Old Time Democratic Rally

Largest Crowd in Many Years Attend To Hear the Distinguished Speakers, Judge Laffoon and Senator Barkley.

Banquet Given at Usana In Their Honor.

Science Hall auditorium, the largest in the city, was filled to capacity "Wednesday night with the distinguished speakers, Judge Baby Laffoon, democratic nominee for governor, and Senator Barkley. Both men are old friends of the city and take an interest in its welfare.

The meeting was opened by Judge Baby Laffoon, who started by asking the audience to listen to the voice of the majority and to support the Democratic ticket.

Mr. Laffoon then spoke of the necessity for economy in government. He said that the government of the United States has been spending more than it takes in for a long time, and that the same thing is true of state and local governments.

He also spoke of the importance of education and the need for more schools and teachers.

Senator Barkley then spoke, and said that he was proud to be a Democrat and to represent the people of his state in Congress.

He also spoke of the need for a strong foreign policy, and said that the United States should not be afraid to stand up for its rights.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:30 p.m. with the audience in high spirits and the speakers already planning their next campaign meeting.

Vote for Laffoon For Governor.

And the Entire Democratic State Ticket on November 3.

WHEN WE GIVE THANKS

SUCCESSFUL HOMEMAKING

How many different kinds of food do you give your family? The answer is usually far too few. There are so many delicious but inexpensive dishes that can be made quickly and served frequently from the family menu.

The method we have practiced here is to make one food that is suitable for a luncheon or dinner menu and to serve it with a variety of other foods that are also made from the same food. The result is a menu that is not only complete in itself but also delicious and economical.

This method is perfectly feasible in the home kitchen. It is economical, it is nutritious, and it is delicious. It is also a way of using up any scraps or left-over vegetables that you may have.

When you are planning a menu, make use of all the food that you have available. Be sure to include a main course that is nutritious, delicious, and hearty. This will make the menu a success.

In Case of Emergency

When you want a thing in a hurry you rush to a local store and get it. But do you realize that the existence of our stores depends upon continued business? If every person in this community were to use the others only for emergencies there would soon be no more places to satisfy those urgent needs. You should do your part towards keeping local business alive and in a constant state of betterment by doing all you can to support the stores and offices in your neighborhood. It will be good for you as well as to the entire community.

Most of our customers use more electricity for lighting houses, stores, shops and offices in the fall and winter months than they use in the spring and summer months.

This is because there are many more dark hours in fall and winter days than in summer days.

Thus, if a customer uses a 60-watt lamp from dusk until 10 p.m. every evening throughout the year, the lamp will be lighted a total of 138 hours in June and 201 hours in December.

At an operating cost of three-fifths of one cent an hour, the lamp would consume $1.5 cents worth of electricity for a dinner.

Also, in many houses, school children study five evenings a week during winter months, which increases the use of electricity in those houses.

And in December, because it contains the shortest days in the year and the holiday season there is a greater use of electricity than in other months.
