The Pennsylvania Senate has held their session until February 1st. Many resolutions were debated and passed, including those concerning education, labor, and public safety. The Senate also discussed the economy, with a focus on job creation and economic growth.

In Washington, D.C., President Wilson has continued to work on European affairs, with meetings with British and Russian diplomats. The president has also addressed the American people, explaining the reasons behind his decision to enter the war.

In Europe, Allied forces have made significant progress, with the capture of several key cities. The situation on the Eastern Front remains tense, with both sides preparing for a major offensive.

In this issue of the newspaper, we have an article on the impact of the war on American families, as well as a column on local events. We also feature a letter to the editor discussing the need for more women in leadership roles.

Please read on for the full articles.
Use your Lay-Away Plan now.

Then, were its standards of quiet. Cub Scouts, consisting of Dens there, unless he can discredit the Pack as a member of Den 2. This was admitted to the administration. A good law is the present war. He Sought against Director Blanton, who has only an opportunity for faithful. that plantini is best.

made, they reflect on the equipment of the central purchasing system of Finance includes this division. And we don't give up. your friends won't either. We help you sort through the money-saving opportunities available on the market...
SOCIAL and PERSONAL

Helen T. B. Renfro, Mrs. Roy Adams and children, Mr. and Mrs. J. Flora Jones, Mrs. Jack Lowe and following relatives and friends: Mr. and Mrs. Innen Norman, Mrs. Kelly Matinee — lie • Night — Mc

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY DINNER was served at noon to the Mrs. Charles Lowe of Pierce was 11/01 'HIE and ion, Billy, Mrs. Lewis Shankle

We offer our next order of PRINTING

Try Us With Your Next Order of PRINTING

We offer you prompt and accurate service, good paper and the best work that we can do.

Prices No Higher Than They Should Be

FULTON DAILY LEADER

400 Main Street — Fulton, Ky.
SPORT TALK

Around two of the crack regulars of last year's championship basketball squads, Coach Haynes is building on teams this year, and he has already had two practices. Good on watching is expected to bring out the best in the order of the sensational Larry Hiltz of Clinton High and the one of last year's miss-Dale Ford of Clinton last year.

However, Coach Haynes has more every day. Harwood had never stop-

The two teams did not want to match them, but no one thought that the defense was lost. It would have been a hard one to get to Harwood.

And Harwood, during the latter half of last year's basketball season, was a strong unit to build on. He has never had Harwood. Harwood had never stopped by any team last year and could not be depended upon to do it this year.

In order to get a look at all material during the first week, there was a vacation during the first of the two practices which lasted for a few days. The actual practice started on Thursday night with the tankers.

The three regulars from last year are Hugh McKee, George Tuggle, and John Hiltz. Coach Hiltz has the extra margin he needs to bring out the Red Devils this year.

There are also many boys who have been around the high school gym, but who have never been able to try them out. The high school gym will be one of last year's miss-Dale Ford of Clinton last year, and the order of the sensational Larry Hiltz of Clinton High.

The three regulars from last year are Hugh McKee, George Tuggle, and John Hiltz.

The tankers.

In the starting lineup, there is a good margin among the boys. These three are determined to make the best team that was ever produced by any school in the county.

The three regulars from last year are Hugh McKee, George Tuggle, and John Hiltz. Coach Hiltz has the extra margin he needs to bring out the Red Devils this year.

The three regulars from last year are Hugh McKee, George Tuggle, and John Hiltz.

The tankers.

In the starting lineup, there is a good margin among the boys. These three are determined to make the best team that was ever produced by any school in the county.

These three are determined to make the best team that was ever produced by any school in the county. They are the legacy of the school and the county.

The three regulars from last year are Hugh McKee, George Tuggle, and John Hiltz.

The tankers.

In the starting lineup, there is a good margin among the boys. These three are determined to make the best team that was ever produced by any school in the county.

These three are determined to make the best team that was ever produced by any school in the county. They are the legacy of the school and the county.

The three regulars from last year are Hugh McKee, George Tuggle, and John Hiltz.

The tankers.

In the starting lineup, there is a good margin among the boys. These three are determined to make the best team that was ever produced by any school in the county.

These three are determined to make the best team that was ever produced by any school in the county. They are the legacy of the school and the county.

The three regulars from last year are Hugh McKee, George Tuggle, and John Hiltz.

The tankers.

In the starting lineup, there is a good margin among the boys. These three are determined to make the best team that was ever produced by any school in the county.

These three are determined to make the best team that was ever produced by any school in the county. They are the legacy of the school and the county.

The three regulars from last year are Hugh McKee, George Tuggle, and John Hiltz.

The tankers.

In the starting lineup, there is a good margin among the boys. These three are determined to make the best team that was ever produced by any school in the county.

These three are determined to make the best team that was ever produced by any school in the county. They are the legacy of the school and the county.

The three regulars from last year are Hugh McKee, George Tuggle, and John Hiltz.

The tankers.

In the starting lineup, there is a good margin among the boys. These three are determined to make the best team that was ever produced by any school in the county.

These three are determined to make the best team that was ever produced by any school in the county. They are the legacy of the school and the county.

The three regulars from last year are Hugh McKee, George Tuggle, and John Hiltz.

The tankers.