Vet Administration
Spent $119 Millions
In Kentucky In '61

Veterans Administration cash benefits and other services to Kentucky veterans and their families totaled $119,933,320 during the 1961 fiscal year.

That's $3,341,948 more than in fiscal year 1960, Olney B. Owen, manager of the VA Regional Office in Louisville, pointed out in an analysis of VA expenditures reported to Congress. Cost of benefits and services increased, he said, although living veterans in the state declined 5,000, from an estimated 362,000 to 357,000, as the fiscal year ended last July.

Death compensation and pension payments to the dependents of 22,564 Kentucky deceased veterans totaled $20,123,230 in 1961. This is an increase of $2,146,926 over the amount paid in 1960.

Compensation for service-connected disabilities and pensions for permanent and total non-service-connected disabilities also increased. A total of $29,968,325 was paid to 52,985 Kentucky living veterans. The preceding year the total was $31,414,109.

AREA BEAUTY CONTEST

This is a Ford Fairlane door latch.

There is no other door latch like it. It combines the strength of a bear hug with the precision of a surgeon's fingers. Its action is simple, its sound is soft. Like the 12-month or 12,000-mile warranty* first introduced by Ford, it's undeniable proof of the superb quality built into every Ford car. It may surprise you to find quality so high in a car that's priced as low as the Fairlane (actually under many compacts), but there are many surprises in this new class of automobiles. The fact is, you won't find any new car that gives you Fairlane's big-car room, choice of V-8 zoom and fine-car quality anywhere near Fairlane's surprisingly low price. There's no other new car that combines so beautifully all you ever wanted from a big car—with handling, economy compacts could envy. As a matter of fact, there's never been a car like Fairlane because there's never been a car like Fairlane—and that's why this all-new car from Ford is now outselling every other "new" car. Which is as it should be. After all, how can you beat an unbeatable combination?

20 Years Ago

Twenty years ago, with World War II getting into a gigantic struggle for power, a headline in The Marshall Courier said:

TAKE YOUR EMPTY TUBE ALONG WHEN BUYING MORE TOOTHPASTE.

Remember, which were more exciting—the days of the B-17 bombing planes of 1942 or the orbit flights of today.

Twenty years from now, the space flights of 1962 will appear mighty routine.

Getting back to 1942 news in Marshall County, we find that Paul Cross had closed his feed mill here and moved to Detroit where he was working for a guy named Henry Ford.

The Benton City hall had been re-papered, and had been renamed of those soon to be graduated.

At Brewers, the 8th grade graduates were to be Homer Adich, Namon Cope, Glen Johnston, Billy Lovett, Jewell Lyles Palmer, Louise Arant, Margaret Mason, Betty Lents, Cordell Swartzell and Margaret Reed.

At Birmingham, 8th Grade grads were to be Erlene Jones, Marie Smith, Beatrice Clayton, William Smith, John Goheen, Samuel Goheen and Milburn Baker.

And that's all the 1942 news for now. See you soon.

HOSPITAL NEWS

Mrs. Thomas Owen Dawes, of Calvert City Rt. 2, has been a patient at Baptist Hospital in Paducah.

Mrs. Donald Gregory, of Calvert City, was a recent patient at the Baptist Hospital in Paducah.

Mrs. Kenneth Stice and infant have returned to their home in Calvert City from Baptist Hospital in Paducah.

Joseph Heath, of Benton, has been a recent patient at Lourdes Hospital in Paducah.

William Powell, of Calvert City, has been dismissed as a patient from Lourdes Hospital in Paducah.

No Stealing

Lesson for March 4, 1962

"HIEF" is a bad word. No body wants to be called one.

A thief himself will complain at other thieves. "I've been bed" is a common complaint uttered by those who habitually rob others. To be sure, there are twisted minds busy in devising dishonest schemes, and proud of their successes when they do work.

Foreman But then there are twisted minds clever in all of crime and sin. What we call normal people don't like so called thieves. It is a temptation to a man that he is est. Nothing else makes up the lack of honesty. "He is generous, hard working, than you have to watch him every ute." "He's a pleasant gentleman, but don't have any business lings with him." Those are not commendations" any of us id enjoy over-hearing about

Nevertheless, such is the

Uncle Ned - - - From Dogtown

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I consider that this the country since the unced Saturday night and appropriate getting his night into the conversation. As a general rule, I don't take no part with the world, but Saturday night he was chomping at the bit, and spending all his time in the store records, for them to keep.

APO was regulating prices. He recollected that back in 1946 when the OPA removed price ceilings on cowbells, bullrings, horseshoes and cocktail shakers, he wrote 'em that he didn't have no cocktail shakers. They told him to get some.

can find time from tending his tax books.

He allowed as how he was voting again all candidates in the next election and aimed to shoot the first one that tried to leave any cards or literature in his store. He claimed the only political propagandist ever left at his store that was worth reading was a handbill a feller running for Sheriff come by and left him about 30 years ago. It seems a drunk printer was trying to set a patent medicine ad and the handbill at the same time. He got the handbill out of a bottom drawer and read it to the feller.

"I wish to announce to the voters of this county that for 25 years I have suffered from asthma and lumbago on the Democratic ticket and thought they was no cure for me until I heard of the office of county Sheriff, for which my doctor advised me to run.

"I have never held county office, but have been troubled with nervousness and handshaking, so feel I am well qualified. I was operated on 2 months ago for appendicitis, so feel I am cut out for the duties required. I have had 14 teeth pulled to see if it would help me pull in the votes. I have gained 40 pounds and hundreds of votes and am feeling like a new man.

"While it has been impossible for me to see all the voters personal, I will say that this has been a Godsent to me and I will appreciate your vote and 2 bottles of your magic tonic."

about somepun.

Yours truly,
Uncle Ned
