Negro Brutes Held In Louisville

POSITIVELY IDENTIFIED

Assurance that Fulton county will not be troubled with any more Negro trouble was expressed by Sheriff Golding this morning.

The two Negroes are Charles Brown, 28, and his wife, 27, both natives of the county, who came to the county about a month ago, according to Sheriff Golding.

At 8 o'clock this morning, the two Negroes entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Holman in this city, one of the worst Negro homes in the county, on occasion of a報告 attack, and were shot and killed. The body of one of the women was found by the front door and the other in a room at the rear of the house. The body of the third Negro was found in the kitchen.

The two women were immediately arrested, and the Sheriff's deputies were on the scene of the crime within an hour. The bodies were taken to the hospital where they were identified by the coroner's jury.

The two Negroes were identified as Charles Brown and his wife, both of whom have been living in the county for several years.

The two women were identified as Elizabeth Brown and her sister, both of whom have been living in the county for several years.

TIP TO CORRESPONDENTS

Some of our correspondents who are always interested in what is going on "back home," and who are writing to ask what progress the farmers are making in planting crops, may possibly have overlooked the entry reading the news letters in the circulation world. Correspondents must be patient, but little or nothing is ever written unless they make an effort on the farm.

While we know we have many friends, indeed, the best friends, and that there are kind souls who do their best to keep the natives of the farm happy, the problem is really one of reaching them, and the editor must not expect correspondence from them at every turn.

Perhaps, however, you have noticed that the editor has kept his circulation this year, and what he has gained—how many letters, how many names, how much he owes to his friends and who have helped him along in making this paper a success.

In the past, there has been a great deal of correspondence from correspondents, but the business is going well, and the editor wishes to thank all of them for their help.

In the future, the editor will try to keep the readers of this paper posted on all important industry activities on the farm.

The editor would not expect correspondence from them at every turn, but if a letter is received, it will be the editor's duty to answer it.

dispatch of the Standard of Trade on Easter bunnies was noted.

Of course, our readers or the editor would not expect anything of the kind, but the editor would like to hear from some of the correspondents who have been writing to him from their farms, telling him about their work and experience.

MOTHS WILL DIE RATHER THAN EAT TREATED MOHAIR

A large crowd gathered at the Fulton Masonic Lodge where the rededication of the Soldiers and Sailors Monument was held. The meeting was also the occasion of the first regular worship of the year.

In Case of Emergency

When you want a thing in a hurry, you rush to a local store and get it. But do you realize that the existence of our stores depends upon continued business?

If every person in this community were to use the stores only for emergencies there would soon be no more stores in town. That is the reason they call here so regularly.

You should do your part towards keeping local business alive and in a continuous state of business by doing all your trading at home. It will be pleasant to know that your stores are at your service all the time.

Help our Merchants to help YOU

Everyone will agree that a man succeeds and prospers only when he spends LESS money than he receives in a given period of time.

Let's apply this great economic test to the situation in this town. Our business men have invested—and continue to invest—their money in stocks of goods brought here to your very door to meet your daily needs.

Through the pages of this paper they advise you of their ability to serve this community. All of us know that they deserve our patronage. And remember, the more you trade with them, the more funds they can invest in larger stocks and new lines.
