Lewis Leaves Problem Up To President

The strike truce granted by the Arkansas Steel Workers' Union for the last three days of the stoppage will expire Monday morning, and there seems comparatively little likelihood that it will be extended, sources here today claimed.

While the truce is most welcome to the workers and management of the two Arkansas steel companies, it is not expected that it will last beyond Monday, according to the information reported.

The strike truce granted by the United Steel Workers' Union (CIO) to the United Steel Workers' Union (AFL) of the United States was a truce of 21 days. It expired last midnight, and the workers were still on strike.

The strike truce was granted by the United Steel Workers' Union (AFL) of the United States, which has 21 days to come to an agreement before the strike would be declared a failure.

Uncertain World Conditions

Make Systematic Saving Wise

It is not a time to rock the boat - but all of us know that in the face of conditions today systematic saving is wise. We know, too, that nothing is as safe as real estate.

The Building and Loan Association is based on the ownership of property. Our loans are made on it and our deposits are insured by the Federal Government. We offer the best method of real, systematic saving that has ever been available - we are also in position to help any person own a home.

We will be glad to talk over these things with any person who wishes to provide for the future at any time.
