (Gibbsville)—536; Mammoth Cave National Park (Edmonson Co.)—534; Lincoln National Memorial (Hodgenville)—470; Reelfoot Lake (Pulaski Co.)—467; Kentucky Natural Bridge State Park (Powell Co.)—467; Horse Farms (Lexington)—453; Man O' War (Lexington)—438; Kentucky State Capitol Building (Frankfort)—422; Murray, Birthplace of Radio—421; Jefferson Davis Monument (Fairview)—418; Ancient Buried City (Wickliffe)—375; Cumberland Falls (Whitley Co.)—340; Cumberland Gap (Bell County)—314; Audubon Memorial State Park (Henderson)—309; Ashland, Home of Henry Clay (Lexington)—261; Liberty Hall (Frankfort)—245.

Of the 50 places listed, no place received fewer than 14 votes.

Miss Fehrer Is Leader in Study Of French Papers

Miss Catherine Fehrer, sponsor of Beta Pi Theta French fraternity, led the members in inspecting and discussing French newspapers at the club meeting Wednesday, April 11.

The newspapers were lent the club by Dr. F. C. Pogue, social science instructor here, who studied in Paris in 1938.

Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Wolfson have invited the fraternity to meet at their home in their next regular meeting, which will be held after the KEA vacation.

W. H. BROOKS IS CHAPTER SPONSOR

500 Boys From West Kentucky Compete in Annual Meet April 4

Murray Training School won the championship in the annual district contests held by the Future Farmers here April 4 by scoring a total of 143 points. Lynn Grove was second with 75; Heath third with 63; Lone Oak fourth with 62; Hazel fifth with 50.

Out of 185 first place points, the Training School won 98, while the other 23 high schools combined won the other 87.

Over 500 boys from 22 high schools in West Kentucky competed here in the following events: public speaking, impromptu speaking, opening and closing ceremonies, parliamentary procedure, chapter music, vocal music, piano, orchestra, novelty music, secretary's book, treasurer's book, scrapbook, news letter, and in enterprise tests in tobacco, swine, sheep, beef cattle, dairy, poultry, soils, farm management, farm shop, corn, hay, pasture, and home beautification.

W. R. Tabb, a member of the department of vocation education at the University of Kentucky, Lexington, was in charge of the general tests. Prof. W. H. Brooks and the Murray Training School FFA chapter, of which he is sponsor, were hosts to the delegates.

In the public speaking contest, sponsored by the Courier-Journal and Louisville Times, Buron Richerson, Murray Training School, won first place; Will F. Stealy, Hazel, won second; Horace Williams, Lone Oak, third; Fred Greer, Central, fourth.

Doran Is First
In impromptu speaking, sponsored by the Dairy Products Association, winners were: first, Harold Glen Doran, Murray Training School; second, Dwain Norwood, Hardin; third, Hampton Erwin, Lynn Grove.

Board Members of Calloway County Vegetable Growers Association, Inc., Discuss Plans for Raising Tomatoes

Prof. W. H. Brooks, vocational agriculture instructor at Murray State College Training School, expects to clinch his argument this year that tomatoes are a money crop in the dark tobacco belt.

He is president and general manager of the Calloway County Vegetable Growers Association of Murray, Ky., which was incorporated last year. With 120 members, this association last year set out 85 acres of tomatoes which yielded a $11,000 business despite one of the worst droughts in recent years.

The Future Farmers of America has a local chapter composed of boys attending the Training School at Murray and this chapter set up 1½ acres last year as a group project in addition to the individual projects of the members.

"Because of the war and the resultant need for food, our FFA will set out about 20 acres as individual projects this year," Mr. Brooks said.

Calloway's tomato yield this year will be increased from 85 acres producing 13,000 hogs to 170 acres that may produce 30,000 hogs. Mr. Brooks expects the association to do a $30,000 business in 1942. Membership in the association has increased from 120 members to 150 this year.

The association uses local labor in packing the tomatoes and the FFA boys expect to repeat last year's performance in having a leading part in this work.

The tomatoes are packed under technical direction and are labeled with the association's label "Pride of the Purchase." Firms which handled Calloway's tomatoes last year have already asked for the privilege of handling their product again this year, according to Mr. Brooks. All have commented on the high quality of the tomatoes raised and sold, he added.

NYA TAKES PART IN DEFENSE WORK

New Machinery Added To Metal Division

The defense projects of the NYA at Murray State College are now participating in constructive work.

New machines, tools, and other equipment are rapidly being added to the defense metal shop. A milling machine was brought in Monday, April 6, but because of the lack of necessary tools, it is not yet in operation. Wednesday, April 8, a truck load of useful articles, files, file brushes, saw blades, welding rods, oil cans, first aid materials, brooms, paints, etc. was delivered to the welding and machine shop.

In the metal shop only boys work. They have made bolts, screw drivers, clamps, wrenches, hammers, paper weights, files, and pulley wheels.

Although new workers are being added and others drop out, the entire shop now consists of 41 boys. In the welding shop there are eight boys working from 5 a. m. to 12:30 p. m.; five working from 1 p. m. to 8 p. m.; 15 working in the machine shop from 5 a. m. to 12:30 p. m.; and 13 from 1 p. m. to 8:30 p. m.

Ralph D. O'Man, formerly employed in the Mayfield metal defense shop, is the welding supervisor with Bill Leslie, Mayfield, and Norman Wofford, Murray, instructors in the welding shop.

The instructors of the machine shop are G. W. Jones, Murray, and Robbie Robertson, Paducah.

Radio Shop
The girls now have a majority of twelve to five in the radio shop, which is in the basement of the liberal arts building. Formerly only boys were employed in this shop; the girls have recently taken their place.

Woodshop and Laundry
The woodshop, which formerly employed only boys, is now operated by girls under the instruction of Ual Killebrew and J. C. Holmes, related training teacher. One boy is employed on each of the morning and afternoon shifts.

Adjoining the woodshop is the laundry, which is beneath the south wing of the Swann Dormitory. It is now entirely operated by NYA girls.

Ceramics Shop
The Ceramics shop is now operated by girls, with the exception of two boys on the afternoon shift. There are now 15 girls, eight on the morning shift and seven on the afternoon shift. They are under the instruction of Herbert Tepping, head of the Ceramics department.

Since the Denver Kiln Company repaired the ceramic kiln last month, a large number of tumblers have been finished and turned over to the NYA kitchen. Many successful test glazes have been fired. New machines and equipment have been added to the shop since its re-opening.

ANDERSON GIVES TEACHING ADVICE

Commerce Critic Teacher Is Speaker at Meeting of Club on April 1

Prof. Vernon Anderson, commerce critic teacher at the Training School of Murray State College, addressed the Twentieth Century Commerce Club, April 1, on "Teaching School."

"Like your subject. Like your students. Like to show them how to solve their problems. Directed teaching is the culmination of your whole four years of preparation," he said.

"Start reading related material. I don't believe you can progress in anything if you don't read related material. Prepare in advance for your teaching and you'll like it better."

"I hope you'll realize that every class meeting brings a new problem, and every student presents a different problem. If you don't do your best, the student is one of the losers," he added.

"Watch your conduct on the campus," Mr. Anderson said, giving an illustration of a practice teacher who lost the respect of his students because he dated and danced with them.

Mr. Anderson stressed the fact that classes should be kept alive and moving.

"The best way to keep your students motivated is to be prepared for every lesson," he said.

Miss Overall Returns From Classical Meet

Miss Betty Ray, former related training teacher of the ceramics project, left for her home in Columbus, O., Sunday, April 5. She will not return to Murray to resume her former occupation.

The Kitchen
The kitchen boys will make room for girls that are to replace them next week. The boys will be placed principally on the maintenance crew.

The majority of the girls, who now work on the various projects of the NYA, have been recently shifted because all handicraft projects, which formerly employed 63 girls of the NYA at Murray State, are being closed all over the nation.

Alta Strong, weaving supervisor, Netsy Muncy, related training teacher, and Gladys Snyder, sewing supervisor, will leave the project April 15.

Training School News

Having won a rating of superior in the Regional Speech Meet March 28, students of Murray Training School are competing this week at Lexington for state honors.

The group, composed of Harold G. Doran, extemporaneous speaking; Marian Sharborough, poetry reading; Sue Callis, Kentucky poetry; Clifford Jones, radio speaking; and Buron Richerson, Training School representative to the Junior Legislature, left Wednesday, April 8, accompanied by Prof. Vernon Anderson, debate coach. The state competition is scheduled for April 8, 9, 10, 11.

The Training School FFA boys won the district FFA tied meet by a score of 143 to their nearest competitors, Lynn Grove, who tallied 75 points. Prof. W. H. Brooks, who has been in charge of vocational agriculture at the Training School for three years, is sponsor of the club. This is the first time the Training School has won the honor, having captured second place in last year's meet and third in 1939.

Last Monday, April 6, the Science Club was in charge of chapel exercises. The program consisted of a dramatization of the search for substitute materials and new sources for old materials that is being done in the United States war effort. Those participating in the dramatization were: Joe Windsor, Clifford Jones, Dickie Wilcox, Earla McClure, and Sue Callis. The club sponsor is Miss Roberta Whitnah, science critic. The Student Council will be in charge of the chapel program for Monday, April 13.

Tuesday night, April 7, the mixed chorus held a party for all of its members. Another party is scheduled by the sophomore class on Friday, April 10.

Mother Club Meets
The Mothers Club, meeting Monday, April 6, elected the following officers for the forthcoming year: Mrs. W. D. Lewis, president; Dr. Annie Ray, vice-president; Mrs. E. C. Scales, secretary-treasurer.

The program, which was in the charge of Miss Clara Rimmer, language instructor, included numbers by the junior high school mixed chorus which won a rating of superior in the music festival last week. Miss Marjorie Palmquist directed the group. Also presented were two plays, "Wildcat Willie" by members of the seventh grade and "Junior Wins the Prize" by members of the eighth grade.

The annual speech contest sponsored by national bankers on the banking improvement question will be entered by Sara Hopper for the Training School. The county runoff which will determine who will

Entertain With Hotel Banquet

Mr. and Mrs. J. Chester Durham, Murray Baptist Student Secretary and wife, entertained the Baptist Student Union Executive Council with a banquet at the National Hotel Thursday evening, April 2.

The theme of "First Magnitude" was carried out in the table decorations, place cards, and the "Spontaneous Combustion" program.

The First Magnitude award was unveiled by Mr. Durham.

Those attending were: Mrs. H. M. McElrath, Misses Lillian Hollowell, Margaret Muse, Mary Gresham, Matilda Quirey, Sue Upchurch, Christine Miller, Lorraine Arnett, Sue Saunders, Beulah Rae Floyd, Onelda Ahart, Elizabeth Upchurch, and Mr. G. A. Murphey, H. L. Hardy, Hugh McElrath, Walter Martin, Thomas Hogancamp, Hughlan Richey, and Mr. and Mrs. Durham.

represent this county in the regional contests will be held Monday, April 13.

The senior class under the sponsorship of Miss Margaret Campbell, senior critic, and Charles Clift and Pete Koss, practice teachers went on a hike Sunday, March 29.

The girls of the American history class visited the NYA workshops to inspect the metal work and woodwork that is going on there now. These girls made the inspection with the thought in mind that they may have to operate similar machinery in the war effort.

Miss Ernestine Miller, college student, has been selected to coach the senior play this year, announced Miss Margaret Campbell, senior sponsor. The play to be presented has not yet been selected.

TRAINING SCHOOL SETS RECORD FOR SALE OF STAMPS

Total of $105.60 Sold in Bonds, Stamps on April 8

The students of Murray Training School went "all out for national defense" on their weekly "Thrifty Day", Wednesday, April 8, as they broke all previous records in the buying of defense stamps and bonds. The students bought $98.10 worth of defense stamps and two bonds to make a total of $105.60, according to Superintendent W. J. Caplinger.

The "Thrifty Day" program, which was started February 11, sets aside every Wednesday for the buying of defense stamps and bonds. The amount bought has increased every Wednesday except one, March 25, according to C. M. Graham, Training School principal.

"Since February 11, $446.50 worth of stamps alone have been bought," stated Prof. Graham. A "Keep 'Em Flying" chart is on display in one of the display windows which shows the various classes in their progress since the program was launched.

At present the second grade is far ahead with $69.90. The fourth grade is second with $58.05 and the sixth grade, third with $52.40. Miss Ola B. Brock is sponsor of the second grade.

Four bonds have been bought this year, according to Prof. Graham. Those buying bonds were: John B. Cavitt, senior; Barbara Barnett, second grade, and Shirley Stovall (2) of the second grade also. Several bonds have been bought which are not recorded.

Prof. A. C. LaFollette Returns From Southern Speech Association

"The other colleges and universities at the tournament missed our team and delegation." This was about the first statement Prof. A. C. LaFollette made upon his return from the Southern Association of Teachers of Speech meeting, congress and tournament held in Atlanta, Ga., March 23-25.

The debate team received messages from Southern Methodist, Baylor, Louisiana State University, University of Alabama, University of Florida, Hendrix, and Duke expressing regret that the team was not able to attend and also saying in part that "the spirit that Murray gave the meeting last year was not present this time."

Mr. LaFollette is executive secretary of the S.A.T.S. for the term '42-'44. He addressed the Friday afternoon session of the convention on "Vital Statistics," pointing out the growth and accomplishments of the Association during the past year.

Highlights of the convention included a speech by Lucian Harris, Jr., on the life of his grandfather, Joel Chandler Harris. Dr. Lionel Crocker, national president of Tau Kappa Alpha, forensic fraternity, from Dennison University addressed the convention, and Dr. Alan Nichols of the University of Southern California also spoke.

Because of difficulty in obtaining funds the Murray team was not able to go; however, the team will try to attend the meet next year, Mr. LaFollette stated. Next year's convention will be held in Jackson, Miss. This year the congress used the Georgia state Senate chamber, and the S.A.T.S. plans to secure the use of the Mississippi chamber for next year.

Tri Sigma Has Business Meeting

The Sigma Sigma Sigma sorority met Monday, April 6, at 7 p.m. in the art department for its regular business meeting.

A round table discussion on religion was given by Miss Betty Boyd Mabry, leader, Mayfield; Miss Mary Virginia Henry, Sturgis; Miss Grace Ashbrook, LaCenter; and Miss Ruth Bowlin, Memphis, Tenn.

After the business session, the pledges were invited in and sorority songs were sung. Songs to be used in the Founder's Day program, which is to be April 20, were taught to the pledges.

Preview of Follies Given in Chapel

A preview of the "M" Club Follies was presented in chapel Wednesday, April 8, featuring Wayne Johnson and his newly-organized orchestra.

Following the "Woodchopper's Ball" by Johnson and the band, Bob Salmons introduced three members of the cast of the "M" Club Follies, Jess Hahn, director, who sang "My Melancholy Baby"; Fritz Weber and Ken Keane, who gave impersonations, the former of "Paul Revere" and the latter of "Tizzie Lish".

Dr. F. C. Pogue presided over chapel. Mimeographed sheets were handed to the students and faculty to vote on the 17 places in Kentucky that would be most interesting to the visitors to Kentucky during the Sesqui-Centennial celebration.

Fiser Appointed To Naval Reserve With Gene Tunney

Robert Fiser, senior from Benton, who received an appointment as chief specialist in the Naval Reserve, under the Gene Tunney Physical Education program, will report at Norfolk, Va., on April 29.

Fiser traveled to Atlanta, Ga., where he was interviewed and received the appointment. His naval rating will be chief-petty officer.

Bob, a member of the Physical Education Club and the "M" Club, was co-captain of the Murray boxing team this year, and is one of the outstanding boxers in this part of the state.

The officers appointed at the meeting were as follows: Thomas P. Knapp, squadron commander; Miss Patricia Mason, executive officer; Miss Mayrell Johnson, adjutant; Miss Jeanne Chambers, personnel officer; Mr. Ryan, supply officer; Dr. Katherine Fisher, medical officer; Kenneth Keane, intelligence and public relations officer; Thomas Brandon, Jr., training and operations officer; Granger Latta, transportation officer; John Douma, communications officer.

Any one wishing to join the CAP either on a flying or ground status should see Miss Mayrell Johnson.

Aviation Cadet W. Lewis Drake, Jr., Trenton, Tenn., a 1941 graduate of Murray State College, recently arrived at the Greenville Army Flying School, Greenville, Miss., where he is now undergoing basic flight training.

Upon completion of his course at Greenville, Cadet Drake will be transferred to an advanced flying school in the Southeast area. Successful completion of his course there will earn for him the coveted pilot wings and an officer's commission in the Army Air Corps.

Cadet Drake was cartoonist on the staff of the College News from 1938 to 1940.

CROUCH TO ENTER SPEECH CONTEST

Murray Student Plans To Attend Convention In Georgia April 13-14

Ralph Crouch, second place winner in the district inter-American extemporaneous-discussion contest held here on March 16 will compete in the regional contest at Atlanta, Ga., on April 13 and 14.

Elaborate programs have been arranged by Emory University, the host school, the city of Atlanta, and the state of Georgia. The state department is arranging to have a consul from one of the Latin American republics. In addition, four radio stations have prepared special broadcasts, the stores of Atlanta have prepared window displays, flags of the 21 American republics will line the streets, and special campus observances of Pan-American Day are planned by Emory University, Georgia Tech, and Agnes Scott colleges.

In keeping with the spirit of the entire contest—that of promoting better understanding of the "Good Neighbor Policy"—the delegates will be called upon to give short talks, participate in group discussions, appear in forums before civic club luncheons or on radio programs.

This contest is sponsored by the U. S. government through the Coordinator of Inter-American Affairs, and has the endorsement of President Roosevelt. The winner at Atlanta will represent the Southeastern region in the national contest at Washington on May 14, and will be given a summer trip to South America.

The Rich department store in Atlanta, one of the largest in the South, is giving a luncheon in Crouch's honor, and he will address this group on "Latin American relations."

KAPPA DELTA PI ADDS 14 MEMBERS

Col. Daniel Hoge of Camp Tyson, Tenn., Is Principal Speaker

Fourteen new members were formally initiated by Kappa Delta Pi, national honorary educational fraternity, at its annual spring banquet Friday night at the Woman's Club House.

SCALES IS COACH OF MURRAY COLTS

Former Business Man Of Louisville Is Student As Well as Mentor

Edward Scales, formerly of Louisville, is now a student of Murray State and coach of the Training School basketball and track teams.

He was connected with the insurance business in Louisville where he specialized in life insurance for commission personnel of the U. S. Army. He came to Murray to study in preparation for resumption of activities in the educational field.

His majors here are political science and English. He expects to be active in education in the secondary school field upon completion of graduation requirements. He formerly attended Lawrenceville School in 1929, Washington and Lee University in 1930-31 and was instructor in English and mathematics and assistant coach of football, basketball, and track at Kentucky Military Institute in 1932 and 1933. He is a member of the Phi Kappa Psi national fraternity.

Before leaving Louisville, he was publisher of The Commuter, weekly paper in Louisville, and was connected with the Belknap Hardware Company. He, his wife, and four children reside on Main street in West Murray.

Prof. Wooldridge Has Interesting, Varied Career

Prof. M. E. Wooldridge, familiar educator and pastor of the Mid-South, has one word of advice for students:

"Anyone can succeed by diligent application and thoroughness in anything he undertakes."

Mr. Wooldridge began his teaching career at Dyer, Tenn. He later served as head of various city schools and high schools and as president of Hall Moody College of Martin, Tenn. He also taught for several years at Murray State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Wooldridge, both teachers, are parents of nine children, who were all college graduates and teachers. One son and two daughters have died.

Mr. Wooldridge holds the following degrees: bachelor of science, bachelor of arts, master of arts, and doctor of divinity. He began his ministry in the Baptist Church in 1899 in Cottage Grove, Tenn.

His father was a Confederate soldier.

Former Students Injured in Bus And Car Mishap

Miss Virginia Veale, former student at Murray State was seriously injured in a collision with a C. Ray bus at the corner of Main and Sixth streets at 5:25 o'clock Thursday, April 2. Jane Veale, also a former student here, received a cut on the forehead.

According to one of the nurses at Mason Hospital, Virginia, who was drum majorette and a campus favorite while she was in school, has a skull fracture and two large gashes, one across the forehead and one across the chin.

SUMMER TERM TO EXTEND 11 WEEKS

Normal Student Load To Be 16 Quarter Hours for Murray

The summer session, at Murray State which will be 11 weeks instead of 10 weeks long will be divided into two terms of 5½ weeks each. The first term will extend from June 1 to July 8, and the second from July 9 to August 15.

For the summer quarter, the normal student load will be 16 quarter hours, and the maximum load will be 21 quarter hours. Half of this load will be possible each term.

Organization of the curriculum on the quarter basis means that credit in the future will be measured in terms of quarter hours rather than semester hours. A course which meets one period per week for a quarter will carry credit of one quarter hour. One hundred ninety-two quarter hours will be required for graduation, and the semester hours of credit which students have previously earned will be translated into quarter hours by multiplying the semester hours of credit by ½.

For example, four semester hours would become six quarter hours. Requirements for certification of majors and minors will be measured in terms of quarter hours. This means that students now in college will not meet exactly the present requirements as measured in semester hours. In each case, however, the student will more than meet the new requirements as measured in terms of quarter hours.

According to Dean Nash, there is no need for present students to worry, in the least, as to the effect the new program will have upon their courses.

Deering Comes To Murray Upon Steffin's Advice

Harold Deering, sophomore at Murray State College from Underhill, Wis., came to this college upon the recommendation of Carl Steffin, former basketball captain.

"Dutch," as he prefers to be called, likes the friendly attitude of the student body and the town folks at Murray. The physical education program of the college, he believes, is outstanding. At Gillette, Wis., High School, Deering was a football star and he is "itching" to get back on the gridiron.

He frankly admits he likes the soft Southern accent of the girls at Murray. His favorite dance band is Sammy Kaye and his idol among athletes is Johnny Blood, former pro football great with the Green Bay Packers.

After two years at Murray, Harold plans to transfer to Wisconsin University where he expects to work on an engineering degree. If these plans are halted by the draft, he says he would be interested in the Air Corps. At present he is enrolled in the Civil Pilot Training program at Murray.

WATKINS REPORTS RECEIPTS ARE UP IN COLLEGE NEWS

Business Manager Is Debater, Honor Student, Columnist

Despite unfavorable conditions due to the war, Rayburn Watkins, business manager of the College News, reports that advertising receipts of Murray's campus newspaper have reached an all-time high.

Watkins, a sophomore at Murray State, was graduated from Benton High School as salutatorian and entered Murray in 1940. He won his varsity debate letter here as a freshman. Last spring he and his colleague won the debate tournament at Union University, Jackson, Tenn., receiving a large trophy as an award for their alma mater.

He is now president of Tau Kappa Alpha, national forensic fraternity; secretary of the International Relations Club, and a member of the Kappa Psi journalism club.

His column, "Out on a Limb," won the prize for best column in the collegiate press of Kentucky last fall. He was a member of the college band last year and has made the honor roll for high grades every semester since enrolling at Murray. He was a member of Murray's Pan-American discussion team this year.

In high school at Benton, Watkins was editor-in-chief of the school paper, varsity debate letterman, and a member of the band, glee club, and swing orchestra. In 1939, he won first place as "best actor" in the annual 1-act play contests and was awarded a certificate for ranking first in the Jackson Purchase in the interscholastic contest and third in the state in biology.

Olive Boulevard To Be Completed By June 1, 1942

Olive Boulevard will be completed by June 1, 1942, Robert Nunley, supervisor, prophesied today. One side of the street has been completed. Forty-five men are now employed on the job.

Mr. Nunley stated the total cost will amount to $24,825, which includes $15,370 for labor and $9,455 for material. Equipment for the street is being furnished by the State Highway Department.

Miss Hays Accepts Teaching Position

Miss Martha Lou Hays, graduate of Murray State College, has accepted a position teaching home economics in Macon, Ill.

President of the Household Arts Club this year, Miss Hays was outstanding in the home economics department and was also a charter member and pre-installation president of Tri Sigma.

She was selected as one of the "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" for 1941-42. Being interested in music, this versatile student was a member of the mixed chorus and girls' glee club and a member of the college band.

For two consecutive years she held the office of secretary-treasurer in the Portfolio Club. Talented in the art of marionette making, she took an active part in the marionette shows presented by the club.

A resident of Murray for the past 16 years, Miss Hays completed her elementary and secondary education at Murray State, and since graduating last February she has been teaching in Grove High School, Paris, Tenn.

Ballet Troupe Will Present Dance Program

The Edwin Strawbridge Ballet troupe, a group of 10 dancers, will present the life of Daniel Boone in a series of interpretive dances on April 13, at 8:15 p. m. in the college auditorium.

This group, headed by Dancer Edwin Strawbridge, has gained national fame for this and other ballet numbers and has played at such well-known centers as the Metropolitan Opera House, New York City, the Chicago Civic Opera Company, and with the New York Philharmonic Symphony.

The program will be sponsored by the Community Concert Series and student tickets will admit those interested.

Mrs. McGivaren Is Designer of Bookmobile

"Oh, I think it's fine." These were the words Mrs. Nina McGivaren, regional librarian, gave in stating her opinion of Murray State College.

Mrs. McGivaren came here July 1, 1941, as regional librarian. Her college training was received at Louisiana State University, Randolph Macon Woman's College, and the University of Illinois.

Saying she has no hobbies, Mrs. McGivaren likes knitting for the Red Cross and is interested in flying and is taking ground work aeronautics courses.

The Bookmobile, which is one of the few in Kentucky, was designed by her.

Her project has to do with the organization and promotion of libraries in the Kentucky Dam area. It includes service to the camp at Kentucky Dam, to the schools and communities of Marshall, Calloway, and Graves counties, and is the first regional library project connected with a teachers college.

Sasseen Likes Flying As Well As Grid Playing

By SHELBY ISEELL

"Flying in a plane is almost as much fun as flying with a pigskin," Teddy Sasseen, prominent sophomore tailback at Murray State College, exclaimed in a personal interview. Sasseen, after two years from the Bon-Ton (Mayfield, Ky.), is capping off his sophomore year by taking the Civilian Pilot Training.

The 22-year-old Bon-Tonner became a Thoroughbred gridder two years ago with plenty of pigskin totin' experience. He was born December 18, 1919. As a boy, he began sandlot football. This was followed by grade school, then freshman, and varsity ball at Mayfield High School. In his senior year his team won the Western Kentucky Conference Championship. His high school career was climaxed by playing in the Shrine All-Star game in Lexington, Ky., and by being named on the All-State second team. He played in all of the freshman battles here at Murray State last year. The sophomore continued this year with a splendid season climaxed by being named honorable mention on the all KIAC.

His life has not been entirely filled with football. His favorite hobby is golf, which he began as a caddy at the Mayfield Country Club. As a caddy he did quite well; he was the winner of trophies in the caddy tournament of 1937 and 1938.

While in high school he was cartoonist on the school paper, but his journalism ended with his high school days. Here at Murray State he has taken up art and plans to make commercial art his career. He is a very popular sign painter in Mayfield and Murray. His last jobs were posters for the "M Club Follies" and "Campus Lights".

Along with his football, art, and flying, he says, "Murray College life is tops (especially in the spring) and I hope Uncle Sam will let me enjoy four years of it."

Miss Betty Wilson, Mayfield, attended the wedding of her cousin, Ellen Mayo, of Greenfield, Tenn., last week-end.

MISS FINLEY IS NAMED PRESIDENT OF SAI SORORITY

Miss Shultz Is Chosen Treasurer Of Organization

Miss Nell Finley, Paducah, was elected president of Sigma Alpha Iota at a meeting Tuesday, March 31, at 6:30 p. m.

Other officers were elected as follows: Martha Shultz, Hartford, Ky., treasurer; Phyllis Dickinson, Taylorville, Ill., secretary; Jean Nell, Martin, Tenn., chaplain; and Eloise Pickard, Mayfield, sergeant-at-arms. These new officers will be installed at the first meeting in May.

To Miss Annie Lou Roberts, Mayfield, who graduated from Murray State in January, went the award of the honor certificate for the graduate in SAI that had the highest standing for four years. Miss Roberts' standing was 2.7.

Plans were made for informal initiation of pledges on Saturday, April 11. Formal initiation will be held Sunday, April 12, followed by the annual banquet. The place for the banquet has not been decided.

Prof. William Fox was selected to be music director of "The Gondoliers", the musical production which will be presented by Sock and Buskin and Sigma Alpha Iota on May 1.

Miss Slaughter Makes Posters For Dramatics

Miss Wathena Slaughter, freshman from Detroit, Mich., is becoming widely known for her attractive, often weird, posters advertising the coming attractions of Sock and Buskin dramatics club, of which she is an enthusiastic member.

A graduate of Cass Technical High School in Detroit, Miss Slaughter was the winner of a divisional prize in the Walker Outdoor Advertising contest when she was a senior. She has also been connected with Postal Telegraph, a city mailing and advertising organization, and a photographic studio.

At Murray, she is a member of the Portfolio, ACE, and Sock and
