Lions Club To Sponsor Cake Walk

Have you been wondering about the big white circle painted on the street in front of the City Hall?

Most everybody has been curious about it.

Well, folks, the secret is out. The circle is for a big cakewalk to be held Saturday night, Sept. 10, starting at 7 o'clock.

The cake walk is being sponsored by the Benton Lions Club, and every penny of proceeds will go toward buying an electric scoreboard for the new Benton High School gymnasium.

The big white circle contains 90 sections, and each section will be numbered. Each person pays a dime for the privilege of standing on one of the numbered sections.

Music is played and the persons start walking on the painted circle. When the music stops, the walkers stop. Then a number is drawn from a bucket. If the number drawn from the bucket corresponds with the number on which you are standing, then you win a cake.

It's lots of fun. The music will be furnished by the Hungry Five, a group of high school musicians.

The public is invited to come to the Court Square on Saturday night and participate in the cake walk and help purchase an electric scoreboard for the new gymnasium.

$116,000 Subscribed Thus Far in Scout Camp Development

A total of $116,000 has been subscribed in the three-year development program of the four Rivers Boy Scout Council.

Several county chairmen have requested that the initial campaign effort be extended to Saturday, Sept. 1, as they state there are many good prospective contributors still unseated.

Campaign personnel are confident these prospects will produce $40,000 to $50,000 in additional funds for the reservation. Solicitors will remain active until Sept. 17 to provide an opportunity for these not already seen to have a part in this worthwhile cause.

Sufficient funds are already in to proceed with some of the planned facilities such as entrance gate. Additional road improvements, water system, ranger's residence and some camp sites. The central lodge and additional camp sites will be started next spring. Boats, canoes, sailboats and horses will be available by early next summer.

Property is Purchased By the City

City Council, in session last Monday night, voted to buy some property adjoining the Municipal Light Plant in North Benton.

Councilmen voted to buy one lot, 100 by 150 feet, from the Light Plant Board and an adjoining lot 50 by 150 feet from E. G. Williams.

An old warehouse building on one of the lots will be repaired and city trucks and other equipment will be stored there. A frame dwelling recently gutted by fire also will be repaired and used by city workmen.

Councilmen explained that the reason for purchasing the lots was twofold: 1. To have some land on which to dig another well when and if the city needs another well, 2. To have a storage place for city equipment that now is being stored in the fire truck station near the City Hall.

Fire trucks are delayed leaving the fire station because it often is necessary to move some equipment before the trucks can be taken from the fire station.

The state fire marshal's office repeatedly has asked the city to keep only the fire trucks at the fire station so there will be no delays in getting equipment to fires.

Miss Morgan Married Here

At 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, August 28, at the Benton Church of Christ, Miss Martha Kaye Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hatler Edmond Morgan of Benton, became the bride of Jack Moutrie Parks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Parks of Obion, Tenn.

Paul Hodges, brother-in-law of the bride and minister of the church, performed the double ring ceremony. The vows were said before an altar banked with emerald and jade ferns that formed a background for the tall pedestal baskets holding blue stock and blue tulip mums. Glowing blue tapers in seven branched wrought iron candelabra softly lighted the wedding scene. The pews were marked with satin bows.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin fashioned princess style with a sweetheart neckline outlined with seed pearls. The V shaped dropped shoulder yoke was of chantilly lace over net. The yoke and centers of the flowers were outlined with seed pearls. The full skirt featured two large skirt-length godets of chantilly lace over net. The full length sleeves came to point over the wrist. The very full floor length skirt scooped to a modified train in the back and was worn over hoops and crinolines.

The fingertip veil was attached to a pillbox headdress of chantilly lace over net with the lace flowers outlined with iridescent sequins, having the centers outlined with seed pearls. She carried a beautiful bouquet of white starlike roses with streamers of white satin tied in love knots.

Mrs. Pearl Hodges, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Betty Parks, sister of the groom, Obion, Miss Rebecca Williams, Obion, Tenn. They wore identical ballerina costumes of slate blue crystalite, made princess style with scooped necklines and light fitted bodices, very full skirts and rose petal inserts. Short godets in the skirts worn over hoops and crinolines, each wearing a bonnet shaped head-dress of the crystalite slate blue with sequins and pearls on tiny veils.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Hodges, carried a blue cascade bouquet of full mums, pom-poms and Frenched carnations. The bridesmaids carried the identical bouquets. Ricki Hodges, niece of the bride, flower girl, wore a short blue crystalite dress and carried a blue basket.

David Parks of Memphis served his brother as best man. Ushers were David Hilliard and E. A. Morris Jr., of Obion, Charlie S. Elton of Memphis and Lee Davis of Atlanta.

Phillip H. Morgan and Joe Miller Morgan, brother and cousin of the bride, lighted the candles.

A program of pre-nuptial music was presented by a male quartet, who were Robert Camp, Ed Enzor, Lucien Anderson and Robert Bowersock. Numbers included "Because," "Whither Thou Goest," and "Wagner's Wedding March" and "Be With Me Lord."

Mrs. Morgan wore a charcoal and pink two-piece printed silk dress with matching hat, shoes and white shortie gloves. A white orchid was pinned at her shoulder.

A reception was held across the street from the church immediately after the wedding. The bride's table was covered with a white imported maderia cut work cloth and held a four-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom with flower arrangement of white lilies, ferns, baby breath and crystal candelabra holding white tapers.

Beverly Riley and Nancy Cobb served at the register. Mrs. Bill Williams, LaDonne Byers, June Story and Julia Cole served.

After a honeymoon trip to the Smoky Mountains, they will return to Nashville to reside. He will continue his studies at Davidson College and she has accepted a position with the American National Bank there.

Mrs. Hubert Matlock of Girtsville has been a recent patient at the Riverside Hospital in Paducah.

Miss Roberts Becomes Bride in Candlelight Ceremony at Church

In a candlelight ceremony solemnized on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 1 at the Benton Church of Christ, Miss Norma Ruth Roberts became the bride of William Edward Adams. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Floyd Roberts of Benton. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jones of Paducah are grandparents of the groom.

Ralph Steury of Camden, Tenn., a relative of the bride, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Camp, Miss Diane Hiett and Allen Henson, of Benton, and Jerry Crutchfield, Paducah, presented a program of nuptial music. Mr. Camp was soloist of the group. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of pure white silk shantung, with portrait neckline finished with scallops in a sequin and pearl design. The fitted torso bodice descended into a full skirt, and a short train and long fitted sleeves pointed over the hands in a design matching the neckline were features of the frock. Her veil was of pure silk illusion, cathedral length, and she wore a matching cap carrying out the neckline design. The bridal bouquet was of gardenias and stephanotis, accented with white velvet adiantum leaves with pearls and centered with a white purple throated orchid.

Attending the bride were her sister, Mrs. Elton Telle of Benton, matron of honor; Miss Marion Williams of Franklin, maid of honor; Miss Dorothy Ann Light of Paducah and Miss Brooks Copeland of Benton.

Mrs. Telle wore a street-length frock of turquoise taffeta with tucked bodice finished with a large taffeta bow, in the back, and carried a crescent bouquet of blush pink California asters nestled in puffs of net and satin. Miss Williams' gown, in a shade of light blue, was styled identical to that of the matron of honor, and she carried a bouquet of rose asters. Miss Light and Miss Copeland wore identically styled dresses of pink, and carried bouquets of lavender and blue asters tied with matching satin ribbons. The attendants' headpieces were of matching taffeta with short veils of illusion.

Paul Jones of Caducah served as best man. Other groomsmen were Bill Jones, Jim Hough, and Fred Burch, Paducah; Elton Telle, Benton; and Jerry Hager, Prestonburg.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Roberts entertained with a reception at their home on the Mayfield Road. The house was decorated throughout in a color scheme of blue green and white. The mantel was enhanced by a tall asymmetrical arrangement of white carnations and white Fuji mums placed among white lovebirds and white grapes. The stairway was entwined with smilax. The piano featured an arrangement of white asters around a golden miniature harp surrounded by white and gold china musical angels.

Mrs. Joe Schmahorn and Mrs. Van Roberts played appropriate music during the reception. Mrs. Ben Humphreys greeted the guests at the door of the room in which the gifts were displayed, while Mrs. Roy James acted as hostess at the entrance. Misses Betty Brandon and Winnie Rich presided at the cake table.

Assisting in serving were Miss Joan O'Daniel, Mrs. Taz Copeland, Mrs. Aaron Ivey and Mrs. Forest Cole.

Northern wedding trip, with the bride wearing a frock of winter cotton in a shade of coffee brown, with black velvet trim. A V-neckline and princess lines accented the ensemble, which was completed with a small matching velvet hat. She wore the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Alan Henson, son of the Luck Hensons, who attends school at Murray, was at home last week because of a throat infection.

Raymond Green of Route 3 was a business visitor in Benton Friday and while here subscribed for the Marshall Courier.

Mrs. Mary Green of Route 1 was carried to the Riverside Hospital in Paducah recently for treatment.

WHEN
When will it be
These dreams I dream all thru the night
And all the day
Not embark and fade away
To worlds unknown,
Leaving me here—
Alone in the darkness
On a lonely sphere;
Where earthly joys are fleeting prints
From sands of time
And thoughts far spent.
Time itself will stand not still,
But hasten the day
For joys unknown,
And bring to pass that earnest desire
Of the time that I
May call my own . . .

Farm ponds are a necessity on Marshall County farms. A soil conservation program applied to the land calls for the use of each acre of land according to its capability. This means that on every farm there is some land which is best suited for pasture and hay production. This makes livestock a necessity which in turn make farm ponds a necessity.

The Soil Conservation Service has helped the following farmers stake ponds recently: Floyd Clark and E. W. Burkhart, Oak Level; Jack Harrison, west of Benton; Ishmael Reed, Tom Colle, Fairdeal; Joe Clark, Boone Duke, J. E. Hamilton and Emmet Myers of Benton; Lex Riley, Palma; Clarence Thompson and Raymond Powell, New Harmony.

Farm ponds not only furnish water for livestock but are a source of recreation for the farm family. A well managed pond furnishes excellent fishing. It can also be used for swimming on hot days.

Farmers who have dug farm ponds recently are: W. E. Downing and Alfred Houser, west of Benton; Kenneth Sholar, G. L. Morgan, John Colle, Fairdeal; J. W. Creason, James Mathis, Estil Parks, Vanzora, Roy Cox, Bethel Church, L. L. Rudition we can terrace around the slope, or farm on the contour and grow cover to absorb more moisture. The slopes may be so steep that they should always be kept in grass, or in timber — crops that slow the water and let it soak into the soil.

And as with the baby, soils are often just hungry and we must feed them. The pabulum of the soil is fertilizer. It is needed whenever we want to increase the organic matter content of the soils as well as when we want better crops. Lack of it shows up in puny crops, in light colored surface soils low in organic matter. Any lack of food often emphasizes the other troubles as wetness, coldness, droughtiness; just as poor nutrition makes for a puny baby that is often sick. Food, enough of it at the right time, is just as essential to the land as it is to the baby.

When a baby cuts itself, we bandage the cut. And so we should treat our land. When gullies cut it, or the topsoil is skinned we should bandage the wounds, cover the galls. The use to which such land can be put safely is not as great when it is hurt as when it is well. Its capability to work as it has in the past is reduced.

When the land is sick, we should give it rest and feed it a special diet. Often the land doctor, the Work Unit Conservationist of the Soil Conservation Service working through the local Soil Conservation District, needs to be called in to give the best prescription to make the land well. He has the technical skill and know-how.

With babies, often a little cuddling is all that is needed. We give them love and understanding. After we have cared for their needs and stopped their cries, when they are dry, fed, watered, and well, we get our most enjoyment from them.

And, if we love our land and give it our thoughts, care for its needs, heal it when it is sick, when it is properly fed, watered and well, then is when we get the most enjoyment from it. Like a baby our land needs love.

As the harvest of fall maturing crops gets under way, the need arises for sowing cover crops immediately. Thousands of acres of land on which row crops have been grown this summer now need to be sown a winter cover crop.

Rain falling on bare ground blasts the finest soil particles loose. They float away then in the muddy runoff water. This can be compared to the thief who comes at night and steals while we sleep. Falling rain steals our soil from unprotected fields in sheets so thing we never miss them. Finally we begin to wonder why our crops turn yellow and the yields decrease.

Our best policy is to lock the stable door before the horse is stolen. The lock to use is the seeding of small grains, annual legumes, and grasses for winter protection.

Establishment of cover crops is one of the soil and water conservation practices encouraged by the Marshall County Soil Conservation District and the Soil Conservation Service.

Practice number 29 of the Agricultural Conservation Program shares the cost of sowing cover crops on those farms where the farmer makes application for the assistance.

The cost share rate for seeding crimson clover and hairy vetch with small grain is $3.25 per acre. Small grain or ryegrass seeded alone will earn a cost share of $1.50 per acre. Lime will not be required for carrying out this practice. On land where tobacco was grown, no additional fertilizer will be required. Where corn, sorghum, or sudan grass were sown, 10 lbs. of nitrogen, 30 lbs. of phosphate and 20 lbs. of potash will be required. No nitrogen will be required where lespedeza, cowpeas, or soybeans were grown.

File your application for this assistance in the ASC Office in Benton before you sow your cover crops.

legumes will now be sown. McGregor believes that he can save more soil and get a better stand and growth of grass by sowing this kind of land as soon as it is cleared rather than cropping it in corn one year.

Edgar Karnes, east of Tatumville, has dug a hillside diversion channel using his tractor plows and blade. The soil on this hillside washes easily and gullies form quickly. The diversion will protect a steep critical area and serve as a guide for contour seeded preparation and seeding of grass.

Robert Edwards, Benton, is planning to dig 1900 feet of drainage ditches soon. One ditch will carry overflow water from a main creek into a slough. In the past it has been spreading out and spoiling some good bottom land. At the north end of his farm he is going to take several bad crooks out of the main creek by rigging a new channel. This will move the water off of his land faster.

Hatler Morgan, Benton, has dug a trench silo on his arm south of town. The walls and bottom are concrete. He will practice self-feeding by the cattle.

The dirt from the solo was used in building a dam for a stock water tank will be built large pond. The open end of the silo is just below the pond.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Background Scripture: Nehemiah 1:1-11
Devotional Reading: Nehemiah 1:1-11

Executive Task

Lesson for September 11, 1955

THE city of Jerusalem was a slum. There is no other word for it. The people, poor and few and scattered, were existing in the midst of rubble. Today in Korea the cardboard shacks are coming down, more permanent houses are being built; but in Jerusalem there was no rebuilding. Everything was left just as it was after the war. How long had that been? One hundred and forty-one years! Four generations—as far back from Nehemiah's time as 1814 is from us. Suppose the city of Washington had never been rebuilt, since the British burned it in the "year of 1812." Nehemiah was amazed and shocked when he heard about it. Like all prosperous Jews who lived in Persia, he had supposed everything was all right back in the motherland. When they told him things actually were, he first cried; but then he acted.

Competition
Nehemiah, armed with a royal commission— for Palestine was now a part of the great Persian Empire—turned out to be one of the most remarkable executives in history. He went to Jerusalem as governor, but he saw it was no real city. In those days you could no more have a city without a wall around it than you can have a city today without paved streets, or telephones. The wall was an absolute number one. Must No doubt previous governors had seen as much; but they had done nothing about it. Nehemiah, at once, went to work on this problem. In 52 days the wall was completed; 52 days to do what for 93 years (since the first century B.C.) one else in the city of Jerusalem had failed to do. How did Nehemiah succeed where so many others had failed—or not even tried? The answer, in one sentence, is: Nehemiah was the kind of executive who can make hindrances and handicaps work for him instead of against him. One of the handicaps obviously was the many jealous divisions among the people. The class-spirit can be shown just as easily in a group of castaways on a desert island, as it can in New York. Nehemiah knew all about this; and he organized his wall-builders by groups according to their occupation. The goldsmiths built here, and the priests built there, and so on. No group wanted to be outdone by any other group, so they all pushed on till it was done. It takes healthy competition to bring out what people can really do.

Fear Can Be Useful
Perhaps the big reason why the wall had never been built was that the people, ill-equipped and leaderless, knew that their watchful enemies would not want Jerusalem to rise again. They were afraid of "reprisals" or raids from one place or another, if they really set to work to build a real city again. Now Nehemiah's plan was to get the people to build the wall. They never would. So he (so to speak) tied that scare to their coat-tails, like a pack of firecrackers. He ordered the citizens, as far as it was practical, to build the part of the wall nearest to where they lived. Every man and woman (yes, there were women) working on the wall would think: if this section of wall goes down, my own home will be the first one pillaged! So of course these scared people worked like mad, each one determined that if the wall gave away anywhere, it wouldn't be near his house.

Putting Human Nature To Work
All that business about the spears, and other army equipment—ordering half the people to stand by in battle dress while the rest worked on the wall—may have scared off the enemy raiders; but it did something else: it put the wall built in an amazingly short time. Just the sight of those spears would put everybody into high gear. They wanted to finish that wall before the battle started. It never started; but Nehemiah's dramatic mobilization kept those amateur wall-builders going from dawn till dark. So Nehemiah showed in his time what the best executives have always shown: the skill to use human nature as it is, on the hoof. Executives—governors, presidents, heads of corporations, bishops could doubtless get better results with better people.

The Farm Front - -

BY J. HOMER MILLER
County Farm Agent

The Marshall County Fair was the best and largest we have ever held in the county. Every phase was improved over last year. There were a total of 90 head of cattle this year. Double the number at previous shows.

Donald Collier of Fulton showed the grand champion Jersey and Lillie Mae Harrison of Farmington had the Junior champion Jersey. Don Thompson, Rt. 1, Benton, showed the grand champion and Elwood Brown, Hardin, had the reserve champion Holstein. Janie Hathaway of Paris, Tennessee, had the grand champion guernsey. Judges for the dairy cattle were Ed Jones, agriculture representative for the I. C. Rail road, and John Freeman, field man for Pet Milk Company.

The Choate Hereford farms of Hickman showed the grand champion and reserve grand champion Herefords.

The Rose Creek farms of Madisonville showed the grand champion and reserve grand champion Angus.

Arlie Scott of Murray State College judged the beef cattle.

Dry weather has severely damaged tobacco, late corn, pastures, and gardens. Most of the tobacco has been harvested. Total rainfall for the first 30 days of the month in Benton was less than 2.10 inches.

Prepare now to sow cover crops on all row crop land that's not subject to overflow. New varieties of small grain recommended this year are, Know Wheat, Ken-bar Barley, and Dubois Oats. Bal-bay rye is still the best rye variety. Legumes recommended are crimson and vetch.

chest, one in the right arm and one in the left arm. The shots had been fired from a revolver and death was instantaneous.

Mrs. Edwards reported her husband came home to the court house about 4 o'clock and went immediately to the bathroom. Soon after he left the bathroom, she heard pistol shots and, on investigation, found her husband lying on the room floor. She notified authorities.

Ironically, Mr. Edwards tried for several weeks to get the pistol with which he lost his life. He had been kept the pistol in a desk drawer.

The outer office at County Artelle Hailton. Shortly noon Tuesday, he took the noon from the desk and went to his home. He then returned to the courthouse, performed his duties as janitor and went again. It was on this three funerals available, two he shot himself.

Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Linn Funeral Home, 111 N. Burnett, pastor of the First Methodist Church, which Mr. Edwards was a member, will officiate. Burial will be in the Washam Cemetery.

4-H Council Planning Barbecue on Sept. 29

By HAROLD ROSS

At the 4-H council meeting this past month 10 officers and members were present. Plans were made for the next meeting to be held on Sept. 29 at 7 p.m. at the Community Building. At this meeting the program will be a barbecue at 7 p.m., followed by introduction of guests and recognition of the 4-H boys and girls that went to the state fair.

After this a short film will be shown on 4-H club work in the state and nation.

The council went on record to recommend to the fair board next year that a 4-H and FFA livestock show ring be set up so that the groups can show together and not have to show in an open ring. It was the general opinion of the group that the younger showmen were not entering the show because they felt that they could not compete with the older and more experienced showmen. If you attended the show you know that only a very few of the young people entered, and they might not have done so if their parents had not been entering.

The council this year will sponsor the winner of the 4-H tractor driving contest at the state fair, and the winner was Jerry Chumbler from Sharpe. He will drive at the state fair and the Marshall county 4-H clubs wish him well. Paul Mills and Jerry Chumbler, along with the dairy judging team, who are Elwood Brown, Wayne Harrell, Jimmy Dunigan, Dwain Howard will leave for the state fair on or about Sept. 9.

The girls are not to be left out when it comes to entering the state fair. Ten girls from this county will leave with Mrs. Gamel about Sept. 9 to enter the different demonstrations, such as cooking, baking, clothing, etc.

We wish these boys and girls well and we know they will well represent us.

ELECTRIFIED FARMS ARE MORE PRODUCTIVE FARMS

Live Better From The Land ... on The Land

This could be the theme of the Green Pastures Program and Rural Electrification Program.

A better, easier living is to be had from the use of improved grassland crops and a better future is assured for the land.

A more enjoyable living is to be had in the home and on the farm through the use of electricity -- Electricity to make the task lighter and the home brighter.

KEEP KENTUCKY GREEN

Dairymen have long since learned That 'Good Pastures' produce feed at about one-half the cost of harvest feed

There are few reasons why the dairymen in Western Kentucky, with their long eleven month pasture season together with many other advantages, cannot become one of the great milk markets in the entire country. We encourage you to continue to travel in the same direction before too long instead of the North Supply the South with fresh winter time milk, it will more efficiently and effectively be the South, especially Kentucky, supplying the North.
