I guess Jimmy ignores all games scores always run rather high. In their own amateur team and some their winning streak broken. Mr. sign to see these games being played a word about it. He came in and is a pleasure to write about those nothing about them. But when the seen those two towns field some prolonged losing streaks I wish that the key players, such as pitchers and batters and batted balls and runs and hits, held in the Kitty elgt park. It will be things through the news stories. If the Fleas lose well, Jimmy does the same that I am talking about. The setback, and I believe Jimmy Lowe, about sixteen or eighteen games in years.

Homra-Hunter Wedding is Solemnized Here Yesterday

In a beautifully arranged barn, one of the outskirts of town, August 3, Miss Yvonne Homra, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Homra, became the bride of John H. Hunter of Marshville. The marriage took place in the First Christian Church with Rev. Walter Voelpel, officiating, and the Reverend William Homra, brother of the bride, serving as best man.

The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, was in a gown of white satin, fashioned along princess lines with buttons down the back and long sleeves cinching the waist with a belt. The V-necked collar was accented by a white orchid and a white prayer vine. Herpatrick, hand bouquet consisted of white tapers. In the background, while orchid and a white prayer vine, a large organ was being played.

The ceremony lasted for about fifteen minutes, and at the end of it the bride and groom left the church, floated down the aisle and into the waiting line-up of friends and relatives. The wedding party consisted of the maid of honor, Mrs. Margaret Clark of St. Matthews, and the bridesmaids, Miss Virginia Homra of Marlboro, Miss Dora DeLong, and Miss Lillie Davis, the latter a favorite of the bride.

The reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cooley and the formal dinner was served at the same place.

The couple will be at home on Saturday, August 8, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Z. C. Wilson, 108 Second Street, Munfordville, Kentucky.
