House Votes To Sustain Ford's Veto Of Tax Cut

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House today sustained President Ford's veto of a bill extending 1975 income tax cuts, virtually assuring that most working Americans will pay higher income taxes beginning New Year's Day.

The vote was 265 to 157 with two members voting present. The tally was 17 votes short of the two-thirds majority necessary to override a veto.

If the existing tax cut law dies on schedule, the typical worker's taxes will increase $3 to $4 a week starting Jan. 1.

Prior to the vote, House Speaker Carl

Albert accused the White House of trying to "brainwash the Republicans" by telling them that they will get some kind of bill anyway.

Death of the bill means an automatic January jump in most Americans' taxes unless some emergency legislation is worked out between now and New Year's Day.

Ford opposed the bill on grounds it did not contain a provision imposing a ceiling on federal expenditures.

The President used his 41st veto on Wednesday to block the tax bill, which extends 1975 tax cuts into the first six months of 1976. He had warned Congress in advance that he would veto the measure if it did not contain a provision for a spending ceiling for 1977.

Both houses must muster the two-thirds vote necessary to override the veto or the 1975 tax cuts will end automatically on Dec. 31.

The House effort was considered to be the key test because the override vote was expected to be close. There appeared to be little doubt that the Senate would override. Senate leaders said they would schedule a vote for Thursday if the House voted to override.

But Ford, delivering his veto statement in the White House press room, expressed hope that his veto would stand.

"I must return this bill to Congress, but this does not mean your tax bill must go up next year," Ford said. He said Congress still could send him a new bill containing the restrictions on 1977 spending.

Rescue Squad Answers Two Fire Alarms

The Calloway County Fire-Rescue Squad was summoned to the home of J. C. Walker of Route 3 around midnight Wednesday night when the Walker's detected smoke coming from around their chimney.

When the two units of the squad arrived at the scene it was determined that the cause of the smoke was wood and other material between the chimney and the wall of the house. The material was removed and the fire was quickly extinguished as snowflakes showered the firefighters.

Members responding were: Bernard Steen, Bud Miller, Loyd Key, Sam Smith, Kenny Collins, Max Dowdy, Floyd Garland, and Steve Ladd.

The Rescue Squad was then called to the residence of Otis Colson on Highway 121 South around 5:50 a.m. when Colson reported a fire in his flue.

One unit responded but the fire was out when the Squad arrived. Responding were: Bernard Steen, Bud Miller, Floyd Garland, Mike Farley, Hal Winchester, Steve Ladd, Roger Hughes, Kenny Collins and Sam Smith.

Two Charged In Break-In At Grocery

Two Murray State University students have been charged with a break-in at the New Providence Grocery Wednesday morning, according to the county sheriff's office.

Allen White, 20, and James Lawson, also 20, were picked up by Murray City Police on traffic violations, including D.W.I. and fleeing a police officer, according to department reports. They were then charged with third degree burglary after items identified as having come from the alleged burglary were recovered from them, according to department reports.

The two were lodged in jail on $5,000 bond. Deputies said this morning that White had posted bond and that Lawson was expected to also be freed later on today.

Deputies also reported that John Marshall, Jr., of Ft. Campbell, had been apprehended and is to make restitution for property damage at the home of Boyce McCuiston. Deputies said Marshall was charged after allegedly running through the yard of McCuiston in a car, causing about $250 damage.

Crawford Re-Elected ASC Chairman

Glenn Crawford, a well-known Calloway County farmer was re-elected to the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation (ASC) committee by delegates to the ASC county convention held December 16, 1975, at the ASCS Office.

The delegates also elected Lowell Palmer and Charles Burken as first and second alternates to the committee.

Crawford was elected to a three year term and also as chairman of the committee. Pat Ross who has one year remaining to serve was elected vice-chairman, and O. L. Cain, Jr., with two years remaining was elected as regular member.

The county ASC committee is responsible for local administration of government farm programs such as Agricultural Conservation Program, Commodity Loans, Farm Storage Facility Loans, Tobacco, Disaster, etc.

The vacancies were filled by farmer-delegates who are newly-elected ASC community committeemen for 1976.

Community committees assist the county committee in farm program administration and help keep farmers informed of program provisions.

Jean Blankenship Named To Serve On ALTA Panel

Mrs. Jean Blankenship, secretary of the Calloway County Public Library Board of Trustees has accepted the invitation of John T. Short, president, American Library Trustee Association to serve as a member of A. L. T. A. Intellectual Freedom Committee. The American Library Trustee Association is a division of the American Library Association.

Mrs. Blankenship has been a member of the Calloway County Public Library Board of Trustees for 10 years and has been active in the state library trustees association. Prior to her trustee appointments, Mrs. Blankenship was employed by the Kentucky State Department of Library and Archives as a staff member of the Purchase Area District Library and then as acting District Librarian.

The American Library Trustee Association sponsors a continuing educational program for library trustees which provides a nationwide exchange of ideas among library trustees serving in communities throughout the U. S. A. and Canada.

Max B. Hurt, president of the local library trustees, stated that he and the Board considered this appointment to be a great honor and the first time a local person has ever been named to a nationwide post.

Murray Vocational Center Is Accredited By Association

The Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, through its Commission on Occupational Education Institutions, has awarded accreditation to Vocational Education Centers in Region One. This action includes the Murray Area Vocational Education Center, the Paducah Area Vocational Education Center, the Mayfield Area Vocational Education Center, the Marshall County Vocational Education Center, and the Fulton County Area Vocational Education Center.

Announcement of the action was made by Mr. Joe D. Mills, Chairman of the Commission, during the Southern Association's 80th Annual Meeting held December 7-10. Receiving the accreditation certificate on behalf of the Vocational Centers is Ray D. Brown, Director of Vocational Education in Region One.

This accreditation is based on an evaluation of the institution to determine if it meets not only the needs of students, community, and employers, but also the standards of quality of the Occupational Commission.

The evaluation process included a self-study by the school which began October 1,

JAMES LAWSON
Murray Vocational School Director

1975. Then, on October 1-4, 1974, a review of the institution was made by a visiting team of professional educators representing the Association's member occupational institutions.

Founded in 1895, the Southern Association is a voluntary, nongovernmental agency composed of nearly 10,000 colleges and universities, occupational institutions, and secondary and elementary schools. It is one of six regional accrediting associations in the United States and encompasses 11 southern states from Virginia to Texas.

The Occupational Commission was established in 1971 to provide leadership for strong vocational-technical education by promoting a high degree of involvement from education, business, industry, and labor in setting standards.

The purpose of regional accreditation is to improve the quality of education. Each member institution must carry on a continuing program of improvement and undergo periodic reevaluations.

Zarb And Ford To Meet Today To Discuss Action On Energy Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — After prodding Congress for a year to face the nation's energy problems, President Ford now must decide whether to sign a bill that would temporarily reduce fuel prices while phasing out federal price controls.

A Federal Energy Administration official said Wednesday that Ford apparently has tipped his decision on the energy bill to no one. But FEA chief Frank G. Zarb has recommended that Ford approve the measure as the best he is going to get from this Congress.

Zarb said Wednesday night he plans to meet with Ford today to discuss the bill, and he indicated the President may make an immediate decision on the measure. Asked if he thought Ford would sign the bill, Zarb said, "When I see him, perhaps you'll know."

A 58 to 40 Senate vote on Wednesday completed congressional action on the bill. In addition to cutting the price of gasoline and fuel oil, the measure would require manufacturers to gradually improve the fuel efficiency of new cars.

The measure also would allow the gradual lifting of government price controls on petroleum products over a 40-month period.

If Ford signs the bill, which runs counter to his own energy proposals, it would signal the end of a year-long fight between the Democratic-controlled Congress and the Republican President.

For American consumers, it could mean a reduction, perhaps almost immediately, of 2.5 to 3.5 cents per gallon in the price of gasoline and home heating oil. As price controls were lifted, prices would resume their climb sometime after the November 1976 elections.

Should Ford veto the bill, there is little chance Congress could override, leaving the nation with no controls on oil prices and no semblance of a national energy policy.

Electric Rate Dropping Again

Officials of the Murray Electric System have announced another rate drop in power delivered here.

The 36 cents per thousand will amount to about a $1 to $1.50 reduction in the average homeowner's electric bill. The new rate will be reflected in the bill received on February 1.

Senate Panel Approves Bush As CIA Director

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Armed Services Committee voted 12 to 4 today to approve George Bush as director of the Central Intelligence Agency after President Ford ruled Bush out as a potential 1976 vice presidential candidate.

In a letter to Chairman John C. Stennis, D-Miss., Ford said that if Bush is confirmed for the CIA post "I will not consider him as my vice presidential running mate in 1976."

Bush, who told the committee earlier this week he was not seeking the vice presidential nomination but might accept it if offered, urged the President to make that decision, Ford said in the letter, dated today.

Voting against the nomination were four

Democrats: Sens. Thomas J. McIntyre of New Hampshire, John C. Culver of Iowa, Gary Hart of Colorado and Patrick J. Leahy of Vermont.

Almost 40,000 Pounds Sold

A total of 39,814 pounds of air-cured tobacco was sold on the Murray tobacco market, according to the office of Holmes Ellis, general manager of the Western Dark-Fired Tobacco Growers Association.

The average price per hundredweight was $84.36. The next air-cured sale will be on Tuesday, Dec. 30.

Shown are two third grade Brownie Troops from Robertson School, Troop 258, led by Pam Kelly, assisted by Shirley Grasty and Dortha Kane, who entertained Troop 62 led by Cecilia Brock and assisted by Pat Harcourt with a Christmas party. Troop 258 presented their guests with gifts of lifesaver dolls which they had made at a previous meeting. Each Brownie brought a gift to send to Western State Hospital.

Rev. R. A. Slinker Listed In 1975 Outstanding Americans In South

Rev. Rufus Alpheus Slinker is listed in the 1975 issue of OUTSTANDING AMERICANS IN THE SOUTH, a book published by the Biographical Publishing Co. covering 13 southern states. He was also listed in the 1974 issue of WHO'S WHO IN KENTUCKY, and was commissioned a KENTUCKY COLONEL on the staff of the governor of Kentucky in 1969. He was born in Green County, Kentucky, son of Gilbert B. Slinker and Leatha Davis Slinker. His early schooling was in a log school house located two miles from his home. He attended Russell Creek Academy (now Campbellsville College) and Western Kentucky University in Bowling Green. After holding pastorates in a number of churches in central and western Kentucky from 1922-1933 he accepted a position with the State Mission Board of Baptists in Kentucky as District Superintendent of Missions, later becoming General Field Director for the western half of Kentucky. He served with the board for 32 years during which time he visited and preached in hundreds of churches in Kentucky as well as 13 other states.

He is a member of Murray Lodge 105 F.&A.M., Royal Arch Chapter, Murray Council, and Mayfield Commandry of Knight Templar.

He is married to his childhood sweetheart Vallie Strader, daughter of the late John W. Strader. They have three children, Mrs. J. Victor Mitchell, Paducah, Mrs. Gus Robertson, Jr., Murray and Sergeant Larry Slinker of Little Rock Air Force Base, Arkansas.

He and his wife are now retired and living at the Oakes Estates in Murray.

Christmas Potluck Luncheon Is Held By Club At Morris' Home

The North Murray Homemakers Club met in the home of Mrs. Edgar Morris on Friday, December 12, at twelve noon for the annual Christmas potluck luncheon and program.

Mrs. Fred Gingles gave thanks preceding the meal. Following the meal the president, Mrs. Morris, presided for the meeting during which the Christmas program was held.

Mrs. Charles Humphreys gave the devotion with the scripture reading from Isaiah 9:6 and closed with prayer.

Twelve members answered the roll call by giving a time saving hint.

Mrs. Morris gave an article on the "True Meaning of Christmas."

The recreational period was conducted by Mrs. Esco Gunter. This included the reading of poems and the singing of Christmas carols accompanied by Mrs. Morris on the organ. Gifts were exchanged during the social hour.

The next meeting will be on Friday, January 9, at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Fred Gingles, Farmer Avenue.

The first merry-go-round was made in Europe, perhaps in France, during the late 1700s or early 1800s. It was called a Carrousel.

Your Individual Horoscope

Frances Drake

FOR FRIDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1975

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

ARIES
(Mar. 21 to Apr. 20)

Direct your innate enthusiasm into progressive channels. You can accomplish more than many others during this period. Especially favored: business transactions, real estate interests.

TAURUS
(Apr. 21 to May 21)

Be patient if things don't go quite according to plan. An unforeseen, but necessary, alteration in your program could prove quite beneficial in the long run.

GEMINI
(May 22 to June 21)

Stellar influences indicate new activities, intriguing experiences and the imaginative revitalization of all interests. Enjoy your day!

CANCER
(June 22 to July 23)

A better day for completing pending projects than for beginning new ones. Make plans for the latter, but don't launch until early next week.

LEO
(July 24 to Aug. 23)

Watch finances, but don't become overly anxious about them. Just make up your mind to pursue a conservative and realistic course.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)

Stars promise interesting developments and growth in areas that should stimulate your ambitions — and your ever-active mind.

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)

Some intrigue about. Don't become involved. Concentrate on your own objectives and you won't have time to get into dubious activities.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 to Nov. 23)

No matter what activities you planned for this day, you may have to mark time until others are ready. But don't fret; use the time for reevaluating.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 24 to Dec. 23)

Go about your affairs with zeal and confidence since there is little likelihood of difficulty. Be guided by past experience, however.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 24 to Jan. 20)

A relatively smooth period — once you get the gist of trends and go ahead at a steady tempo. Personal relationships highly favored.

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)

A splendid day for innovations and experimentation. Don't hesitate to pioneer in new fields, and with new methods.

PISCES
(Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)

If a financial transaction is up for consideration, and you entertain even the slightest doubt, better postpone action. There COULD be something to those hunches of yours.

YOU BORN TODAY

are endowed with a lively mind and a fertile imagination. You also have a gift of words — a tremendous asset, which you can profitably exploit as a writer, journalist, literary or dramatic critic; as a lawyer specializing in briefs, as a jurist, statesman or diplomat. You have other talents too, and, if such is your inclination, could make a brilliant success in music, which would make a marvelous outlet for your emotional forces. Medicine, salesmanship and banking would also be excellent career choices. Birthdate of: Edward M. Stanton, American jurist.

DEAR ABBY: Nearly a year ago, after 24 years of marriage and four children, my husband asked me for a divorce.

It seems that although we were the same age when we got married, I suddenly got "too old" for him, so he found himself a girl his daughter's age and traded me in for her.

Somehow I survived the blow, but listen to this: Yesterday he phoned and these were his exact words, "Honey, if I sent Marcia (his young wife) over, would you please give her some cooking lessons? She's a great kid, but she never learned how to cook."

I was so shocked at his colossal nerve I didn't know what to say, so after a long pause I said, "I'll think about it and let you know."

Abby, the last thing I want to do is give this girl cooking lessons. Am I wrong? How should I handle this hot potato? NUMBER ONE

DEAR ONE: With asbestos mittens. Tell your husband that you've thought it over and decided to let him eat crow.

DEAR ABBY: I have a 2-year-old grandson about whom I am worried. His father gives him "sips" of a martini, beer or anything he happens to be drinking.

I have tried to tell my son-in-law that it is harmful to the child, but he says it won't hurt the boy, and he continues to ignore me.

I have seen that baby take two, three and four sips of a martini. Everyone laughs and makes him think it's cute, so he is encouraged to take more.

Is it possible for a child to become an alcoholic this way? Or will he (as my son-in-law says) develop a tolerance for it? NEW JERSEY

DEAR NEW JERSEY: The possibility of developing a "taste" for alcohol is greater than developing a tolerance for it. Your son-in-law must have onion soup for brains.

DEAR ABBY: My husband's parents died nine years ago, and we inherited the family home. The other children were given various items by the will, and we thought everything was fairly divided since no one complained at that time.

These past few years, two sisters and a sister-in-law have acquired an appreciation for antiques, and since they still regard this as their family home, they are constantly coming back to remember that Mother promised them the dishes and Dad said they could have the desk.

The other day, a sister-in-law tried to take possession of an old ice chest that I had bought at a garage sale and had restored.

I want to keep peace in the family, but I don't want to be taken advantage of. What do you suggest? ANNOYED

DEAR ANNOYED: I suggest that you learn how to say no and smile at the same time.

Judge's 'Gag' Order Was Blow To Freedom

Mayfield attorney Dan E. Sharp says "gag" orders like the one he obtained last week should not be misused by lawyers.

He would have been truer to the spirit of the First Amendment if he had said they shouldn't be used at all.

Mr. Sharp represents John William (Bill) Hubbard, the 19-year-old Mayfield football player who was arrested in connection with a drug case and who has been quoted as implicating some University of Kentucky football players as drug users.

Fearing that news stories about the case might prejudice public opinion against his client, Mr. Sharp asked Circuit Judge Seth T. Boaz to issue an order prohibiting officials from talking to the press about the case.

Apparently with little misgiving, Judge Boaz did so.

Defending his request for the muzzle on the press, Mr. Sharp tried to draw a distinction between Judge Boaz's order and a recent Nebraska order which is the subject of the latest battle in the Supreme Court in the fair trial-free press war.

The Nebraska judge's order, he points out, was aimed directly at the news media. Judge Boaz's was aimed at the officials who are the authoritative source of the news in this case.

It's a distinction without a difference. Judge Boaz's order violates the spirit of the First Amendment by attempting to do indirectly what would be illegal if done directly. The effect of both the Nebraska order and Judge Boaz's is the same—the silencing of the press and denial of the public's access to information it needs in order to participate intelligently in public affairs.

Mr. Sharp says gag orders shouldn't be misused. But who is to decide what is use and what is misuse? If it's proper to gag public officials in this case it's proper any time a lawyer believes it will help his case to do so.

Mr. Sharp didn't even think it necessary to cite a reason for asking the muzzle on the press. He simply assumes that Judge Boaz has the right to abrogate the First Amendment because Mr. Sharp wants him to.

Sadly, Judge Boaz seems to agree that neither Mr. Sharp nor he has to account to anybody for this casual denial of constitutional rights.

Judge Boaz, of course, is simply following a dangerous trend toward judicial rule by decree. His order is no more outrageous than many emanating from courtrooms all across the country.

Nobody is suggesting that criminal cases should be tried in the newspapers. Sensational and inflammatory news accounts of criminal cases are clearly improper, and no responsible reporter, editor or broadcast news manager argues for that.

But trampling on the First Amendment will not improve the quality of justice. Indeed history suggests the opposite is the case.

Garrott's Galley Mike Finley Has To Be Luckiest Fellow In Town

By M. C. GARROTT Mike Finley has to be the luckiest young fellow in Murray.

Last year, he made a hole-in-one at Paris Landing. It was the first year he had ever played golf. Many people play golf all their lives and never know the thrill.

The other day, Mike, a senior at Murray State and a neighbor of ours, went deer hunting for the first time. By mid-afternoon he was back home with a field-dressed, 100-pound, 4-point buck, killed on his first and only shot. Many people hunt deer for years and never know the thrill of knocking one down.

Mike got his deer on a Graves County farm just south of Mayfield, hitting him from 100 yards away. Hunting with him was a friend, John Pritchard, who got the first shot at the buck but missed, giving Mike his shot.

I have never shot a deer. I have eaten venison only on one occasion.

The circumstances involved at the time, however, erase any recollection of what it tasted like. I was in the Army at the time and stationed at Fort Sam Houston at San Antonio as commanding officer of an automotive repair company. I couldn't have changed a tire had my life depended upon it.

We were nearing the end of our training, and were getting ready to go overseas. We had been out on a firing range north of San Antonio trying to get everyone properly qualified with our weapons just in case we happened to meet up with someone unfriendly when we did go overseas.

The range was located on an old Army post known as Camp Bullis, long abandoned and since converted into a game preserve. The place was full of deer.

Among the other officers was a young, feisty second lieutenant from Los Angeles, Lt. Marvin Scherer. An archery buff, Scherer had been in a bow and arrow club with Howard Hill, the famous archer, back home.

One night while we were bivouacked (that's old soldier talk for "camped out") at Camp Bullis, and without my knowledge, Scherer tightened his bow string, perched himself on the hood of a jeep driven by one of the sergeants and went deer hunting.

To make a long story shorter, they killed a nice fat buck. The first thing I knew about it was when I saw the dead deer lying across the hood of the jeep and Scherer standing there grinning like he had just bagged Adolf Hitler.

I was fit to be tied. I think that's when my blood pressure first went out the roof. There I was on a government game preserve, with a dead deer killed out of season from a government vehicle and with a young second lieutenant who needed his fanny kicked.

"Go ahead and dress it out," I told him angrily. "Put it in the refrigerator back at the mess hall, and we'll eat it one of these days. In the meantime, we had better hope and pray that the inspector general doesn't come around and stick his head into that refrigerator!"

It was only a few days later, when, coming into the orderly room shortly before noon, I was greeted by two of the biggest men I have ever seen in my life. One was in a grey business suit. The other was wearing cowboy boots, the typical, tight-fitting clothes of a Texan and had a big Stetson hat in his hand.

"Captain Garrott?" the man in the grey suit asked. "Yes," I answered. "Rice is my name," he said, flipping open a wallet-like thing with a badge in it. "I'm with the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and this is Sergeant Parker of the Texas Rangers."

With my heart in my mouth, I shook hands. "What on earth brings these fellows here?" I thought as I stammered out some sort of an invitation for them to sit back down. "Can it be my request for more gas rationing stamps?" Only days before, I had gone before the local gas rationing board, pleading for more stamps, testifying that my old '37 Olds straight-eight wouldn't get more than four miles to the gallon. Thank the Lord, they weren't after me.

It turned out that our supply sergeant had been suspected of stealing Army M-1 rifles from the San Antonio Arsenal and selling them out in the city for $25 each for deer rifles. The FBI and the Rangers had picked up his trail and tracked him to our unit. Eventually, he was court-martialed and given 10 years at Leavenworth.

I had talked to the two officers only a short time when the lunch call sounded. Relieved to know that they weren't after me and trying to be a good host, I invited them to have lunch with the unit.

At this, our first sergeant, who had been listening to it all from the outer office, got where I could see him but the officers could not and started frantically indicating he wanted to tell me something. Excusing myself, I went to him.

"Captain, do you know what we are offering for lunch today?" he asked. "No, what?" I replied.

"We're having that deer Lt. Scherer killed the other day!" he said. "Oh, Lord, here we go, I thought. If they don't nail me for the extra gas stamps, they will now for sure, I thought, picturing those two lawmen eating that out-of-season venison in my mess hall! There was no way out, though. I had extended the invitation and they had accepted."

That was the longest meal I ever ate, but our cooks unknowingly saved the day. I felt like recommending them for the Medal of Honor afterwards. None of them had known anything about cooking venison, and Daniel Boone could have eaten what they served us and never recognized it as deer meat.

The venison turned out more like overcooked liver and was so tough and sorry to eat that no one even asked what it was, much less commented on it. Soon afterwards, the officers had finished, placed the sergeant in the guard house and had gone on their way none the wiser as far as we knew.

That was the one and only time I ever ate venison. I still wonder what it tastes like.

On Being A Good Dog Neighbor

As a dog owner you know the companionship, the loyalty and love, the pleasure and sheer fun that your dog adds to your life. But there are many dog owners who do not realize that with every right goes a corresponding duty. Dog owners must consider their responsibilities toward their neighbors and their communities. It's up to you to train your dog early so that you will enjoy each other without spoiling the enjoyment of others. If you don't, you are not a "good dog neighbor."

The most important rule is not to let your dog roam the neighborhood. In the first place, he'll live longer if he stays away from highway traffic. In the second place, he won't have a chance to soil your neighbor's lawn, tear up his shrubbery, or chase his car or bicycle.

No matter what people tell you, dogs don't need a lot of exercise. If you like to go for long walks, your dog will happily accompany you; but if you prefer to sit and read, he will be happy lying quietly at your feet.

When you take your dog outside, walk him on a leash. Teach him to walk quietly beside you, and don't let him lunge at or jump on passers-by. Take along a plastic bag and a small shovel to dispose of droppings. Let him run free only in large, open areas, and only when you have control over him.

If you want your dog to be a watchdog, encourage his natural tendency to bark at strangers, but teach him that he can only bark until you take over, and that he must then back off and be quiet. Whenever possible, give him a chance to get acquainted with the mailman and other regular visitors. Tell the mailman the dog's name, and have him give the dog a cookie, so that they can get acquainted and recognize each other as friends. Never allow your dog to howl or bark continuously when you are absent; it's the surest way to become a bad dog neighbor.

The dog is indeed "man's best friend" and most beloved pet. But unless these rules are followed, he can also be a neighborhood pest. Make sure your pet behaves properly. Your neighbors will be happier, you'll be happier—and so will your dog.

Humane Society members take care of unwanted puppies when they can, but we are in desperate need of more foster homes. If you can help, please call 753-3535 or 753-7869. If you own a female dog, please have her spayed as soon as possible. There are three dogs at the Murray-Calloway County Dog Pound this week.

One half-grown female huskie-type dog. One female brown dog. Injured foot. One medium-sized black female dog. Pregnant. For more information, call 753-9654.

Preventing Dental Disease

By F.J.L. Blasingame, M.D.

We must take dental disease more seriously. Tooth decay (dental caries), if neglected, can be painful and expensive, and can interfere with one's job, social life and personal appearance.

However, due to ignorance, negligence, fear of pain, or the cost of dental care, many people avoid going to the dentist. As a result, they may suffer the consequences of tooth loss and tooth and gum infections.

Fear of pain, perhaps stemming from memories of unpleasant experiences in the dentist's chair, is a major reason why a great number of people do not have their teeth examined regularly. They fail to realize that much progress has been made toward painless dentistry in recent years.

Dental research has discovered ways to prevent conditions that require extensive treatment by a dentist and to minimize pain and discomfort. Dental anesthetics have been used successfully in avoiding pain when extracting teeth and when cavities in the teeth are being drilled. However, the necessity of anesthesia has lessened because of the development of quiet, high-speed drilling equipment which takes much of the discomfort out of having cavities filled.

The cost of dental care is another significant factor which encourages tooth neglect. Dental insurance that covers part of this cost and dental clinics are available throughout most of the country and can reduce the economic barrier.

The fluoridation of public water supplies has been effective as a means of preventing tooth decay, especially in youngsters during the formative stages of their teeth.

Research is underway to try to develop a vaccine against bacteria that cause tooth decay.

Dentists today are stressing the importance of home care in addition to dental office visits. New methods of toothbrushing are being taught, and improved dental products are now available for use at home.

Preventive dentistry is usually less costly, as well as less painful, than treatment of more advanced dental disease. Therefore, a dental examination, including the gums and the parts of the mouth which help support the teeth, is essential at least twice a year to make sure that your teeth are in good condition.

Q Mr. J.T. inquires about the availability of a drug to lower the testosterone level in men and medication to control the male sex drive.

A No medication is available which is effective in lowering the level of testosterone (a male sex hormone). Heavy labor or regular participation in sports which require considerable exercise (assuming it can be tolerated) usually will lower the sex drive; however, no medicine has been developed which has a specific effect in controlling the sex drive. This matter should be discussed with a physician. He may prescribe any one of several sedatives which could be helpful, or he may suggest special counseling about the problem.

BLASINGAME

THE MOVE to IMPEACH SANTA

CHAPTER NINE By Robert J. Boyle

After Jinkersnipes testified during the impeachment hearing for Santa, the judge Dag W. Hood recessed the trial for the day.

"I want all of you here in the UN Assembly room promptly at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning," he said.

As Jinkersnipes and Juniperperper walked out, U.B. Fruitful and D. Lightful Wynter came up to them and said, "You did fine today. I believe Santa will win without any trouble."

"Trouble," Juniperperper said. "This already is trouble. We should be at the North Pole getting ready for Christmas and instead we are here. I hope Santa can get along without us."

"I'm sure he misses you two," D. Lightful Wynter said. "But I'm also sure the other elves will pitch in."

"I know they will," Jinkersnipes said. "Now, how about tonight," U.B. Fruitful said. "Would you two honor us by having dinner with us at the Rocky Hollow Plaza?"

"I'm sorry," Juniperperper said. "But I have a prior arrangement. I'm having dinner with Julia June, a stewardess on North Pole One."

"How about you, Jinkersnipes?" asked U.B. Fruitful. "Can you join us?"

"I'd like that," the elf replied. "After being on the stand today I could use a night out."

"We'll pick you up at your hotel at 8 o'clock," D. Lightful Wynter said. "I'm sure we'll have a delightful time."

When Juniperperper and Jinkersnipes returned to their hotel, they showered and prepared for a night on the town.

"Do you think it is right that we should be having fun when Santa is in so much trouble?" Juniperperper wondered.

"Gee, I don't know," Jinkersnipes replied.

"I'll tell you what we will do, we'll call Santa," Juniperperper said. "It'll be great hearing his voice and I'll ask him if he would mind if we rooms and went their separate ways.

Juniperperper went to the Pink Plaza for Julia June and rang her bell.

"Hi," she said. "My you look handsome tonight." Juniperperper blushed and said, "You look good, too, Julia June. I never saw you in an evening dress before."

He held out his arm and she took it. They went to the lobby and then took a taxi to the El Tor.

They had a huge dinner of lobster butterglow, crinkle fried potatoes, diced peas and corn. For dessert, they had flowing chocolate iced igloos.

"Mmmm, that was good," Julia June said. "I enjoyed it, too," Juniperperper said.

They sat back and enjoyed the stage show. Higgins Hewitt and his Hamstring. The magician, Bobby Urban and his disappearing Imperial Crab also was featured and both elves enjoyed the show.

The clock was striking midnight when they left the El Tor.

"I have a busy day ahead of me," Juniperperper said. "But I certainly enjoyed tonight."

"We'll have to do it again," Julia June said.

"Yes, maybe when we get back to the North Pole we can visit the Crystal Forest Plaza together. It would be fun."

"I'd like that," Julia June said as she took Juniperperper's hand.

They decided to walk back to the hotel and, hand in hand, they strolled the streets of New York as a soft snow began to fall.

"I'll be glad to get home," Juniperperper said.

He left Julia June at her door and returned to his room. Jinkersnipes was sitting there.

"You look like you had a great time," he said. "And I did, too."

"Right," said Juniperperper. "But now let's get to bed because tomorrow will be a busy, busy day."

Within minutes both elves were sound asleep.

New Secretary Says Justice Department Unlike Others

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP)—John L. "Jack" Smith, Kentucky's new Secretary of Justice, says the state Justice Department is unlike others in the country because it contains such a variety of agencies.

The Justice Department is the umbrella for the Public Defender's Office, the Bureau of Corrections, the Bureau of Training, the state police and the Kentucky Crime Commission.

"There's an important reason for it to be like that," Smith said. "You need to get back to the true meaning of justice. It's not just fighting crime — it's that all citizens receive true justice."

The 36-year-old Smith was sworn in to his new post Tuesday in a brief ceremony in the governor's office, with his wife and son looking on.

He pledged to uphold the constitution, and in the words of Kentucky's unique oath of office, "not to have fought a duel with deadly weapons."

"The only duels I've fought," he said before the ceremony, "were in the courtroom."

His varied legal background includes a job as special counsel to U.S. Sen. Walter Huddleston on the Senate Select Committee investigating U.S. intelligence operations.

He served in that capacity from April of this year until he was tapped for the justice post by Gov. Julian Carroll, and called his work there "fascinating."

But he said what has probably prepared him best for the job ahead as administrator of one of the larger departments in state government, was his

IRA can help with retirement

If the company you work for has no retirement plan, the answer may be an Individual Retirement Account, or IRA.

Under the plan, through banks or insurance companies you can put aside as much as 15 per cent of your annual earnings, up to $1,500 a year, and pay no income tax until you begin to draw those earnings after retirement.

stint as U.S. Attorney for the Western District.

Smith served as Assistant U.S. Attorney from 1965 to 1969 when he was named U.S. Attorney, the second youngest person in history to hold that post.

He said administrative duties involved in running the western district court were comparable to administering "the biggest law firm in western Kentucky."

He feels the Justice Department will offer "a real challenge."

One area of emphasis will be crime prevention, he said.

"We need to get out of the posture of defensive crime fighting," he said, "and get on the offensive."

He said working to prevent crime saves the time of state police, the courts, public defenders and other agencies — and saves the taxpayers money in the long run.

Smith's experience includes service with the Organized Crime and Racketeering Strike Force of the U.S. Justice Department in New Orleans; director of the Louisville Metropolitan Narcotics Strike Force, and chief judge of the Jefferson Quarterly Court.

He is a graduate of Western Kentucky University and earned his law degree from the University of Kentucky.

He is a native of Lebanon in Marion County.

Exner Denis Involvement In Kennedy Assassination Plot

SAN DIEGO (AP) — "To me, he was Jack Kennedy and not the president."

In those words, Judith Campbell Exner denied her involvement in any plot between the slain president and the underworld to assassinate Cuban Premier Fidel Castro.

"My relationship with Jack Kennedy was of a close, personal nature and did not involve conspiratorial shenanigans of any kind," said Mrs. Exner, ex-wife of a Hollywood actor, dark-haired, now 41.

She appeared at a news conference Wednesday wearing dark glasses and acknowledged that while she had this relationship with Kennedy, she had similar relationships with alleged Mafia bosses Sam Giancana and John Rosselli.

But she denied acting as a go-between for the Kennedy White House in reported plots by the Mafia and the CIA to assassinate Castro.

And she refused to say whether she loved America's youngest president, whose life and marriage to Jacqueline Kennedy built the national image of the White House as "Camelot" in the early 1960s.

Mrs. Exner refused to elaborate on her relationship with the late president or to answer reporters' questions about whether she had a sexual relationship with Kennedy. She has been pictured in Washington reports as an intermediary in Castro death plots that have been outlined in congressional committee hearings.

Flanked by her current husband, Dan, and attorney Brian Monaghan, Mrs. Exner told of meeting Kennedy and Giancana through a "mutual friend" and later visiting Kennedy "more than 16 or 20" times in the White House.

Her involvement with Kennedy became public earlier this week as a result of an investigation of the CIA by the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence. The committee reported there were 70 phone calls between an unidentified "close friend" and the Kennedy White House. News reports first identified Judith Campbell as the person mentioned in the committee report.

Mrs. Exner, former wife of Hollywood actor William Campbell, said she last talked to Kennedy "in late 1962."

She said she called the news conference to end what she termed "wild-eyed speculation" about her connection with the plots against Castro. She also denied reports she was a Kennedy campaign worker.

She said she met Kennedy in February 1960 in Las Vegas and was introduced to Giancana a month later in Miami. She met Rosselli through Giancana, she said.

She refused to name the "mutual friend" who brought her together with the president and the Mafia, but she promised to do so "when the entire story is told."

President Kennedy was assassinated in Dallas in 1963. Giancana was the victim this year of a gangland-style slaying in his Chicago home, a week before he was scheduled to testify before the Senate intelligence committee.

Mrs. Exner said she hadn't known for certain that Giancana and Rosselli were Mafia figures, but she said she suspected it.

"I imagine I probably knew they were part of the underworld," she said.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Begley were recently honored as UK Fellows for their financial contributions to the University of Kentucky during the annual dinner of the UK Development Council. Begley is currently chairman of the board, and chairman of both the executive and finance committees, of the Begley Drug Company. Welcoming the Begleys to the dinner is Dr. Otis Singletary, left, president of the University of Kentucky.

Supt. Henry Cowan To Testify Before Commission On Prisons

Science beating heart diseases

The outlook for children with heart disease is brighter.

Twenty-five years ago a child born with a serious heart defect had little hope of living to maturity. Today most of the 35 types of congenital heart defects can be alleviated or cured.

'CREOLE' STATE

The nickname "Creole State" signifies that a part of the citizens of Louisiana are Creoles of French and Spanish descent.

EDDYVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Kentucky State Penitentiary Supt. Henry Cowan, accused by inmates of involvement in plots against prisoners, was expected to testify today before the governor's blue ribbon commission on prisons.

Commission members said Thursday that if their hearings proceeded on schedule, they would question Cowan today and wrap up sessions at the maximum-security prison at Eddyville by the end of the week.

Inmates appearing before the commission this week have contended that prison officials, including Cowan, have been involved in plots to have prisoners killed or injured.

The panel heard testimony Monday from two former penitentiary inmates about alleged murder plots at the prison in 1974 in which Cowan and another prison official, William Reynolds, were said to be implicated.

Ken Kennedy, investigative counsel for the commission, said the former inmates had taken polygraph tests that indicated they were telling the truth when they made the allegations.

George Moore, 38, of Jeffersonville, Ind., told the panel Tuesday that Cowan promised him a transfer to the prison farm if he killed fellow inmate Johnny Fulton.

Moore, serving a 21-year sentence on an armed robbery conviction, said that when he refused to kill anyone, Cowan suggested he beat up Fulton and Cowan would see that Moore didn't have to go to court over it.

Kennedy said Moore, too, had taken a lie-detector test that indicated he was telling the truth.

The panel heard testimony Thursday from John Crony, 30, a corrections officer from Hopkinsville, who said a prison riot squad member had shot inmate Rufin Gardner with a "stun gun" in 1973.

Crony, a member of the riot squad, said six to eight members of the squad had been sent to deal with disturbances in a cellhouse but found no disturbances when they arrived.

Crony said Gardner, who was known to be "loud-mouthed" but had made no threatening moves toward the

Court Advised To Throw Out Suit To Block Tergitol Use

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The U.S. Justice Department has advised the U.S. District Court in Washington, D.C., that it believes a suit by two environmental groups seeking to block use of Tergitol to kill blackbirds in Southwestern Kentucky should be thrown out.

U.S. Sen. Walter "Dee" Huddleston, whose office announced the action Wednesday, said he believes it will help persuade the court to dismiss a suit by the Animal Rights Society of New York and Citizens for Animals. The two groups won a temporary federal court injunction against the use of the chemical last winter.

Hopkinsville, Ky., attorney Tom Osborne has argued that the two groups have no legal interest in whether the birds are killed since their members are not directly affected. Many residents claim the millions of blackbirds that migrate to Southeastern Kentucky in winter destroy grain and threaten the health of people and livestock.

Street railway sets record

The St. Charles streetcar in New Orleans began operation Sept. 26, 1835, and still is running after 133 years of unbroken service.

This is the longest continuous operation of any street railway in the world.

3. Card Of Thanks

CLOSE CHRISTMAS Eve and Christmas Day. Judy and Sherre's Beauty Salon, Bel-Air Shopping Center.

THE FAMILY OF C. C. Clayton wants to express their heartfelt thanks to all who helped during his sickness and death. The neighbors and friends who prepared food. The many friends and relatives who sent flowers. The comforting words of Rev. Gary Whitworth and Rev. W. Ed Glover. The music and singing of Mrs. Onida White. The nurses on 2nd floor of the hospital who worked so hard and took such good care of him. And to Dr. Charles Clark for his many years of service. Especially do we want to remember Mrs. Audrey Bell and all the staff of the Convalescent Division, for their years of care and comforting words. Also a special thanks for all the cards and letters we have received. May God Bless each and everyone of you is Our prayer.
Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Clayton.

The Open Listing

When you place your home with a Realtor to sell, it's known in the trade as "listing". Basically, there are three types of listing agreements and your rights and obligations vary with each type. Let's discuss the "Open Listing" today.

As the name implies, it is open to everyone. You agree to pay a Realtor's commission if, and only if, he sells the property. But you reserve the right to hire other Realtors or to sell the home yourself.

It sounds good on paper - but frankly, it's the most ineffective arrangement to make if you REALLY want to sell your home in a reasonable time and expect the Realtor's full expenditure of time and advertising money. At any juncture, he can lose the sale to another Realtor or to the owner himself.

In fact, it is rare when an outstanding Realtor (and I assume that's the kind you want) will even accept an Open Listing with all its lurking uncertainties.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at PURDUM & THURMAN REAL ESTATE, 407 Maple St., Murray. Phone: 753-4451. We're here to help!

Deaths and Funerals

Funeral Is Today For Mr. Hendricks

Funeral services for Leon Hendricks of Hazel are being held today at 2:30 p. m. at the Hazel Baptist Church, where he was a member, with Dr. H. F. Paschall of Nashville, Tenn., and Rev. James Garland officiating. Music is by Mrs. Oneida White and Mrs. Gwen Key.

Serving as active pallbearers are Jack Newport, Joe Booker Adams, Bert Taylor, Arlis Byars, Hoyt McClure, and Larry Hurt. Members of his Sunday School Class and friends are serving as honorary pallbearers.

Burial will be in the Hazel Cemetery with the arrangements by the Miller Funeral Home of Hazel.

Mr. Hendricks, age 73, died Tuesday at two p. m. at Lourdes Hospital, Paducah. Born December 28, 1902, in Calloway County, he was the son of the late Bud Hendricks and Betty Alexander Hendricks.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lydia Sue Patterson Hendricks of Hazel. One son, Pat Hendricks, died in 1935.

Mrs. Hodges Will Speak At Library Here On Friday

Mrs. Helen Hodges, talented and well-known dramatist of Calloway County, will present the Christmas story, "The Littlest Angel," at the Calloway County Public Library on Friday, December 20, at 1:30 p. m.

"Many local people are familiar with Mrs. Hodges' presentation of this delightful story and as the theme of the story is timeless, it is sure to lighten hearts of both young and old with a true Christmas spirit," said Margaret Trevathan.

Children of school age are particularly invited to an hour of Christmas enchantment, a library spokesman said.

ART GUILD

The Murray Art Guild will be open from noon to four p. m. from Tuesday through Saturday. Persons may visit the guild to see the many paintings and works on display there.

Mrs. Jordan Dies Wednesday; Owner Of Dress Shop

Mrs. Clemmie Jordan died Wednesday at 8:25 p. m. at Lourdes Hospital, Paducah. Her death at the age of 65 followed an extended illness.

The deceased was the operator of Clemmie's Dress Shop, Paris Road, Mayfield. She was a member of the First Assembly of God Church at Mayfield. Born May 23, 1909, she was the daughter of the late J. W. Driver and Cora Jones Driver. One brother, O. M. Driver, preceded her in death.

Survivors are her husband, A. B. (Bill) Jordan, one daughter, Mrs. Paul Simpson, and two brothers, Bill Driver and Currie M. Driver, all of Mayfield; three grandchildren; two great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Friday at three p. m. at the chapel of the Byrn Funeral Home, Mayfield, with Bro. Carey Puckett, Bro. James Shockley, and Bro. Jerry Carr officiating. Burial will be in the Highland Park Cemetery, Mayfield.

Friends may call at the funeral home after six p. m. today (Thursday).

The South Family of Morton Grove, Ill., will present a program of gospel music on Sunday, December 21, at two p. m. at the Memorial Baptist Church, Tenth and Main Streets, Murray, Ky. Max South is an ordained Baptist minister and each family member is a skilled musician, according to Rev. Jerrell White, Memorial pastor, who invites the public to attend this special singing.

Council To Limit Out-Of-State Enrollment In Certain Schools

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Kentucky's Council on Public Higher Education has decided to limit out-of-state enrollment in the state's law, medical and dentistry schools to 10 per cent.

The 10 per cent limitation, imposed during the council's meeting Wednesday, takes effect after the fall of 1977.

Barney Tucker, council chairman, said the action was intended to give more Kentucky residents an opportunity to go to medical, dental and law schools in their home state.

Previously, the council has required that all the state's public colleges and universities draw an average of 85 per cent of their enrollments from Kentucky.

The limit will primarily affect the University of Louisville and Northern Kentucky State College.

Fewer than 10 per cent of the students in the medical, dental and law schools at the University of Kentucky are currently from out of state.

But council figures indicate that 19 per cent of the University of Louisville's law school enrollment is from out of state, and Northern Kentucky's Chase law school has an out of state enrollment of 61 per cent.

Dr. James G. Miller, president of the University of Louisville, said 24 per cent of Louisville's dental school enrollment comes from other states and 15 per cent of Louisville's medical students are not from Kentucky.

Miller, while he said Louisville could live with the limit, criticized it, saying it would mean "provincialism" among the students in the professional schools. "Kentucky is seceding from the United States acdemically," he said.

Dr. Constantine Curris, president of Murray State, retorted that the University of Louisville doesn't consider it "provincialism or seceding from the union" when it asks for state support.

"Don't be local when it comes to asking for state funds and cosmopolitan when it comes to students," Curris said to Miller.

Dr. Ralph Tesseneer, acting president at Northern Kentucky State, left the meeting early without comment.

Stevens To Become 101st Justice Friday

WASHINGTON (AP) — John Paul Stevens will become the 101st justice of the Supreme Court Friday by taking separate oaths to uphold the Constitution and to "do equal right to the poor and the rich."

President Ford's nomination of Stevens, a judge of the 7th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals since 1970, was confirmed by the Senate Wednesday by a vote of 98 to 0 after a brief debate.

It was Ford's first appointment to the court. Sen. Adlai E. Stevenson III, D-Ill., said Stevens would bring to the court "a moderate conservative view of the judicial function."

The court is in recess until Jan. 12 and it has not announced what cases it will hear when it returns. Issues awaiting a hearing include the constitutionality of the death penalty and of restrictions on pretrial news coverage of criminal cases.

Stevens will not vote on cases which were argued but not decided before he came on the court, such as a constitutional challenge to federal campaign spending legislation.

The only senators to miss Wednesday's vote, which followed a five-minute debate, were James B. Allen, D-Ala., and Birch Bayh, D-Ind.

Stevens, 55, will take two oaths administered by Chief Justice Warren E. Burger. At a private gathering of the justices in their closed conference room

'Squeaky' Fromme Sentenced To Life For Trying To Kill Ford

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Lynette "Squeaky" Fromme, in a courtroom scene as frenetic and confused as her trial, was sentenced to life in prison for trying to kill President Ford.

The red-haired, 27-year-old defendant struggled with federal marshals, screamed at the judge and threw an apple at the prosecutor during her sentencing Wednesday. The judge said she could not be rehabilitated.

Miss Fromme, a follower of mass murderer Charles Manson, replied she could not be rehabilitated because she had done nothing wrong.

"I'm satisfied that you deserve a punishment as harsh as the deed you contemplated," U.S. District Court Judge Thomas MacBride said as he

Christmas Program To Be Held, South Pleasant Grove

The young people of the South Pleasant Grove United Methodist Church will present their Christmas program, entitled "Let There Be Light," on Sunday evening December 21, at six p. m.

Some seventy five young people and adults will participate in the program.

Following the program, the Sunday School classes will meet in their respective classrooms for their Christmas parties. Those not involved in class activities will meet in the Fellowship Hall for a social hour.

The public is urged to attend the program, and share in the fellowship hour.

Santa Claus has been invited, and is planning to come by and greet the children, a church spokesman said.

Dr. Harry Sparks Speaker For Meet At Kirksey Church

Dr. Harry Sparks will be the speaker for the Breakfast meeting of Methodist Men at Kirksey United Methodist Church on Sunday Morning, December 21, at seven o'clock.

This Christmas program is the customary "ladies morning" at the breakfast and wives and daughters of the household of members, along with girl friends of the boys are invited to be present. Mrs. Sparks will be a special guest.

Randy McCallion will conduct the devotion. A short business session will provide for the election of officers for the coming Calendar Year.

This is the last program of the year of 1975 for the club and all members are urged to attend, a church spokesman said.

Youth Choir Will Present Cantata At Puryear Church

The Youth Choir of the Puryear Baptist Church will present their annual Christmas Cantata, "Christ Is Born," by John W. Peterson, Sunday, December 21, at 7:30 p. m.

Soloists for the musical will be Becky Hudson, soprano, Janet Orr, alto, James Hudson, tenor and Glenda Gallimore, soprano. Accompanists will be Jackie Gamlin, organ, Debbie Allbritton, piano, Larry Brannon, trumpet, Oval Brannon and Ray Paschall, guitar.

Narration will be by the pastor, Bro. H. D. Hudson.

The Biblical message of Christmas will be held and the public is invited to attend, a church spokesman said.

NFL Shuts Door On Memphis And Birmingham Franchises

By BOB GREENE
AP Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The National Football League has closed the door on expanding into Birmingham, Ala., and Memphis, Tenn., for the 1976 season, but refused to lock out the cities for future consideration.

"We had no negatives to Birmingham and Memphis," said Dan Rooney, president of the Pittsburgh Steelers and chairman of the NFL Expansion Committee. "Our problems are expansion per se—not these two cities."

Representatives of Memphis and Birmingham, hoping to join the NFL for the 1976 season, were told Wednesday that they would have to wait, and even then are not sure bets to becoming members of the league.

"The people on our Expansion Committee are pro-expansion," said NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle. "The problem is committing now."

John Bassett, president of the Memphis Grizzlies said he was not satisfied with the committee's reasoning.

"We will ask that the matter be put to a vote of the NFL members and we sincerely hope the league as a whole will not accept this recommendation. We feel the committee has done a great disservice to the American football public and especially to the Mid-South community, which has shown tangible support and enthusiasm for our application," Bassett said in a statement.

"In the meantime, we and our counsel will explore all available options for the Grizzlies in connection with this application."

Either team would need approval of 20 of the 26 present club owners.

Memphis and Birmingham were the strongest members of the now-defunct World Football League. When the WFL folded, the two teams applied for expansion franchises in the NFL.

Rozelle said any expansion plans by the NFL must clear three hurdles.

"The first hurdle is the state of mind," the commissioner said, referring to problems affecting the national economy, professional sports and the NFL in particular. He said the other hurdles were the selection of cities and ownership in those cities.

"It's safe to say Memphis and Birmingham did not clear that first big hurdle," Rozelle said.

"Sports leagues have folded and contracted, teams have folded and other leagues have abandoned expansion plans. This, plus litigation that we're not involved in, has created a cloud of uncertainty among the league owners," he said.

Fumbling Spirits Lose Again, Nets Defeated

By The Associated Press
You couldn't blame Rod Thorn for feeling deflated.

"We turned the ball over in the second half a lot—I'd say we had at least 25 or 30 turnovers," said the coach of the St. Louis Spirits.

On the other hand, you could see why Bobby Leonard was so happy.

"We had another good all-around effort from our group tonight," said the Indiana coach. "Tonight was one of those games where there were a lot of opportunities."

The Pacers made the most of them as Don Buse contributed nine steals and Darnell Hillman 19 points en route to a 113-102 victory in the American Basketball Association game Wednesday night.

Murray State University and the other schools in the Ohio Valley Conference may get a big shot in the arm, according to Paul Dietzel, conference commissioner.

Dietzel told the Murray Ledger & Times Wednesday that an interim committee has recommended the Ohio Valley Conference move from Division II in football into a new

Racers Sign Two More In Addition To Boone

Three West Kentucky prep football players, Tony Boone of Murray, Keith Holder of Mayfield, and Mike McGee of Hopkinsville, have signed Ohio Valley Conference scholarship grants with Murray State University.

Boone is 6-0, 190-pound linebacker, Holder a 6-1, 270-pound guard, and McGee a 6-1 1/2, 225-pound offensive lineman.

Boone was all-state his junior and senior seasons at Murray High School and was a member of Murray's state championship team last season. Murray Coach Bill Furgerson called him an outstanding college prospect and noted that he was sought by most of the colleges in the South. "Tony has good quickness, he's very aggressive and emotional, and we're certain he has a great future classification, Division IA. Presently, there are three classes, two of which fall under the National Collegiate Athletic Association. They are Division I and Division II. The other class is Division Three, or the NAIA.

Murray and the OVC would move into Division IA, a branch of Division I under the new format which has been proposed to the NCAA.

Other conference joining the OVC in Division IA include the Ivy League, the Southern Conference, the Mid-American Conference, The Pacific Coast Conference and the Big Sky Conference.

"We have no other way to go," Dietzel said.

"This is our only choice. If we had not have been recommended for Division IA, then all of our sports would go to Division II. That certainly would have been a death-blow for our other sports such as basketball, baseball, track and cross country," the commissioner added.

Under the new proposal, Division I schools would include leagues such as the Big Ten, the Southeastern Conference and the Pacific Eight.

Holder was an all-state defensive guard for Mayfield High School which made the Class AA State Play-offs but he also played offensive guard. Furgerson said he would likely be groomed as an offensive lineman at Murray. "Keith has great size, good speed, and he's a good student with a fine attitude," Furgerson said. McGee was honorable mention all-state his junior and senior years. Defensive coach Gary Crum, who signed him, said he was most impressed with his techniques and his speed for such a big man. "He should be able to play at either offensive guard or tackle," Crum said. "He's another in the series of good linemen produced by Fleming Thornton at Hopkinsville."

Boone is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Boone of Murray, Holder the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holder of Mayfield, and McGee the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ocie McGee of Hopkinsville.

Boone's high school coach, Johnny Hina, and Holder's coach, Jack Morris, are both Murray State graduates.

"This is strictly for football," Dietzel said.

"But again, the important thing is that if we did not make Division IA in football, then the rest of our sports would be in Division II." Dietzel said the NCAA will soon be voting on the new proposal.

Tiger Girls Receive First Loss Of Season

The Murray High girls' basketball team had its perfect season ended Wednesday evening as the Tigers fell 46-41 to host Paducah Tilghman.

With the loss, the Tigers drop to 6-1 on the season and will not play again until January 6 when they visit Marshall County.

It was a close game all the way. Murray led 10-7 at the end of the first period. The Tigers were rolling along with the lead at five points and then in the middle of the second period, Tilghman threw on the press. By the end of the half, the lead had dwindled and the Tigers were on top by just one at 20-19.

Behind the hot shooting of guard Laura Lynn, the Blue Tornado finally managed to gain the upper hand early in the third period and going into the last quarter, Tilghman led 34-30. Foul trouble plagued the Tigers in the second half. Junior forward Tammy Boone, who has been leading the club in scoring this season, sat out most of the third period with four fouls.

Then in the fourth period, Boone fouled out as did reserve center Donna Miller.

Tilghman managed to pull the lead out to seven points and then began to hold the ball and the Tigers had to foul to play catch-up ball.

"Bumphis (Denise) played a beautiful game for us but she was in some foul trouble," Coach Jane Fitch said.

"Then Donna Miller and Tammy Boone got in foul trouble and later fouled out and that really hurt us. But we did get excellent play out of the people we brought in from the bench. You have to be pleased when you can go on the road and play a team as strong as Tilghman and be able to use 11 players," Fitch added.

Bumphis finished with 17 points to pace the Tigers. Lynn fired in a game-high 28 points in leading Tilghman. There was no freshmen boys' game played.

From The Eye Of A Woman

By Patsy Beauchamp

Murray State's Lois Holmes, a member of the U. S. Olympic Handball team, has just returned from Russia where she participated in the World Championships.

The U. S. didn't fair so well as they placed 11th in a field of 12; but that was one place higher than was predicted. This is the first year the U. S. has had a handball team, while the European and Asian countries have had them for quite some time.

Russia placed first in the competition while East Germany clinched second. The competition wasn't over for the third and fourth place honors before the U. S. came home. The top four teams qualify for the Olympic Games along with Canada, who is hosting the competition in '76.

The winner of the Intercontinental Qualification Tournament will round out the line-up for the Olympic Handball Games. The U. S., the top team from Asia (Japan), and the top team from Africa (Tunisia) will be competing for that position.

The U. S.'s only win in Russia came at the hands of Tunisia by a narrow 14-13 margin. Japan beat the U. S. squad by seven points.

Lois Holmes scored her first official goal for the U. S. team in the U. S. loss to Romania. Other teams that participated in the World Games were: Poland, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, Hungary, and Norway.

The U. S. Handball team will be competing with Canada in Chicago sometime in January.

The MSU women's basketball team pulled to a 4-2 mark on the season after defeating Lambuth Saturday night 66-45.

The Lady Racers look like they're finally shaping up and hopefully by next semester they'll be settled down in their positions and ready to go.

Playing without the services of forward Debbie Hayes the whole season and center Jackie Mounts the last two games, the Racers have been playing with different combinations and set-ups every game.

Coach DewDrop Rowlett has had a hard time finding the right five players that play as well offensively as they do defensively. However, her job is getting less difficult every game as the young team is sharpening with practice.

Both Mounts and Hayes are expected to be back in action in January.

One more thing about the MSU squad. If you've been to one of their games then you might have noticed something unusual along their bench. One of the MSU players wears green high-top basketball shoes. Now if you don't think that looks peculiar among all that blue and gold!

Those green "pumps" could belong to no other than Karen "Wisconsin" Weis. Karen is a reserve guard and also MSU's number one tennis player. MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Arthur Ashe Ranked At Number One By USTA

NEW YORK (AP) — Arthur Ashe, winner of 10 major tournaments this year, is America's No. 1 tennis player, according to the United States Tennis Association.

The USTA announced its men's singles rankings Wednesday, giving Ashe the top spot over Jimmy Connors, last year's winner. The two tennis stars were far ahead of the rest of the field.

Ashe, whose 1975 titles included a Wimbledon victory over Connors and the World Championship of Tennis, was given 12,477 points in the USTA's computerized scoring system based on tournament successes. Connors, of Belleville, Ill., who won nine major tournaments, including the South African Open, had 11,084 points.

It's the second time in the top spot for the Miami native. The 6-foot-1, 153-pound Ashe also held the top ranking in 1968. He was fifth a year ago.

Roscoe Tanner of Lookout Mountain, Tenn., was ranked a distant third with 7,999 points. He was won titles at Christchurch, New Zealand and Niguel, Calif.

Vitas Gerulaitis of Howard Beach, N.Y., made the biggest advance in the rankings, vaulting from 21st to fourth on the USTA list. He began 1975 by getting into the final of the U.S. Pro Indoor Championships, then took one WCT event and was runner-up in another. His accomplishments earned him 7,485 points.

Completing the top 10 were Eddie Dibbs of Miami; Brian Gottfried of Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; Harold Solomon of Silver Spring, Md.; Bob Lutz of San Clemente, Calif.; Cliff Richey of San Angelo, Tex., and Dick Stockton, Dallas.

Buckeye Defense Stops Toledo's Upset Hopes

By KEN RAPPOPORT
AP Sports Writer

The Toledo Rockets were driving for a score, but ran into some pretty bad traffic at Ohio State.

The Rockets smashed into a stop sign when the Buckeyes changed to a wicked man-to-man defense in the last seconds and as a result, lost a 76-72 thriller to the Buckeyes.

"We wanted to set a pick for Larry Cole," explained Toledo Coach Bob Nichols about his last-second strategy, "but we couldn't get the ball up the floor fast enough. Careless ball-handling let us down. It should be our strength."

Ohio State held a tenuous 74-72 lead with 11 seconds left and the Rockets in possession of the ball. But when the visitors attempted to move it any noticeable distance, the Buckeyes were all on top of them.

"We went to a man-to-man because we wanted them to use some time getting the ball down the court," said Ohio State Coach Fred Taylor, who had used the zone defense for most of the game.

Terry Burris' two free throws with less than two minutes remaining gave the Buckeyes their winning points. And after the Rockets failed in their attempt to score against that brutal Ohio State defense, the Buckeyes' Jud Wood was fouled and converted two shots for the final margin.

In other college basketball games, Xavier of Ohio defeated Chicago Loyola 75-59; St. Francis, N.Y., trimmed Navy 78-66; Creighton turned back Iowa State 73-61; Utah State blasted Brigham Young 87-76; Dartmouth beat Harvard 86-75;

Fordham nipped Brown 65-64; St. Bonaventure tripped Thomas More 70-63; New Orleans held off Wisconsin-Milwaukee 65-62 and Evansville upset Mississippi State 85-73.

Mike Plunkett and Dave Harman scored 16 points each and Xavier used a swarming defense to beat Chicago Loyola. Plunkett sat out the first eight minutes while freshman David Payton started, but later triggered a 16-0 streak for the winners.

FOOTBALL

CLEVELAND — The Cleveland Browns acquired veteran defensive back Joe Beauchamp on waivers from the San Diego Chargers.

NACOGDOCHES, Tex. — Dick Munzinger, was fired as athletic director and head football coach at Stephen F. Austin University.

Rhodes Scholar McMillen Keys Braves To Win Over Rockets

By The Associated Press

Like any good Rhodes scholar, Tom McMillen has learned his lessons well.

So it came as no surprise when the 6-foot-11 rookie from Maryland filled in for ailing all-pro Bob McAdoo by scoring a career high 18 points as the Buffalo Braves defeated the Houston Rockets 88-85 in National Basketball Association action Wednesday night.

Elsewhere, the Boston Celtics overpowered the Kansas City Kings 118-104, the Golden State Warriors trimmed the Detroit Pistons 113-102, the New Orleans Jazz trounced the Washington Bullets 105-88, the Phoenix Suns downed the Milwaukee Bucks 116-111 and the Cleveland Cavaliers shaded the Seattle SuperSonics 115-111.

McMillen, who had averaged less than 15 minutes and five points in 17 previous games and hadn't played at all in Buffalo's last two outings, got the call when McAdoo's sore heel flared up. He played 25 minutes, hit seven of nine shots, four of six free throws and pulled down seven rebounds.

"I know I have to be patient, but it does get frustrating at times," McMillen said. "Coach (Jack) Ramsay told me Monday to be ready, but I didn't know why. Sometimes it's an injury, sometimes a person is down."

Jim McMillan led Buffalo with 23 points while Rudy Tomjanovich topped Houston with 19.

Celtics 118, Kings 102
John Havlicek and Jo Jo White keyed a 36-point third quarter outburst that powered Boston to its seventh consecutive triumph and 12th in the last 14 games. Havlicek and White scored 10 points apiece in the third period, helping the Celtics from a 50-48 halftime deficit to an 84-77 advantage.

Warriors 113, Pistons 102
Led by Phil Smith and Jamaal Wilkes, the Warriors posted their seventh victory in a row and 18th in the last 22 games. The crippled Pistons have dropped six straight. Smith and Wilkes topped the Warriors with 20 and 19 points, respectively.

Jazz 105, Bullets 85
Otto Moore scored 20 points, grabbed 20 rebounds and blocked five shots to help New Orleans snap a six-game losing streak. Henry Bibby led the Jazz with 21 points, 15 in the first half, while Elvin Hayes had 21 for Washington.

Suns 116, Bucks 111
Rookie Alvan Adams and Keith Erickson led Phoenix with 25 points apiece as the Suns built a 56-47 halftime lead. Milwaukee's Gary Brokaw was the game's high scorer with 28 points.

Cavaliers 115, Sonics 111
Campy Russell scored 12 of his 20 points in the fourth quarter to carry Cleveland past Seattle. Fred Brown was high for the SuperSonics with 15.

Standing On The Firing Line

By Mike Brandon
Sports Editor

Get Out The Pen: A New Column Format

Columns are for opinions. That's one way I have of giving mine on certain subjects and of course, letters to the editor is a way in which readers can give their opinions.

I appreciate very much when anybody sends in a letter for print. Whether it's critical or whether its in praise, it's all communication and that's what this business is about.

There are so many things people never talk about because they are afraid to give their opinion. And that's something I can't understand. So what I'd like to do is, with the cooperation of readers, to adopt a new format for this column.

Once a week or so, I'd like to have letters from sports fans, expressing opinions on whatever they wish, something similar to the column Dave Kindred runs in the Courier-Journal.

With the university being here, we have more interest in sports than do other towns our size. Therefore, I'd like to open the column for letters from readers.

All letters should be signed.

If you have any criticism, then that's great. I'm not a publicity man for Murray State or anyone else. I try to write the truth and make it interesting and fun to read.

Anyone could start out a story by saying "The Murray State Racers defeated so-and-so last night." I don't write that way because I consider it dull and routine. And I don't consider myself a dull or routine person.

So let's give it a try and see what we can come up with for our first "letters column."

Racer Recruiting

Murray State University has announced the signing of three football players for next season.

Currently, the coaching staff is working around the clock, calling, writing and visiting prospective recruits.

And now for the biggie: What can we look for in the area of recruiting?

The key area: Linemen, of any kind. Of the starting defensive unit, gone are tackle Les Stinnett, end Matt Schappert, linebacker Larry Jasper, cornerback Bruce Walker, safety Mark Hickman, tackle Jay Waddle, linebacker Don Hettich, linebacker David McDonald, and defensive back Charlie Reeves.

Gone from the offensive unit are split end Willie DeLoach, tackle Mark Lacy, center Tony Menendez, tackle Dan Helfrich, tight end Marty Strouse, quarterback Mike Hobbie and tailback Art Kennedy.

Even with Kennedy gone from the backfield, there is plenty returning with Bernie Behrend, Larry Jones, and Joe Riley all returning plus a couple of redshirts in Mike McConnell and Don Portell.

Murray may sign one quarterback to back up Mike Dickens and Roger Rushing, who can play also as a tailback.

But look for the main holes to fill in both lines and in the defensive back positions.

Namath Attacks Cosell And Karras For Their Criticism

By WILL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent
HEMPSTEAD, N.Y. (AP) — Joe Namath, showing no resentment over being fined and benched for violating curfew, joined Coach Ken Shipp of the New York Jets today in lambasting television critics.

Shipp, the interim coach of the reeling Jets, was particularly incensed at remarks made by Alex Karras on ABC's Monday night football telecast.

Namath had some strong things to say about the broadcast generally, calling Karras "that big dumb tackle" and saying Howard Cosell "tries to make all football players and coaches look like fools." Shipp, a pipe-smoking Tennessean, brought up the matter Wednesday at the Jets' training quarters. The Jets, with a dismal 3-10 record, close their season Sunday against the Dallas Cowboys at Shea Stadium.

The coach was reminded that during the 20 minutes and 29 seconds that Namath sat on the bench Monday night in the game against San Diego, Karras, from his TV booth, was talking about what a shame it was to disappoint the more than 50,000 fans in the stands.

Shipp also drew sharp criticism from Sonny Werblin, former Jets' boss who originally signed Namath. Werblin was quoted as saying: "It was punishing him like a baby. If you're going to bench him, keep him out for the whole game."

"What do they know about it?" Shipp said. "Werblin is an outsider. Karras is just another old ball player making a living in TV. They knew nothing about the circumstances. They have no right to comment on it. "Werblin and Karras don't have to face these other players the next day. They don't have to explain double standards. I do. It would have been an easy thing for me to duck."

"Hell, I'm not going to be the coach next year. They have told me that. But I couldn't bring myself around to saying, 'To hell with it.' I can't operate on double standards. I had to do it."

Namath was in high spirits and harboring no venom when he reported for practice Wednesday.

"Coach Shipp did what he had to do—I am not bitter about it," said the $450,000-a-year quarterback. "I didn't read what Mr. Werblin said. I try not to read the papers after an incident like this. They just make me mad."

"But I am not holding any grudge. I was damn upset, sure, but upset at myself, not at Coach Shipp."

As for television criticism, Namath acknowledged that he had a long-running distaste for the broadcasting on Monday night football, particularly Karras and Cosell. Frank Gifford, the ex-Giant and third man of the ABC team, escaped his wrath.

"Karras and Cosell spend their time criticizing the selection of plays and the execution," Namath said. "They don't know the game plan. They don't know anything going on down the field."

"Monday night football is all I get to see and it really burns me up. Those guys think everybody should play like an All-Pro. They try to sell the show on criticism. I think it's terrible."

Lucas To Colonels And Jones Goes To Spirits

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The newest Kentucky Colonel, Maurice Lucas, won't start against San Antonio tonight, but Colonels Coach Hubie Brown says when Lucas learns the offense he should ease a shortage of "physical" players on the Kentucky squad.

In a straight player swap Wednesday, the Colonels sent Caldwell Jones to the Spirits of St. Louis for the 6-foot-9 Lucas.

The Colonels had obtained Jones, 6-11, following the demise of another American Basketball Association franchise, the San Diego Sails, seeing him as an ideal complement to 7-2 center Artis Gilmore.

"People in basketball felt that Caldwell Jones and Artis would make an awesome combination, and the thought was exciting," said Colonel general manager David Vance.

But the same day the Colonels purchased Jones, whose brother Wil already played for Kentucky, they began slipping and lost 10 of their next 16 games.

Caldwell Jones didn't play during the first loss to Denver on Nov. 14, but he was along for the next 15 games. He appeared to have trouble switching from center to forward, a position new to him.

"He is much more effective in the pivot with his back to the basket," said Vance. "It may have worked for us in time with Caldwell, but we just didn't have time."

Lucas didn't make it to Louisville for a Colonels practice session. Caldwell Jones, in his 15 games with the Colonels, averaged 12.4 points and 10.2 rebounds a game, but Brown said the blame for the slump had to be more widely distributed.

"The only place we've gotten any consistency this season is at Wil Jones' position," the coach said. "The other players have been up and down like yo-yos."

"If the other people had been in tune, we could have won at least four other games. Instead of being 13-11, we would have been 17-7, and who would have said anything?"

Brown said that wouldn't necessarily have meant turning down the Jones-Lucas trade, however.

"I can't say that. I think the evaluation would have been that we're still out of tune," he said. "I think the 15 games proved that it's difficult in this league to play with two centers. And I don't think it is a true indication of Caldwell Jones athletic ability when he has to guard the likes of Larry Kenon, Darnell Hillman, Marvin Barnes, Rich Jones and Bobby Jones."

Lucas was a center at Marquette University before skipping his senior year to turn pro last season, and has played center since early last season with the Spirits.

That could change, Brown indicated. "Every pro team looked at him as a big forward. He never was a low post center, and he has played forward," the Kentucky coach said. "In the Spirits scheme of things, he played outside. He has great range and is an excellent outside shooter."

"And he's a physical player. Outside of Teddy McClain and Ron Thomas, we don't have any physical players," Brown said.

Richards, a native of Waxahachie, Tex., also managed the Baltimore Orioles and served in front-office positions with major league clubs in Baltimore, Houston and Atlanta.

He broke into the majors as a catcher with Brooklyn in 1932 and is considered a genius at handling pitchers. A strong advocate of speed, good defense and fine pitching, Richards has been out of baseball since 1972 and last served as a manager with Baltimore in 1961. His return came at the behest of Veeck, 61, who is returning to the game for the first time since selling the White Sox in 1961.

"Several years ago, I made a half promise that if Bill ever owned a ball club again I'd manage it for him," Richards said at a jam-packed news conference.

Richards will be the oldest manager in the majors next year but he said his age would

Paul Richards Named As New Manager Of Chicago White Sox

CHICAGO (AP) — Paul Richards hasn't donned a baseball manager's uniform in 14 years and Bill Veeck hasn't owned a club in the same length of time. But both have returned to those roles with the Chicago White Sox in hope of rekindling the winning ways they developed with the "Go-Go" Sox of two decades ago.

New owner Veeck appointed Richards on Wednesday to the managerial post, and despite his lengthy absence from the dugout, Veeck said the 67-year-old Richards still is "the best I've ever seen in action as a manager."

Chuck Tanner, who managed the Sox for the last five seasons and still has three years left on his contract, was invited to stay with the club in any other capacity he wishes.

But Tanner, named manager of the year in 1972, reportedly is considering the same spot with Charles O. Finley's Oakland A's. Tanner said he would make his decision within the next few days.

Richards, a native of Waxahachie, Tex., also managed the Baltimore Orioles and served in front-office positions with major league clubs in Baltimore, Houston and Atlanta.

He broke into the majors as a catcher with Brooklyn in 1932 and is considered a genius at handling pitchers. A strong advocate of speed, good defense and fine pitching, Richards has been out of baseball since 1972 and last served as a manager with Baltimore in 1961. His return came at the behest of Veeck, 61, who is returning to the game for the first time since selling the White Sox in 1961.

Richards will be the oldest manager in the majors next year but he said his age would not make a difference.

Veeck, who also will serve as general manager, said he wanted a manager he could feel comfortable with in the dugout.

Veeck, considered a hustler on the sports scene whose past promotions have ranked the circle of usually staid baseball owners, officially became owner of the White Sox on Tuesday. His bid to buy the team, an American League charter member in financial difficulty, was rejected twice by owners before being approved last week.

Spirits Must Wait

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Moses Malone probably will not be available to the Spirits of St. Louis until some time in January, the American Basketball Association team announced Wednesday.

The 6-foot-10 Malone, acquired by the Spirits when the Utah Stars folded, was placed on the 15-day injured-reserve list. He has not played a game this season because of a broken bone in his foot.

The former high school standout from Petersburg, Va., was signed to a million dollar contract by the Stars two years ago.

OSHA Seminar To Be Held

FRANKFORT, Ky.—The Kentucky Department of Labor will hold a seminar on Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) recordkeeping procedures, Workmen's Compensation and wage and hour laws Wednesday, Jan. 7, 1976, at the Holiday Inn on Fern Valley Road in Louisville.

Marilyn Hinkle, an OSHA recordkeeping specialist, will discuss each OSHA form and those cases that must be entered on state records. (Such requirements apply to most Kentucky employers, regardless of the number employed.) In addition, she will provide an overview of state and national occupational safety and health laws.

Ralph Robke, an attorney and enforcement officer for the Labor Department, will address the group on Workmen's Compensation. Participants will learn about the new federal Workmen's Compensation Act, what happens when a claim is filed against an employer and why the initial report of an injury is required.

Charles McCoy, director of the division of labor standards, will round out the discussion with an explanation of current minimum wages for all types of businesses; overtime pay; child labor; apprenticeship and training; elevator safety; and mediation and labor relations.

The seminar, scheduled from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., is open to the public and there is no charge. However, early registration is advised by the Labor Department since the number of participants is limited. For further information contact Marilyn Hinkle at the Kentucky Department of Labor (502) 564-3100.

Economy May Be One Reason For Increase Of Poaching

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The economy may be the reason for the rise in game poaching, but the practice is a way of life in certain areas of the state, says Carl Kays, assistant Fish and Wildlife Commissioner.

The illegal killing of deer and wild turkey normally increases at this time of year, and this Christmas season is no exception, said Kays.

"It starts building up in September, but normally November and December are the highest months," Kays said.

Last December, for example, 72 persons were arrested for "casting light with a gun" — using lights to shoot deer at night, Kays said.

Kays said the maximum fine for illegal deer hunting is $500 and that it is being applied more often now.

In a recent case, fines totaling more than $1,200 were assessed against three Tompkinsville men for hunting deer at night with spotlights.

Arnold Mitchell, commissioner of the department, said illegal poaching "is the single most serious threat" to Kentucky's deer population, which is estimated at 75,000.

"Light hypnotizes a deer. They can see nothing but the light," Kays explained. "A deer is an animal of curiosity. He stands and he stares... he's a sitting duck."

Under those circumstances, a deer is "such an easy target that he usually never gets a second chance," Kays said.

"All crimes are on the rise," he added. "Our deer herd is building slowly and if it weren't for poaching, it would be building rapidly."

He said deer meat is available in metropolitan areas, but selling it is illegal.

Deer aren't the only animals being killed illegally, Kays said. Hunters also shoot wild turkeys and sometimes, when hunting illegally at night, mistake a horse or cow for a deer.

The wild turkey population in Kentucky "has been virtually wiped out, compared to what they were at one time," Kays said.

Board Of Education To Hold Another Hearing

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The state Board of Education has decided to hold another hearing as part of its continuing investigation of the sale of political tickets to employees of the Department of Education. Six officials of the Bureau of Administration and Finance received letters of censure for their roles in the ticket sales after last month's first hearing into the ticket sales.

The investigation was begun to probe allegations that merit systems employees were allegedly coerced into buying tickets to a political dinner for Dr. James Graham, a Democrat who was elected last month to replace Dr. Lyman Ginger as state Superintendent of Public Instruction.

The Board of Education voted Tuesday to hold a second hearing during an executive session following a public board meeting.

The second hearing will concentrate on "actions of specific

Council To Award Eight Fund Grants

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — The Kentucky Humanities Council is awarding eight grants totaling $51,002 to fund programs on public issues in the state.

Recipients of the funds include:

—The Women's Political Caucus, the Junior Women's Club and Women from Western Kentucky University, Bowling Green, for a conference and television program exploring opportunities available to women in Warren County.

—The Department of Educational Administration and Foundations at Western Kentucky University for a debate, panel discussion and workshop on collective bargaining for public employees.

—The Knott County Bicentennial Commission to hold several local forums on problems of solid waste.

—The R.A.P. Club at Blackburn Correctional Complex, Lexington, for a program examining various alternatives for dealing with offenders.

—The Louisville Crime Commission for a national conference on crime, the judicial process and the effectiveness of punishment vs. rehabilitation.

—The Kentucky Civil Liberties Union and Systems Science Center at the University of Louisville for a series of programs on "The Constitution and the Computer — The Challenge of Databanks to a Free Society."

—Kentucky Manpower development Inc., Louisville, for conferences in seven cities on limitations and opportunities for retirement.

—The Young Women's Christian Association of Louisville for a series of forums on problems of women in the work force.

personnel within the Bureau of Rehabilitation Services," according to Board chairman the Rev. Bob W. Brown of Lexington. Brown said the hearing will probably be held in January.

Brown said the decision was based on an investigation conducted by attorney Robert Turley, who was hired by the Board of Education to investigate alleged ticket sales to blind service division employees.

Brown said that Turley had talked to more than 50 persons regarding the ticket sales and had established some conclusions during that questioning. But Brown declined to comment on Turley's findings.

The board voted to extend Turley's contract, at least through the next hearing.

The six officials censured after the first hearing are Asst. Supt. James Melton, bureau head; Administrative Service Director James Daniel; Surplus Property Director Edward L. Palmer; Statistical Services Director Harold Doane; Finance Director Gayle Bowen and Computer Services Director George Rush.

The six had maintained that tickets were available, but that they did not bring any pressure on employees to purchase the tickets. But the letters of censure said that "internal opportunities to support one particular candidate implies, implicitly, though non-explicit, support of that candidate, and constitutes a subtle, by psychologically significant influence upon those employees subjected to the knowledge of the presence of the tickets . . ."

Spanish moss is big moneymaker

Spanish moss, besides providing picturesque scenery along Louisiana's bayou country, has great commercial value.

It is used, as it has been since colonial days, for stuffing mattresses and pillows and in the making of horse collars, blankets and saddles.
