Trade Days Are Happy Days

The inauguration Saturday of a series of Trade Days in Fulton is a phenomenal bargain event. The lowest prices in sixteen years prevail on many articles needed at the approach of winter and it is your opportunity to buy now at a substantial saving.

Fulton stores fairly sparkle in radiant splendor with new fall and winter merchandise. You'll marvel at the beauty and quality of new goods as well as the low prices.

Practically every business in Fulton is co-operating in making the Trade Days a glorious success and a blessing to the thrifty who want to make every cent count for full value.

We have all felt the tinge of cold weather approaching and it will not be long before frost, ice and snow covers the earth. It is not necessary to say that a change of wearing apparel is necessary for pleasure and comfort, and may be save a doctor's bill. These Trade Days give all an opportunity to make preparations for the blasts to come and the best opportunity to buy.

In stocking their shelves Fulton merchants have taken every advantage to meet prevailing conditions, buying the best of merchandise at the lowest possible prices and now they are prepared to give you the benefit of the lowest prices in sixteen years. They have also arranged special inducements for you to trade in Fulton and a hearty welcome awaits you.

YOU CAN'T HELP YOURSELF OR OUR HOME TOWN BY HOARDING

The spirit of saving money is commendable. But sticking it away and denying yourself and your family the things you actually need is not a sensible way of saving.

Everything you eat or wear; everything you use about the house or premises; everything that provides comfort and makes life worth living is cheaper today than at any time since the World War. That means a dollar spent now is a dollar wisely invested because anything you buy now is bound to be higher in price a little later on.

It is poor judgment to hoard on a rock-bottom market. If you refuse to buy now it will mean having to pay more for the same thing later on. Not only that, but refusing to buy the things you need at this time will serve to retard industry and agriculture by slowing down factories still more and keeping their workers out of employment that much longer. And if they can't earn they can't buy.

The surest way to hurt your town and yourself is to hoard when it is absolutely necessary that you spend. Seeing how much longer you can do without something only means prolonging better times—and then paying more for it later on when you absolutely can't go without it any longer.

For the welfare of the country at large, for the welfare of your town and community—for your own welfare—we join in urging you to buy now the things you know you ought to buy. Spend now while prices make spending an investment and while spending means saving. Do your part by making your dollar do its part.

It is sensible to be thrifty—and spending while prices are lowest is a sensible way of saving!

The fatter some Fulton women get the greater the sinking feeling they experience when they step on the scales.

ONE WAY TO BOOST

There are more ways to help a community than by bragging about it, though admittedly that is always a good idea. One way, and we suggest it here for those Fulton citizens who have a little spare time on their hands now and then, is to drop in at the nearest public school for a little visit. The teacher and pupils will be glad to see you, and a few moment's stay will not interrupt them.

Taken by and large, our schools are our greatest assets. Then why should we not show our interest in them, and encouragement of them, by taking a little closer interest in their work? Today there is a school within reach of every American child, and 31,000,000 boys and girls are back at their books. That is approximately one-fourth of the population of the entire country. The nation backs this great organization, and encourages it both morally and financially. Then why can't we go a little farther, and display an individual and personal interest?

The old days of illiteracy in this country are gone forever. America now demands that Americans shall know how to read and write our language. And that insures the future of the country. Just how this is being met should prove of interest to you, whether you have any children in school or not. Drop in sometime and tell the teacher you merely desire to show your interest. You may be sure of a welcome from those who are coming in in a few years to take your place in the community, and to keep it a good place in which to live.

WORK OR CHARITY?

While there can be no question but that city residents have fared far worse than those in our smaller towns since the world went on its big "depression spree," those hardest hit still agree that they prefer work to charity. The average American prefers to earn his own bread. If the time arrives when he can't possibly do so, he will, of course, accept aid from those still fortunate enough to have work. There is no disgrace in this, and neither should there be any humiliation, for bad luck is apt to be anyone's portion.

But we believe if it were left to a vote of the people they would oppose the suggestion now being offered by some that the government pension the jobless, or put them on a "dole," as they say in England. They tried it over there and today Great Britain is on the verge of financial ruin. The trouble was there, as it would be here, that once some men got the "dole" they refused to return to work when they could get it. It's a bad thing to take away a man's independence, and that is what you do when you make him a public ward, or pensioner.

We have the Red Cross and Community Chests. Let the government give its aid through these. Where it will work out, let the taxpayers vote a small assessment to provide for the unemployed of their particular city, town or county. In that way the aid will end when the need of it no longer exists. But Fulton citizens are due to hear a lot of argument on the subject; in fact, there is a lot of it now. It is well to keep the fate of Great Britain's "dole" in mind.

More than 3,000,000 dangerous microbes are said to lurk in the average bill, but we can't hold onto one long enough to count more than ten.

Tragedy On Excursion Boat

B. I. NEWTON OF HICKMAN DIES OF GUN WOUNDS

A shooting on the fourth deck of an excursion steamer near Hickman Friday night, in which a prominent business man and constable was fatally wounded had developed into far more of a mystery than officials first believed it to be.

B. I. Newton, 44, who owned a group of gasoline stations and only recently was appointed constable, died in a hospital in Fulton Saturday, nearly 12 hours after a bullet from a large calibre pistol had entered his head just behind the right ear.

Sheriff Goadler Johnson, who was riding the boat at the time of the shooting, and one of the first at the scene of the shooting, found only the wife and 12-year-old daughter of the wounded man as witnesses. The other women who had been in the group just a moment before are believed to have left before the shooting.

Mrs. Newton told Sheriff Johnson as he came to the body of the man:

"Sheriff, he shot himself!"

The officer said he asked where the gun was, and she told him it was under the body. A thorough search, though, failed to reveal the weapon. The supposition that Newton could have thrown it off the boat into the water after the shooting of himself has been questioned by officials because Newton fell nearly 40 feet from the edge of the boat.

Dr. Charles Curlin, who examined the man in his hospital in Fulton, said he was unable to find any trace of powder burns. He also said he did not see how the man could have thrown the pistol so far after shooting himself.

A thorough search of the boat and the people aboard it by the sheriff and deputies failed to reveal any gun after the shooting.

After the shooting the boat's captain reversed his engines and drove the steamer at full speed back toward Hickman. The boat, the Jerry S., a large excursion steamer of the Streckfus line of St. Louis, had carried out a large party of excursionists and was about four miles below Hickman in the Mississippi at the time the shooting occurred.

There were apparently no eye-witnesses to the shooting, although several persons saw the couple a few minutes before Newton was wounded. Persons on the boat said that Newton did not have his gun when he went on board, although he usually carried a heavy pistol in a holster.

SCHOOL NOTES

Much interest is being shown in the coming election of the Carnival Queens which will end Halloween night. Most classes have selected their queens. Following is a list of those chosen to represent their class:

Thomas Lynn Horn, 3rd grade; Mary Browder Paschall, 4th grade; LaDolne McClain, 5th grade; Oneida Allen, 6th grade; Laura Mai Allen, 7th grade; Almada Brown, 8th grade; Mary Lucille Taylor, 9th grade; Louise Day, 11th grade.

The South Fulton P. T. A. held a "Parents' Night" meeting on Thursday, September 24. Early in the evening a reception was held in the Home Economics room to present the new teachers. The register was presided over by Jettie Omar. Refreshments were served by Margaret Valentine. The guests were ushered upstairs to the assembly hall by Mantell Adams and Tommie Nell Gates, where the following "Parents' Day" program was presented:

Duet—Maxine and Juanita McGee.

Song—Class.

Reading—"Fathers," Charles Reams.

Piano Duet—Bonnie Ruth Ross and Louise Adams.

Vocal Duet—Dorothy Morris and Lucille Klapp.

Recitation—"Especially for You," Four second grade children.

Reading—"Nobody Knows but Mother," by Elizabeth Valentine.

Playlet—"All in the Lantern's Glow," by Fourth, Fifth and Sixth grade children.

Reading—"Mother's Visiting," Margaret Stephens.

Closing Song—"Come Again

Brieflets

Some Fulton people's idea of a high-standard of living is a can-opener, a movie show and a full tank of gasoline.

Gandhi won in India because there is no hope of bribing a man who feels dressed up when he hasn't anything on but a nightshirt.

If the gasoline tax will build highways, then why not a tax on shoes to build sidewalks.

Does anyone know what ever became of the old-fashioned Fulton boy who would ask a girl for a kiss instead of just taking it?

The proper definition of a "lame duck," strange as it may seem, is a congressman whose goose is cooked.

It is all right to preserve wild life in the forests, but what to do with it in the cities is a serious problem.

The good old days in Fulton were those when the bloom of youth wasn't nipped in the bud by washing the face.

Noting that cholera killed 1,500,000 pigs in this country last year has started us wondering if there isn't some way of giving cholera to road hogs.

It is a well known fact that there is enough money loafing in America to put every idle man to work.

Correct us if we're wrong, but it's our belief that the only ones around Fulton who don't want more money are those in our cemeteries.

Still another trouble with life is that you can't pay the piper on the installment plan.

In some cases, a belle in the choir takes more young men to church than a bell in the steeple.

After all, the average Fulton man would rather have his wife mend his socks than his ways.

An exchange tells of a farmer who, during the Nebraska grasshopper invasion, turned his turkeys out to destroy them but the grasshoppers ate all the feathers off of the turkeys.

JUDGE RUBY LAFOON
of Madisonville
DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE FOR GOVERNOR OF KENTUCKY

Chilled
Fruit
Soups

OUR grandfathers used to say, "There's nothing new under the sun," and believed it. But in this modern generation, we have discovered that there are a great many new things under the sun. Even in our cooking, we are constantly inventing new dishes such as our ancestors never dreamed of. And many of them are improvements over most of the things our ancestors ate. What could be better, for example, than a chilled fruit soup on a sultry evening? Here are a few recipes:

For Hot Days

Iced Mint Fruit Soup: Smooth one teaspoon arrowroot to a paste with a part of two cups cold water, then add to one-half of a No. 2 can crushed pineapple together with remainder of the cold water, and one-half alone mint jelly. Cook until slightly thickened, stirring to prevent lumping. Serve very cold, garnished with a sprig of fresh mint. This serves six.

Red Cherry Soup: Mix two teaspoons of cornstarch with two tablespoons cold water, add to it juice from a quart can sour pitted cherries, one cup cold water, two tablespoons sugar and one tablespoon lemon juice. Cook until thickened, stirring to prevent lumping. Chill. Serve very cold, with a few cherries garnishing each cup. This serves six.

Spiced Apple Soup: Cook together gently contents of a No. 2 can apple sauce, two and one-half cups water, one tablespoon brown sugar, ten whole cloves, one stick cinnamon, one-half lemon sliced, eight seedless raisins, until the raisins are tender. Chill. Serve with a slice of the lemon and a raisin garnishing each cup. This serves eight.

Fruit in Breads

WHEN Marie Antoinette was told that the people had no bread she is said to have answered: "Why don't they eat cake?" Had this flippant Queen lived in a later epoch, she might very well have recommended a fruit bread to the hungry peasants. For certainly there is no more nourishing or appetizing form of the staff of life than tasty fruit muffins or biscuits. Here are some excellent recipes.

Blueberry Biscuits: Sift together two cups flour, four teaspoons baking powder, one teaspoon salt and two tablespoons sugar. Cut in four tablespoons shortening, or work in with finger tips. Add seven-eighths cup diluted evaporated milk to make a dough soft enough to drop. Add two-thirds cup well drained canned blueberries quickly and carefully and drop by spoonfuls on a buttered baking sheet or in muffin tins. Bake in a hot oven (450 degrees) for twelve to fifteen minutes.

Try This for Breakfast

Apple and Date Muffins: Beat two eggs and add one cup milk. Sift together two cups flour, three tablespoons sugar, four teaspoons baking powder, and one-half teaspoon salt, and add to first mixture. Add one-half cup canned apple sauce and three tablespoons melted butter. Add one-half cup chopped dates, and pour into buttered muffin tins. Bake about fifteen to twenty minutes in a hot oven (400 degrees). This makes eight to ten muffins.*

ROBBER FINDS HIS GIRL WAITING FOR HIM WHEN LET OUT

Romance Is Revealed When the Criminal Is Married After Serving Sentence.

Kansas City, Kan.—Through six of the fourteen years he spent behind the walls of Kansas State penitentiary for train robbery William (Bill) LaTrasse was haunted with hope because a girl had promised to marry him upon his release.

The romance came to light when LaTrasse, forty-seven, and Hazel Henderson, thirty-one, obtained a marriage license here recently.

It was in December, 1910, that LaTrasse, then twenty-six years old, staged a spectacular holdup of a Missouri Pacific passenger train near here.

Prior to that time Bill had been just an ordinary holdup man. He had served two terms in penal institutions but for several years LaTrasse had gone straight.

It was on Christmas eve, 1910, that Bill jumped into the headlines of newspapers as a train robber of extraordinary daring.

Daring Train Robbery.

LaTrasse, single-handed, held up the train, and the police were soon on his trail.

A medium-sized man, the passengers told the authorities, carrying a big gun and wearing a blue bandana handkerchief across his face, climbed over the brass railing and boarded the train as it pulled out of Leavenworth. From his pocket he took a flask, swallowed a big drink, threw the bottle to the roadbed and entered the car.

"Stick 'em up," came LaTrasse's gruff command, enforced with the pistol.

The passengers cowered with one exception. Capt. L. I. Newbold, of the United States army, resisted and started to draw his gun, when LaTrasse sent a bullet flying through his hat so that it scraped the captain's head.

LaTrasse was captured in Chicago and brought here for trial. He was sentenced to ten to twenty-one years. He escaped twenty-seven months later, only to be recaptured. He later broke a parole and was returned to the prison, where he remained until recently.

Mother's Savings Lost.

His mother had saved $1,000 from her work as a scrub woman and laundress, with which to start her son in business. LaTrasse had been an expert shoe repairman in the penitentiary and while they looked for a site, a bank went bankrupt, leaving them without funds.

Friends subscribed enough money to purchase the shop. It was while LaTrasse was enjoying a parole that he met his wife. They became engaged, and she said she would wait until he had finished his term.

"Long stretches in prison," Bill says, smiling as he talks, "will break the ordinary man's spirit. It would have broken mine, but I knew Hazel was waiting for me. Hazel and mother. That's how I stood it."

They all plan to live with Bill's mother.

"I couldn't leave mother," he explained, "after all she has done for me."

Mystery Snake Kills
Many in Chinese Lake

Peking, China.—Much excitement has been caused among Chinese residents in Tientsin by the mysterious deaths recently of several men near a small lake in the outskirts, whose bones seemed to have been crushed by an enormous pressure.

Excitement has increased by the report of a group of foreign children playing by the lake who fled in terror, declaring they had seen a huge snake come from the lake and fasten itself around a Chinese couple sleeping on the shore.

The children were so terrified they did not stay to see what happened. At least three men have been found dead through crushing near the lake recently police declare one boy said the snake was about 12 feet long and as thick as a man's thigh.

Chinese police have fenced in the lake and warned people not to bathe in it, as they have been accustomed.

How a snake of this size got into the lake, if it is there, is a mystery. No such snakes are indigenous to north China and the police have no report of a snake escaping from a traveling circus.

The Chinese workman who was attacked by the snake, according to the children's story, has made no report on the matter and seems to have disappeared. Chinese police believe he may be a fourth victim.

Robbed of His Coat,
He Turns Other Cheek

New Britain, Conn.—One who believes in turning "the other cheek" inserted this ad in New Britain newspapers: "If the person who took a coat from my car parked outside the library, yesterday, will communicate with Box—, I will forward the pants and vest, which are no further use to me without the coat."

Angler Catches Dog

Jameson, Kan.—An unusual catch was made by Maynard Reid, fisherman, here recently. When he went to get his fishing pole he found a dog on the line. It had swallowed the bait and had to be shot.

Fruit Insurance

YOU can refuse to see the man who calls unheralded and unsung and offers you a peerless accident and health policy, but your doctor will tell you that there is one kind of insurance it is neither wise nor prudent to ignore at any season of the year. That is the insurance of contented good health that comes from a proper proportion of fruit in the diet. Fortunately, many fresh fruits are available at this season, and there is also one fruit that combines excellently not only with other fruits in cocktails and salads, but with meats and sauces in hot dishes, and that is available at any season. This fruit is the luscious pineapple which is picked and clipped into a can at the very moment of its prime-ripeness in the many fields of Hawaii and reaches you in the same peerless (we knew we'd use that word again) condition.

An Infinite Variety

It offers you an infinite variety of ways to vary your menu at little expense during the hot summer months when appetites are lagging and finicky, and here are some of the very latest of them:

Carrot Salad: Prepare a package of lemon flavored gelatin according to directions but use pineapple syrup from the can for part of the liquid. When the gelatin begins to set, add one and one-half cups grated, raw carrots, one medium-sized can of crushed pineapple and one-fourth cup minced green pepper. In the bottom of each individual mold place a slice of sweet tomato pickle. Pour the gelatin in the molds and place in cold place. Unmold and serve with boiled dressing and minced green pepper and parsley.

Sardine Canapés: Slice bread one-fourth inch thick and cut in rounds the size of a slice of pineapple. Toast the bread and butter it lightly. Dip slices of pineapple in flour and fry to a golden brown. Place on the toast. Spread with a mixture made by adding four chopped sour pickles and mayonnaise to two cans of boned and mashed sardines. Top with mayonnaise.

Dainty Desserts

Pineapple Betty: Mix one and one-half cups drained crushed Hawaiian pineapple, one cup soft bread crumbs, three tablespoons brown sugar and one-fourth teaspoon cinnamon. Put in a greased baking dish and over it pour one-half cup of the syrup drained from the pineapple. Dot the top with pieces of butter, using one tablespoon in all. Bake in a moderate oven until brown, and serve hot or cold with a pudding sauce or whipped cream.

Pineapple Ice Cream: Dissolve five cups sugar in one quart of milk, add one quart of cream, juice of two lemons and three oranges, and one can of crushed pineapple. Freeze slowly, and, when of mushy consistency, add five egg whites beaten until stiff. Freeze until firm.

Pineapple Sundae Sauce: Mix one cup each of crushed pineapple, sugar and water. Boil fifteen minutes, chill and serve on ice cream. This sauce is also good on cake or puddings.

A Salad and Soufflé

Frozen Fruit Salad: Peel and dice four oranges and pour over four sliced bananas and the juice of one lemon. Add contents of a can of white cherries and a can of pineapple. Sweeten to taste and fold in one cup mayonnaise and one cup whipped cream. Freeze in molds for four hours. Unpack, slice and serve on lettuce.

Pineapple Soufflé: Soak one and one-half tablespoons gelatin in cold water. Add the grated rind and juice of one lemon, one-half cup sugar and one-eighth teaspoon salt to three beaten egg yolks. Cook in double boiler until mixture thickens, stirring constantly. Remove from the heat, add gelatin and stir until dissolved. Add two-thirds cup of crushed pineapple and set in a cold place until mixture begins to stiffen. Fold in one-half cup cream, whipped, and three stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into a mold, and set in a cold place until firm.*

Lesson for October 4

THE MACEDONIAN CALL

GOLDEN TEXT—Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost.

LESSON TEXT—Acts 15:36-16:16; Romans 15:18-21.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul Takes the Gospel to Other Lands.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul Takes the Gospel to Europe.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—How Christianity Came to Europe.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—What Took Paul to Europe.

I. Finding an Assistant for Paul (Acts 15:36-41).

1. Contention over John Mark (vv. 36-41).

a. Paul's proposal (v. 36). This was to revisit the scenes of their missionary endeavor to find out what progress the believers were making in their Christian life.

b. Determination of Barnabas (v. 37). This was to take with them John Mark. Mark was Barnabas' nephew (Col. 4:10).

c. Paul's opposition (v. 38). He was suspicious of Mark because of his desertion on the first journey (Acts 13:13).

d. Their separation (vv. 39-41). Their contention was so sharp that they separated. Paul's leadership under God in the evangelization of the world presumably entitles him to a clearer understanding of Mark. Mark should have another chance, but Paul's very sternness brought him to his senses. God overruled this incident to the wider extension of the work. Barnabas took Mark and sailed to Cyprus. Paul chose Silas.

2. Finding Timothy (16:1-5).

a. The place (v. 1). It was the very place where Paul on his first journey had endured cruel stoning. The conversion of this young man may be regarded as fruitage of his testimony at that time.

b. His parentage (v. 1). His mother was a believing Jewess and his father a Greek.

c. His character (v. 2). He had a good reputation in the church at Lystra and Iconium.

d. His circumcision (v. 3). Timothy had not been circumcised, doubtless because his father was a Gentile. In order to avoid offense among the Jews, Paul circumcised him.

e. The ministry of Paul and Timothy through the cities (vv. 4, 5). They went through the cities and delivered the decrees which had been ordained at the Jerusalem council (Acts 15:19-24).

II. Forbidden to Preach the Word in Asia (16:6-8).

The inclination of Paul was to tarry in Asia Minor preaching the word, but contrary to this inclination they were hurried along. We have here a fine example of divine guidance. The Holy Spirit is just as active and faithful in closing as in opening doors.

III. The Call to Macedonia (vv. 9-12).

The time had now come for the gospel to begin its conquest of another continent. The crossing of the gospel from Asia to Europe determined the entire history of the Church.

1. The vision (v. 9). Being hemmed in on all sides, a vision was given to Paul of a man of Macedonia pleading for help. This made clear to him the meaning of the closed doors.

2. The advance (vv. 10-12). As soon as the divine way was known, they moved forward. Visions must be quickly translated into aggressive action, or they are blotted from our skies.

IV. The First Convert in Europe (vv. 13-15).

The devout people were accustomed to worship at the riverside. To a humble gathering of this kind Paul came and preached. Lydia, a business woman from Thyatira, believed his message and was baptized. The steps in her conversion are worthy of note for they are typical.

1. Attendance at the place of worship (v. 13).

2. Listened to the preaching of the word of God (vv. 13, 14). The instrument used in the conversion of sinners is the word of God (Romans 10:17).

3. Her heart was opened by the Lord (v. 14).

4. She was baptized (v. 15). Everyone whose heart the Lord opens desires to confess him in baptism.

5. Her household believed (v. 15), and immediately proffered hospitality to those who had brought blessing to them.

V. Preaching the Gospel Where Christ Was Not Named (Rom. 15:18-21). This was Paul's missionary program. As the apostle to the Gentiles, his work was to be on an independent basis.

Upon Your Knees

FRUIT COCKTAILS FINE

THE modern hostess has discovered that there is no more tempting way of beginning a luncheon or dinner than by serving a cool delicious fruit cocktail. But she does not confine cocktails to these hours, by any means. Frequently she serves them to guests for tea, or at an evening party, arranging the colorful fruit in crystal clear glasses, which she places on a dainty tray, spread with gay linen.

The variety of fruits at the disposal of the housewife today is so great that there is no danger of monotony. She might easily serve a different cocktail every day. Canned fruits come to her from the ends of the earth, and new combinations and new flavors are constantly being introduced.

A Real Treat

If you have not formed the fruit cocktail habit, you have a treat in store for you. You will find the fresh tart fruit juices a real appetizer for the hot days of late summer. Here are a number of recent recipes including many favorite fruits.

Blueberry Cocktail: Combine contents of a No. 2 can blueberries and three tablespoons lemon juice, arrange in glasses and chill. Just before serving, slice two bananas, and place a circle of banana rings upright around edge of glasses. Serve immediately. This serves eight.

Pear Cocktail: Cube and divide into six cocktail glasses contents of a No. 2 can of pears, and pour over them the pear syrup. Add one tablespoon grenadine syrup to each glass, and chill well. This serves six and costs about thirty-seven cents.

Orange and Tomato Juice Cocktail: Strain a No. 2 can of tomatoes, not pressing the pulp or the juice will be cloudy. Add the juice of two oranges, two teaspoons sugar and a few grains of salt, and serve, ice cold, in small glasses. Cost twenty-one cents. This serves six.

Waikiki Cocktail: Arrange two eight-ounce cans of figs, cut in suitable pieces and two eight-ounce cans of grapes in cocktail glasses. To the fig and grape syrup add the juice of two lemons and the juice of one orange, and pour over the fruit. Garnish on top with tiny cubes of guava and mint jelly. This serves eight.

More Cocktails

Ginger Cocktail: Drain and dice a No. 1 can apricots and arrange in glasses with one cup diced sliced pineapple. Place peeled sections of three oranges, petal fashion, around edges of glasses.

Decorate tops with three tablespoons of raspberries, strawberries or maraschino cherries. Sprinkle candied ginger over, and add one teaspoonful ginger syrup to each glass. Just before serving, pour over one-half cup ginger ale. This serves eight.

Macedoine Fruit Cocktail: Drain the syrup from a No. 2½ can of fruits for salad. To it add four tablespoons sugar and one tablespoon preserved ginger syrup, and cook to a thick syrup. Cool. Cut fruit in small pieces, add the syrup and dispose in serving glasses. Just before serving, pour over some iced ginger ale, and decorate with bits of angelica. This serves six to eight.

Cherry and Almond Cocktail: Empty a No. 2 can Royal Ann cherries into a sauce pan, color a rich red, and simmer three minutes. Add one-fourth cup confectioner's sugar, one-fourth cup lemon juice and one-fourth cup maraschino-cherry juice, and let cool. Then cut almonds in each cherry and remove pits. Cut one cup almonds in half lengthwise and insert a piece in each cavity. Place cherries carefully in cocktail glasses with the nut ends protruding upward like acorns. Pour over the syrup, and chill in ice box. This serves eight to ten.

Help our Merchants to help YOU

EVERYBODY will agree that a man succeeds and prospers only when he spends LESS money than he receives in a given period of time.

Let's apply this great economic test to the situation in this town: Our business men have invested—and continue to invest—their money in stocks of goods brought here to your very door to meet your daily needs.

Through the pages of this paper they advise you of their ability to serve this community. All of us know that they deserve our patronage. And remember, the more you trade with them the more funds they can invest in larger stocks and new lines.

Fine Fruit Candies

Is there anyone anywhere who doesn't prick up his ears at the words homemade candies, especially when they are made from pure sweet fruit? Children love them, because they are so good, mothers approve of them because they are wholesome. As for fathers—they like them because it is the best candy they've tasted since the old maple sugar days down on the farm.

Peach Jelly Cubes: Press an eight-ounce can of peaches through a sieve, making a puree. Add one-half cup peach syrup (made according to directions on bottle), one-half cup sugar, one-half cup corn syrup, and one tablespoon lemon juice. Roll until thermometer registers 222 degrees. Pour into greased pans so that mixture is about one-half inch thick, and let cool. Let stand over night in a cold place. Cut in cubes and roll in powdered sugar. May also be dipped in chocolate or in melted fondant.

This Is Divine

Pineapple Divinity: Cook one-half cup shredded pineapple and three tablespoons sugar to a thick jam, 225 degrees. Mix two cups sugar, one-half cup water, and one-eighth teaspoon cream of tartar, and boil to 260 degrees. Just before this temperature is attained, add the pineapple jam, continuing the boiling to the 260-degree point. Beat one egg-white stiff, then add hot syrup very slowly, stirring constantly, and heating till stiff and will hold its shape. Add one-fourth cup chopped maraschino cherries, and pour into buttered pans.

Fruits for Thirst

A SHADY garden, a pitcher of ice cold raspberry shrub, a book—doesn't it sound like an oasis in a desert? Even ninety-nine in the shade seems cool, when one has a refreshing fruit beverage to quench one's thirst.

If you wish to give a very festive air to your glasses, rub the rims a little way down with a bit of lemon and then dip them into dry granulated sugar, when you try some of these recipes.

Cooling Drinks

Four Fruit Fizz: Have ingredients ice cold. Mix together juice from a No. 3 can fresh prunes, one cup pineapple syrup, one cup orange juice, one-fourth cup lemon juice, two bottles charged water, Serve over cracked ice. This makes sixteen punch glasses.

Pineapple Milk Shake: Shake together in a glass jar or shaker one-half cup chocolate syrup, one cup evaporated milk or fresh cream, one cup pineapple syrup, one cup water. Serve with cracked ice. This makes four large glasses.

Pineapple Mint Julep: Boil four tablespoons mint jelly, four cups water, and four tablespoons sugar until jelly is all melted. Cool. Add two cups pineapple syrup and juice of four lemons. Serve cold with a sprig of fresh mint in each glass. Instead of ice, use ginger ale flavored with mint syrup from green cherries and then frozen in cubes. Makes six tall or twelve punch glasses.

WAILS OF CHILD WIN COMPASSION OF TWO ROBBERS

Men Who Beat Two Women
Show Pity When Infant
Begins to Cry.

Drummondville, Quebec.—The cry of a helpless baby stirred a spark of pity in the hearts of two gunmen, after they had brutally beaten and robbed two defenseless women in their home here.

In the midst of ransacking the home of Lester Leach, one of the two paused to carry the baby from the ground floor to an upper bedroom, where its mother lay bound and gagged, and to place it on the bed beside her.

Mrs. Leach, by presence of mind, concealed a valuable diamond ring from the thieves. After their departure she sought to escape by climbing from the bedroom window, but fell 20 feet and was severely injured.

Posed as Salesmen.

The bandits—young and well-dressed—gained entry to the house by posing as salesmen, then drew revolvers and ordered Mrs. Leach and her maid upstairs, where they tore up bed sheets with which to bind them.

Suddenly realizing that her valuable ring lay on the dressing table, Mrs. Leach seated herself on a chair in front of it, and feigned to collapse over the table in an outburst of tears, succeeding in concealing the ring down the front of her dress.

"One of the two bound me, while the other tied my maid, knocking her about roughly as he did so," Mrs. Leach told police. "My tongue is still swollen and sore from the tight gag they tied in my mouth."

"After the men went downstairs I heard my baby crying, and tried to escape. I got one arm free, but just as I was about to run, the men returned. He beat me with his fist and then tied me again, more firmly than ever."

Police Start Search.

The other bandit finally brought the baby upstairs, after which they locked the two women in the bedroom. Mrs. Leach finally freed herself from her bonds and, unable to open the door, tied the same cloths with which she had been bound into an improvised rope, down which she attempted to climb from the window. It broke, however, precipitating her to the ground.

As soon as she regained consciousness Mrs. Leach dragged herself laboriously to the home of a neighbor, who summoned the police and aided in releasing the maid from the locked room.

Policeman's Bullet Ends Career of Dirtiest Dog

Pittsburgh.—A policeman's bullet has killed "The Mop" after six years of harried existence since the order was issued against him to "shoot to kill on sight."

"The Mop" is one of those derelicts whose ancestry is never questioned. He could spot a police uniform four blocks away and disappear in a flash. He drifted into West Homestead seven years ago and made friends with the children. But successive weeks increased his untidy appearance and even the youngsters frowned when he sidled up to them.

Then the police laid for him and "Mop" led a dog's life. After six years a cop on a motorcycle surprised him and a bullet through the head ended the career of "the dirtiest dog in the Monongahela valley," once a prized French poodle.

Life Saver's Heroism Was Utterly Wasted

Port Townsend, Wash.—While taking a stroll along a pier, J. H. Worthington heard a strangled cry coming from the water. It was nearly dark and he could see a head bobbing on the waves. Removing his shoes and coat, Worthington dived off the pier and started swimming toward the bobbing head, which was uttering hoarse strangled noises. But each time Worthington came near the supposedly drowning person he dived under and swam out of reach. Finally the would-be rescuer was pulled out of the water in an exhausted condition and told he had been trying to save a seal.

Sweden Grazes Bees to Increase Output

Halmstad, Sweden.—Grazing the bees in the blooming heather to make up for the failure of the clover to blossom earlier in the summer is the novel device resorted to this year by farmers on the west coast. The wet and cold spring stunted the clover, but now the heather blooms profusely and at night the bees are transported in their hives to the ridges where it abounds.

Rubber Blinds Eye of Kindergarten Student

Memphis.—Edward Toombs, five-year-old kindergarten student, has lost the sight of one eye because he was playing with a rubber band.

The youth was "shooting" flies with the band when it slipped, snapped back and struck his eye. The force of the blow split the eyeball.

Glorify Your Cereals

IF Florence Ziegfeld has been able to "glorify the American girl" in his latest Follies, it is no folly to believe that you can do something of the sort for your breakfast cereals.

It is merely a matter of getting the best combination, and that is what this producer has done both as to taste and to looks.

Breakfast cereals are mighty good just with sugar and cream, but most people have a way of selecting only one or two of them, and their constant recurrence in the same form finally becomes monotonous.

Why not combine them with fruit? You should always eat fruit for breakfast. And there is one fruit available the whole year round where acid content turns alkaline in the body, which is just what you want it to do, if you are wise. That fruit is Hawaiian pineapple, and it has the additional merit that it is less expensive than most fruits. For an amount equal in volume to, say, an orange, it costs only two cents per person to serve. A No. 2 can containing eight slices can be bought for fifteen or sixteen cents nowadays, and there is more substance in one of these slices than in the average orange. So here are some recipes for combining Hawaiian pineapple with cereals at your morning meals.

Wheat, Rice and Corn

Fruit Wheatena: Have four cups of water, to which one-half teaspoon salt has been added, boiling rapidly. Add three-fourths cup wheatena slowly, and cook two or three minutes, or until thick. Add the drained contents of an 8-ounce can of crushed pineapple, cook a few minutes longer, and serve hot with cream and sugar. Serves eight.

Rice and Pineapple Mush: Bring three cups of water and the contents of an 8-ounce can of crushed pineapple to boiling, add one teaspoon salt, and slowly drop in one cup rice. Cook about three minutes over the flame, place over boiling water and steam until tender, from about forty-five minutes to an hour. Serve hot with cream and sugar. This serves eight.

Cornmeal and Pineapple Slices: Bring to boiling four cups of water to which one teaspoon salt has been added, add one cup cornmeal slowly, and cook a few minutes, until thick. Place over boiling water, and cook ten minutes. Add the drained contents of an 8-ounce can of crushed Hawaiian pineapple, cook five minutes longer, and then pack into a buttered mold, loaf shape or round (a baking powder can makes a good receptacle for this) and let chill overnight. In the morning slice and mold and pantry in hot fat. Serve with butter and maple syrup. This will serve eight people liberally.

With Other Fruits

You needn't limit your breakfast fruit to pineapple, however, for it combines most pleasantly with other popular fruits. Here, for instance, is a recipe for pineapple and orange juice which has been named

Sunrise Pineapple: Chill the contents of a No. 2½ can of sliced Hawaiian pineapple and one and one-half cups orange juice separately overnight. In the morning drain the pineapple, place the slices in serving dishes, and pour over orange juice. Decorate with a sprig of mint, or a nasturtium leaf and tidbits can be used equally well in this combination. Save the syrup for use in sauces or fruit drinks. The amounts given in this recipe will serve eight.

Compote of Prunes and Pineapple: Soak one cup of prunes in one cup of water for several hours or overnight. Add the syrup from a No. 2 can of pineapple and one-half a lemon, sliced, and simmer gently until tender. Add two tablespoons sugar, and cook five minutes longer. Cook. At breakfast serve two or three prunes and a little of the juice over each slice of pineapple, having all very cold. This, too, serves eight.

A Different Toast

And here is a toast with a new tang that makes it different from the ordinary breakfast toast.

Hawaiian French Toast: Beat two eggs slightly, and add one-fourth teaspoon salt and three-fourths cup milk. Dip eight slices of bread in this, and pan-fry a golden brown on both sides in hot fat. Remove to a hot platter. Pan-fry in the same skillet the slices from a No. 2 or 2½ can of Hawaiian pineapple, and lay one on top of each piece of French toast. Top with curls of bacon. If desired, a little of the pineapple syrup may be heated in the skillet and served with the toast. This serves eight.

What the Railroads Are Doing

The railway situation has been receiving much public attention through the hearings of the application for an advance in freight rates, and the urgent necessity of the rate increase has been fully presented.

At the same time the public may have received the impression that this is the only thing the railroads are doing to improve their situation. That is not the fact.

Where it has been possible to effect a net gain in revenues by reducing rates, such rates have been reduced. Unprofitable operations have been eliminated. Drastic economies have been instituted. Schedules have been speeded up, and other improvements in service have been made. Increased attention has been devoted to selling railway service and to making it even more courteous and dependable.

The public deserves to know that while the rate case has been pending the railroads have not been idle in these other directions. What they have been doing strengthens their plea for increased rates.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

Boy, 6, in Prison for 25-Cent Theft

Hermosillo, Sonora.—A six-year-old boy is serving a two-year sentence in the Sonora State penitentiary for theft of 25 cents' worth of army ammunition.

The boy, Manuel Hoyos, was accused of stealing seven cartridges from the army barracks. He said he sold the bullets for 25 cents to buy candy.

Judge Silva, of Hermosillo District court, sentenced the child.

The judge then appointed Attorney Emilio Afoa Abonia to arrange for an appeal.

MARSHAL IS SLAIN BY IRATE FATHER

Persistent Attention to Daughter's Man's Motive.

Marion, Ark.—The middle-aged town marshal of Turrel, little farming community near here, was shot to death by an enraged father, who objected to the attentions the marshal was paying to his pretty seventeen-year-old daughter.

The father, Nathan Baer, who operates a general merchandise store at Turrel, was held in jail here after his surrender.

Neighbors said that Baer had warned the marshal, Barney Friedbert, forty-five years old, to cease his attentions and love making to his daughter, Annie Baer.

The shooting followed a surprise visit to the Baer home, where the enraged father found Annie and Friedbert talking together on a divan in the house.

Baer hid himself and peeping from behind the door shot at Friedbert. Friedbert died almost instantly from his wounds.

The neighbors told officers here that Baer and Friedbert had quarreled about Friedbert's relations with the daughter, Annie, but that Friedbert had never ceased to pay his respects to her.

Their love affair was carried on clandestinely after the quarrel between the two, the neighbors said.

Just Can't Stay Away From Police Station

Los Angeles.—Most folks can't keep far enough away from the police station, but on the other hand there is Mrs. Hazel Johnson, forty-four.

Police Officers H. C. Lomax and R. S. Woodby told Municipal Judge Bridge they didn't want to arrest her, but finally, in self-defense, they had to do something to keep her away so they could do their work.

The officers testified Mrs. Johnson dropped into Newton police station, stayed so long, talked so continuously, bothered them so much, and created so many complications that they took her to the judge in order to get her out of the police station.

The last straw was the night Mrs. Johnson called on the cops in what they said was not exactly a sober state and refused to depart under any circumstances. She seemed satisfied to be arrested, to stay around where the uniforms were.

Mrs. Johnson told the judge it was true she had been drinking, and on Judge Bridge's suspension of a $50 fine if she would agree not to crowd in on the cops any more the officers gladly tipped their caps and saw her depart.

"Gold" in Bottom of Well Turns Out to Be Snakes

Reno, Nev.—All that glitters is not gold. P. E. Morrison, interior decorator from Philadelphia, admitted after abandoning all illusions about prospecting, especially in old wells. A metallic gleam at the bottom of a dry shaft on the Birks ranch west of here lured Morrison to investigate. But when he had lowered himself with a rope to within four feet of the bottom a chorus of hisses and buzzes informed him he was intruding on a rattlesnake residence. His shouts for help brought rescuers, including the fire department.

Iowa Professors Perfect Piano Camera Device

Iowa City, Iowa.—After several years of painstaking research, Joseph H. Tiffin of the University of Iowa department of speech, and Dean Carl E. Seashore, head of the psychology department, have perfected a piano camera. Every touch of a musician's fingers is recorded by the camera, including a record of the duration, time or incidence and time of reading, and a relative measure of the intensity of each note struck during the playing of a selection.

300-Year-Old Mine May Soon Be Reopened

Sjungevik, Sweden.—The three hundred-year-old copper mine at Sjungevik, in northernmost Lapland, may soon be reopened. Located close to the Norwegian border and far from the nearest railroad or highway, the mine has been hitherto inaccessible for economic exploitation. Now the mining company has applied for government permission to gain access to the mine through Abisko national park.

CHILDREN CRY FOR IT—

CHILDREN hate to take medicine as a rule, but every child loves the taste of Castoria. And this pure vegetable preparation is just as good as it tastes; just as bland and just as harmless as the recipe reads.

When Baby's cry warns of colic, a few drops of Castoria has him soothed, asleep again in a jiffy. Nothing is more valuable in diarrhea. When coated tongue or bad breath tell of constipation, invoke its gentle aid to cleanse and regulate a child's bowels. In colds or children's diseases, you should use it to keep the system from clogging.

Castoria is sold in every drugstore; the genuine always bears Chas. H. Fletcher's signature.

Better Breakfasts

MANY schools serve their pupils milk or chocolate in the middle of the morning. They do it, because the average child, regardless of family circumstances, does not have a nourishing breakfast at home. That ought to make mothers stop and think. The truth is that every child, and every adult as well, ought to have a good substantial breakfast before he leaves the house. Here is a better breakfast that will make breakfast planning easy.

Grapefruit and Apricot Compote
Hot or Cold Breakfast Cereal
Bacon with Fried Bananas
Poached Eggs
Hot Beverage

This breakfast contains plenty of fruit, as it should to be dietetically correct and start the day right, and it is quite simple to prepare. But perhaps you don't know how to make the compote, so here's the recipe.

Chill one No. 2 can of grapefruit and one 8-ounce can of apricots separately in the ice box over night. In the morning combine them, and serve in glass fruit dishes. You may add a sprig of fresh mint, for an additional touch, and fresh grapefruit may be used in place of the canned, but in that case you must add sugar to taste. This recipe will serve six people.

Good Coffee

Coffee is the almost universal American breakfast beverage. Good coffee means coffee that has retained all of its flavor and aroma, and that means any of the brands of coffee that come in "vacuum packed" cans.

"Wild Man" Chases Youth From Field

Potsdam, N. Y.—Reports of a "wild man" seen in various sections near Potsdam are current. The latest report was received by Mrs. Boudeau, who told police her boy had been chased from a potato field by the man, who threatened to shoot him. Recently, it was said, two women were frightened from a berry patch in the same vicinity.

UNWRITTEN LAW IS INVOKED; GETS LIFE

Wife Chief Witness Against Planter's Slayer.

Walhalla, S. C.—The unwritten law has failed James Dodgins, slayer of Fred Brown, his employer and rich Oconee county planter.

Dodgins, found guilty to the murder of Brown, was sentenced to life imprisonment. His request that he be permitted to serve his sentence on the chain gang in his home county was granted.

The jury deliberated fifteen hours. Dodgins testified that he slew Brown because the latter had wrecked Dodgins' home. For months, Dodgins claimed, Brown and Mrs. Dodgins had been guilty of misconduct.

He had suspected them, he testified at his trial, but had been unable to prove to his complete satisfaction that Brown was guilty of illicit relationship with Mrs. Dodgins.

One day last March, Dodgins said, he came home and found his suspicions founded on fact. He secured a shotgun and fired three times at Brown, who fell dying. Then Dodgins locked his knife from his pocket and slashed Brown's throat.

Mrs. Dodgins, however, proved a star witness for the state at her husband's trial. She testified that Brown and his wife had been close friends of hers, that they had befriended her often when Dodgins was brutal to her.

They had accompanied her to a magistrate only the day before Brown was slain, she said, to obtain a warrant placing her husband under a peace bond because he had beaten her several times.

Before the warrant could be served Dodgins killed Brown.

Fisherman Spears Own Son After Perfect Aim

Shanghai.—Chang Ah-tsu, a fisherman, forty-one years old, who lives within three miles of Shanghai's international settlement, speared and killed his only son, thinking the boy was a fish.

After a hard day's labor spearing fish near his mud hut Chang was dozing at dusk on the bank of the canal when his wife shook him excitedly, pointed to a splashing in the water nearby, and declared it must be a large fish.

Chang jumped to his feet and threw his spear with perfect aim, only to find when he pulled it in that he had pierced the body of his five-year-old son just below the heart.

Eagle Trying to Carry Away Dog Shot by Farmer

Tarentum, Pa.—A golden eagle was shot and killed by a farmer near here after a futile effort to carry away a large shepherd dog.

The eagle, a rare bird, dropped the dog after rising a few feet from the ground, circled the farm and swooped down after a chicken. The farmer shot the bird with the chicken in its claws.

The eagle, protected in this state, was turned over to Ralph A. Liphart, of the state game commission. It has a wing spread of nearly 73 inches. The bird will be used for educational purposes by the state game commission.

For Once, Truck Driver Told the Exact Truth

Marion, Ohio.—When neighbors became suspicious of a truckload of cartons being unloaded at a house here police were called and an investigation made. All the cartons, which the truck driver said contained spaghetti and tomatoes, were opened at a freight storage house and found to contain spaghetti and tomatoes.

Burns All to Cheat Heirs, Suicide Attempt Fails

Chaumont, France.—Auguste Parmentie, ninety-one years old, didn't mind dying, but hated to leave his heirs anything. So he burned up his house, set fire to eight 100 franc notes, ran to the bank of the Meuse and jumped in.

He was fished out and saved, but the house and money were gone.

Some Pig Gets Meal of $2,575 Worth of Gems

Los Angeles, Calif.—Somewhere on a California hog ranch there is a pig worth about $2,575, as a result of Mrs. F. W. Beardslee's carelessness. Mrs. Beardslee forgot that she had hidden $2,575 worth of pearls, opals, and diamonds in a waste basket. The basket was dumped in a garbage barrel and garbage from San Francisco is sold to near-by ranches specializing in raising porkers.

ANIMAL THAT BIT TRAPPER BRINGS IN $10,000 PRIZE

Fur of Vicious Mink Wins a Small Fortune for Alabama Man He Maimed.

Notasulga, Ala.—H. A. Barker has evened the score with the vicious mink that bit off the tip of one of his fingers a year ago.

Barker got even to the tune of $10,000, which in his circumstances amounts to a fortune. Because that mink bit Barker he has risen from a poverty-stricken trapper to one of the prosperous men of his community.

The story came out after a delegation from Atlanta, Ga., made its way to Barker's little cabin back in the hills of Alabama to surprise the trapper-farmer with a check for $10,000.

Check for $10,000.

Barker was plowing when the strangers arrived. In the house nearby three of his six children lay ill with measles. The strangers, introduced themselves.

"Are you the Barker who entered a mink fur in the National Fur show?" they asked.

"Yes."

"Well, the fur won first prize. We've brought you this check for $10,000."

It took some time for the Alabamian to recover from the shock. As soon as his breath returned he abandoned his plow, ran into the house and told his wife the good news. An impromptu celebration, in which the strangers joined, followed.

Barker has been trapping since he was a boy. At first he used homemade, artfully contrived traps. Later, when he could afford it, he bought good, ready-made ones.

Barker lives back in the hills, ten miles north of here.

The mink he entered in the show gave him plenty of trouble. They are wily animals, extremely hard to catch, but this one was even shrewder than most.

Cornered the Mink.

The trapper was about to give up the hunt when he cornered the mink in a hollow log with the aid of dogs. When he reached inside the log to pull out the captive, the animal bit off the end of a finger and escaped.

Barker got mad. Wrapping his bleeding finger with a piece of cloth torn from his shirt, he again took up the chase. The mink led the trapper and dogs a merry time, but Barker finally got him.

"I vowed I'd get even with that rat," chuckled the trapper. "Now I have."

Barker's first expenditure from the new fund was to obtain nurses and medical attention for his children. The second was to pay for a new home. He will call it "The House the Mink Built."

Takes Wrong Package, Cheats Bandits of $3000

Columbus, Ga.—An absent-minded customer of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea company store here unwittingly saved the company $3,000. J. O. Windham, district manager of the company, who had made a round of stores and collected that amount visited the C. B. Rowell Atlantic and Pacific store here late at night.

A package containing the $3,000 was left for a moment on a counter by Windham while he went into the office to get the Rowell receipts. The absent-minded customer picked up the package and went home. Windham came out with about $300 of Rowell receipts, and went to his car at the curb, forgetting the $3,000 on the counter. Just then four bandits crowded him at the curb, relieved him of the $300, and fled.

Later, the customer, who had taken the $3,000 package by mistake, returned it to the store.

Woman Carries Needle in Leg for 30 Years

Mount Carmel, Pa.—A rusted needle has been removed from its resting place for thirty years in the right leg of Mrs. J. I. McAfosse of Mount Carmel. Mrs. McAfosse said that the needle became imbedded in her flesh when she sat down on the needle thirty years ago.

The thread protruded, but when she pulled it the eye broke and the remainder of the steel remained in her leg.

Swallows Build Nest in Boat's Life Preserver

McGregor, Iowa.—Deep down in the hollow davit of a life preserver on the ferry boat across the river from here to Prairie du Chien, Wis., a pair of swallows built their nest and reared their brood.

The boat winds back and forth across the river. Sometimes the swallows go in search of food to one bank, sometimes to the other. But when the skipper, Pilot Traversy, toots his horn for a landing the swallows wing out over the water as though they had been called, and come to rest boldly on the boat.

Snake Swallowed Chicken
Mexico, Mo.—A "trying size" chicken and a four-week-old gosling were found inside a blacksnake which was killed recently by Mrs. Forrest Weaver. Mrs. Weaver attacked the reptile with a garden hoe when she found it disturbing her poultry flock. The snake was 5 feet 9 inches long.

Battle With Razors Is Staged in Church

Schenectady, N. Y.—Two negroes selected a church in which to settle their differences. While the minister of Duane Memorial church was giving the benediction, they engaged in a razor battle that ended with one being sent to a hospital with his throat cut. His assailant fled.

RECLUSE IS SLAIN; HOUNDED FOR YEARS

Old Man Found Dead After Series of Crime.

Landing, Mich.—Frank Hull was an amiable recluse, sixty-six, who lived in a little cottage on a farm just southwest of here. He hadn't an enemy in the world, but about seventeen years ago as he sat in his kitchen reading a newspaper, some one put a shotgun through a window, shot him in the head and then eluded his staggering pursuit.

Later a fire which appeared of incendiary origin destroyed the barn, and another time some one set fire to his wheat bin.

A few days ago some one entered his shack and killed him. State troopers believe the slayer waited seventeen years to kill the recluse, and that this same person was responsible for all his trouble.

The body of the recluse was found on the threshold between his bedroom and living room. A light burned in the cottage. Except for shoes and stockings Hull was fully clothed.

The supposition is that he was sleeping in his clothes, heard some one in the other room and rose to investigate, confronted the intruder and was shot down.

Under his body lay a crutch. Years ago he saw an auto stalled on the Grand Trunk track in front of his home. He ran down the tracks, leaped aboard the tender of an oncoming train and lost one leg.

Robbery was not the motive, for in Hull's pockets was found $120. His brothers say he often hid large sums of money in tin cans, but investigators have been unable to find any more cash. An empty shell is the only clue investigators have.

Ousted Youth Sets Fire to College in Revenge

Edmonton, Alta.—His prospects of a brilliant medical career shattered by expulsion from the Canadian Junior college in Alberta, Victor Thompson, eighteen, sought revenge by setting fire to the institution, because he "hated the place."

The fire resulted in serious injury to five students, $50,000 loss to the college, a five-year prison term for Thompson, and a four-year sentence for Oliver Pangman, twenty-six, his assistant in the incendiarism.

College officials stated that Thompson had been a brilliant student, but insubordinate, and had been expelled for persistent breach of the rules. Soon afterward the college was set afire, through a bag of oil-soaked shavings, placed on the back stairs and ignited. The majority of the students were trapped in their sleep, and many narrowly escaped death.

Prisoners Shoot Off Handcuffs and Escape

Hutchinson, Kan.—Two momentary prisoners shot their way to liberty in the sandhills north of here, but the Reno county sheriff's force escaped unscathed.

In fact, the officers were away in the hills hunting a still the men had allegedly been operating. They had handcuffed the prisoners to the steering wheel of their car.

When they returned, they found the men had reached a gun in the car, blasted their shackles with shots, and had taken French leave.

Lightning Kills 1,500 Birds Perched on Wire

Clarendon, Va.—A flock of nearly 1,500 sparrows perched on wires along Ballston avenue here was wiped out when a bolt of lightning struck them at the height of a storm.

The birds, which covered the street in a heavy black blanket, were carted away by workmen from the county scavenger department. The bolt caused no other damage.

Farmers Steal Coyotes' Cubs; Coyotes Retaliate

Emmett, Neb.—When the Winkler brothers, farmers near here, stole six coyote cubs from a den on their farm, they didn't think about the mother and father coyotes getting revenge. The very next night, the old pair of coyotes killed and carried away 25 turkeys.

Limb Falls on Girl Sleeper, Kills Her

Gridley, Calif.—While sleeping in the open beneath an ancient oak tree four miles north of here, Miss Alice Davis, seventeen of Pierre, S. D., was killed when a giant limb fell on her. Her brother-in-law, Herb Snyder, government trapper, sleeping in a cot nearby, was crushed by the limb. Mrs. Snyder and a baby were asleep in an automobile which barely escaped being struck.

A $2 Dinner for 6

THE little girl who could never do fractions, sometimes finds them figuring ominously in her life after she has grown up. Dividing two by six might prove a pretty difficult problem, but here it is solved as easily as can be.

Fried Ham and Eggs 92¢
Mashed Potatoes 18¢
Fruit Cole Slaw 7¢
Chocolate Blanc Manger 19¢
Baked Tomatoes and Cheese 27¢
Bread and Butter 11¢
Coffee with Cream 15¢

A couple of these recipes to serve six people may be new to you, so here they are:

Baked Tomatoes and Cheese: Add to the contents of a No. 2 can of tomatoes, salt and pepper to taste, and one teaspoon chopped onion. You will need one-half cup grated cheese, one cup bread crumbs and one tablespoon butter. Put alternate layers of tomatoes, cheese and crumbs in a buttered baking dish, having the top layer of crumbs. Dot with butter and bake thirty minutes in a moderate oven, 350 degrees.

A Crisp Salad

Fruit Cole Slaw: Crisp one cup finely shredded cabbage in ice water, drain and dry thoroughly. Add one diced orange, and, just before serving, the drained crushed pineapple from an 8-ounce can. Mix in carefully one-half cup boiled dressing, and serve on lettuce.

DRASTIC ECONOMIES HAVE BEEN INSTITUTED

Although the public may have received the impression that the railroads' application for an emergency advance in freight rates is the only thing they have done to improve their situation, L. A. Downs, president of the Illinois Central System, points out that they have been making the following moves along similar lines:

Where it has been possible to effect a net gain in revenue by reducing rates, such rates have been reduced. Unprofitable operations have been eliminated. Drastic economies have been instituted. Schedules have been speeded up, and other improvements in service have been made. Increased attention has been devoted to selling railway service and to making it even more courteous and dependable.

"The public deserves to know that while the rate case has been pending the railroads have not been idle. What they have been doing strengthens their plea for increased rates," Mr. Downs maintains.
