CAYCE NEWS

Mrs. Harriet Williams, widow of Col. E. H. Williams, died recently at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Cupp, in Cayce. She was 91 years of age. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. J. M. Cupp and Mrs. E. R. Cupp, and a son, William H. Cupp.

Mrs. J. M. Cupp, who has served as the secretary for the last 30 years in the Cayce Historical Society, is mourning the loss of her mother.

This is an important event for Cayce, as the society will be losing one of its most active members.

A service is being held today in one of the most historic homes in Cayce. The society is inviting everyone to attend and show their support.
