Services For Harry B. Stokes To Be Held Thursday Afternoon

Harry Barrett Stokes, outstanding Hickman civic leader and president of the town's Civitan Club, died early Tuesday in a car wreck near Wickliffe.

The 32-year-old business man and veteran of World War II apparently died instantly when his car left the highway and plunged into an embankment 50 feet from the road.

State Trooper Lloyd Key said the car seemed to skirt an embankment for about 150 feet after leaving the pavement. Then, he said, it struck a knoll and "leaped thirty feet without touching the ground."

The car wound up nosed into the bank.

Stokes was thrown from the wreckage. A passerby found his body midway between the highway and the car about 6:45 a. m.

Key said Stokes apparently had been dead about 2 1/2 hours. His car was traveling south. In the direction of his home.

Scores of early-morning travelers failed to see Stokes' body 25 feet from the edge of the pavement. The car was partially hidden by the embankment.

Key said Stokes, father of a week-old boy and three other young children, was alone in the auto. The car left the highway on a sharp curve at the foot of what they call Ft. Jefferson Hill a mile and a half south of Wickliffe.

A fracture of the skull probably killed Stokes, said Key.

Stokes, who was affiliated with three businesses operated by him and his father and brother, was a candidate for the state legislature in May of 1959. He lost to Joe Treas of Fulton.

Stokes had been a civic leader for several years. Only Monday night he was named head of the cancer fund campaign in Fulton county.

Stokes helped operate Stokes Oil Company, Stokes Chevrolet Company and Fred Stokes Transfer Company, all with headquarters in Hickman.

He also was a member of the American Legion and chairman of the Hickman Planning Commission, a municipal body.

Stokes was married to the former Susan Quinn. The children are Ann 11, Camille 10, Barrett 5, and the baby, William Slade, who is a week old.

Stokes was graduated from Hickman High School in 1945. He attended Ohio State University a year and served two years in the Army (field artillery) during World War II.

Funeral services will be held today (Thursday) at 2 p. m. at the First Methodist Church at Hickman. Bro. L. B. Eason, pastor, will officiate. Burial will be in the City Cemetery. The body is at the Barrett Funeral Home.

Circuit Court Reverses ABC Board; Denies Homras Liquor License On Kentucky Avenue

The Franklin Circuit Court has reversed the ruling of the State ABC Board in granting a retail liquor and beer license to Fred and Foad Homras, doing business as "501 Liquors", 501 Kentucky Avenue.

The order, Civil Action No. 584-87 signed by Judge Ardery, finds that the defendants, F. A. and F. E. Homras "were not seeking a transfer of license to other premises due to destruction by an act of God or casualty for which the licensees were not responsible within the meaning of KRS 243.650", adding that "the defendant failed to follow the statutes and said Board's rules and regulations in issuing its order No. A-580 on September 16, 1959."

In declaring ABC's order A-580 null and void, the Court further stated that "The ABC Board is hereby permanently enjoined and restrained from issuing or transferring a retail package liquor license and retail malt beverage license to F. A. and F. E. Homras for premises located at 501 Kentucky Avenue in Fulton."

The Homras had previously been granted a license at 501 Kentucky Avenue by the State ABC Board, but the action was appealed to Franklin Circuit Court. Plaintiffs named in the Court's findings included Robert H. White and Mary Latham.

Turners Purged From Vote List

The Fulton County Purgation Board has removed the names of C. A. Turner and his wife from the voting records of Fulton County this week and placed them on the "suspended" list.

The Board stated that it took this action because "it believed Mr. and Mrs. Turner to be residents of Tennessee."

It is not known at this time what effect this action will have on Turner's position as a member of the controversial Fulton County School Board, which has been engaged in a long and bitter quarrel with County School Superintendent Beal Darnell of Hickman over many aspects of operating the County Schools, centering on the County High School.

The Turners now make their home on the Tennessee side of West State Line street in Fulton but have heretofore retained their legal residence and voting rights as Kentuckians.

Turner told a News Reporter Wednesday that he owns property and a home at Crutchfield and intends to maintain his legal residence there. He said the action in ordering his suspension was illegal, and that he had been provided no notice of such impending action, as the law requires.

The Fulton County Attorney has ruled the Purgation Board action as "illegal." When questioned by Turner on Tuesday, Board chairman W. L. Holland admitted that the Board action was taken "too hastily."

Beautification Committee Makes Plans For Purchasing Crepe Myrtle

The Beautification Committee of the mayor's newly organized Greater Fulton Committee met Tuesday night at the Fulton City Hall for the purpose of discussing plans for the beautification of Fulton.

The meeting was called by DeRhette Greene of the Ferry-Morse Seed Company, who is chairman of committee.

At the meeting it was suggested that at least five thousand crepe myrtle plants be purchased at first, and that they be planted one-half mile out on each approach to the city.

Plans are to ask each organization in town to be responsible for the planting and caring for of plants on one highway or road leading into our city.

Mr. Greene said he would make a trip out each highway to see just where the bushes were to be planted.

Those attending the meeting Tuesday night were Mr. Green, Mayor Nelson Tripp, Mr. and Mrs.

Robert Holland, Mrs. Ward Bushart and Mrs. Jack Allen. All members of the committee were not able to attend.

Other plans for the beautification of our city will be made at the next meeting of the Greater Fulton Committee. The meeting was scheduled for tonight (Thursday), but was postponed because of the Chamber of Commerce dinner-meeting until the first Thursday night in March.

The idea for beautifying the City of Fulton originated with Mr. Greene at the first meeting of Mayor Tripp's new committee, which is composed of a representative of each organization in town.

Plans call for making the City of Fulton, the Crepe Myrtle City with the crepe myrtle shrubs being planted on all highways leading into town. Also, there are plans underway to beautify the downtown area with long planters of flowers up and down the sidewalk on Lake Street and flowers and vines around the bandstand, railroad tracks, etc.

Water Valley Boy Hurt In Wreck

Kenneth Wiggins, 20, son of Jewell Wiggins of Water Valley, was seriously injured in an automobile accident at 8 p. m. Monday, about two and one-half miles north of Water Valley near the Fields Garage.

Young Wiggins is a patient in a Mayfield hospital, suffering from a possible skull fracture.

Two other boys, both from Mayfield, were injured in the accident. They were not seriously injured.

The accident occurred when the automobile in which the boys were riding hit and killed a mule, which strayed onto the highway.

The other two boys in the car were Jeff Morrow, 20, driver of the car, who has a slight concussion and bruises, and Charles Kevill, 20.

State police said Mr. Morrow's car topped a small hill and hit the mule. The animal was killed and was thrown on top of the car, caving the top of the vehicle in.

Tuesday Mr. Wiggins had not regained consciousness.

South Fulton P-TA Has Founder's Day Program

The annual Founder's Day Tea was observed by the South Fulton P-TA on Wednesday, Feb. 17. A large crowd was present at this most looked forward to occasion.

Mrs. Robert Matthews, president, called on Lester Betty, the principal, for the devotional, who used as his theme, "The Past, Present and Future," which was the theme used for the meeting. He spoke of the 907 pupil enrollment and how we all need to give more time and effort toward giving our children the proper training.

This was followed by a prayer for guidance. Minutes were read by Mrs. Oden Fowler. It was reported that the clothes bank needs clothes for younger children and shoes for children of all ages.

The nominating committee was named and Mrs. Lester Betty was elected chairman. Others on the committee are Mrs. Mac Burrow, and Mrs. Johnny Holland.

A most splendid program was presented by Mrs. Hillman Collier. ## You Have a right to Know; Demand it

Do you have a right to know of legal and financial operations and maneuverings in your community and in your County? Do you have a right to know in advance about some important meeting, for instance, of the Planning and Zoning Commission, which might result in action damaging to your property? Do you have a right to know, for instance, that your property is going to be sold at auction for unpaid taxes?

Do you have a right to know how the income of the City of Fulton was spent last year? Also the income of the School District, County and any other independently-operated governmental subdivision operating in the City or County? Do you have a right to know about new City ordinances, for instance, passed and made lawful by the City government, which affect you?

Of course you do, and the 1958 Legal Publication law of Kentucky, now in effect throughout the State requires publication of these and other related matters so that the public will be fully informed.

There are costs involved in such publication, to be sure, just as there are costs involved in light, heat and water for office maintenance. Some public officials around the State would like to get this law repealed or curtailed, claiming that the cost involved in publication of legal matters is just so much wasted expense.

Do you think so? Do you feel that you have a right to know these matters and that the whole population of a governmental unit should be informed on them so they can decide for themselves?

Of course you do. Whoever heard of any kind of a business being run without some kind of financial report. How can people be governed if they are not informed?

Our personal interest in these matters is strictly that of a taxpayer. The News carries few of these financial publications and we do not stand to gain or lose one way or the other if they are published or not, but we will fight to uphold the law that requires their publication just the same.

During the coming week there will be introduced in the General Assembly an amendment to the Legal Publication law which will tend to lighten some of the provisions for legal publication, as we understand it, but will in no case cause publication to cease entirely. If others would seek to go further and attempt to eliminate publication entirely, we hope that you make your voice heard in opposition to such a move.

You have a right to know. Demand it; protect it!

Voting Machines For Fulton County??

Do we need voting machines in Fulton County?

Unless someone can come up with some stronger arguments for their use here than we have seen so far, we doubt that we need them.

The principal argument in favor of voting machines is the promptness with which a vote can be tabulated. But in Fulton County our vote is always tabulated quickly and efficiently, and fairly. We have never heard the honesty of Fulton County tellers questioned; our counting is very rarely carried over into the next day as happens usually with many counties, some of them nearby.

With voting machines expensive as they are, and with their cost having to be borne by the County, it would be a certainty that our 21 precincts would be reduced by half or more, and many voters, especially in outlying areas, would undoubtedly be required to travel a considerable distance to cast their vote.

This business of obliging all counties to purchase voting machines has been kicked around the Legislature this session, and while we don't blame the fellows who sell voting machines in trying to get such alleged "reform" passed, we question the advisability of asking the citizens of Fulton County to assume a $20,000 debt in order to purchase voting machines, and at the same time cut our number of precincts in half. We can't see where we're "hurting" on that issue here.

SERMONETTE OF THE WEEK

You And Crime

By Roger Arnebergh,
Los Angeles City Attorney

In the last few years crime has been increasing 4 times as fast as population. And in 1957 juvenile crime increased 10 times faster than juvenile population.

SOME PEOPLE think that law enforcement is solely the problem of law officers. But the prevention of crime is the problem of each and every one of us.

Before we can make any real progress against crime we must teach our children to believe in God. We must either obey God's laws or else we must eventually pay the price. The Communists deny this. They have no respect for the law because they claim there is no God.

But with no belief in God there can be no true morality - no fixed standards of right and wrong. One judge, for instance, studied the cases of 8,000 delinquents. He found that only 42 of those 8,000 - about 1 out of 200!

Scouting activities in Fulton County have taken on new life under the sponsorship of the Young Men's Business Club. Troops have been reorganized, and new troops established, and interest among the youth of this county is at a high pitch.

Miss Mary Royster, English teacher in the Fulton high school, was guest speaker at the weekly meeting of the Rotary Club Tuesday. Miss Royster presented a very interesting program, discussing the lives and writings of Edgar Allan Poe, Walt Whitman and Mark Twain.

John Henry Bledsaw, negro, 32 years of age, of Lexington, Ky., confessed Sunday to the fatal stabbing on January 28 of James Coffman Omar, Fulton, freshman in engineering at the University of Kentucky. He is being held on a charge of murder, without bond.

The annual get together meeting of the Fulton Chamber of Commerce was held Monday evening and about sixty persons were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sublett of Clinton announce the birth of a daughter Monday morning in the Fulton Hospital.

Mrs. M. C. Payne was hostess to a bridge party Monday night at her home on Second Street, honoring Mrs. Felix Bright of Nashville, who is visiting friends here.

Mrs. J. E. Fall was hostess Tuesday at her home on Vine Street, entertaining members of her regular bridge club and several visitors.

Ouida Jewell

I was talking with one of the town's leading businessmen one day this week and he was high in his praise for the new Jet Lanes bowling alley, which will be opening in Fulton soon.

He said that although the bowling alley is being built by the owners as a money-making proposition, it is something the Twin-Cities have needed for a long time.

"At present, there is no place to go at night to have a coke and a chat with friends, except to the local restaurants," the businessman said.

Bowling is good exercise and fun for both the young and old, alike, also both boys and girls, men and women.

The bowling alley will also draw people to our town from a wide surrounding area, and this is always good.

The bowling alley owners, Stanley Jones, Dan Taylor, Rodney Miller and Paul Heltsley, are to be congratulated on bringing to Fulton a good recreation center, so that our citizens may have a nice place to spend their leisure hours.

The Lucian Isbell family was honored at a Master Farmer Award Dinner at the First Methodist Church in Hickman Monday night.

Named one of six outstanding Kentucky farm families, the award was presented by P. T. Head, editor of Progressive Farmer magazine which co-sponsors the award along with the Kentucky Extension Service-College of Agriculture. Dr. Frank Welch spoke in behalf of UK.

The Rev. L. B. Eason, church pastor, presented the invocation at the 6:30 p. m. dinner which was served by the Hickman homemakers.

Toastmaster was Reginald Williamson, president of the Fulton County Farm Bureau. Fulton County Judge J. C. Bondurant also spoke. His subject was "A Master Farmer In His Community."

Mrs. Anna Belle Edwards left Thursday night for Chicago where she attended a two day meeting of the Division Editors and Staff of the Illinois Central Magazine.

The business sessions were held at the Avenue Motel.

While in Chicago the group toured the Prudential Building, where they had dinner.

A luncheon and tour was also held at the Art Institute. Friday night the group of editors attended the play, "Enrico IV," by Luigi Pirandello at the Goodman Theatre.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. Edwards went to Freeport, Ill., for a brief visit with her daughter, Mrs. N. L. Meadows, and family, before returning to Fulton Monday.

Mrs. DuEthal Ammons of Cayce feels she has something in common with Queen Elizabeth on the birth of her new baby boy.

You see, Mrs. Ammons' daughter-in-law, Mrs. Ray Ammons of Memphis, was also born on Feb. 19. Her husband, Mrs. Ammons' son, is a medical student at Memphis. Two of the doctors, helping in the delivery of the new prince were Sir John Weir and Dr. Vernon F. Hall. Mrs. Ammons' father was James S. Weir and her mother's maiden name was Margaret Almyra Hall.

It has been suggested that we do a feature on the faith doctor at Pryorsburg. It seems that from 50 to 100 people from the area are making calls on the "doctor" each day. Maybe, when we have more time, we'll visit the gent, to see what makes him so popular.

I learned a lesson the hard way, last week. For years, Mother has warned me against sending cash through the mails, but I wouldn't listen. Then, last week I lost $43.00 just that way. It broke my heart! Seems like there are some people in this world you just can't trust. I'm still hoping the letter got lost along the way from here to Louisville and will show up later. Surely, no one would steal MY money!

At a recent meeting of the South Fulton Booster Club it was voted to purchase a fishing boat, motor and trailer from Red's Boat Shop. These will be given away on May 28. Tickets on this outfit will sell for three for $1.00.

The Boosters also voted to donate $25 to the new Highway Patrol building in Union City.

The Booster membership drive will soon get underway, according to the club president, Ray Terrell.

Each member is asked to bring a prospective member to the meeting tonight (Thursday) at the South Fulton City Hall.

Congratulations to Linda Muzzall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Muzzall of Fulton, Route 5, on being selected valedictorian of the 1960 graduating class of South Fulton.

Salutatory honors went to Miss Kay Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson of Fulton, Route 3. Congratulations to her, also.

According to a letter from Nell Meadows of Freeport, Ill., a former Fulton resident, the town of Freeport was snowed in for three days recently. There was no way out of the town except by train. All busses and cars were at a standstill, and residents of the city couldn't get delivery on bread, papers, etc.

Approximately 255 employees at the Kentucky Siegel factory have been laid off for a period of from six to eight weeks.

We understand that the reason for the lay-off is that the Siegel Company plans to remodel the old building on East Fourth Street during that period of time.

Was driving to Clinton over the weekend and for the first time learned that a new Memorial Gardens Cemetery has gone up just north of the overhead railroad bridge on Highway 51, in the former location of the drive-in theatre.

U. S. Favors Expansion Of Market Area

The United States Department of Agriculture has rendered a "recommended decision" which would expand Paducah's milk marketing order to include 16 Kentucky and Tennessee counties.

At the present time the Paducah order is composed of Ballard, McCracken, Marshall, Calloway and Graves counties.

The expansion would take in the Kentucky counties of Livingston, Lyon, Caldwell, Trigg, Carlisle, Hickman, and Fulton, and the Tennessee counties of Lake, Obion, Weakley and Dyer, according to R. V. Fiers, secretary-manager of the Paducah Graded Milk Producers Association.

The recommended decision was signed by Roy W. Lennartson, deputy administrator in the USDA.

Interested persons will have 15 days to write exceptions after the recommended decision is published sometime next week, and then all producers in the 16 counties concerned will hold a referendum.

It would take a two-thirds vote by the producers in favor of the decision before it would go into effect.

THE GOD THAT FAILED

by Gide, Wright, Silome, Spender, Koestler, Fischer

"Anti-Communist propaganda has proved the most reliable and best propaganda, working in the long run in favor of Stalin, since the Revolution." If this seems contradictory or illogical, it is because this is just another of Communism's many prodigies brought to light in this extraordinary book.

Edited by Richard Crossman, this book was written by six world renowned authors who in their search for betterment of mankind, each turned to Communism — and later rejected it. Here are their hopes, their discoveries and betrayals, and at the same time, some of the story of Communism.

Now, just what could this theory in practice offer in intellect, an individualist, the poor and starving, or the not so poor and starving? Communism offers, not freedom of thought, but a clarity of thought, a loss of individualism, but only for the creation of a unified, classless society; a place to live, a job, and food for the starving, a sanctuary from racial discrimination for the Negro, and an accepted place for writers and artists. That is — in theory.

Each of these six men were searching for something and often disregarding basic principles of their lives, turned to Bolshevism. Through them, we gain an insight to the Red mind, how he thinks and acts. But they speak out against capitalism as well as communism.

So, we see that the Communist theory is all well and good, but when put in the hands of certain people, or possibly just people, everything seems to come out perversely.

Stephan Spender, a respected English author, illustrates that Communists say they think and then what they actually do. Arthur Koestler, a German journalist, tells us that the logical, methodical thinker is plagued by mechanistic preoccupation, while the Reds' relative truths are dialectic interpretations which are geared to their ideals and motives.

These fascinating and absorbing stories may shock you in places, relieve you in others; but they are a contribution of great importance to the understanding of Communism through the experienced minds of these ex-Communists.

Farm News, Meetings, Events

(Ed's note: the following information, supplied THE NEWS by the USDA, ASC, nearby County Agents and agricultural agencies will be of special interest to progressive farmers in the Ken-Tenn area):

All 1960 Cotton Included In Quota Program

Marketing quotas for the 1960 crop of upland cotton apply to all producers — those who elect Choice (B) allotments as well as those with Choice (A) allotments. Roy Bard, Chairman of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, said today.

Notices of the national average price support rate for both Choice (A) and Choice (B) cotton were recently mailed to all producers in the county. Each cotton grower was given the size of his Choice (A) and Choice (B) allotment for 1960 before the cotton marketing quota referendum last December.

Cotton growers who want their Choice (B) allotment in effect for 1960 must file that decision with the County ASC office not later than March 16. The Choice (B) allotment for a farm is 40% larger than the regular or Choice (A) allotment. Price support available for cotton produced on a Choice (B) allotment farm is 15% of parity less than for Choice (A) cotton.

1960 QUOTAS ANNOUNCED

Acting Secretary of Agriculture True D. Morse has announced 1960 marketing quotas for fire-cured type 21, fire-cured types 22 and 23, and dark air-cured (types 35 and 36) tobacco.

Growers approved marketing quotas for the 1958, 1959, and 1960 crops of fire-cured and dark air-cured tobacco in referenda held February 18, 1958.

The 1960 quota of 11,771,000 pounds of fire-cured type 21 tobacco will result in a total of 9,132 acres available for allotment; the quota of 47,540,000 pounds of fire-cured types 22 and 23 tobacco will result in a total of 32,785 acres available for allotment; the quota of 22,450,000 pounds of dark air-cured (types 35 and 36) tobacco will result in a total of 15,822 acres available for allotment. Included in each of the acreages available for allotment is a small reserve for adjustments, correction of errors, and new farms. This year's farm allotments for fire-cured and dark air-cured tobacco for 1960 will be about the same as for 1959.

USDA REPORTS ON STORAGE COSTS

The direct cost to the Nation's commercial warehouses of storing grain ranges from about 5 cents to more than 21 cents a bushel, according to a preliminary report on a U. S. Department of Agriculture survey of grain storage costs received at the Kentucky Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office.

The survey was made in connection with plans for renegotiation of the Uniform Grain Storage Agreement, which contains the rates and other terms that govern the storage of price-support grain in commercial warehouses, under either Government loan or Government ownership.

Average direct storage costs, not including handling charges and indirect charges such as quality deterioration, shrinkage and return on capital investment, amount to 10.1 cents a bushel a year for country elevators, the survey shows. For terminal warehouses, it is 8.6 cents a bushel. The overall average for both types is 9.5 cents a bushel direct operating cost to the warehouse for a year.

WOOL MARKETING YEAR ENDS IN MARCH

Chairman William O. Gilreath of the Kentucky Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee today reminded wool growers that the marketing year for purposes of the 1959 wool program will end March 31.

The wool program is conducted under the National Wool Act of 1954. Payments under the 1959 program will be made this summer when payment rates are determined on the basis of the national average price received by producers for shorn wool during the 1959 marketing year.

For a completed sale, Mr. Gilreath said, title must have passed to the buyer, the wool must have been delivered to the buyer (either physically or through documents), and the last of the factors (price per pound, weight, yield, etc.) needed to determine the total purchase price must be available. If any condition concerning the sale is not settled by March 31, the sale will not be considered as complete.

Applications for payment under the 1959 program must be filed with the county ASC Office not later than April 30, 1960.

ACP Helps Keep Farms Fit Says ASC Chairman

Fulton County farmers who make full use of the 1960 Agricultural Conservation Program to control erosion and to stockpile soil reserves will make a substantial contribution to the Nation's future security and well-being.

Roy Bard, Chairman of the Fulton County ASC Committee, points out that soils have to be kept in condition to respond when the need arises. "Land that has been overworked and underfed is unable to respond when it is needed."

"Although there is no need now to increase the acreage of grains and most other field crops, there is a definite need to take advantage of this favorable food situation to continue stockpiling plant food reserves in the soil. Our farms then will be ready to meet expanded production needs when they come. If we don't stockpile these reserves now there may come a time when it will be too late."

Fiscal Court Guests Of Lions

Members of the Fiscal Court were guests at the regular Lions Club luncheon-meeting at the Park Terrace Friday.

Magistrate C. D. Edwards had charge of the program and presented County Judge John Bondurant, who spoke on the county's business and presented the budget of the Fiscal Court.

Cut Cost By Giving Care To Livestock

One of the most important items of a good livestock program is that of using judgment by taking good care of the animals health. This will be true no matter what type of livestock you own. It is one of the surest ways of cutting overhead thereby increasing income from livestock.

Most livestock farmers, sooner or later will experience some real problems with the health of their animals. Good, experienced livestock men will also tell you that "an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." With the introduction of many new drugs, known as antibiotics or wonder drugs, many diseases can be cured in due time. There are some that still remain no cure for, yet this is the procedure to follow after you have gotten into trouble. There are also many good and time proven methods that can be employed to prevent troubles. Our Extension men, our Government men, Veterinarians, Feed Specialists, Biological Representatives, and many others as well as our experienced livestock raisers can be placed into practice in order to enjoy the safest livestock health program. It is very advisable to follow these folks advice too, as it is known to be the surest and cheapest in the long run.

Bang's Disease has been virtually wiped off the face of our map in most states. The methods used has been expensive and of long duration. We need to keep our herds clean of it since they are that way in most cases today. A sound thing to do is to follow the program that has been outlined and very little trouble will occur.

There are a number of diseases among hogs that today causes big losses and which at the same time could be avoided if the livestock owner would only act on time. A very large number of these diseases are prevented through vaccination and most of us know that, yet at the same time we sometimes get busy with something of less importance and put it off to our eventual sorrow.

Discuss your livestock disease problem with your veterinarian, and others in whom you have contact and confidence and it is my personal opinion that you can virtually wipe out most of your livestock disease problems.

Judges Salaries May Be Changed

Kentucky's 120 county judges would be paid a minimum of $3,600 a year if a bill passed by the House Friday goes through the Senate and is signed by the governor.

The bill, sponsored by Rep. George J. Ellis, Jr. (D-Glasgow), passed 66-11 during a session marked by passage of 16 bills within about 40 minutes.

Fiscal courts now set the county judges minimum salary, up to the constitutional limit of $7,200 a year.

Minority Leader Leonard Hislop (R-Somerset), explaining his vote against the measure, said some counties cannot afford to pay that much. He said county judges undoubtedly deserve that much pay, but their salaries should be fixed by fiscal courts.

The bill also increases from $100 to $200 the maximum fee allowed county judges for settling accounts of fiduciaries, and creates a $5 fee for hearings on applications for fiduciaries.

Fulton To Receive Aid Under U. S. Grant

Forty Kentucky cities, 11 of them in the First District, will receive aid under a $75,000 grant announced Thursday by the Urban Renewal Administration.

The grant, extended to Kentucky on a 50-50 matching basis, is intended to help communities complete plans for growth and development.

It will authorize studies of economic base, population, land use, housing, utilities, parking, schools, recreational areas, preparation for public improvement work and zoning ordinances.

"The fact that more than one-fourth of the Kentucky cities seeking this aid are from the First District indicates the alertness and aggressiveness of the officials of the area," said Rep. Frank Stubblefield.

The deadline on completion of work authorized by the grant is 17 months.

Cities in the First District which are affected are Paducah, Cadiz, Calvert City, Central City, Fulton, Greenville, Hickman, Hopkinsville, Mayfield, Murray and Russellville.

DID YOU KNOW?

Under the new Social Security Act there is a Death Benefit Fund for every one covered by Social Security. Usually the payment is three times your monthly check, or what you would be entitled to draw if you were 65, not to exceed $255.00. Make sure your family knows just where your Social Security Card is so that in an emergency it can be presented to the proper parties.

Because we try to keep abreast of these and other regulations as a part of the services we have to offer, feel free to call us on such matters anytime.

COCIDO

Old World chefs give us many a succulent dish, and a wonderful example is this Spanish stew. Rich seasonings are combined with beef brisket, salt pork, carrots, leeks and other vegetables to make this flavorful dish. It's a treat for hearty appetites these cold winter days.

A good beverage to serve with it...a glass of refreshing, sparkling beer. Yes, with Cocido, as with many another Old World dish, the light, bright taste of beer just can't be beat. Try it...see if you don't agree.

Beer belongs...Enjoy it
