The Worst Apparently Over

Chances have been hazed so much in the world for several months, that people are starting to wonder what it is to be in the market again. Almost all billion dollars will be needed. New entries will build and demand will rise, and trade will be on the move again.

10 SCHOOLS ENTERED FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE TOURNAMENT AT MURRAY

Murray, Ky.—With the returning school season last year, the Intercollegiate Tournament of the Twelve Southern States next year will be in Murray. It was held at that school from 1906 to 1908, and was the only school in the South at that time.

The tournament will be held on the Murray campus. The Murray College basketball team will play in the tournament, and the Murray College football team will play in the tournament. The tournament will be held on the Murray campus.

The week was held as a means of promoting the interests of the county, and it was attended by a large number of people.

A number of events were held, including a parade, a fair, and a concert. The week was a great success, and it is hoped that it will be repeated in the future.

BRIEFLY

About the only place where people can still find a dollar bill is in the house of Mr. and Mrs. Carlson, who live in the town of Millard.

The money was given to the family by a stranger who found it on the street.

The family was very happy, and they said that they would keep the money as a reminder of the kindness of strangers.

A Full "Emergency Shelf" Means a Meal in Minutes

Prepare That Party Lunch Before Your Guests Arrive

More Action, buddy. We ask you and we ask the whole town to step in and lend a helping hand. The time has come when we must start building up our supply of emergency food. Our winter is coming on. Store shelves everywhere are running down, and we must give them a boost. Let's put away by the yard, and do the job. The time has come. We're in for another long winter. It is going to be a hard winter. We must be prepared. We must have a stock of emergency food. It is very important. No old food is the thing. We must have something new and fresh. We must have something that will nourish us. We must have something that will sustain us. We must have something that will keep us going. We must have something that will keep us alive. We must have something that will keep us healthy. We must have something that will keep us strong. We must have something that will keep us content. We must have something that will keep us happy. We must have something that will keep us regular. We must have something that will keep us regular. We must have something that will keep us regular. We must have something that will keep us regular. We must have something that will keep us regular. We must have something that will keep us regular. We must have something that will keep us regular. We must have something that will keep us regular. FEED THE HUNGRY

Through various charitable organizations the cities and towns of this country are able to do a lot of good work. It is a fact that many thousands of others, by their little acts of kindness are reaching the conclusion that machinery is responsible for our nation-wide distressing events as such as droughts, floods and cyclones. People in Fulton have already got results for you. There are quite a few cases around—also in the cities. It is a fact that the Red Cross is doing work for the same as charitable organizations act in the cities. It is a fact that the cities are reaching the conclusion that they had never heard of such a thing.

The public is entitled to the best transportation at the lowest reasonable cost. Competition must be equal in order for the public to have a clear choice.

In the field of transportation, the railroads are still in an unregulated and heavily competitive situation. The railroads, under the merest of regulation, are forced to engage in a cutthroat struggle for business. This struggle, in turn, results in lower rates and better service for the public.

Why Not Have the Best?

The railroad for a long time was almost alone in this field of competition. The public, however, has come to expect a certain degree of regulation and has begun to demand it.

It now costs no more when you buy anything you want the best you can get for the money. This applies to LAUNDRY WORK as well as anything else, and if you follow this rule you will see that your bundle comes to you. You will find your linen will LAST LONGER and LOOK BETTER.

The day grew later and later. More and more scouts gathered up with some money of their own and made a big meal of it. The girls were sitting on the floor of the barn, enjoying the food, and the only thing that worried them was the thought of the future. They had spent all their money and were not sure where they would get their next meal.

A Fudge Sauce Romance

By Janie Gober

Duncan was always in the way. He was a little too tall and a little too thin. His face was always just a little too round.

The day was hot and the sky was clear. Duncan was walking down the street, looking at the window of the store. Suddenly he saw a fudge sauce in the window that he had been wanting to buy for a long time.

"Do you know that store?" his friend asked.

Duncan nodded. "Yes, I do. It's a little store down the street."

"And do you know what they sell there?"

Duncan nodded again. "Yes, I do. They sell fudge sauce and other things."

"Do you want to buy some of that fudge sauce?"

Duncan shrugged. "I don't know. It's a little expensive."

"Well, I'll tell you what. I'll buy it for you and you can pay me back later."

Duncan smiled. "That's a great idea. I'll do that."

They went into the store and bought the fudge sauce. Duncan paid for it and they both ate it. They both enjoyed it very much.

"Do you think the fudge sauce is good?" Duncan asked.

"Yes, I do. It's very good."

"Well, I think so too."

They both ate the fudge sauce and then went back home. Duncan paid his friend back for the fudge sauce and they both went home happy.
