THE LISTENING POST

So, you are an American citizen, with all the rights and privileges which accrue to such men. Being an American citizen you have the right and privilege of voting in the primary tomorrow. With perfect ease you will walk into a voting precinct, give your name and address and such other information as may be necessary—and all this is very little—and the election officers will fill in the necessary blanks and hand you a ballot. You will then step into a booth which is provided for that purpose, pick up a stencil which is also provided for that very purpose, ink the stencil and then stamp an X opposite any name you wish to vote for. You will then fold the ballot, walk back into the room where the election officers are and drop that folded ballot into a sealed and locked box, with the full confidence that your vote will be counted fairly and legally and impartially. You also have the assurance that no person knows how you voted. You have the full assurance that nothing can be done to you because you voted as you did or because you did not vote in a certain way.

All of these things will happen as outlined above in Fulton County tomorrow, and in every other county in the Commonwealth. Granted that there may be a few minor disturbances in some places, the fact yet remains that in a vast majority of counties and precincts, the voting will be done in a quiet and orderly manner; there will be no outbreaks, there will be little bitterness. As soon as the polls are closed the ballots will be taken to the county seat and there ordinary men will unlock the boxes and begin to count and tabulate all ballots. By midnight in many cases the results will be known, and while there will be disappointments, there will be little desire on the part of any to challenge the result. It may be that some contests will be filed in races where the vote was extremely close; there will be no soldiers ordered out and no force used to change the result that is made by tabulating the ballots. The people in large measure will accept the verdict in good faith and in good humor and within a couple of weeks the election will be forgotten by everybody save those who made a close study of such things and who will still be engaged in studying the figures and analyzing the vote.

Not many of us will think much of this as we cast our votes tomorrow. It is an ordinary thing to us. We have seen many elections and while we may grow excited for the time being we know that there will be other elections and we lose little sleep over the result of any one election. We take our right to vote as a matter of course. We will always take it this way as long as we have this right unchallenged. If we are ever faced with a threat of losing it we will at once appreciate this right much more.

For it is a great right we have. Not many nations of the world have this right any more. Not a great many nations ever had such right in the measure that we have it. In recent months many nations have lost all semblance to human rights and are now under the heel of a despot who will never grant them any rights whatever. As a matter of fact, Europe is now a land of slaves and the remainder of the world is faced with a threat of similar conditions. Yes, it is a great right that we yet have in this nation. It is a right that men died for, and a right which other

Fulton Voters Will Elect Ticket Tomorrow

Campaign Has Been Quiet Affair—Eleven Men For Council

After what has probably been the quietest city campaign in many years, voters of Fulton will go to the polls tomorrow to select a mayor and six members of the City Council. The mayor will serve four years, the members of the council two years. While quite a large number of citizens have offered for the council posts, there has been little public interest in the election and very little campaigning. The various candidates made public announcement and then apparently were content to allow the voters to select the men of their choice. The same holds good in the mayor's race.

Tom Boaz, who has been a member of the City Council for the past sixteen years, is now seeking the post of mayor, the present mayor, Paul DeMyer, having refused to ask reelection after three terms in office.

Mr. Boaz is opposed by R. C. Peoples, well known laundryman of the city, and who served four years on the City Council some years ago. Mr. Peoples, in his announcement, stated that he desired to serve only the best interests of the city to the best of his ability, and there has been no cross-firing between the two mayoralty candidates.

Judge Lon Adams, present police judge, is unopposed for reelection. Offered for the City Council are eleven men. These are R. C. Pickering and J. N. McNeilly, present members of the body, along with Smith Atkins, Frank Brady, Harry Murphy, Clay McCollum, Dr. J. L. Jones, James Meacham, Foad Bon-Bushart. All are well known and capable men and it appears certain that the voters will be able to select a first class administration for the next four years.

men may die for in coming months and years. It is the basis of all true freedom. On the right of the ballot all else hangs, and as long as we can maintain this right of exercising our suffrage this nation will continue to be free.

Think of these things a little bit tomorrow as you walk into the voting place. It will do you good. Nor would it do you any harm, as you stand in the voting booth, alone with your conscience and your God, to bow your head and offer a silent prayer of thanksgiving for the nation which we have and the individual rights we have as citizens of that nation.

YOUR vote will be appreciated.

Close Finish Is Expected In Legislative Race

Astute political observers are claiming that the race for Representative from the First District, composed of Hickman and Fulton counties, will be a close finish between the two candidates. Harry Lee Waterfield, Clinton publisher and member of the legislature for the past two sessions, is opposed by James Warren, Fulton attorney, and these two young men have left no stones unturned in their quest for votes. Both express utmost confidence in the result, but those who study vote trends and such matters are predicting that the result will be as tight as can be.

During the last week of the campaign charges have been made by one side and the other that the state administration is supporting Warren and trying to defeat Waterfield. The Farm Bureau made a charge to this effect and offered support to the Clinton man, according to advertising appearing in newspapers this week. Whether the state administration can cut much figure in the election in this off year period remains to be seen. In any event, observers are predicting a close finish in this race.

London. — Lord Davidson, Controller of Production in the Ministry of Information, resigned today. He was appointed March 17.

Lieut. Gen Norman D. Scorgie, deputy Director-General of the Ministry, was granted leave of absence.

Departure of the two key officials was taken as indicating that Brendan Bracken, the new Minister, had begun a clean-up from the top.

Cost Of Living Rises More Than Three Per Cent In Three Months

Washington. —A 3.4 per cent rise in the cost of living in the last three months was said by Government statisticians Wednesday to have been one of the major reasons why President Roosevelt asked Congress to pass price control legislation.

The statisticians said that living costs had increased only 6 per cent since the war began in September, 1939, but that more than half of the increase had occurred in recent months.

From the middle of March to the middle of June, they said, a survey of items that wage earners buy in thirty-four large cities showed that food costs jumped 7.6 per cent, clothing 1.2 per cent, rent 0.7 per cent, utilities 0.7 per cent, house furnishings 3.6 per cent, and other things 1.4 per cent.

Rises Have "Only Begun"
The figures, compiled by the Bureau of Labor Statistics, showed, moreover, that retail prices have "only begun" to reflect changes which have been taking place in wholesale markets—changes bound sooner or later to affect retail prices.

M. P. Accused Of Breaking Military Law

London. — Maj. Sir Herbert Paul Latham, member of Parliament for Whitby, has been arrested "for alleged offenses against military law" and held for trial before a court martial. Details of the charges were not disclosed.

Sir Paul, 36, has been a Conservative member for the Whitby and Scarborough divisions of Yorkshire since 1931. He served last year as captain in an anti-aircraft searchlight regiment. In 1933 he married Lady Patricia Doreen Moore, only daughter of the tenth Earl of Drogheda. The marriage was dissolved in the United States last May.

120-Pounder Is Accused Of Taking 600-Pound Railing

Philadelphia. — "Where'd you get that?" a policeman asked a frail-looking junk man he saw carting a 600-pound chunk of bronze railing along a street Thursday.

"Found it," said the man, "up against a building back there."

The building was the City Hall.

Police charged the man, weight 120 pounds, with larceny and said he loaded the railing on his truck single handed.

It took four husky policemen to drag it back in place.

LONDON BETTING NOW AT 1 TO 3 ON 1941 VICTORY

London. — Bookmakers here are accepting bets on a 1 to 3 basis that the Allies will defeat the Axis before the end of this year, the most optimistic view of Britain's prospects since early days of the war.

Two weeks ago some Stock Exchange dealers announced they would take bets on chances of an Axis defeat in 1941. Wagering started with odds 10 to 1 against such eventuality.

Last week, with greater Russian resistance to the Nazi advance the odds were lowered to 7 to 1. Today these dealers cut the odds to 3 to 1.

SUNER PREDICTS WORLD RUIN IF U. S. FIGHTS

Madrid. — Foreign Minister Ramon Serrano Suner has given Italian journalists an interview in which he is quoted as saying United States intervention in the war "would signify ruin of the United States and the world." The Madrid press printed the interview under a Rome dateline, saying it was obtained in Madrid.

Assuming the United States will enter the war and that Russia will be defeated, Serrano Suner said, "Europe will have enough for herself, and European autarchy will provoke collapse of United States economy."

Out of this, the Minister was quoted as predicting, will come social revolution in the United States, which will be of "incalculable importance since the democratic system already is in process of liquidation and this rich materialistic nation lacks the feeling of unity and sacrifice which animates poor nations."

Soldier Thinks Up Bird Of A Way To Ask For Dough

Passaic, N. J. — Bessie flew 750 miles home, as a good soldier's homing pigeon should, with a note from her master.

"Dear Dad: Please send me $21 so I can come up. I am homesick."

Bessie was one of six pigeons Daniel F. Seabert, Jr., took with him when he went into the Army. He loosed her from Camp Stewart, near Savannah, Ga., where he is a private in the Field Artillery.

The Seabert family began arrangements so Daniel may come home on furlough August 10.

There will be no mid-week service during the month of August with the full program of the church to be resumed again in September. Since the first of the year Wednesday night attendance has averaged over one hundred persons.

ATTORNEY FOR PADUCAH LOSES JOBS

Paducah, Ky. — Elmer L. Brown, assistant corporation counsel and delinquent tax attorney for Paducah the last eighteen months, Thursday was dismissed from both positions by City Manager James P. Smith.

It was reported that no decision has been made on a successor.

Manager Smith made no comment on his action. Brown has figured in several disputes with City Judge Rex P. Cornelison and Chief of Police W. E. Bryant over the handling of cases in city court. Some of the arguments resulted in Brown's filing suits in circuit court protesting against the actions of the police chief and the judge.

Sober People See Moonbow After Night Rain

Friendship, Tenn. — This rain-bow was caused by moonshine and it wasn't the kind that comes in bottles, either.

Friendship folks saw the "moon-bow" for about thirty minutes one night after a recent rain. It apparently was caused by the reflection in the atmosphere. The spectrum was not distinguishable, but bands of light and darker colors were plainly discerned.

VACANCIES DECREASE IN OFFICE BUILDINGS

Chicago. — Urban office buildings in the United States have increased their number of tenants in the last year, according to the Mortgage Bankers' Association.

Average office building occupancy throughout the country is now 88 per cent as against 87 per cent for 1940, the association stated. The number of tenants in some areas, especially the East and South, has jumped sharply.

T. T. Boaz Is Candidate For Mayor Of Fulton

(Advertisement)

T. T. (Tom) Boaz, who has been a member of the Fulton City Council for many years, is a candidate for Mayor at the primary election to be held tomorrow. Mr. Boaz issues the following statement:

"I was urged by many friends to make the race for Mayor, and there seemed no way of escaping the wishes of these friends. Therefore I became a candidate, and while there has been no campaign made in this race, I do want my friends to know that I will deeply appreciate their support at the polls tomorrow. The only platform which I have is to do the very best for Fulton that I am capable of doing. I am deeply interested in the town and its problems and feel that I am sufficiently informed on these matters to give real service to the public. If elected I pledge my best efforts to making Fulton a better town. That is all I can promise and all I should promise. I will deeply and sincerely appreciate the support of all citizens at the polls tomorrow and if honored with the position of Mayor will try to make the town a good chief executive."

HARRIS NAMED ACTING DIRECTOR OF STATE MARKETING DIVISION

Frankfort, Ky. — William G. Harris, assistant state agriculture commissioner, was named acting director of the State Marketing Division today by Agriculture Commissioner William H. May.

Harris succeeds Ivan Jett, whose resignation to take a position in private business is effective tomorrow.

May said Harris would continue as assistant commissioner and secretary to the State Agriculture Board and would receive no additional compensation as acting director.

The commissioner added the move, was made because of the pressure of field duties on J. Dan Baldwin, assistant marketing director.

Harris will handle administrative matters for the division for 20 to 30 days, by which time a permanent director will be named, May said.

Baldwin was reported slated for appointment eventually as director.

KENTUCKY DAM FORCE ADOPTS SIX-DAY WEEK

Gilbertsville, Ky. — Construction forces on the T. V. A. Kentucky Dam here have gone on a six-day week as part of the speed-up program to complete the dam by 1944, a year ahead of schedule, the Bureau of Information said Thursday.

The 3,200 employees at the dam and in the reservoir basin had been working five-day weeks.

Work is concentrated largely in the building of the power-house and parts of the concrete section of the dam. From bedrock, approximately seventy feet below the present river level, shafts of concrete are rising which will attain a height of 160 feet.

The huge steel gates for controlling lock operations are being assembled in the navigation lock area, and preparations are under way for putting the lock into operation at an early date.

Textbooks On Conservation To Be Sent To Teachers In August

Frankfort, Ky. — A school textbook on conservation of natural resources and wild life—Kentucky's first—is expected to be ready for distribution to teachers late in August.

The first printing order calls for 7,500 copies of the 350-page handbook, for which the State Game and Fish Division, the League of Kentucky Sportsmen and the State Education Department are sharing costs of approximately $2,000. John W. Brooker, state superintendent of public instruction,

Judge's Race Is Outstanding In Fulton Co.

Four Candidates Wage Warm Fight In This Contest

As the county primary drew to a close today, after weeks of heated campaigning, one race seems to be outstanding in public interest. This is the campaign for County Judge, and it has attracted four candidates who have been waging a hot fight for the nomination. The present Judge, Claude L. Walker, is asking a third term in the office in order that he may carry on his plan of putting the county on a firm financial basis. He claims that he has launched vast and far reaching improvements in the county financial structure, and urges the voters to return him for a third term in order that he may carry these plans to completion. His three opponents claim that he is not solely responsible for these things and that the fiscal court is entitled to its full share for these good results. Some other side issues have also appeared in the race at the last moment, bearing on claimed repudiation of just debts in the way of warrants and notes, and these things may have considerable bearing on the final result.

Judge Walker is opposed by Homer Roberts of Fulton, who is now a member of the Fiscal Court, and who claims to have had a full share in bettering the county's financial status. Mr. Roberts has made a strong campaign and seems to be confident of the result. C. P. Mabry, mayor of Hickman, has also made a strong campaign, although he has not been in Fulton a great deal. The fourth entry is Mill Shaw, who lives at State Line and who may prove a dark horse in the campaign. Dopesters refuse to make many guesses on this race, for it appears to have many involved issues and these will all play a part in the final result.

Four in Sheriff's Race

The sheriff's race should prove a close one and there are four candidates in this race. John Thompson, who has served two terms previously, is again making the race. Mike Johnson of this city, Arden Rogers and John B. Rose are the other candidates for this office.

Tax Assessor's Race

Three office seekers are in the race for tax assessor, these being Elmer Murchison, Tom Prather and Charlie Moore.

Clardy Holland is asking reelection as County Court Clerk. His one opponent is Guy Barnett. There is no opposition to Wood C. Tipton, who seeks reelection as County Attorney.

Gip McDade, at present member of the local police force, is Fulton's only candidate in the race for jailer. Will Shanklin, the present jailer, is asking reelection in this race and the other candidates are Wynn, Tommy Roper and D. Darnell.

Candidates for the four magisterial districts are as follows: District 1—C. J. Bowers; District 2—Bob Powell and Hugh Garrigan; District 3—Rodney Jones, Poyner and Langford; District 4—Dan

GERMAN RESORT TO TRENCH WARFARE

Two significant aspects of the titanic struggle on the Russian steppes are revealed in statements issued by the two belligerents. From Moscow comes the report that the Germans have been driven from newly dug trenches in the Smolensk sector and driven back by the infantry, artillery and armored forces of the Red Army. The German news agency D. N. B. recounts how a Nazi column has fought its way to the Smolensk front bringing fuel and supplies to the hard-pressed advance units.

The Moscow report is the first specific mention of trench warfare by the Nazi legions. But it is not war of position in the custodiary sense. The invaders, according to the official Soviet spokesman, have dug themselves in for temporary protection and in preparation for further assaults. The war of movement continues but it is not the war of movement as carried on in Poland, the Low Countries, France and the Balkans. The blitzkrieg is stalled and if it is definitely halted the next phase of the struggle may be the old trench fighting like that on the Western Front in World War I.

D. N. B. seems to confirm the Moscow report. Certainly the advance units on the road to Moscow were stalled. There was neither oil for the machines nor food for the men. The lines of communications were cut and subjected to a raking

fire. Russia's scorched earth policy and the extended lines of the Germans are increasing the problems of the Nazi High Command.

For the Germans to engage in trench warfare even on a limited scale is admission of the failure of their blitz technique. An out-and-out return to such warfare would be indicative of a long-drawn out struggle with the rains of autumn
 and the snows of winter just around the corner. The next few weeks, perhaps the next few days, may tell whether Hitler's legions will have to forego their usual tactics and entrench themselves behind a modern adaptation of the Hindenburg Line.

HIS VANITY MARKS HIM RIDICULOUS.

It was Shakespeare who said:
 "Vanity keeps persons in favor with themselves who are out of favor with all others."

He might have been speaking of that vain little man of Italy—Benito Mussolini—who once was a powerful dictator but now is just a third-rate lieutenant in the organization for the "new Europe"
 which is dominated by Adolf Hitler.
 Mussolini has not been much in the news of late, due to his decline in power and the poor showing his armies have made on the field of battle. Our attention was directed to him by this brief item:

"Rome, July 29—Premier Mussolini was 58 years old today, but,
 as usual, no public mention was made of his birthday."

That's all there was to the item
 —just a simple little statement that the years are piling up against Il Duce, and that his vanity still compels him to withhold the information from the Italian people.

His vanity makes him ridiculous, of course. The people of Italy can look at him and see that his muscles are sagging, his figure is thickening. And they can look about them at the German soldiers and diplomats who have taken charge of so much of the Italian life and recognize that Mussolini has been demoted from his position as a "partner" in the axis to that of a mere underling.

But Il Duce likes to keep up the pretenses. He lives over again the victories he won, boasting anew of things past, because he cannot boast too much of things to come.
 It might have been Mussolini that Dryden pictured in these verses:
 "Booth'd with the sound, the king
 grew vain;
 'Fought all his battles o'er again;
 And thrice he routed all his foes, 4.

LIONS CLUB HELPS TO FEED STRANDED LIONS

Hardin, Mont. — Mayor Carl Rankin faced the prospect of feeding and housing eight hungry lions when a show became stranded here recently with the trainer ill. Two hundred pounds of meat a day, the mayor found, wasn't exactly chick-

In his dilemma he called the Harwouldn't take over the beasts. The club did, and soon found homes for

This compared with a record to-

Only 22,800 took refuge in subways in July as compared with a record of 54,000 in February, the census showed.

MR. AND MRS. JEAN

LOVELY DINNER PARTY

The lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Jean Moon on Eddings street was the scene of a very beautiful occasion last evening when Mr. and Mrs. Moon were host and hostess to a dinner, complimenting Miss Yvonne Homra and Ray Hunter, whose marriage will take place Sunday.

The dinner was served buffet style in the dining room, which was exquisitely decorated with a very original and lovely arrangement. In the center of the dining table stood a belfry, covered with southern smilax, and inside the belfry hung a wedding bell of flowers. This arrangement was flanked on either side by tall white tapers.

The guests were seated at three small tables in the living room where places of the feminine guests were denoted by old fashioned pinnets and red rose buds marked the gentlemen's plates.

The guest list included Miss Homra, Mr. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Owens, Jr., of Minfordville, Ky., Mr. and Mrs. Gene Speight, Mr. and Mrs. Foad Homra, Misses Adelle and Amaline Homra, David and Foad Homra.

SILK SHORTAGE CLOSES MILL

Philadelphia. — Lack of silk and other material forced the closing today of the Courtland mill of the Gotham Silk Hosiery Company, Inc., which employs approximately 600 workers.

Another of the company's knitting mills here employing about 1,800 will have to curtail production within a few days if the shortage of material continues. William K. Leader of the C. I. O. American Federation of Hosiery Workers said he had been advised by Samuel F.

Offices will be opened, he said, in Henry, Benton, Stewart, Wenley and Carroll counties to register persons who want jobs.

INVASION TALK STARTLES ISLES

London. — Prime Minister Winston Churchill's announcement that the invasion season is at hand and that the British forces have been warned to be prepared for action September 1 has caused considerable surprise in London.

The general impression is that a German invasion of Britain this year has now become an impossibility. At the beginning of the Russian campaign it was believed that with all the luck in the world Germany might polish off the Red Army and air force within six weeks and be prepared to mount an invasion of the British Isles on or about September 15.

For the last two weeks, however, it has been evident that the Russian campaign will not be concluded either in six weeks or two months and persistent reports say the Germans have extended their timetable by three or four months.

Jess Webb Sets Tigers Down 6-2 For Seventeenth Victory Of Year

In notching his seventeenth victory of the present season, Jess Webb, Jackson ace, used the Tigers as his victims, setting the Fulton team down 6 to 2, after a harder fight than the score indicates. Webb was in trouble most of the time, as the Tigers rapped him for nine hits, but he managed to leave eleven men on bases, using fourteen strikeouts as a stout defense. The Tigers, despite their nine hits, could amass only two runs, while the Generals fashioned six tallies on the same number of hits.

Peterson was the only Tiger to get more than one blow, and one of his blows was a homer with one on base.

Telshow started for Fulton and worked eight innings and was charged with the loss. Emrich finished the game without allowing a run.

Tonight the Tigers invade Mayfield to start a three game series, ending there Sunday afternoon. Monday night the Union City team comes here.

So tight is the race for first division honors right now that two defeats have dropped the Tigers from second place to fifth, with only a few points separating them from second place.

FORDS TO GIVE BRITAIN FOOD VANS, REPORT

Baltimore. —The Baltimore Sun
in a copyright story from London
today said Henry and Edsel Ford would furnish 200 to 300 emergency food vans to feed British citizens bombed out of their homes.

The trucks, with insulated containers to keep food hot, could go wherever they were needed, the story said.

Ford dealers would keep the vans ready for service and they would be driven by the Women's Voluntary Service, taking food prepared in local communal kitchens or catering establishments, it said.
The vans could serve food over counters let down from the side, safer style, or take it to a center where evacuees were gathered.

To The Voters of Fulton and Hickman Counties:

It has been my privilege for the last two months to talk to many old friends and to make new ones, over the First Legislative District, but it has been my misfortune not to have been able to see everyone in the District to talk to them personally. Those whom I have missed, I hope to see between the Primary and the final election, if you choose me as your nominee for Representative.

Much propaganda has been issued by my opponent, and I hope that the people of the First District have discovered that it is propaganda.

The Farm Bureau members have been circularized by a man whom I do not know, and who has never seen or talked with me, and who has not made any inquiry himself, or through anyone else, as to my attitude toward any farm legislation. If he had been interested in fairness and in representation for the farmers, he would have made inquiry as to my attitude, and if he had, he would have learned "THAT IF THE MAJORITY OF THE FARM BUREAU MEMBERS WANT LEGISLATION, I WILL HELP THEM GET IT PASSED." With this reply, he would have learned that there is no controversy between the candidates for the Legislature over farm legislation.

The letter proves my contentions, however, and that is: that although Representative for two terms, Mr. Waterfield still cannot secure sufficient support to pass even popular legislation. The farmers have not benefited by Mr. Waterfield introducing the Bill. He has the personal antagonism of the other members of the General Assembly, and the First District must suffer because of his refusal to help his fellow members of the Legislature.

The Railroad Car Limit Bill which proposed to limit freight trains to 70 cars and passenger trains to 14 cars was introduced under a pledge to the Railroad men, by Mr. Waterfield, that he would get the Bill passed. When, however, the Bill was called and a motion made to consider it on the floor of the House, that is; when an attempt was made to bring the Bill before the House of Representatives for a vote, Mr. Waterfield and 44 other members were absent. The Bill was killed by a vote of 32 to 23 and 45 out of a hundred were absent. No other Bill caused so many absences.

The record shows that Fulton and Hickman Counties have alternated the office of Representative, and that in this District, neither County has held it for more than two terms. My opponent has held it for two terms, and it is now Fulton County's time to have the office.

In this last statement before the primary, I state fairly and honestly, that I may not break any records in accomplishments, but I will tie any records in attempts, to the end that Fulton and Hickman Counties may have fair representation in the House of Representatives.

Faithfully submitted,

James H. Warren

To the Citizens of Fulton County:---

Four years ago I was in the race for Sheriff of Fulton County and ran second, losing to Clarence Henry, the present Sheriff, by 84 votes.

I take this opportunity of thanking those who supported me at that time and I assure those who did not vote for me at that time, I have no ill feeling and only hope they may see their way clear to vote for me on August 2nd.

If I am elected your Sheriff I pledge one and all a fair and square consideration. I want to thank you in advance for your vote and influence. I will appreciate same from the very bottom of my heart. Again thanking you and assuring you of y very deep appreciation, I am

Sincerely, your friend,

MIKE JOHNSON
