Wells For Governor

Primary Advocates Line Again as Committee Agrees to Convention Method.

Louisville, Ky., April 25—Kevin flood: *Jackie's stock of convention tickets was boosted by a decision of the state committee last night that this state will have a primary election for governor. The rules committee of the convention, meeting here last night, put the decision into effect. It will be the first time in the history of this state that a primary election will be held. The decision in the matter was made last night by the state committee on the advice of Judge John Slaughton of the Supreme Court, who was appointed to serve as a lobbyist for the county committee of the convention.
