Talbott Denies Records Kept From Meredith

Asserts He Only Ordered Documents Held In Office

Frankfort, Ky., —A charge that Finance Commissioner J. Dan Talbott was trying to prevent Attorney General Hubert Meredith from examining records in the state purchasing late today with an angry denial.

Meredith issued a written statement declaring a representative of his office had been refused on Talbot's orders permission to make any further inspection of grocery purchase records in the inquiry now being made by the governor's committee into numerous charges of certain firms and individuals being favored and high prices paid as a result.

The committee had finished examining the grocery records and Meredith said he wanted to go over them.

"That's a lie, whether the attorney general or anybody else said it," exclaimed Talbott when informed of Meredith's charge that he had ordered that Meredith was not to be allowed to inspect them.

"They are public records and anybody can see them in this office. They just aren't going out of the office without a court order."

Meredith, who frequently has clashed with Talbott over administration acts and policies, declared in his statement the after Assistant Attorney General Jesse K. Lewis has appealed to committee Chairman Richard Frostcutman, he was informed the records were available for inspection in the purchasing division office.

HOUSE DEFEAT OF PAY CEILING BILL PREDICTED

Washington. — Representative Ford (D., Calif.), told fellow-members of the House Banking Committee, at a hearing on price control legislation today, that "if you undertake to put a ceiling on wages you can't get the bill through."

“We want a price control bill to check this inflation spiral,” Ford declared. “If you inject labor into this bill you are not going to have any bill.”

Earlier Representative Patman (D. Texas) told reporters he planned to insist that the committee report out some form of price-fixing bill at once, even if it is necessary to follow it with supplemental legislation.

PRISON FALS ARE DRAWN TO-GETHER

The confraternity of ex-convicts exposed in course of the search for Marion Miley's slayers must be arresting to the thoughtful, if not to prison, parole and liquor control authorities.

Tom Penney, the confessed bandit, was caught in the company of Leo Gaddis, an alumnus of the Kentucky and several other State reformatories, and another probationer from a Texas penitentiary.
Penney was a prison acquaintance of Gaddis and Bobby Anderson, whom he accused of being an accomplice in the Lexington Country Club murders.

It is natural to wonder how Penney has lived since he was released in 1937; but it probably would be futile to ask. Yet Penney must have eaten these last four years. We know more about Anderson. He has been operating a drinking place in Louisville. This has nothing to do with the Miley murder; it concerns merely the dereliction of entrust-ing a saloon to a former liquor law violin and storebreaker.

Penney, even now only 32 and a weak character who faltered at shooting it out with the officers, first attracted police attention by minor offenses at the age of 16. The next year he was in for larceny and at 21 was sentenced to 20 years for holdup in which a man was killed. By what steps the juvenile feet of this unromantic bandit were directed into criminal paths parole authority evidently had the curiosity to inquire. He was released on parole in seven years, a potential Dillinger.

Perhaps, Penney and his accomplices, whoever that may be, had no idea they would have to shoot a couple of women. The loot was too trivial for the perpetrators to have plotted murder in advance. They were after money; the deed measures the degree of their wantonness.

We have no statistics to indicate how many of the 404 homicides in Kentucky and 48 in Jefferson County last year were committed by ex-convicts; but the total approximates the number of traffic fatalities and, in this instance at least, supervision appears to have been
lax. A moral as well as legal responsibility is imposed upon authority. Confirmed criminals are not safely paroled as if they were young men of previous good conduct who had succumbed to sudden temptation. The latter class in an advanced state of society are subject to probation by the court.
Investigations of all cases should go back beyond the first police record and conclude with a mental and physical examination. We shalnever know what to do with criminals in prison or out until we have all the facts.

Parolees are supposed to be supervised and assisted. It is hard

WOMAN'S MAGAZINE CLUB IN MEETING

Mrs. B. B. Alexander was hostess to the Woman's Magazine Club yesterday, October 16, at her home on Walnut street. At one o'clock luncheon was served at a beautifully appointed dining table, where covers were laid for eight. The table was lovely with pink roses and white snapdragons.

Mrs. Herbert Carr presided over the business during which time Mrs. E. M. Jenkins and Mrs. Will Whitely were appointed delegates to the Woman's Club convention to be held the latter part of this month in Murray. The club regretfully accepted the resignation of Mrs. P. R. Binford. Roll call was answered with interesting current events.

Mrs. Walter Hill then gave a very interesting report on "Woman Power in Defense" and Mrs. Harry Murphy gave an excellent report on "The Life of Constantine Samuel Rafinesque."

That concluded the meeting and the club adjourned to meet on Thursday, October 30, with Mrs. Herbert Carr at her home on Second street.

CLUB WITH MRS. DEWITT MATTHEWS

The regular three table of players were present last night when Mrs. Dewitt Matthews entertained her bridge club at her home in Pierce. Only club members were present.

Following the games Miss Mary Anderson won high score and Mrs. George Moore was winner of second high. Mrs. Matthews presented each a pretty gift.

Refreshments of pie and coffee were served late in the evening. The club will meet next week with Miss Adolphus Mae Latta at her home on West State Line.

MISS FLORENCE WADE ENTERTAINS CLUB

Entertaining her bridge club and a few visitors, Miss Florence Wade was hostess to a 2-table contract party last night at her home on Carr street. Mrs. Howard Edwards held high among the club members and Mrs. Ual Killebrew was winner of the prize among visitors.

Miss Wade served a salad course to Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. Killebrew, Mrs. Robert Bard, Mrs. Lynn Askew, Mrs. J. C. Scruggs, Mrs. Paul Hornbeak, Mrs. Clanton Meacham and Mrs. Harry Murphy.

The club will meet next week with Mrs. Lynn Askew.

CLUB WITH MRS. LOUIE BARD

Mrs. Louie Bard entertained members of the Sew and So club yesterday afternoon at her home on Pearl street. Two visitors, Mrs. Otis Norman and Mrs. R. E. Pierce, were also present.

The afternoon was spent in games of bingo and those winning the prizes were Mrs. Joe Armstrong, high; Mrs. Jack Morris, travelers; Mrs. Otis Norman, coverall; and Mrs. Parrish Carney, low.

Mrs. Bard served delicious refreshments consisting of a salad, sandwiches, cake and cold drinks. This club will meet next Thursday afternoon with Mrs. John E. Bard at her home on the Hickman highway.

BRIDGE CLUB IS ENTERTAINED LAST NIGHT

Miss Martha Moore was hostess to the members of her bridge club last evening at her home on Malden street. One visitor, Miss Ann DeMyer, was included in the two tables of players. Miss Ann Godfrey held high score at the conclusion of the games and Miss Helen King won the travel prize.

Late in the evening, the hostess served a salad plate.

MRS. WILLIAM H. ATKINS IS HOSTESS TO CLUB

Mrs. William H. Atkins was hostess to her bridge club yesterday afternoon at her home on Green street with the regular two tables of club members attending.

At the conclusion of the games Mrs. Robert Graham, high scorer, was presented a lovely prize. Mrs. Atkins served a salad plate after the games. Mrs. Graham will be hostess to the club in two weeks.

50TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATED

Wednesday, October 15 was a memorable day for Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Williams of Fulton, the day being their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Open house was held at their home for any of their friends who would call and throughout the day they received visitors, all congratulating them and showering them with flowers and lovely gifts.

For the occasion the home was decorated with a profusion of mixed flowers and in the dining room, where dainty refreshments were served to all visitors, the table was covered with a beautiful lace cloth and centered with a floral bouquet.

MRS. GRANBERRY HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Madge Granberry, who celebrated her eighty-first birthday Wednesday, October 15, was honored at a joyous occasion when a group of her friends gathered at her home, each bringing a covered dish for lunch. The celebration was planned as a complete surprise to Mrs. Granberry.

Those present for lunch were Mrs. Walter Willingham, Mrs. Vester Freeman, Mrs. Louis Graham and Mrs. Eunice Robinson. Throughout the afternoon a great number of her friends called to offer congratulations and best wishes, bringing her lovely gifts and flowers.

Red Devils Bow To Sharon Last Night For First Losses 20 To 9

Suffering their first defeat of the season after three straight victories, the South Fulton Red Devils went to Sharon, Tennessee last night for a return game and were defeated by the score of 20-9. The Red Devils met the Sharon team in the opening game of the season at Southside and won by the score of 25-21.

In the game last night the Red Devils were out-passed, out-blocked out-run, and out-played in general throughout the game. They scored early in the first quarter, McConnell scoring on a pass from Luther, and made no more threats, except for a touchback in the third quarter. It was McConnell who also broke through to make the tackle on the touchback.

For Sharon it was Quarterback Bruer who made all touchdowns and played a spectacular game both on defense and offense.

STRANGERS ARGUE OVER OPERATION FOR CHILD WITH SLEEPING SICKNESS

New York. — "If she were my child, I'd let them operate."

"I wouldn't. She might die. If she were mine, I'd wait."

Thus strangers argue the problem that confronts the parents of little Maria Oleaga, 2½, who has been in a coma since Aug. 21.

Physicians, admitting their uncertainty as to the cause and cure of Maria's peculiar "sleeping sickness," still feel that an operation, a dangerous operation, might reveal the presence of a brain tumor. Once definitely located, a brain tumor often can be removed.

Maria's mother, Mrs. Gregoria Oleaga, can't bear the thought of an operation. Without her consent, and that of the father, a chief, the doctors cannot operate.

While adults worry, Maria sleeps on. Physicians feed her through the veins, and today she had gained weight.

During the brief time when her eyes were open she seemed to take interest in a doll held before her. Fear had been expressed earlier that she was blind.

Mrs. Oleaga speaks only Spanish, but has learned two English words of late. She repeats them again and again. They are "no operation, no operation."

PORTABLE AIRPORT MADE OF METAL TO BE TESTED IN FALL WAR MANEUVERS

Camden, S. C. — The Army's ingenious engineers started work today to put together in two weeks a portable, metal airplane landing "field" that will allow combat planes to come to earth safely on what is now only a sandy, rolling Carolina field.

They brought with them on 18 freight cars the 1,000-ton sectional strip, wide enough and long enough to accommodate the fastest and the biggest planes.

The First Army's October-November maneuvers in the Carolinas will provide the first simulated war test of the portable landing fields the Army is building, or has built in the Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico.

Football Gossip

The Bulldogs square off tonight in quest of their second conference victory, with the Wildcats from Cadiz furnishing the opposition. It will be the Homecoming Game and a large crowd is expected, provided the weather does not turn out badly. As this is written, the day before the game, prospects are for cooler weather, but there is also a possibility of a muddy field. Coach Giles is praying for a dry field, for in the last game, against Murray, mud stopped the Bulldog running and passing attack completely, and the local team lost to superior punting. The Bulldogs will go into the game with their regular starting team, barring illness or accidents before tonight, and should rule as favorites by a slight margin. However, the margin is smaller than the experts seem to believe. Harry Bolser picks the Bulldogs to win 20 to 0, but local observers see no such margin as this, and the general belief here is that victory by one touchdown will be satisfactory. Trigg has scored in every game played and has a strong running attack, coupled with a better than fair air game. The team is not as heavy as the local outfit, but is well balanced and speedy. Both teams lack adequate reserves, but Trigg has a larger squad from which to draw, and will not feel replacements as keenly as the Bulldogs. On a dry field the Bulldogs might use power plays against the lighter line with success, but this remains to be seen. The Wildcat line, while a trifle lighter than the Bulldogs forward wall, is well balanced and tough, while their backs will loom larger than the Bulldogs backs. Taken by and large the Bulldogs must earn all the yardage they gain the hard way, for Trigg has been nobody's pushover this season. The only time they have been pushed around was at the hands of Dawson Springs, and this was purely an upset and just one of those things which come to a team now and then. Last year the Bulldogs thought they had a pushover in Cadiz and came home on the short end of an 18 to 0 score. The boys want to even that record in the game tonight—but they must do it before that can prove they can. It is a known fact that the Wildcats have been pointing for this game since last week and they have prepared several surprise plays which may indeed give the Bulldogs something to chew on.

Coach Giles has been putting the boys through some tough practice sessions in preparation for this game. Wednesday the boys thought the practice session might be rained out, but the big coach worked them right through the rain and said later that the team looked pretty well running in the mud. "We don't intend to be surprised this week if the field happens to be muddy," the coach said. "Football games have to be played in the mud now and then and if we had played some in the mud before the Murray game we might have done a little better. Anyhow, we are trying to be ready for whatever comes Friday night."

The long practice sessions have had their effect, too, on the squad. Only those who have been watching the team all season, in practice and in games, realize how far the team has come since the starting of practice. Long hours of practice, with the emphasis on timing and coordination have gone into making one of the toughest, most durable teams the school has had in a long time. The team may run into tough going and lose games during the remainder of the season, but it is never going to quit because the going is tough. It has learned that lesson well—to dish it out and take it—and it asks no quarter from any foe. When a team learns that lesson it has traveled a long way.

You can do it if you try!

POISED here as if for take-off is the gorgeous new creation which is the Buick SUPER for 1942.

Fresh in line, clean of contour, solid as a combat car but graceful as a plane, it is one of 23 sparkling new models that prove you can do it if you try!

For the very things that made some people ready to say there couldn't be anything new in the 1942 cars made Buick engineers resolve that if there were any they would be better automobiles.

Now they're here. Everyone a Buick FIREBALL valve-in-head straight-eight, every single one a honey. Put foot to treadle in any of them and you find out in a hurry; how little defense conditions hamper men of real skill and alert ingenuity.

Push this beauty; force it through the toughest going — it will take all you can give it with frugal ease — and be fretlessly ready for more.

Yes, go see these cars now and learn how wrong the fellow was who said there could be little new in '42.

No other car had ALL THIS FOR YOU IN '42
