HERO CONSTABLE IS "CAT BURGLAR." HE CONFESES
ADOPTS CRIMES AFTER BEING TRAPPED WITH MONEY ON NIGHT RAID.

For columnist Melville Deering, the Fulton Advertiser had to be a nerve-shocking experience. For instance, the words "HERO CONSTABLE IS "CAT BURGLAR." HE CONFESES ADOPTS CRIMES AFTER BEING TRAPPED WITH MONEY ON NIGHT RAID." were among the most intriguing headlines in his column. He was known for his clear, concise writing style, which was a hallmark of his reporting.

The next day, Deering followed up with a detailed account of the events that took place on the night of the raid. He described how the constable, who had recently returned from a tour of duty in the city, had been ambushed by a group of well-dressed men who had entered the police station and swollen the ranks of the force. The constable had been forced to fight for his life, using his police baton and his own strength to defend himself and his colleagues.

Despite being outnumbered, the constable managed to hold off the attackers long enough to call for backup. The police arrived in time to arrest the fugitives, who were identified as members of a notorious criminal gang. Deering's report was a sensation, and the story of the constable's bravery quickly spread across the country.

As for the "CAT BURGLAR." he had adopted crimes after being trapped with money on night raid. The police were stumped, but they were determined to catch the culprit and bring him to justice.

Piling Up Happiness

Does each year find you wishing and hoping for better things in the future—and regretting lack of accomplishment in the past?

There is one sure way to fill your horn of plenty to the brim with all the good things of life. It entails no sacrifice now. It merely means the forming of a good habit.

Save! That good old formula for success is as true now as when it helped build the fortunes of our pioneer railroad builders, manufacturers and promoters.

Applying it on a small scale in your own way will bring you results in proportion.

In Case of Emergency

When you want a thing in a hurry you rush to a local store and get it. But do you realize that the existence of our stores depends upon continued business.

If every person in this community were to use the stores only for emergencies there would soon be no more business to satisfy those urgent needs. You should patronize both tailor and cleaner and thereby help to keep the local business alive.
