Big Crowd In Fulton Saturday

Saturday was a big day in Fulton, with trade being considerable in all lines of business. There was a good deal of prosperity on the air, and the streets were thronged with people.

There was a large crowd in front of the Bank of Fulton, with several horses being loaded with corn. Trade Days will continue until Christmas, but there is nothing to do but wait.

The market prices will go higher again, and from all indications, prices will go up for about three months. In fact, the highest market price paid for it was $1.50 per bushel, but now the prices are in the neighborhood of $2.00 per bushel.

Guiding Your Children

Bad habits lead children astray. Good habits guide them safely into the path of character, uprightness and independence. You can start them right by teaching them to save money. Set them an example by saving yourself. Make them admire thrift.

Once started, the saving habit helps to form other good habits. It provides experience for them in handling their own funds. This start is the right direction but a simple step. Bring children to the bank when you start them to school.
