MILLION-DOLLAR ELECTRICAL SHOW OPENS TOMORROW NEAR CLINTON, KY.

The big electrical "circus" is about to hit town—and it's all free.

That's the Home and Farm Electrical Exposition, a traveling electric caravan which will appear at Clinton, Ky., on Aug. 19 from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m.

The biggest thing of its kind ever seen here, the Exposition is sponsored locally by Hickman-Fulton Counties Rural Electric Co-op. This is one of fifty stops the traveling show will make this year in Tennessee Valley communities in four states.

News-Prints

Waiting for the accident to happen department: Driving down Second Street Thursday morning we ran up on "some heart-broken youngsters and some pretty up-set mammas. As little Greg Williamson was riding his tricycle near his house he gave out a loud scream. His mother came running and just as she reached the door their beloved dog as well as the pet of the little McDade girls just toppled over and died. Almost at the same time, Vivian thought maybe the pets had been hit by a car... the traffic is so bad at that corner, but they weren't. Some low-down, heartless, cruel person had poisoned the beloved pets and we're wondering if maybe an accident wouldn't have been a blessing... only it should have been for the person or persons who poisoned the dogs.

To get back to the traffic: There will be some mighty hostile people in this town if that terrific traffic is not controlled. Parents in that neighborhood are living in fear that sometime screeching brakes will be the loss of a child. It is so impossible to get it fixed?

Bill, our scribe from Harris Fork, called in yesterday to say he hadn't time to do any reporting on the State of the Nation as it looks from Water Valley this week, having spent the week chaperoning a District Welfare Convention in Paducah. We'll see you next week, Bill... and don't let friend Herschel put anything over on you.

Fulton's new white way will be in operation in a day or two... and at night Lake Street is going to look like a brand-new thoroughfare, what with lights on both sides, more of 'em, etc. Incidentally, the City wants to sell the old lamp posts, if you're interested. You can buy one or as many as you want.

The Kitty League race is still a mighty close one, with Fulton and Mayfield battling up there in 12 position neck and neck, the fish line just 12 days off and the excitement in the white-heat stage.

The crowds seem to have picked up this past week, with lots of folks on hand every night. Even so, there is plenty of room for more, so if you haven't been out, let's go.

Besides seeing a good ball game, your admission money will help the Club pull out of a tough, rain-soaked season financially.

When the Children Make Us Smile

Children's Editor

Dear Sir:

Jerry Lynn Clark, three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Noah Clark of Fulton went with his mother one day to feed a chicken that she had couped to fatten.

The chicken began to make noises like chickens do and the little boy soothingly said, "Don't you worry, we're gonna feed you. We'll feed you right now." No sooner had he comforted the poor chicken than he said, "And we're gonna cut your head off, too, too."

Twin Cities Start Project for Sewage, Garbage Plan

The governing bodies of South Fulton, Tenn. and Fulton, Ky., have authorized the engineering firm of Russell and Axom to make an application to General Services Administration in Washington for a grant to study the possible construction here of a sewage treatment and garbage disposal operation. At a meeting Wednesday afternoon at the Fulton City Hall, Jess Russell of the engineering firm outlined the great need for such a project here and urged immediate action since war conditions may curtail appropriations for such projects in the future.

The application to the government agency is to be made without cost or obligation to either city, Mr. Russell explained. Approval of the preliminary application to study the plan will allow so approve an advance in funds to the cities to make the study.

The project will be a joint one by the two cities. Both cities have been notified by the Board of Health of their respective States that sewage treatment and garbage disposal is tremendously inadequate. The cities have been alerted to the need for such a program and have been advised that early action must be taken, under penalty of law, to correct the situation.

The program undertaken by the municipalities is in connection with a national program for stream purification and non-stream pollution.

Mayor Atkins and four members of the Fulton City Council were on hand at the meeting as were five councilmen from South Fulton. Mayor C. E. Hutchens of South Fulton was not able to attend because of illness.

At the meeting plans were also outlined for the extension of the Fulton city limits, although Mr. Russell advised that the attitude of the Illinois Central railroad, which owns large holdings in Riceville must be learned. The railroad's property is located largely in that unincorporated suburb.

2 ACCIDENT VICTIMS DIE AT HOSPITAL

Mrs. Esta Frantz, 48, of Peoria, Ill., was the second person to die as a result of a serious traffic accident that occurred on Highway 45-E Sunday afternoon. John Snedeker, 5, of Chillicothe, Ill., died Sunday night as a result of a brain concussion. Mrs. Frantz died Wednesday. Four other persons, critically injured in the same accident, remained hospitalized, with little hope held for the recovery of three of them. Those remaining hospitalized are:

George Miller, Chillicothe, still remains in a coma; Mrs. Bertha Holmes, Chillicothe, also in a coma. Gustav Holmes, her husband, still unconscious.

Victor Holmes, hospitalized at Haws Memorial Hospital is improving.

The accident occurred when the 1946 two-door Chevrolet belonging to Victor Holmes plowed into the right side of a two and one-half ton Ford semi-trailer truck driven by Jack Casey of Booneville, Ind., as the truck attempted to pass a Continental bus, which had stopped on the highway to pick up a passenger. The Holmes car was proceeding north on the highway and was within ten feet of the truck when the accident occurred, observers said.

Commodore Maynard, deputy sheriff of Obion County, who was called to the scene of the accident said that apparently the truck was closely trailing the bus to pass the vehicle when the passenger car plowed into the side of the truck at the rear of the bus. It was apparent that the driver of the truck attempted to pull back in his lane when he was struck, Mr. Maynard said, since the truck had jack-knifed.

Mr. Casey, who received injuries in the accident has been dismissed from the Fulton Hospital.

Union Church Revival Starts This Sunday

A revival will begin at Union Cumberland Presbyterian church Sunday, August 20 and continue through Friday night, August 25.

The pastor, Rev. L. J. Stoner will be assisted by the Rev. William Murray from Highland, Paducah. The Rev. Murray comes well recommended. He was heard at Mt. Zion in a revival last year.

Mrs. Cecil Burnette will conduct the musical program. There will be a junior and senior choir and special numbers for each service.

The public is invited to attend. The time of the services are 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Clubhouse Drive Going Slowly

Well, looks like Mark Twain is back with the classic remark. This time its about the Country Club again. Everybody talked about wanting a clubhouse at the Country Club, but after several days of concerted action only fifty per cent of the goal has been reached. Of the persons who have bought stock, half have pledged the amount and the other half have paid off in cash.

Many more stock-holders are needed to realize the dream of local leaders to build a clubhouse at the Country Club. Although all persons on the prospective list have not been contacted, committees in charge ask that interested persons send their checks or pledges in to any member of the committees working to secure the needed funds.

The drive to sell stock in the Woodlawn Land Company must not fail. If funds are not secured now, war conditions may prolong the building of a clubhouse for many years.

If you have not subscribed and have the love of your community at heart, then come across with a check to buy a share of stock in a very worthwhile project.

TUCKER BROWN BUILDING 18-UNIT COURT; TO BE MOST MODERN ON TOURIST ROUTE

A tourist court, with 18 complete units and costing upwards of $50,000 is now under construction here by Tucker Brown, prominent local business man. Mr. Brown said that the court will be among the finest on the tourist routes of the Nation and no cost is being spared to make them modern and complete in every detail.

The units will be connected in a horse shoe arrangement with a separate office and lobby. They will be constructed of buff brick plastered inside, with insulation in the ceiling and walls. Each unit will contain a private bath, with the latest in pastel fixtures being installed. They will be heated by a hot water system. The units will contain the latest in Simmons furniture.

Cubing in the court area has already been laid and the center of the area will be beautifully landscaped.

Mr. Brown plans to complete the courts by mid-November, barring any difficulty in obtaining building materials. The location of the courts affords accommodations of tourists on Highway 51, Highway 45-W and Highway 51 by-pass. With the new by-pass planned to run along Stephens Streets in Highlands the intersection there will be a bee-hive of activity not only for local patrons but for tourists as well.

MRS. WARD BUSHART & JENNINGS KEARBY TO PLAN ORGANIZATION OF YOUNG DEMOS

Mrs. Ward Bushart and Jennings Kearby, local attorney, were named co-chairmen of the Young Democrats Club, which was formed here Wednesday night. Nearly twenty-five persons were in attendance to hear three State officers of the organization explain the need for such a group in this county.

Young Democrats are organized in 60 of the 120 counties in the State. In each county they are important factors in getting out the votes for their party and in keeping alive the interest in Democratic candidates.

For the next two weeks Mrs. Bushart and Mr. Kearby will work together in naming representatives from each of the 21 precincts in the county. It is the aim of both officers that every precinct will be represented in the group by at least five persons.

Permanent officers will be elected at the next call meeting later this month. Fifteen persons, seven officers and eight directors, constitute the executive board.

In attendance at the meeting held above Wick's Cafe besides the chairman and the State officers were:

The News Goes On A Building Spree

These are the Houses that Jack Built and Folks Love

By Mary-Nelle Wright

"From inspiration to occupation" could be the theme song of the Covington Addition. It was a little over two years ago that Jack Covington and his wife, bought 43 acres of the old Collins farm out in South Fulton and had the inspiration to start a building program there. Nothing is too much to expect from a person who has inspiration, imagination, land and the will to carry out his plans—this is what Jack did—and made possible the occupation of more than twenty homes by those fortunate people who live there today.

A day or so ago we decided to take a "look see" in this new part of Fulton and it was just by chance that our first stop was at the home of the first settlers of the Covington Addition, Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Ellis and their two children, Allen and Thomas. In this neat little four rooms, bath and utility house one felt that much living goes on there and after talking with four year old Allen, it was easy to see where much of the "life" comes from.

The next two homes (and the next settlers) are occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Treas and Mr. and Mrs. William Sloan. These three houses are all alike with a small bay-window in the kitchen which is an added attraction.

All those colored flowers against the snowy whiteness of the house was a picture not to be soon forgotten.

Across the street from the Lockes is the neat home of Jack and Mildred Jones. These two are also the oldest settlers as they came here from Carbondale, Ill. over two years ago. Mildred's house shows what can be achieved when originality and imagination are at work. After an enjoyable visit with Mildred and Jack's attractive mother who is visiting them, we were on our way again.

Down the street we stopped in for a chat with the Fozzards, Lois and Russell and their two boys. This couple came here from California, bought their home and "settled down" in Fulton. What fun they are having working and adding to their new home after having served in the armed forces as a WAC and a sergeant.

Vi and Jerry Strong have gone completely rural as their large back yard accommodate rows of corn and cages of rabbits. Their house, a three bedroom, combination living-dining room shows that it is a house to be loved as well as a lovely house to live in. The new home of the Carl Greens next door is nearing completion and is so very, very attractive. What a happy day it will be for the Greens—the day they move in.

J. V. and Gladys Smallman live a few doors down the street. Their house, a five room one, was built about a year ago. The convenient rooms were dressed in new colors as gay and heart-warming as a new costume. The large, oval, rag rug in the dinette was of colors to harmonize with the rest of the house as well as to give that touch of "something old" to add to the "something new".

As we left the Covington Addition and came back toward town we stopped in for a visit with Larimore and Esmond Taylor in their new home. We admired Esmond's originality in furnishing the bedroom for their three boys who are three, six and eight. When you have three children growing up in a home, you realize at the outset that the (Continued on page Four)

Clements Here Tonight

Friday night, August 18, has been designated as "Governor's Night" at Fairfield Park. Governor Earle C. Clements, Shelby Peace and other notables have been invited to attend the game and local ball officials are urging the local fans to turn out and welcome the guests.

Fulton's Railroaders are playing a first class brand of baseball. Their first division position has the envy of nearly all clubs in the league and "our boys the Railroaders" deserve to be envied. They're just plum good!

Baseball to most Fultenians is the thing nearest their hearts. The wild enthusiasm has certainly invaded our family. If Russia declared war on the United States the oldest male in our family would never know it until he returned from the sports page ... Kitty League doings are far more important than War Department sayings with him.

Anyway catch the "baseball bugs" and go out tonight (Friday) and give all the boys a big hand.

Fighting the Hoarder

A short time ago, in the little town of Oswego, Oregon, the members of a church passed a resolution which said, in part: "Resolved: That we ... protest in every possible manner all profiteering, scare-buying and hoarding."

"That we renounce all individual gains which must be had at the expense of general security."

"That we pledge ourselves neither by word or deed to contribute to, fear or hatred, being aware that the present emergency challenges our moral as well as physical courage ..."

"That we urge all like-minded citizens to join us in this resolution."

It would be a great thing for this country if, at this critical moment in history, resolutions of that character were to have national circulation and adherence. There can be no excuse for the hoarder, and he deserves only contempt. He undermines his country. He brings on scarcity for every honest and patriotic person.

It is to the great credit of retail merchandising that it is resisting scare-buying, and that it is not taking advantage of conditions to unnecessarily raise prices. Both chain and independent retailers have announced that they will resist all unwarranted price rises with all their might!

The highest officials have said that there is plenty of goods for all, and that rationing and kindred controls are not needed.

No Need For Bomb

Our military reverses in Korea and the reports of atrocities committed by North Korean troops have developed demands in this country that we use the atomic bomb.

The military experts say there are convincing reasons why an atomic bombardment should not be employed. In the first place, we do not have enough bombs to bomb more important objectives, if necessary, much less waste them in an area that does not include large cities of great industrial facilities or important enough to justify atomic bombing.

In North Korea, according to Hanson W. Baldwin, there is industry in five different areas but none are of sufficient size or importance to warrant the use of an atomic bomb from a military standpoint. In addition, there are psychological reasons that caution against its use because millions of people in Asia would become alienated and there might be a considerable segment of world public opinion to brand the United States as an aggressive power.

What is companionship where nothing that improves the intellect is communicated, and where the larger heart contracts itself to the model and dimension of the smaller?—Lander.

AMA Hints Draft

There is a great need for more doctors in the armed forces, reports the American Medical Association, adding its opinion that "men in the armed forces should have adequate medical care even if legislation should prove necessary to ensure it."

What worries the association is that only fifteen doctors volunteered recently when the Army asked 3,000 captains and lieutenants in the active medical reserve to come forward to serve the fighting men of the nation. Army officials say that there is an immediate need for 350 physicians.

The reluctance of medical men to leave their practice, even to care for men wounded in battle, is alarming enough to persuade the American Medical Association to suggest that legislation might be necessary to provide the medical help that our fighting men should receive.

We are inclined to believe that the medical association is under-estimating the patriotism of the practitioners of the United States. Surely, it will not be necessary for the nation to resort to a draft in order to get adequate medical assistance for youngsters wounded in battle.

Taxes Killing Us

Tax increases will be necessary to meet the Korean situation but this will be a small matter compared with the amount of taxes to put the nation on a permanent ready-for-war basis.

There will be much pressure applied to the Members of Congress by interested groups in an effort to get the tax levied "against somebody else." Many Americans, thoroughly patriotic and loyal, will do their best to dodge any part of the load necessary for the defense of this country.

In this connection, the Congress should not hesitate to apply rather severe levies against profits arising out of war and our preparation for war. It is unconscionable to permit war industries to make exorbitant profits while American men are giving their lives on the battlefields.

In our previous wars, there have been individuals and corporations lustily engaged in "business as usual." Their profits have not been reached by the Government, with the result that practically every community has a group of business men who have made enormous profits out of the prosecution of wars.

Already, there are indications that the nation will be forced to pay higher prices by those taking advantage of war psychology and that the Government itself, in purchasing arms, equipment and supplies for its fighting men, will be forced to pay prices that include extraordinary profits for business concerns.

We do not know whether effective action can be taken to control the war profiteers, or not, but we certainly think that the Congress and the Government, acting together and with real determination, might be able to prevent the nation from being mulcted in connection with its defense and war expenditures.

And Rabbits, Too!

Television may be helping the music industry, but it isn't doing anything for the nation's movie makers. On the contrary. To counteract its influence, one enterprising Florida operator has come up with a scheme designed to inveigle people with small children back into the theater; a free baby-sitting service. While Mom and Pop are enjoying the show, Junior is well cared for by a nurse and baby-sitter in an adjoining nursery "parking lot." Appropriately enough, the room is decorated with motion picture cartoon-comedy characters — Mickey Mouse, Bugs Bunny, etc.

Turning Back The Clock

August 21, 1925:

Vest Myers, Superintendent of Fulton City schools, announced that the fall term for 1925 would commence September 7. Besides Myers, the high school faculty includes Josephine Cheatham assistant principal and teacher, Mary F. Martin, Mary Royster, Ethel Fisher, William Caldwell, W. S. Hughes and Ritchie Stevenson.

Mr. and Mrs. Clint E. Reeds have left Fulton for Baton Rouge, La. where Mr. Reeds will engage in the automobile business.

Mike Fry and Bert Newhouse have opened their new shoe store at 215 Main street this week, and at the same time announce the purchase of the Morris & Sons shoe store on Lake Street, which will continue operation.

A fine harvest of watermelons is in evidence this year, with many wagon loads on Fulton streets. Top melons are selling rapidly at 50 cents, with smaller going at 25c and 35c. The "nickel" melons are being grabbed by the small boys and eaten on the vacant lots and alleys.

A special train, carrying employees of the I. C.'s Tennessee division will leave the Fulton station on Labor Day, pickup additional employees at Dyersburg, and proceed to Tiptonville, where the annual picnic will be held at the "wash-out." The train will return the same evening.

Six young men raided the prized fish pond of State Pension commissioner Tom George, south of Mayfield, were caught, and paid damages and costs amounting to about $2 per pound of fish caught.

W. E. Olive, 88, Confederate veteran and pioneer resident of Graves County, died this week at his home near Dukedom. Survivors include a greatnephew, J. A. Olive, who has recently been elected County Court Clerk.

Charles Burgess, who was one of those injured in the I. C. cut-off wreck last week, has been released from the hospital. A. L. "Hart" Harvey and Ullis Williams, also injured, are improving.

Oberlin's Observations

That the 1950 primary election in Kentucky was quiet even to the point of boredom came as a surprise to no-one. That the 1950 general election in November will be in direct contrast will be no surprise either.

It is quite evident that the campaign for U. S. Senator promises to be vigorous and interesting. The promise lies in the very makeup of the men who will make the race.

There is a striking difference, in nearly every way, between Democrat Earle Clements and Republican Charles I. Dawson. About the only way they are alike is in build. And, actually, even their solid medium-height statures are not similar in too many ways. Earle Clements, who loves all the good things in life, is going into this political battle Magdalene Stallins were married Monday in Memphis. They will live in Fulton.

Miss Dora Hamby and Mr. G. G. Bard were married Aug. 10th at the bride's home in Tracy City, Tenn. She is a popular young society woman in her home town; he is at the top notch in Fulton business affairs.

Miss Irene Wade and Mr. Robert White were married Tuesday at the Cumberland Presbyterian Church by the Rev. H. L. Hinch. The second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wade Irene is one of Fulton's most charming and popular girls. She is a recent graduate of Vanderbilt University. Following a Chicago wedding trip, the couple will make their home in Central City, Ky., where Mr. White is employed by the Illinois Central.

August 22, 1930:

The State convention of the American Legion will open shortly in Mayfield, with Fulton Legionnaires playing an important part. Commander Leland T. Bugg and Cecil Weatherspoon, Thos. H. Chapman and Gregory Davis are the official delegates. The local Voiture of the 40 & 8 has been selected by the convention Committee to stage the "wreck" at 8: p. m. at the Armory.

The 1930 Weakley County fair has been called off due to the severe drouth.

Everybody around Fulton is looking hopefully to the arrival of Fall, when business conditions are expected to pick up considerably. The opinion that the end of the depression that started with the Wall Street crash is even now in sight, is nationwide.

Canning among the club ladies on Route 5 goes merrily along, with Mrs. Butts having put up 100 quarts, Mrs. Ray Watts, Mrs. Lon Watts, Mrs. Irene Yates having 23,100 and 35 cans of corn, beans, tomatoes and chickens respectively.

When work got slow for Guy Finch, who is in Knoxville "lining up" for the fall school term, he hitch-hiked to Washington to see his aunt, Mrs. Roderic Dancy, and look the city over.

Sermonette Of The Week

Why Are People Bad - - -

By MSGR Fulton J. Sheen

I wonder how many ever realize the importance of behavior on religious belief. It is too generally believed by those who have the Faith, that to bring a person to Divine Love, it is necessary only to cure him of a doubt.

They assume that people are irreligious ONLY because they are ignorant; that if they read a few good books, or listened to a few arguments in favor of Divinity, they would immediately embrace the Faith. Religion seems to them to be a thing to be known rather than a Personality to be embraced and lived and loved. There is no doubt that ignorance plays a dominant role in irreligion, but it must never be forgotten that Our Divine Lord Who is Truth itself did convince the Pharisees and certain sinners. They were so intellectually confounded by His knowledge that after one encounter no man dared ask Him any more questions, but they did not believe.

Not all Ph. D.'s are saints and not all the ignorant are devils. As a matter of fact, a certain type of education can make a man a clever devil instead of a stupid devil, and a stupid devil has a better chance for salvation.

stubbornness. Earle Clements is devious where Dawson is painfully straightforward — a New Dealer where Dawson is reactionary. Clements is just as firm in his convictions as Dawson and will fight as hard and as cleverly for them. But he has learned, learned a long time ago, that politics is a business of compromise. He is a master at the political deal which results in the greatest good and loses him the fewest votes.

Consider two examples of Clements' courage. He was warned by many so-called political experts that if he coerced the state legislature into passing an additional 2-cent-a-gallon gasoline tax earmarked for rural roads that he was committing political suicide.

But Earle Clements knew better. He did this in his first year as governor. And, he built the rural highway fund into a many-million-dollar proposition before he spent a nickel of it.

Then he used it, in some cases, to reward political friends. And, in other instances, to punish his enemies.

But in every case, the mud-mired folks in backwoods Kentucky benefitted handsomely. They got roads.

The Governor took a considerably greater risk when, last November, he built a fire under his efficient, vote-gathering, statewide organization to get out the votes and pass the constitutional amendment lifting ceilings on

It is not enough to be intellectual, one must be morally intellectual. It requires more COURAGE than brains to know God. God is the most obvious fact of human experience, but accepting Him is arduous. God is easily known; He is loved only with effort.

The point we are making is this: Besides grace and knowledge, there are certain moral conditions necessary for knowing Divine Truth; it is not the way people THINK, but the way they LIVE, which constitutes the major obstacle to union with the Spirit. It is not always the Creed that keeps some away from Christ in His Church, but the Commandments.

This week do two things: Live without serious sin and pray to God to reveal His Truth, and you will be surprised how much you will learn. Learn to say YES to GOD. There are a thousand ways of saying No; but there is only one way to say YES! Do HIS WILL. Then you will know, "Blessed are the clean of heart, for they shall see God."

Clean the flute of your soul and God will pipe on it a marvelous tune. His sunlight of Truth is outside the window of your soul. Clean it and be flooded with light and inner peace.

the salaries of state officers and employees. That was a gamble. But the people of the Commonwealth have taken this, too, without undue grumbling.

Clements, who would appear to be a heavy odds-on-favorite to go to the Senate in November, does not like a straight, simple answer. Even political reporters who see him every day through the legislative sessions and as often as two or three times a week in off seasons, say the Governor simply cannot find it in himself to give a simple yes or no answer. He vastly prefers an indirect reply to a direct one. He will not be pinned down.

And, yet, Clements has been an efficient, hard-working governor who has guided Kentucky through a critical time and achieved results which spell great progress. He is, in ways, contradictory.

It is likely that Dawson will so attack, with bulldog ferocity, with such unrelenting vigor and sharp barbs that Clements will be compelled to make the campaign he so carefully planned to avoid and did avoid in the primary. Clements already has made it clear to the voters that there will be a campaign in the fall.

Dawson will definitely be out to smoke-out his opponent. And, he's the man who can do it.

Right now, the general election campaign looks like it will have everything the primaries lacked. With one very glaring exception. Predicting the outcome is not too easy.

What About Service Men's Debts? They Get Protection Under Civil Relief Law Of '40

What about the debts of a man going into military service now? He gets protection under a law which Congress passed in 1940. It's still in effect and is called the soldiers' and sailors' civil relief act.

Some men are volunteering for military service now. Others, between 19 and 26, are being drafted. Still others, in the National Guard and reserves, are being called to active duty.

For many of them, the pay they get in uniform will be less than they earned in civilian life.

And many of them while in civilian life obligated themselves in many ways.

They bought automobiles, or property on time, or they were paying on an insurance policy, or they became liable for taxes, or they had a lease on a house they rented.

Now, because of the lower military pay, they must not be able to keep up the payments on the car or the insurance policy or they may not be able to pay the taxes they find they owe.

Supposed the people to whom they owe money go to court to make the serviceman pay. For example:

Jones was buying a $2,400 automobile on time, perhaps, at the rate of $100 a month. He's drafted and can't keep up those payments.

The loan company tells him it wants its money or it will take back the car. He explains that because of his lower Army pay, he can't meet those monthly payments.

Unsatisfied, the loan company goes to court to get judgment against him. What can Jones do?

If he's unable to go to court to tell the judge his story, his wife can go for him. Or he can hire an attorney. Or, if he needs an attorney but can't afford one, then under this 1940 law the court must appoint a lawyer to defend him.

The law says the courts will allow for the fact that a serviceman due to his military pay, can't meet his civilian obligation in full.

Then the court can decide that his payments must be cut down to a size he can afford while in the service. For instance, if he owes $100 a month on the car, the court can say he doesn't have to pay more.

PUBLIC HEALTH TOPICS

Many folks visiting in the country are apt to comment on "that good well water" but well water is not always good.

To be safe from possible contamination, a well must have a casing or lining deep enough to exclude underground seepage of contaminated water and a water tight platform or cover to prevent surface water from running into the well. However, these safeguards are not necessarily enough if the well is located in a limestone region. In such a region, a chlorinator should be used or the water from the well should be boiled.

Since the sources of contamination in the water supply are human excreta, having a safe sewage disposal system goes hand in hand with a safe water supply.

If connection with a sewer system is not available, a sanitary pit privy or a septic tank disposal system is recommended. Open privies provide a breeding place for flies and mosquitoes.

A septic tank makes it possible for farm homes to enjoy the conveniences of indoor plumbing. It also provides a safe and sanitary manner of waste disposal.

Plans for building a sanitary pit privy and a septic tank disposal system are available through the Fulton County Health Unit.

Improper waste disposal methods can cause illness or death of a member of the family or a neighbor. Safe waste disposal is, therefore, actually a matter of life and death.

For further advice about making sure that water supplies are safe and sewage disposal systems adequate, consult the Fulton County Health Unit. We will be glad to of service.

"My Boys, the Railroaders"

Our Boys, The Railroaders
Are you still wondering about the outcome of the Kitty race for 1950? If you are, brother, just keep wondering, it's still anybody's ball game. With only thirteen days left in the schedule, anything can happen. There are really only two mathematical cinches in the standings. The Union City Greyhounds and the Cairo Dodgers have their seventh and eighth places sewed up. Outside of those two teams, anything is still possible.

Here are the positions of the other teams in their game ratings: Mayfield in front; Fulton, second, one game behind; Owensboro, third, two and one-half behind; Jackson fourth, three behind; Madisonville, fifth, five and one-half behind; and Hopkinsville, sixth, eight and one-half games out of first. So with thirteen games yet scheduled, anything can happen.

The Fulton baseball fans can look forward to another year with the Chattanooga Lookouts. The contract for 1951 has been signed and is now ready to go. Personally, we feel that this is a good thing for the town and the club. The Chattanooga team, although not a high runner in the Southern Association, is not clogged with a bunch of Class B, C, and D clubs.

This means that we can get practically anything that we want and need in the line of ball players from their organization. The situation has improved steadily since we joined the Lookout club, and although we can hardly ask for any better than we have at present, let's hope that they are able to send us another Cracker-Jack crew for the season of 1951.

This week is certainly to be known as "Celebrity Week" for the old ball park. Monday and Tuesday, Joe Engel and Zenn Beck were here from the Lookout camp. Mr. Engel is the president of the Chattanooga club, while Mr. Beck is the general manager and scout for the club. They witnessed the Monday night double-header between the Railroaders and the Cairo Dodgers, and were to have attended the Tuesday night game, but bad weather intervened.

Also cancelled by Tuesday night's bad weather was the appearance of "Steamboat" Johnson, colorful former big league umpire. Mr. Johnson is now Umpire-in-Chief of the Southern Association and is always a good drawing card anywhere that a baseball game is in progress.

Here is the best news yet of the guests in the Kitty. Governor Earle Clements will be with us on Friday night and will make a short pre-game talk. This will be the first time in many years that the governor of Kentucky has made his appearance in our park. Let's all be out to give him a warm, friendly welcome to Fairfield.

Most of all, let's keep backing those Railroaders to the pennant in 1950! If we do our part, they will do theirs!

Mississippi Plantation Life: The Writings Of Mattie Dear

I thank the Lord Jesus that I'm alive. My health is ok so I will read, the 2 verse of 27 Psalms. The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear, the Lord is the strength of my life of whom shall I be afraid? When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell. For that cause I enjoyed myself Sunday and Sunday night at my church, the Pleasant Valley M. B. C. pastored by the Rev. C. K. Raymond of Shelby, Miss.

Text was second Car. 11 verse: subject, No Man Can Stop Me From Telling About Jesus. It is a fine thing to know about Jesus. He is so good to me. He supplies all my wants. I have a nice crop. It is opening so fast and I am glad of it.

I am yet a widow. But I have a man to give me a call today but I think that I am too old to marry again.

Well, the war is going on but you read God's Bible and you will see all things had to happen. It said there will be war and rumors of war and it said nations will be against nations. God's word don't fail if it does Heaven and Earth will pass away so it is a fine thing to keep in touch with the Lord.

Everything is looking promising around here now. I am doing fine. Nothing to grumble about. I thought Miss Johanna had forgot me at one time but I just kept praying. Whatsoever I want I ask the Lord for it. He told me that He would supply my ever needs if I trust Him and I am trying to serve him as near as I know how. Please pray that I may continue because I am intending to spend the balance of my days trying to serve the Lord. So pray for peace. Here is a poem: subject: Give the Negro a chance.

You can't win this war, Divided, each must do his part; Each Race must love each other more, And put your trust in God.

wear and tear on the furnishings are going to be slightly terrific. So, with those sturdy beds, desks and bookcases at the Taylors they can weather any storm.

Next door to the Taylors is the white—ever so white little home of the Sonny Pucketts. After knocking long and loud we realized that Vada Belle and the youngest member of the family were away and we regretted that we couldn't see the inside of their house.

Back in town again our "visiting houses" game took us out to Taylor and Green Streets, where five new homes are being built. At the Clyde Omar's we were attracted by the beautiful thermopane picture window in their living room. And also the kitchen where every bit of space is utilized by built-in shelves or cabinets. The storage space is both decorative and useful. In the future the Omars plan to have a very roomy and convenient apartment upstairs. All in all it looks like a house to live in—a house to enjoy.

Somewhere, someone wrote: "Good living is the highly individual achievement of people who have learned to know themselves and their own tastes, their own needs so well they can live as they please, freely and confident of any arbiter other than common sense." Whoever wrote these lines surely had a person like Georgia Weaver Hill in mind because she seems to have captured all these things in her well planned house, she has just built. The house on Green St. which is a combination home, rental apartment and beauty salon seems to meet every need for Mrs. Hill and her son, Joe Weaver.

On Taylor Street the home of Jeannette and Leonard Allen is nearing completion. It won't be too many days before they move in, and maybe we'll pay a little visit to see a lot more.

All these houses we have seen are neither traditional nor modern—perhaps a little of both—but most of all they are homes, homes where people live and realize a dream. They no longer have to talk about "someday when we build"—because that day has already come to them.

I. C. Orders 1100 New Freight Cars

A $5,850,000 authorization by the Illinois Central Railroad for the construction of 1,000 fifty-ton boxcars and 100 seventy-ton covered hopper cars is announced by President Wayne A. Johnston.

The Illinois Central will construct the 1,000 boxcars in its shops at Centralia, Ill., and orders will be placed with commercial car builders for the manufacture of the 100 covered hopper cars.

Since the end of World War II the Illinois Central has placed in service more than 14,000 new freight cars. In addition, more than 4,000 others have been modernized. With the completion of the present order the Illinois Central will have replaced or modernized more than 40 per cent of its total freight equipment ownership since the war.

The school employees will have been given their physical examinations.

The law also require that the 1st, fifth and ninth grades be given physical examinations once a year.

This program will begin soon after the schools open. A few of the health office personnel have not yet taken their earned annual leave. Their time for, this will be arranged in a way that the health department's school program will not be interrupted to any great extent.

Dr. Harrell stated that the combined county health unit program is running according to schedule and every sign bids for a well rounded public health program for this fiscal year.

STATE HAS PLANS FOR MOBILIZATION

Kentucky has complete plans for home mobilization in case the government finds that necessary.

President Truman's remark that the federal government has such plans, but will use them only if necessary, recalled to officials here that last January 15 Governor Earle Clements approved a program for this state.

Jet Plane, Buzz-Bomb Deight Showgoers

"Previews of Progress," a dramatic, non-technical science show, is one of the features of the million-dollar Home and Farm Electrical Exposition appearing near Clinton, Ky. on August 19, 1950.

This remarkable "Previews of Progress" has been seen by five million Americans in the past four years. Last year alone, about 1,500,000 school-age children witnessed its wonders.

There's the story of jet-propulsion, climaxed when a model jet P-80 Shooting Star pursuit plane and a buzz-bomb actually fly across the auditorium.

Then there's the making of synthetic rubber right on the stage.

The development of artificial lighting is portrayed, from Thomas Edison's first incandescent lamp through today's fluorescent lighting.

There'll be broadcasting of music over a beam of light.

"And there are other features, all fascinating," Manager Everett says. "You'll want to be sure all your family sees. 'Previews of Progress'—and remember the whole exposition's free!"

Water Heaters can be too small, too

UNDERSIZED ELECTRIC WATER HEATERS COST YOU MONEY!

Your electric water heater should be large enough to heat all the water your home requires on our low, off-peak rates.

Few homes can get by on less than 40 gallons of hot water a day. And since you can heat about 80 per cent of the contents of a water heater on the low, off-peak rate, a 52 gallon storage tank can do the job for a small family.

However, if you try to get those 40 gallons of hot water from a 30-gallon heater, all over 24 gallons will heat at a greater cost per kilowatt hour. From a 40 gallon heater, only 32 gallons will heat on the low, off-peak rate.

It pays to get your heater large enough. The small additional cost of an electric water heater of the correct size will return dividends in lower operating costs. Get one to fit your needs.

A Summer Wedding of Beautiful Simplicity Unites Miss Colley and Mr. Connie Adams

In a beautifully planned home wedding, Miss Barbara Rose Colley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doran Colley, became the bride of Mr. Connie W. Adams of Lake City, Florida, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Adams of Hopewell, Virginia, Monday afternoon at four o'clock at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Sidney Rose, Rev. C. L. Houser of Vicksburg, Miss., officiated using an impressive double ring service. The ceremony was attended by relatives and close friends of the young couple and their parents.

A lovely improvised altar was arranged before the mantel at the opposite end of the living room from the stairway. Large ferns and wrought iron candelabra holding tall white tapers were placed at each side of the mantel which held a fan shaped arrangement of white gladioli and ferns flanked by additional candles. The rail of the stairway was twined with plumosa fern and white satin bows. Triple candelabra were placed on the heirloom organ which was used for the wedding.

Preceding the exchange of the nuptial vows a program of wedding music was given by a trio composed of Mrs. H. B. Houston, Miss Shirley Houston and Mrs. Jack Carter, who sang "I Love You Truly"; Miss Houston sang "I Love Thee"—Grieg and Ivan Jones, organist, played a "Wedding Air" which he had composed in special tribute to the bride and groom. Mr. Jones also played the traditional wedding march from "Lohengrin" for the processional and the Debussy "Clair de Lune" during the ceremony.

Misses Nancy Stovall, Carolyn Rudd, June Coplen and Elizabeth Colson of Trenton, Florida held broad satin ribbons which formed an aisle for the advance of the wedding party.

The young bride made a beautiful picture as she descended the stairs and advanced to the altar escorted by her father, who gave her in marriage. Her wedding gown of lustrous white satin and chintilly lace was fashioned with a drop shoulder effect edged with a double bertha of the lace encrusted with a tiny embroidery of seed pearls. The transparent yoke of tulle hugged the neck and long sleeves formed lily points edged with lace ruffles. Tiny covered buttons extended from the yoke line to the hips in the back of the bodice which was pointed in front and back and joined the very full gathered skirt. Her chapel length veil of illusion was attached to a scalloped halo bonnet of satin encrusted with small satin roses. She wore a locket which had belonged to her maternal grandmother and carried a white Bible topped by a large white, purple throated orchid. A shower of satin ribbons and tuberoses fell from the Bible which had an antique rosepoint wedding handkerchief placed within its leaves.

The bride's attendants were: Miss Joan Smith, maid of honor, Misses Barbara Homra and Gwen Roberts of Lake City, Florida, bridesmaids and little Miss Roma Stovall, flower girl. All the attendants wore identical period frocks of soft melon pink. They wore satin bonnets fashioned exactly like that of the bride and carried colonial bouquets of pale yellow daisies tied with matching satin ribbons.

James Harry Rose and Sidney King Rose served as acolytes and Eddie Thomas Rose carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Wiley Adams of Hopewell, Virginia attended his brother as best man and Billy Mott Jones was the usher.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Colley chose an early fall afternoon frock of snake blue slipper satin. She wore rhinestone jewelry and black accessories and wore a corsage of red carnations.

Mrs. Adams, the groom's mother, wore a softly tailored model of navy blue sheer ornamented with pearl clips. Her accessories were white and she wore a corsage of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held which was attended by a large number of friends.

Arrangements of white flowers were used throughout the dining room.

Assisting the girls of the wedding party in serving were: Mrs. Dean Collier and Mrs. H. B. Houston. Mrs. Gene Dowdy and Miss Edith Gambill were at the register.

Early in the evening the bride and groom left on a southern wedding trip after which they will make their home in Lake City, Florida where Mr. Adams is minister of the Church of Christ.

Fro traveling Mrs. Adams wore an early fall suit of Pantomine slipper satin. Her hat was of black taffeta edged in velvet, her accessories were of black velvet and she wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Among the out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Adams and children of Hopewell, Va., Mrs. L. F. Holliday of Dresden, Mrs. Eddie Kollrus of Jackson, Tenn.

KENTUCKY IS KROGER SOURCE OF SUPPLY

"Kentucky's importance as a source of supply for the Kroger company has increased in recent years," G. E. Berg head of the Memphis branch said. Last year product purchases in Kentucky amounted to more than $27,000,000.

In addition to its merchandise purchases, Mr. Berg pointed out that Kentucky residents received $4,300,000 in wages and salaries from Kroger last year and that the company paid approximately $500,000 in taxes within the state. Other expenditures in the state included $340,000 for the rental of its stores and warehouses and $264,000 for advertising in Kentucky newspapers.

Many of Kroger's purchases from Kentucky are shipped to the company's 2100 stores located in 19 midwestern and southern states. This is especially true of tomatoes and cigarettes, Mr. Berg said.

Pasture Mixture Turns Out Beef

That a green-pasture program pays a farmer is seen in the case of Willis R. Hilliard of Clinton community in Hickman county. Early in May, he turned 21 yearling cattle on an eight-acre field of Ky. 31, fescue white clover and red clover. Weighing an average of 700 pounds at that time, each gained an average of about 80 pounds, or a total of 1,675 pounds in 40 days. Farm Agent Warren Thompson points out that each acre of the field produced 209 pounds of beef in that length of time. Previous to seeding, it had been treated with lime and phosphate.

Mrs. Ann Poling, 609 Delaware St., Indianapolis, Indiana, who was suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B, B₁₂, Iron, and Niacin, smiles as she pours herself another cup of coffee. Mrs. Poling says life lately is like it used to be years ago. "That is, of course, since I've been taking HADACOL." She can't get over what a difference HADACOL has made in her outlook on life.

Mrs. Poling says: "Three months ago a good friend of mine told me about HADACOL—she knew how much stomach distress I have had. Any type of food that was fried or that had acid in it I just couldn't eat. It affected my sleep, too. In fact, I couldn't have been in a worse condition. When I ate what I wanted to I felt miserable and when I didn't eat these things—I didn't have a proper diet and still felt bad. Then, when I started taking HADACOL, I felt better immediately. I've got a bottle in the house now—and will continue to keep HADACOL from now on. I have told many folks about HADACOL—and they all thank me for telling them about HADACOL. They all have gotten wonderful results from HADACOL like I have. Now I eat anything I want and get a good night's sleep. I can't praise HADACOL enough."

HADACOL Can Help You, Too! ... as it has helped thousands of others whose systems lacked Vitamins B, B₁₂, Iron and Niacin. Yes, even hundreds of doctors have recommended HADACOL to their patients. The HADACOL formula is so effective for stomach distress, nervousness, insomnia, constipation, aches and pains of neuritis, and a general run-down condition caused by such deficiencies.

Make Up Your Mind ... to give HADACOL a chance to help you, as it has helped countless thousands of others. Remember, there are no substitutes for HADACOL. Always insist on the genuine HADACOL. hearts and flowers by Patricia Latane

Dear Miss Latane:

Will you please tell me if my husband really loves me? Is he true to me? If he loves me why does he do like he does? Will he get a job? Does he think I am true to him? I am looking forward to my answer. Thank you,

W. T.

Dear W. T.:

Yes he really loves you as long as you will keep him up and he doesn't have to work. No, he isn't true to you. No, he will not get a job because he doesn't want one. Yes, he thinks you're true to him.

P. L.

Dear Patricia:

Will a certain young man in this town ever ask me for a date? He seems to be a nice person and is very friendly with me.

Will I leave Fulton in the near future to find a job. Do you think I would be satisfied?

Please answer soon for I'm anxiously waiting.

M. C.

Dear M. C.:

No, he will never ask you for a date; he is just a friendly person.

I don't think you will leave. If you do it would only be for a couple weeks; you wouldn't be satisfied.

Patricia.

Dear Patricia:

Will I marry the boy I'm going with? How old will I be when I get married? The girl I'm thinking of where is she in the hospital and will she keep her baby or put it up for adoption?

Thanks,
K. C. W.

Dear K. C. W.:

No, you will not marry the boy your going with. You will be 28 years old when you marry. She is not in a hospital. She will put the baby up for adoption.

Patricia.

Dearest Patricia:

I have been reading your column in the paper and I want you to answer my questions the best you can.

Does the man I go with love me? Will we marry? Will we have any children? Does he love his wife or me best? Does he have any children and how many? How many do I have?

Will my brother go back to the army? Please answer these as soon as you can.

Your Friend,
B. D. G.

Dear B. D. W.:

I don't see how you expect me to know how many children you have if you don't know and you had them, wouldn't that be right?

Well, you don't have any children; the boy you are going with isn't married; he doesn't have any children. He likes you but is not in love with you.

You and he will never marry. Patricia.

Dear Patricia:

I am a woman in my "early forties." I am divorced from my husband and he is married again. There is a man in this town whom I like very much and he is very friendly with me. Do you think this man will ask me for a date and when? Is there a possibility that I will take a trip with him? Could you tell me when? Thank you very much.

Sincerely,
V. M.

Dear V. M.:

Yes, he will ask you for a date within 30 days. Yes, you will take a trip with him in the next 60 days and there will be many more such trips. You will like him a lot and you will find a lot of happiness with this man.

P. L.

"All's well that ends well" said Mrs. Puckett to Carl at last Wednesday's ball game. With the Kitty up to a sizable figure last week, Carl's name was pulled, and he wasn't there to claim it. Lo and behold, Wednesday night the youngster reached in the barrel up to his elbow and came up with the Mrs.

Both were on hand, and as far as we could tell, Carl beat her to the stand to claim it. (He had a 10-yard lead coming out of the bleachers).
