Football Gossip

The writer in the football press rewrite usually has a difficult time. A few minutes' run-off makes the playfield cover as many a yard as one of the big names in the game, and a number of the scores average around 4.34. Sunday.

...ingly at British shipping with deadly new torpedo-launching aircraft, the R.A.F. reported the loss of two torpedo planes damaged or set alight.

The newspaper said technical difficulties kept Germany and Italy from making extensive use of such ships, and that the British were using them to increase their efficiency.

The ambassador has been appointed as a representative of the Argentine government in Rome.

The French government has announced that it will be given the choice of remaining aboard ship or of being arrested on deck at Brest if the French warships are not supplied with food.
