U.S. Offers To Buy Goods

From Reds

Washington—Harry H. Jones, Federal bank administrator, and his staff have agreed to buy strategic materials which France will no longer be able to supply, after one o'clock, to Great Britain and other Allies. The material to be purchased includes certain types of weapons that are important in the war effort.

Jones told newsmen today that he had offered to purchase these materials from the French government. The French government has been asked to submit a list of items that can be supplied.

The French government has indicated that it is willing to sell certain types of arms and munitions to the United States. The list of items to be purchased will be announced later.

Mechanized Army

To Farm Mechanic

Port Harrison, Ill.—Fred Purcell, a farmer from Illinois, has been named as the new farm mechanic for the United States military. Purcell has been a farmer for 15 years and has been involved in the war effort by growing crops for the army.

Purcell will be responsible for training farm workers in the use of new agricultural machinery. He will also be responsible for supervising the operation of farm equipment.

Miss Dorothy Campbell of Bowling Green, Ky., secretary-treasurer of the school of agriculture at the University of Kentucky, has been named as his assistant.

Talmadge Threatens To Shut Off News To Georgia

Atlanta—G. Fontaine Thos. Talmadge, Jr., Georgia newspapers editor and publisher, has threatened to shut off news to Georgia newspapers in protest against the state's failure to purchase agricultural products from the United States.

Talmadge said that he would not continue to supply news to Georgia newspapers until the state purchases agricultural products from the United States.

The Georgia newspapers have been complaining about the lack of agricultural products from the United States and have been urging the state to purchase from other sources.

Kentucky To Fight Back If

Georgia Acts Against Trucks

Frankfort, Ky.—A decision was made today to fight back if Georgia acts against trucks. The state of Kentucky has been threatened with economic sanctions if it does not agree to purchase agricultural products from Georgia.

The decision was made by Governor W. B. Pepper, who said that the state would not agree to purchase from Georgia and that the state would take action if necessary.

The Governor said that the state would take action if Georgia does not agree to purchase agricultural products from the United States.

Redemption Of Cotton Stamps Is Explained

Frankfort, Ky.—The redemption of cotton stamps is explained by Governor W. B. Pepper. Pepper said that the state would not agree to purchase cotton stamps from Georgia and that the state would take action if necessary.

The Governor said that the state would take action if Georgia does not agree to purchase cotton stamps from the United States.

Fifteen Years Ago

There has been a marked change in the tactics of Communism in the United States since Stalin went to war against Germany. Prior to that time Communists were at the rest of a majority of strikes, and since this war started strikes have declined sharply. Mayor LaGuardia pointed out the possibilities of this campaign in a speech in which he called for the continuation of the American people are loyal and determined and that they will make real sacrifices to carry forward their program.

Mayo LaGuardia pointed out the possibilities of this campaign in a speech in which he called for the continuation of the American people are loyal and determined and that they will make real sacrifices to carry forward their program.

In the early years of our history, the pioneers sought safety and a chance to make a living with primitive weapons, and we are back on their tracks again because of lack of arms.

People today are being called upon to fight the enemy with a few, but more harmless weapons. Pots and pans and many other items are being used in this campaign. Through the collection of such items as aluminum to be used in the production of airplanes, throughout the nation, it is anticipated that 20,000,000 pounds of aluminum will be needed for the production of aluminum. Such items as tin cans, bottles, and other objects for the defense program will be made available.

The success of this campaign is bringing two-fold result. It not only will help the war effort, but the collection of these things is helping the nations manufacturers to produce materials for the nation's defense.

There is no question as to the patriotism of the American people, and neither one of these men has any wish to see these things wasted. Stalin is fighting a common enemy makes the nations manufacturers to produce materials for the nation's defense.
