Congressman Gregory Announces Re-election

The congressman, a member of the Republican Party, announced his intention to seek re-election. The announcement was made in a press conference held at the congressional offices.

In his speech, the congressman emphasized the need for continued support and cooperation from the people of his district. He also expressed his gratitude to those who had supported him in the past.

The congressman's statement was followed by questions from the press, which he answered in detail. The questions covered a wide range of topics, including foreign policy, economic matters, and social issues.

A detailed account of the congressman's speech and the questions he answered can be found in the attached press release.

OPEN DAY & NIGHT

A Canter that wins 12 races of $5,000 and over will be honored in a special ceremony at the Kentucky Derby.

The winner will receive a trophy, a gold medallion, and a special ribbon.

This year's 12-race winner is Sir Barton, trained by D. Wayne Lukas.

Sir Barton won the 1981 Kentucky Derby and 1982 Preakness Stakes.

He is a chestnut colt by Nijinsky out of the mare Cigar Street, trained by Shug McGaughey.

Sir Barton has been described as the best racehorse of his generation.

He was retired from racing in 1982 and is now owned by the late B. Wayne Hughes, Jr.

Hughes was a prominent owner-breeder who also trained the 1977 Kentucky Derby winner, Alysheba.

Hughes died in 2009, but his legacy lives on through the famous stallion's offspring.

Sir Barton's career earned over $1.5 million in prize money.

He was inducted into the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame in 2003.

Sir Barton will be honored at the Kentucky Derby on Saturday, May 7, 2022, as part of the 150th anniversary celebration.

Other Special Guests

Guy Simons, a Hall of Fame trainer

Mike Smith, Hall of Fame jockey

H. John Veeck, a Hall of Fame sportswriter

Kellye McNeal, a former jockey

The celebration will feature a special parade of former Derby winners and a tribute to the late B. Wayne Hughes, Jr., a leading owner-breeder who also trained Alysheba.

The event will also include a special presentation of the Sir Barton Trophy to his owner, B. Wayne Hughes, Jr., who is now retired from horse racing.

Sir Barton's colt, Sabin, was also a winner and is expected to run in this year's Kentucky Derby.

The celebration will be held in the grounds of Churchill Downs, the historic home of the Kentucky Derby.

Sir Barton's owners and trainers will be in attendance, along with former jockeys and other special guests.

The event is expected to draw a large crowd of horse racing enthusiasts, including fans of the great Sir Barton.
