From the text provided, here is a summary of the key points:

1. Mr. McLemore's win in the present war will cure all untried.
2. President Walley said, "An iron-clad rule will be enforced that men once fired will not be hired in a new capacity unless they are retested and found satisfactory."
3. The news-papers carry my idea far and wide, maybe just some of his assistants. So there it goes, if we can get all the others. "I know we can get the job done."
4. RECOVERY OF TUREAU: - Thomas J. Coughlin, now 27 years old, of the town of Fulton, died July 1st at the age of 16 years. He had been admitted to the hospital for treatment.
At Kearney, New Jersey, work has been in progress on building two cruisers, six destroyers, three tankers and hundreds of smaller crafts. All told the shipyards have contracts for almost half a billion dollars' worth of ships that are badly needed in the defense program of the country.

In a matter of days it will be possible to break down the demands. The employers agreed to this development at the earliest possible moment. In a few weeks or months it will be possible that we will be involved in war in both the East and West, and war in both the East and West will be the only things which will save us from defeat.
