THE LISTENING POST

There is a certain school of religious thought which believes that when the world comes to its end there will be a period of one thousand years during which Jesus Christ will return to earth to preach again among the people, and then, at the end of this thousand years, the old earth will be consumed by fire. That, according to this theory, will mark the real end of the world. I have no certain beliefs along this line. I have never been able to read certain scriptures and then figure out time and prophecies, and I have a sort of belief that nobody else is able to do this. But I might be wrong in this. I know that many people are much more intelligent than I and long ago I learned that my own opinions were merely my own opinions and frequently meant less than nothing.

However, in my younger days I have heard many men preach and have also heard many ministers talk of the mysteries and prophecies of the Bible. It seems to me now, in remembering those days, that almost all preachers were deeply and vividly interested in those things. I have heard groups of them argue many times about the Book of Revelations, for example, and I never heard any two of them who had the same theory. I remember one preacher, in particular; a tall, white bearded man who spent a lifetime in study and writing. At the time I never thought of his personal appearance a great deal, but in later years I have come to the conclusion that he looked as Abraham must have looked. Even at that, I have no idea how Abraham looked, but I have always formed mental pictures of how certain men must have looked, and it comes to me that this old preacher, old then, full of years and wise from study, resembled Abraham.

This tall old man, with his white beard, believed quite completely in the thousand year period of the Millennium, or perhaps it is the pre-Millennium. He talked of that period many times and often expressed the wish that he might live to see that period. (He has been dead for more than twenty years). "Ah, that would be a rich experience," he used to say. "Consider how it might be. I might live long enough to see our Lord come again to this earth, and if I do it means that I will be here for a thousand years while He preaches again as he did so long ago. I would see the final flames which will consume the earth. I will see the dross melted a way from the real. I will see the righteous gathered at the right hand and the unrighteous gathered at the left. It will be a rich experience if I can live until that day. That day might be tomorrow."

I was thinking of that old preacher a few days ago when I was engaged in purging the dross from metal in the office. Every day we melt up a lot of metal and always there will be a certain amount of dross which gathers at the top of the molten metal. That dross is skimmed off and thrown into a metal container. Such skimming should be done skillfully, for metal always clings to the dross and waste results from deep skimming. Factotum being what he is is not careful of this skimming and I do not suppose he ever heard of purging with fire. So, after a few months, I have the dross cast into the melting pot and we try to obtain some more metal from this dross. At the time mentioned I had about 200 pounds of dross and it had been purged twice already. Factotum, not relishing the job greatly, gave the opinion that no more recoverable metal remained, but I believed some might be saved. It was rather on the order of the Millennium theory, you see, and I wanted to save all possible. To make a long story short, the two hundred pounds of dross yielded about thirty or forty pounds of pure metal, and I believe that some metal yet remains in that

Guerrillas In Surprise Move Seize Airport

Americans Recapture All Ground Taken On Batan Peninsula

Washington.—A smashing counterattack which drove the Japanese with heavy losses out of the positions they had won from General Douglas MacArthur's main force, and a daringly successful lunge by Filipino guerrillas against an enemy airport were added today to the saga of the Philippine defense.

One of General MacArthur's guerrilla bands swept out of the mountains of Northern Luzon in a savage raid on the airport at Tuguegarao in the Cagayan valley. Taken completely by surprise, the Japanese fled in confusion, leaving 110 dead on the field. About 300 others were dispersed, said a War Department communique, and only slight losses were suffered by the attacking force.

Fierce Attack
On MacArthur's principal front on the Batan peninsula, American and Philippine regulars launched a fierce attack against Japanese who had succeeded in penetrating the defending forces' lines.

Describing the fighting in this sector as particularly savage, the communique said that MacArthur's forces hurled the enemy back, recapturing all the positions they had lost to the Japanese, and inflicting very heavy losses on the invaders. Casualties among the Americans and Filipinos were relatively moderate, the department reported.

There is no reason to assume that these guerrilla bands are merely untrained civilians armed with non-descript weapons, and sniping at the invaders without military control. Mobilization of MacArthur's Army, which began last August, was never completed, and the larger islands at least of the Philippine archipelago contained bodies of troops which never succeeded in joining the principal force.

Troops Are Trained
Made up of Filipinos who have had a minimum of five months of intensive training under MacArthur's direction, these groups are equipped with Army rifles. Many of these bands may be in daily, or at least frequent, communication by radio with MacArthur's headquarters.

$12,000 Yearly Salary Agreed On For Office Of Price Administrator

Washington.—A joint congressional committee agreed today to raise the annual salary of the Price Control Administrator to $12,000 a year, but failed to reach a compromise on numerous other controversial features of the war-time price control legislation.

Chairman Brown (D., Mich.), of the Senate conferees told reporters House conferees had receded from their provision that the salary be $10,000.

Barkley Expects Compromise
"We agreed to raise Mr. Henderson's salary and talked over the buying and selling provisions," Brown said. Leon Henderson, now controlling prices under a presidential order, told Congress he expected to be reappointed to any price-fixing job authorized by the legislation. He now receives a $10,000 salary.

STORED GRAIN NOW RELEASED UPON MARKET

Ever-Normal Granary Plan Held Vindicated

Chicago.—The Nation's ever-normal granary, instituted in time of plenty to prevent price collapse, now is paying dividends.

Due to war-stimulated food demand, Uncle Sam and producers who have co-operated in recent years in holding back from market record-breaking supplies of grain today have stores with an estimated inventory value of a least $100,000,000 greater than the original worth. More than a billion bushels of wheat and corn are involved.

This includes grain once held in the granary but recently put into consumption channels. With both corn and wheat prices near top levels since 1927, Uncle Sam and co-operation farmers have been cashing profits. The Government has sold about 25,000,000 bushels of wheat and more than 100,000,000 of corn in recent months.

CALLOWAY COUNTEY WOULD BAN HORSE RACING DURING WAR

Frankfort, Ky.—All horse racing in Kentucky—the home of many thoroughbreds—would be suspended during the war under a bill introduced in the state legislature today by Rep. Pink G. Gurd, Calloway county Democrat.

Kentucky has four race tracks.—Churchill Downs, scene of the famed Kentucky derby; Keeneland, Latonia and Dade Park.

Curd's bill also would abolish the state's racing commission for the rest of the war.

Senator Barkley, the Democratic leader, told reporters the price control dispute had been discussed at a White House conference of congressional leaders, adding that he expected the Senate-House committee would be able to "get together" on a compromise although it was uncertain when this would be.

"I discussed some of the difficulties that faced the conference committee," Barkley said of the visit with President Roosevelt.

Brown's reference to the "buying and selling" provisions was authority to buy, store or sell various commodities in an effort to control their prices. Both the House and Senate approved these activities with certain restrictions.

It was indicated a compromise might be near on the highly controversial farm sections.

Fulton County Wins Approval Of Plan For Debt Refinancing

Frankfort, Ky.—A refinancing plan to meet part of Fulton County's floating debt was approved by the Court of Appeals today.

The high tribunal once had turned down a similar plan because it held some of the county's indebtedness was invalid. These claims were omitted from the newer proposal on which the court acted today.

The court sanctioned issuance of $72,150 in funding bonds by the county to pay $45,872 in debts and $26,278 in interest charges.

Sum Is Less Than Requested
The amount was less than the $88,805 for which the county was denied permission to issue funding bonds of 1940. At that time, the court held that part of the debt was invalid. The floating debt was amassed prior to 1933.

In its previous opinion, the court declared the county had exceeded its constitutional debt limit prior to 1934 and for fifteen years before that had spent an average of $20,000 a year more than its revenue. Failure of the county fiscal court to authorize other expenditures had invalidated them, it said.

Since that time, the tribunal said, county officials have been "trying to bring order out of chaos."

Bond Application Filed
Harry R. Lynn, assistant state local finance officer, said that Fulton County officials, hoping for appellate court approval, already had petitioned his office for permission to issue bonds to fund the floating debt and also to refund approximately $115,000 worth of old bonds at a lower rate of interest than the 5-1-4 per cent it is paying now.

BILL TO RAISE DOMESTIC PRICES MAKES PROGRESS

House Committee Gets Anderson Measure

Frankfort, Ky.—House Speaker Stanley S. Dickson today referred to Kentucky Statutes Committee No. 1 the bill of Representative Charles W. Anderson, Jr., Louisville Negro, to make domestic servants eligible for minimum fair wages and maximum hours for women and minors.

The main section of the bill contains only three printed lines, but, Anderson estimates, it would raise the wages of 60 per cent of all women employees, and at least 90 per cent of Negro women employees.

Alms At Minimum Wage
"As you know," he said, "nearly all the employed women of my race are domestic servants."

Anderson believes passage of the bill would guarantee a minimum of $12 a week in wages, and a maximum of eight hours a day, for domestic servants. The scale now ranges from $5 to $7 a week for unlimited hours of service, he said.

COMMITTEE NEARS END OF REACHING PRICE COMPROMISE

Washington.—A joint Senate-House conference committee gave evidence today that it was nearing the end of a 10-day struggle to reach a compromise on the highly controversial farm sections of the administration's price control bill.

With leaders reported to have suggested that President Roosevelt be given the final decision on agriculture prices, members said that horse trading apparently was underway for the first time since the group began its discussions last week.

The Presidential check was said to have been proposed in an effort to compromise a Senate-approved amendment by Senator Bankhead (D., Ala.), which would empower the secretary of agriculture to veto any ceilings that might be placed on farm prices by the administrator proposed in the bill.

BILL WOULD OPEN CITY CONTRACTS TO PUBLIC STUDY

Another Measure Gives Mayor New Powers

Frankfort, Ky.—A bill to require that before commissioners of a city of the Second class sign any contract involving expenditure of more than $1,000, they must specify the nature of the project and place details on file for public inspection for at least a week was introduced in the Kentucky House of Representatives today.

Democratic Floor Leader Henry Ward of Paducah, author of the bill, introduced two others affecting city administration. One would empower mayors of cities having commission form of government to appoint city boards of tax equalization with approval of the city commissioners.

Another would authorize cities of the first and second classes to appropriate money for care and improvement of public parks. Two funds would be set up and kept separate, one for white parks and one for negro parks.

Ward also offered a bill to provide that WPA or other government agency indexes of wills, marriages and other public records, might be adopted by counties as their official records.

Nelson Orders Direct Control Of Production

Gives Individuals Full Authority Over Various Jobs

Washington.—Asserting that "debating societies" were out, Donald M. Nelson, generalissimo of American war production, announced a revised war-industry set up today with key men given sweeping authority to "get the job done."

Essentially, it consisted of passing on to his subordinates the power which the President gave him as chairman of the war production board, relieving himself of administrative detail so that he may function as general director of the program.

For instance, Nelson announced that Ernest Kanzer, an old associate of Henry Ford, had been made head of a committee charged with converting the automobile industry to war production.

Kanzer will move to Detroit, make decisions on the spot, and hold all the authority to get the job done that was vested in Nelson himself.

But first of all, Nelson said, it was necessary that the men in charge know what was needed. So he is establishing a committee on requirements, under William L. Batt. The committee will be composed of representatives of the Army, the Navy, the lease-lend administration, and the Maritime Commission.

Below this committee, Nelson plans these six essential divisions: A division of industry operations. Its task will be to get "as much conversion as possible as quickly as possible," and after receiving the recommendations of other divisions, it will order such curtailments of civilian production as may be necessary. Its head will be J. S. Knowlson, president of the Stewart-Warner Corporation. It will also have charge of priorities.

A production division, under W. H. Harrison, who, Nelson said, "will be hard enough and tough enough to cut through the bottle neck" and get production rolling.

A materials division, under William L. Batt, with the task of making the "materials go around," of keeping tab of what is available and what expected, and expediting their production.

CHURCHILL HINTS AT GRAND STRATEGY

Back from his highly successful visit to the United States, Winston Churchill postulates, if he does not silence, the clamor for more aggressive action against the Japanese. "I naturally share the anxieties that are felt on the war in the Far East," he tells a restive House of Commons, "but I also share a growing confidence, which I think might also be justified, in the eventual outcome of this struggle."
In other words there will be no relaxation in the efforts to defend Singapore and the Dutch East Indies, but the conflict must be dealt with as a world conflict and each front must be weighed for its importance toward achieving an ultimate victory and a victory in the shortest possible time.

This, it may be assumed, is the grand strategy which Mr. Churchill and President Roosevelt with their military and naval experts decided at their recent conferences in Washington and which, it also may be assumed, the 24 other United Nations approved. As indicated by Secretary of the Navy Knox and expressed in its simplest terms, it marks Germany as the first and foremost of the enemies of mankind and the first and foremost to be destroyed.

Because Japan has scored spectacular initial successes, is that

BOB KING MARRIES IN BEAUMONT, TEXAS

The following appeared in the Beaumont, Texas Journal on Wednesday, January 14, 1942, which is of wide interest here:

"The marriage of Miss Dorothy Hetach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Hetach of Leesburg, Fla., and Robert Wade King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil King of Fulton, Ky., was solemnized Tuesday evening, January 13, 1942, with the Rev. George F. Cameron, Rector of the St. Mark's Episcopal church, officiating.

The bride has become widely known here during her comparatively short residence, having moved here last summer to follow her profession as a laboratory technician. Mr. King has been a resident of Beaumont for three years, taking an active part in the musical life of the city as a member of the Beaumont Light Opera Club, Westminster Presbyterian church choir and the Esquires in each of which his rich baritone voice has been heard in solo assignments.

Miss Helen Maddox attended the bride as bridesmaid while Herschel Jones served the groom as best man.

Mrs. King was lovely in black and pink with a corsage of pink camellias, carrying out the color scheme. Her attendants wore blue with black accessories.

The bride is an alumna of Florida State College for Women in Tallahassee, Fla., where she was active in Delta Delta Delta sorority. She also studied at Grady School of Laboratory Technique in St. Louis, Mo., in preparation for her profession. She received her elementary education in Leesburg, Fla.

Mr. King is a graduate of Fulton schools and of Bowling Green Business University. For the last three years he has been employed with the Texas Company of Port Neches, making his home in Beaumont. He resigned last week to answer the call to the colors.

Mr. King, in the Naval Reserve, is in Houston, Texas now awaiting call to station while Mrs. King will remain in Beaumont and is at home at 2474 Harrison.

DRAMA DEPARTMENT
ENJOYS LOVELY LUNCHEON
AT MONTHLY MEETING

The Drama Department of the Fulton Woman's Club held its monthly meeting yesterday afternoon at the club home with a splendid attendance and enjoyed a delightfully planned luncheon. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mesdames William H. Atkins, J. C. Sugg, Grady Varden, W. L. Durbin, A. B. Roberts, Buren Rogers and R. A. Stille.

Members of the department and several visitors gathered at the club building at one o'clock, each bringing a covered dish for the luncheon. The food was arranged on a large table, covered with a pretty lace cloth and centered with an attractive floral design, and was served buffet style. Those attending were seated at card tables. Throughout the room yellow candles burned, carrying out a yellow and white color scheme.

Following the luncheon the regular meeting was presided over by the chairman, Mrs. James Warren. Mrs. Robert Graham who is secretary, called the roll and read the minutes of the last meeting. Mrs. Warren asked Mrs. J. C. Sugg to assist Mrs. Moselle Terry Smith in making plans for the one-act play to be presented at the open meeting of the Woman's club in March. Club week activity was then discussed and it was voted that each member of this department will contribute fifty cents.

The chairman named Mrs. Flins Houston to fill the office of treasurer during the unexpired term of Mrs. Norman Frey. She also appointed the nominating committee which will name officers for the ensuing year, composed of Mrs. Ward McClellan, Mrs. Gene Speight and Mrs. Buren Rogers. Mrs. Warren made an announcement regarding the Victory Book drive, starting here Monday, and stated that books can be left in appropriate boxes at West Kentucky Finance office, City National Bank, Fulton library, Fulton theatre and Post Office.

That concluded the business portion of the meeting and in the absence of the program leader Mrs. Warren presented Mrs. Walter Voelpe in an unusually interesting book review of "Keys of the Kingdom" by A. J. Cronin. Mrs. Voelpe held the close attention of all present and her review was one of best ever heard here.

Attending the meeting were twenty-seven members of the department and these visitors—Mrs. Max Cummings, Mrs. Thomas Exum, Mrs. Charles Gregory, Mrs. Steve Wiley and Mrs. J. M. Dishman.

SPORT TALK

Fresh from a victory over the Cayce Tigers, the second of the year over this team, and after showing quite a good bit of improvement over previous games, the Bulldogs face a tough foe tonight on their home floor. The Mayfield Cardinals, a team which has been improving swiftly and which lacking height, makes up for this lack with a dashing floor game built around speed, comes here for the only remaining game against West Kentucky Conference teams. To date the Bulldogs have won one game and lost one against this conference. Murray won over the Bulldogs, while Tilghman was beaten. Coach Giles is quite anxious to win this game, for while it has no bearing in the Purchase Conference, it will give the Fulton team a better showing against the West Kentucky Conference teams.

Mayfield has had a pretty good season thus far, although some games have been lost. Last week the Tilghman team set the Cardinals back 28 to 21, but this should not be used as a basis for comparison as Paducah has improved a lot since playing here in December. Right now Tilghman is plenty tough for all comers, and Mayfield played them to a standstill for the greater part of the game last week. The Cardinals will be on the order of the Clinton team which panted the Bulldogs so completely last week—a fast, hard-driving team, perhaps hardly as good as Clinton, but still plenty tough. In all games played this season the Cardinals have showed a lot of last half drive and have won one or two games in fourth-quarter spurts. They are never beaten until the whistle ends the game, and the Bulldogs must use all their power and skill from the very beginning. Mayfield is not going to be any pushover, and the boys know this. Cayce proved unexpectedly easy, but this game tonight will not be a setup by any means. It will require all that the Bulldogs have, and even they may not have enough. Pharis and Gray, two football stars, are the sparkplugs of the Cardinal offense, and Kaler, Wyman, Stroup and Tucker make up the starting squad. Pharis is particularly fast and has scored in high figures all season. The Bulldogs have their work cut out for them, but they have enough to win if they will play team basketball at all times. The boys are quite anxious to win and thus make a clean sweep of football and basketball for this season.

There was a little wild shooting in the Cayce game, but for the greater part of the game the boys played pretty well together. The first half was cautious, but the second period opened with a burst of scoring on both sides and the Bulldogs showed they could play the slambang type of ball and score with it. A lot of scoring was done in the third period, but the Bulldogs outscored the Tigers by wide margin. Another encouraging feature of the game was the way the reserves carried on in the final quarter. Instead of playing a straight defensive game, the reserves went after points and racked up eight in the few minutes they played.

Unless a game is scheduled for next Tuesday or Wednesday night the Bulldogs will have an open date. Mayfield was due to play Tuesday night, but when the Bulldogs agreed to play in the charity game at Mayfield Monday night the Cardinals agreed to come here tonight. So it may be that there will be no other game on the home floor until Hickman comes here on Friday night, January 30.
