Democrats Elect Fulton Republican

While Democrats throughout the state were pulling up large majorities for nominees Tuesday, November 4, here in Fulton, the other side of democracy was being carried. And the new Democrat, R. B. Bradley, member of the board of education, was unseated. The result stands: Frank D. Brooks, county judge; R. B. Bradley, former board member; and vice-president of the First National Bank. Mr. Brooks is a member of the Baptist church and his friends and neighbors in the district were greatly surprised at the victory. An account of the result is by all who know him.

Mr. Bradley, former board member, and vice-president of the First National Bank, had defeated Mr. Brooks in the last election, but this time it was the reverse. The contest at last 65 ballots were taken and Mr. Brooks had at least 73 percent of the total number of votes. Two men were in the race. The results were:

Mr. Bradley 65 ballots
Mr. Brooks 73 ballots

Mr. and Mrs. Melton Return Home

Mr. and Mrs. Melton have returned home after a successful tour in the "Golden West" signifying to their friends and representatives in Fulton that there is an old acquaintance voting for them. The result was announced several months ago, and the balloting was held in March.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Melton, who represent the farmers of the city, have added another victory to their list of successes. They stood the test of the people, and their vote was the result of the people's choice. The Meltons are well known for their efficiency in business, and their vote was the result of the people's choice. FARMERS USE DYNAMITE TO HELP FIGHT DROUGHT EFFECTS

A FIELD of wheat waiting to be harvested is placed in a bind until the rainfall is high enough to keep the effects of the heat from reducing the harvest. It is being done to the extent of several acres of wheat in the Altoona area. The cornfield at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Parlin is black and green and has a very good head. The wheat in the field of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McKee is growing well, but the fields of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Stewart and the fields of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McKee are still waiting for the rain to come. Unselfish Service to Others Is a Telephone Tradition

Once every year you hear, "Thank you. I am sure glad this happened that way." At other times you hear, "Why didn't this happen that way?" It is just as easy to be thankful for an answer to your prayer as it is to be thankful for a gift. The Bible says, "He who gives instruction to the poor, lends to the Lord and is a good giver."

THE BACK SEAT DRIVER

One of the nuts the Supreme Court will have to deal with is the status of the backseat driver. An insurance company is claiming it should not be made to pay in the case where it was alleged that a person had been seated in the back seat and injured while the other occupants were driving. The court will have to determine the status of the back-seat driver. The air was rent with the blast of an accident that might have been averted had passengers not been seated in the back seat. The accident occurred on Fulton Street. The parade consisted mostly of all-American Legionaires and other war veterans.
