LAFFOON ELECTED

Harrison, Republican, Snowed Under As Votes Are Counted

Louisville, Ky. Nov. 4.—Circuit Judge Ruby Laffoon, Democrat, had rolled up a 40,000 majority for governor over Mayor William B. Harrison, Louisville Republican, on returns tonight from 1,364 of the state's 4,178 precincts. Their totals were Laffoon 159,675 and Harrison 116,655.

FIRST DISTRICT TURNS OUT LARGE VOTE

Total of 64,509 Flock to the Polls in Second Largest Election.

Voters of the First Congressional District trekked to polling places Tuesday and cast what was believed to have been the second largest vote ever registered in the district.

Upon the basis of both complete and also estimated reports, the total vote was 64,509.

Surprise in Calloway

The surprise came from Calloway county, where a total of 6,230 votes were cast. This was nearly 1,700 votes more than cast in the governor's race four years ago.

The largest ever piled up in the 13 counties was in 1920, when a total of 80,000 votes were cast in the Cox-Harding election.

In 1927 a total of 51,266 votes were cast in the race between J. C. W. Beckham and Gov. Flem D. Sampson.

Here's how the district voted:

Ballard	3676
Calloway	6230
Carlisle	2025
Crittenden	4220
Caldwell	5035
Fulton	4000
Graves	9326
Hickman	2900
Lyon	2825
Livingston	2825
McCracken	12451
Marshall	4189
Trigg	4806

Democrat Elected Governor of New Jersey

DEMOCRATS LEAD HOUSE STANDS 217 TO 215

Democratic organization of the next House is foreshadowed by surprisingly decisive seizure of the Republican stronghold in the Eighth Michigan District in Tuesday's elections.

Although beaten in the First Ohio District, where they campaigned relentlessly, the Democrats interpreted the Michigan overthrow as an index to the 1932 presidential campaign. The Republicans countered by rejoicing over retaining the First Ohio and pointing to it as a good sign for next year.

...holding their own seats in the Seventh New York and the Twentieth Ohio Districts, the Democrats also elected a Democrat governor in New Jersey.

Trails Demos By Two

The Republicans took the Second Pennsylvania as forecast, along with the First Ohio, but the results left them trailing the Democrats in House standing by two.

The new House lineup today gives the Democrats 217 seats; Republicans, 215; Farmer Laborites, 1; vacancies, 2. Only one vacancy—in the Fifth New Jersey normally Republican—can be filled before the House organizes December 7.

A BLESSING TO THE COMMUNITY

Fulton has an institution in its midst which the citizens may justly feel proud and point to with pride—the Fulton Building & Loan Association with a capital stock of $2,000,000.00. It is an institution which stands today as a monument to the memory of the late W. K. Hall, who sponsored its organization eighteen years ago.

During these 18 years many changes have taken place in our city. In fact, the city has been transformed and the Fulton Building & Loan Association has been a leading factor in the transformation. A large number of beautiful homes adorn our well-paved streets; many boys and girls are completing their education at college, while quite a few of our business firms owe their existence to the assistance rendered by the Association.

During the past nine years a gigantic total of $720,800.00 has been paid out in matured stock, $24,000.00 was paid out last Monday. A nice lot of cash to be turned loose in our city in one day.

The Association has 700 stockholders sharing the benefits of its phenomenal success. Some of the same officers who were elected at the organization eighteen years ago are actively associated with it today. The officers are all well known business men of Fulton, men who have the best interest of the city at heart, helping people to own homes and rendering a distinct service to thrifty folk of the community to save and lay in store for future needs.

If you are not among the happy group of 700 stockholders now is the opportune time to get in line. Call at the office, 214 Main street, and have them explain in detail how easy it is to start a savings account.

BUILDING AND LOAN HAS NOW REACHED SECOND ANNIVERSARY

Rounds Out Eighteen Years of Service to the Community.

The Fulton Building and Loan Association is now observing its second anniversary, but this does not mean it is only two years old. The organization completes a cycle in nine years, and this is the second time that cycle has been rounded. In other words, the Building and Loan Association is now eighteen years old, and a statement of its condition on this anniversary is to be found on the last page of this issue.

Eighteen years ago the late W. K. Hall, Fulton citizen and then owner of the W. K. Hall Lumber Company, was attending a meeting of a national lumbermen's association and heard an address on building and loan associations made by the president of the United States League of Building and Loan Associations. The speaker urged each delegate to go back home and sponsor the organization of such an organization. Mr. Hall became interested, and on his return to Fulton called a meeting of Fulton citizens and organized the Fulton Building and Loan Association.

As it was necessary to secure a chairman for the corporation, to elect one of several plans of operation, the stockholders decided on the nine-year basis. Therefore, on November 1, 1931, the organization celebrates its second anniversary—completing eighteen years of service to Fulton and community. On the first anniversary on November 1, 1922, the charter member stock matured and a total of $23,000 paid out to these members. On the second anniversary, payments of $24,000 were paid. Since November 1, 1922, to this time a total of $720,800 has been paid out in matured stock. The association has at present 700 stockholders and is filling a place in the community by helping people to own homes and save money that can only be filled by a similar corporation. The company solicits every one as a stockholder, and suggests that you call at the office, 214 Main Street, and start a savings account.

It looks as though getting Europe to quit fighting is as hard a task as it would be to get some married couples around Fulton to stop doing so.

HOARDING A HABIT

There is nothing to be done in the case of the confirmed hoarder, who is by nature a miser. Very often such people carry their hoardings to astonishing extremes, denying themselves many of the comforts and nearly all of the luxuries of life merely for the selfish pleasure of seeing hoardings accumulate. They trust nobody, they are suspicious of everybody, and eventually they are the losers. Saving for a rainy day is sensible. It would be fine if every citizen of Fulton realized this and practiced it. But the savings should be done through legal channels, and by utilizing banks, instead of secreting the money about house or barn in fruit jar or sock. The worst habit anyone can fall into is that of hiding money. The country abounds with criminals who stop at nothing to secure such savings, and usually after torturing the owner. Banks are the safest place this nation has for saving money. The quicker everyone realizes this, and that banks can still be trusted, the quicker will the nation get out of the plight that hoarding is serving to keep it in.

WHETHER YOUR BUILDING REQUIREMENTS

If you tell us what you want to accomplish often times we can suggest plans for saving you money and serving your purpose better.

Whether you buy of us or not, we want everyone in this community who has a need in our line to come to us freely for building advice.

TWO WOMEN ARE HURT IN CRASH Driver of Truck Arrested After the Crash

Mrs. Ida Yates, of Crutchfield, Kentucky, suffered a broken collar bone, and Mrs. A. M. Yates, Crutchfield, received painful bruises and contusions of the face and body Monday night when a truck driven by Lionel Wheeler, of Hickman, ran into their car in Riceville, a suburb of Fulton. They were brought to the Fulton hospital where Drs. C. M. and Lutten dressed their wounds.

Wheeler, together with a cousin from Union City, J. B. Wheeler, were arrested immediately after the collision and taken to Hickman to await preliminary hearing before Judge McMurray.

A Sound Program for All

The simple justice of putting all forms of transportation on an equal basis of regulation is generally conceded. However, that is not the only reason why they should be equally regulated. The controlling reason is one of public economy.

In order to have an efficient national system of transportation giving all the people the best service at the lowest total cost, every form of transportation must be used to do the work for which it is best fitted. Fitness is determined by comparing service and rates, and such comparisons are sure to be misleading when there is inequality of regulation.

It is in the public interest, therefore, to require all forms of transportation to pay their own way, as the railroads do, and to be regulated in the same ways and to the same extent that the railroads are.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

Busy Beans

CERTAIN foods are just chock-full of energy—beans are one of them. It is pretty hard to get as much nourishment and downright "vim" from an equal quantity of any other food. A man can do a lot of work on beans, a boy can hike a long way on them, and a woman can withstand an avalanche of household wear and tear without jangled nerves if she has lunched well on this wholesome article of diet. Beans are economical, also, one of the most economical of foods.

All Varieties Canned
You can buy them for so little, and the canned product is so good, that it is but rarely worth while to spend time upon the preparation of the raw beans. There are canned baked beans, pork and beans, red kidney beans, refuted beans, beans with tomato sauce and wax beans. Usually they may be just warmed, perhaps seasoned, and served, but there are many delicious recipes of which beans are an important ingredient, such as:

Hurry-Up New England Bean Pot. Dice one green pepper and fry for three minutes in two tablespoons fat. Add one No. 2 can tomatoes, and cook three minutes more. Add one Sautone can carrots, dried, one can New England oven-baked beans and one 12-ounce can corned beef, season and heat thoroughly.

Better Breakfasts

"BREAKFAST is the bulwark of the American nation," remarked the emissary of a foreign nation who was sent here to observe the customs of our country for the benefit of his own. It is true that we prefer to face the fortunes of the day better fortified than the average continental on his cup of coffee or chocolate and bit of bread. We are right—for us, at least. Life dashes along briskly over here, and we need energy every moment. Then, too, once immersed in the big business of living, we are loath to stop at mid-day precisely at they do across the seas. A good breakfast goes a long way towards a good day, so if you would improve the family fortunes give them a "better breakfast" tomorrow—here's one—

A $2 Dinner for 6

ON a crisp October day dinner is a very important function. The family attitude towards food is one of distinct interest. If the domestic exchequer has felt the strain of the times (and what one has not?), catering for a hungry household becomes a matter of careful calculation. In the following menu the calculation of cost and calories has been done expertly.

Roast Loaf of Pork 99¢
Potatoes Roasted in Pan 5¢
Tomatoes and Corn with Chili 20¢
Cabbage and Apple Salad 20¢
Whole Wheat Muffins 15¢
Deep Dish Blackberry Pie 32¢
Demi-Tasse 5¢

Tomatoes and Corn with Chili: Sauté one sauce can whole kernel corn in one tablespoon butter for five minutes; add one No. 2 can tomatoes, one-fourth teaspoon chili powder, salt and pepper; simmer for five minutes longer.

Deep Dish Blackberry Pie: Mix three tablespoons flour, six tablespoons sugar; add one No. 2 or three sauce cans blackberries. Pour into buttered baking dish. Cover with thin sheet of pastry made of one cup flour, one-third cup shortening, one-half teaspoon salt and ice water. Trim edges, press onto edge of baking dish with prongs of fork. Cut several slits in middle to let steam escape. Bake for about ten minutes in hot oven, 350°—oven then lower to 325° and continue twenty-five minutes. Serve cold.

HONEY COOKIES SWEETEN THE SCHOOL LUNCH BOX

One of these days the efforts of the busy little bee are going to be appreciated for what they are really worth, and when that day comes we'll all of us be eating more honey than we do at present. Honey is a natural sugar, pure, wholesome, and nourishing. It can safely be given to even young children and is an ideal way of sweetening much of their food.

For the children's lunch box or for ordinary table service, try making these honey cookies. They satisfy their natural craving for a bit of something sweet after the rest of the meal, and add a considerable amount of nourishment. The recipe calls also for brown sugar, which gives a richer flavor; butter, a good source of the vitamin A, chopped nuts and raisins, supplying energy and nourishment, and the honey. Another important factor from the health standpoint is the self-rising flour. Self-rising flour is flour with the baking powder and salt added. This baking powder is made of monocalcium-phosphate and soda. Bones and teeth are largely composed of calcium (or lime) and phosphorus, so you can see how important it is for the growing child to have a sufficient amount of these minerals. Both of these minerals are supplied in a good form in self-rising flour.

Self-rising flour is economical because it requires no additional baking powder. It is also a great time saver. There's the time saving in measuring and sifting (you sift self-rising flour only once), and time saving in stirring. Cookies made with self-rising soft wheat flour should be put together gently, quickly, and with a light touch. Too much stirring and beating will make any soft wheat product heavy. From start to finish you can make these self-rising cookies in eight minutes, which would ordinarily require fifteen to put together. Every mother who has ever snatched time out of the air in order to make a batch of cookies knows that this is a saving worth while.

The recipe is as follows:
Honey Cookies.
½ cup brown sugar ½ cup seeded raisins
½ cup strained ½ cup cut fine
honey ½ cup finely
1 egg ½ cup chopped nuts
7 table butter 1 teaspoonful mace
2½ cups self-rising or nutting
flour

Mix the sugar, egg and shortening together. Beat until thoroughly blended. Add other ingredients in order given, roll and cut. Bake in moderate (350 degrees F.) oven for about 20 minutes. You will find these will be much better if you allow them to cool thoroughly or stand over night before cutting.

If you have to buy shelled nuts for the cookies, get the broken pieces. They are just as fresh and good, and the saving is considerable.

FIVE MINUTE CAKE

Guests for dinner and no dessert? How many times have you found yourself in this predicament? If you keep self-rising flour in the kitchen the unexpected guest becomes the welcome one because with this flour on hand, which needs no baking powder added to it, it is the work of just a few minutes to stir up something delectable. If the bread supply is low, hot biscuits may be quickly made, or if it is dessert that proves to be lacking, a cake could be stirred up and in the oven five minutes after it was first wished for.

The following unusual recipe makes a sizeable and delicious cake, and requires only five minutes from the thinking of it to the baking of it:

½ cup soft butter ½ teaspoon cinnamon
1½ cups brown sugar ½ teaspoon nutmeg
2 eggs ½ cup milk
1½ cups self-rising or both mixed flour

Put all ingredients in a bowl and beat all together for two minutes, using a wooden cake spoon. Bake in a loaf or layer cake in a moderate oven. This cake has a velvety texture and is sufficient to serve 12 guests. Topped with whipped cream or served with a jar of your best canned fruit, what better dessert could be wanted?

WHEN WE GIVE THANKS

EVERY Thanksgiving Day we fele a very beautiful thing—it is the quality of gratitude. Everyone who has given or received gratitude knows how fine it is, how warm, how stimulating. Great thinkers tell us that gratitude opens the way for wonderful things to come to us. It seems almost a pity that it is so—or at least that it is so dark we do not know that it is so—so beautiful is gratitude in itself.

That for which we have cause to be most thankful does not always come with glowing colors in success; sometimes it steals in quietly on days so dark we do not know that it is there.

Seek a quiet corner, a comfortable chair, turn back the pages of your own life, look at the sadly thumb-marked ones, do you not find written there for the first time in its annals the name of a friend, afterwards the inspiration of deep happiness?

Our Forefathers Knew

We have more to be thankful for than we realize, and our forefathers knew that when they set aside a day for giving thanks and considering our blessings.

So let us get out our whitest linen, our gleamlike glass, our richest silver, and let us prepare the finest feast our hands can make to fête, in gratitude, our friends, not forgetting the greatest Friend of all, who, whether the times are bright or gray, showers us with gifts. Here's the menu which serves eight.

Sardine Points: Mash one 4-ounce can boneless sardines. Add two teaspoons lemon juice, two tablespoons chopped walnuts, two tablespoons chopped stuffed olives, two tablespoons chopped celery, three tablespoons mayonnaise and mix well. Fill caviar puffs in pointed triangle shape or spread pointed pieces of toast with this mixture. Garnish with a slice of olive placed at the wide end of the puffs or toast. Makes about twenty. These may be passed with some iced beverage before going in to dinner.

Orange Cups: Scrub four California oranges and cut in halves with a saw edge. Scoop out pulp and remove all the white fibre from it. Keep skins in cold water while preparing filling. Add one No. 2 can crushed pineapple to orange pulp, then add two tablespoons syrup from green mint cherries. Drain orange cups, dry, dip edges in a thick sugar syrup, then in finely chopped fresh mint, making a green rim. Fill with fruit mixture. Put two or three after-dinner mints in the center of each.

Frozen Cranberries: Boil one-fourth cup sugar and three-fourths cup water to a thin syrup. Soak one-half tablespoon gelatin in two tablespoons cold water, dissolve in the hot syrup and add two tablespoons lemon juice and one-half cup orange juice. Add the finely mashed, sieved or melted cranberry sauce from a No. 2 can and freeze to a mash. Fold in one stiffly beaten egg white and pack in ice and salt mixture, four to one.

A Different Pudding

Pilgrim Father's Pudding: Beat two eggs, add one-third cup melted butter and two-thirds cup diluted evaporated milk. Add two cups flour, four teaspoons baking powder, one-fourth teaspoon salt which have been sifted and lastly one-half cup orange marmalade (or any kind of jam or preserves). Put one teaspoon of marmalade in each greased individual mold, pour in the batter and steam thirty-five minutes. Serve with the following sauce: Cream six tablespoons butter and one cup confectioner's sugar, add grated rind of two oranges, three well-beaten egg yolks and six tablespoons orange juice. Fold in stiffly-beaten egg whites. Serve cold over the hot pudding.

Lesson for November 8

PAUL IN EPHEBUS

GOLDEN TEXT—And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.
LESSON TEXT—Acts 19:1-41.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Paul in the City of Ephesus.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Paul in the Key City of Asia.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—A Battle of Bad Books.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Gospel Facing Error.

I. John's Disciples Become Christians (vv. 1-7).

These twelve disciples had only been taught the baptism of repentance as preparation for the Kingdom. Paul taught them to believe on Christ; that is, to receive Christ as the one who on the cross provided redemption for them through the shedding of his blood. When they believed and received Christ as their Savior, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus, and Paul laid hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit.

II. Paul Preaching in Ephesus (vv. 8-10).

1. In the Jewish synagogue (v. 8). Though the Jews were Paul's enemies, he inflexibly followed his rule to go first to them with the gospel. His preaching was characterized

- By boldness (v. 8).
- By reason (v. 8).
- By persuasion (v. 8).
- By speaking concerning the Kingdom of God (v. 8). He did not discourse on philosophy, or the latest in literature, but upon the message of salvation through Christ.

2. In the schoolhouse of Tyrannus (vv. 9, 10). The Jews, being enemies of the gospel, were only hardened by Paul's preaching, and spoke openly against this way of salvation in Christ. Paul separated the disciples from them and resorted to the schoolhouse of Tyrannus.

III. God Working Miracles by Paul (vv. 11-16).

Ephesus was noted for its wonder workers. That Paul's ministry might be successful here, God in an extraordinary way put his seal upon the work. Handkerchiefs and aprons that had touched Paul's body healed the sick and cast out evil spirits. Seeing the marvelous power operating through Paul, certain Jews who went about the country practicing magical arts under took to use the name of Jesus in their incantations. Knowing that their connection with Christ was not real, the use of his name by them only enraged the evil spirits who sprang upon and overcame them.

IV. A Glorious Awakening (vv. 17-41).

1. Fear fell upon all (v. 17). News of the casting out of these evil spirits created impressions favorable to Christianity.

2. It brought to the front those who professed faith in Christ while not living right lives (v. 18).

3. Many gave up the practice of the black arts (v. 19). Black arts are forms of jugglery by the use of charms and magical words. No one can have fellowship with God and practice such arts. They proved the genuineness of their Christian profession by publicly burning their books, valued at $12,500.

4. Upstart of the silversmith at Ephesus (vv. 23-41).

a. The occasion (vv. 23, 24). The power of the gospel was destroying the infamous business of Demetrius and his fellows. Their primary interest was its financial effect upon the principal business of the city.

b. The method (vv. 25-29). Demetrius, a leading business man, called a meeting and stated that much people had been turned from idolatry and that the market for their wares was materially weakened. He appealed to his fellows.

(1) On the ground of business (v. 27). The world is willing to tolerate any kind of religion or moral awakening so long as it does not interfere with its business or way of living.

(2) On the ground of religious prejudice. He said that the temple of the great Goddess Diana would be despised (v. 27). He became religious when he saw that his business was being damaged. His speech gained his end. The crowd in a rage cried, "Great is Diana of the Ephesians." The mob was quieted by the tact, good judgment, and counsel of the town clerk (vv. 37-41).

Obedience

The golden chain of obedience is broken if one link is missing. If you are hanging over a precipice by a chain and one link goes, you are lost.

Difference in Men

One man will make all human nature seem contemptible; another will exalt it to immeasurable heights of beauty and benignity. So there are men who make it hard, others who make it easy to believe in God.—Jno. W. Chadwick.

Holiness

The holiness taught in the Bible is the same as that lived by the saints of the Bible. The saints of the New Testament showed us how holy people ought to live.

Help our Merchants to help YOU

EVERYBODY will agree that a man succeeds and prospers only when he spends LESS money than he receives in a given period of time.

Let's apply this great economic test to the situation in this town: Our business men have invested—and continue to invest—their money in stocks of goods brought here to your very door to meet your daily needs.

Through the pages of this paper they advise you of their ability to serve this community. All of us know that they deserve our patronage. And remember, the more you trade with them the more funds they can invest in larger stocks and new lines.

SAFE SWEETS

NATURAL fruit sugars are easier to digest than the other kinds, and this is especially true of pineapple whose fruit sugar is of a type all ready for human assimilation. So, when you begin serving filling desserts again this fall, keep in mind that you and your children can safely eat your fill if you make them fruit desserts. Here is a way to combine Hawaiian pineapple with grapefruit that will make you glad of this "inside information."

Pineapple and Grapefruit Shortcake: Boil three-fourths cup canned pineapple syrup and three-fourths cup canned grapefruit syrup with two tablespoons sugar five minutes. Cool, add fruit and serve on hot, rich baking powder biscuits, split and buttered. This makes enough to serve eight.

And here is another combination of fruits which is simple, sustaining and safe to eat in quantities:

A Simple Dessert

Fruit Rice Parfait: Press out all the syrup from crushed pineapple in a No. 2 can, drain a No. 2 can of apricots, and combine the syrups. Bring to boiling, add one-fourth cup rice, boil five minutes, then cook over boiling water until the rice is very tender and the liquid all absorbed. Add one-fourth cup sugar, the drained pineapple and the apricots pressed through a sieve. Chill thoroughly. Just before serving, fold in one cup beaten cream. Pile lightly in glasses and garnish with a bit of preserved ginger. Serves eight to ten.

Rescuing Bread Pudding

HOW often you have heard the peevish words: "Oh, I hate that old bread pudding!" Here are two ways to rescue bread puddings from such condemnation and make it not a penalty but a delight.

Hawaiian Bread Pudding: Scald two cups milk, add one-half cup sugar, two tablespoons butter, one-half teaspoon salt and one-fourth teaspoon nutmeg, and pour over two cups stale bread (pieces not crumbled) letting it stand until soft and milk taken up by the bread. Add two beaten eggs, and pour into a large shallow baking dish. Lay the drained slices from a No. 2½ can of Hawaiian pineapple over the top, and bake in a slow oven, 350°, for from forty-five minutes to an hour. This serves eight very liberally. Serve with the following

Try Whole Wheat

Pineapple Pudding: Toast four slices of whole wheat bread, butter and cut into small squares. Place in bottom of a baking dish and pour over the drained fruit from half of a No. 2 can of crushed Hawaiian pineapple. Beat one egg, add four tablespoons sugar, one cup milk and a few grains of nutmeg and pour over. Bake in a slow oven, 350°, for about forty minutes. Serve warm with sauce made by stirring together the pineapple syrup and some heavy cream. This serves six.

In Case of Emergency

When you want a thing in a hurry you rush to a local store and get it. But do you realize that the existence of our stores depends upon continued business.

If every person in this community were to use the stores only for emergencies there would soon be no more places to satisfy those urgent needs.

The Best Buying Policy

You should do your part towards keeping local business alive and in a constant state of betterment by doing all your trading at home. It will be profitable to you as well as to the entire community.

EXCELLENT PUBLICITY

"How do you like your new publicity agent?" asked the film star's friend.

"Oh, he's wonderful," she cried, beaming with enthusiasm. "We've been robbed twice, our house has been burned, our car has been wrecked, and I have had my life threatened by an anonymous enemy since we employed him."

Another Reason

"Why are telephone rates so high?" "Because of the extravagance of the American people," answered the man who can explain everything. "The company has to charge extra because whenever there is a great popular demonstration people insist on tearing up telephone books to make confetti."

Problems in Ushering

Head Usher (to aide in crowded picture theater)—Tell that large woman she'll have to take her hat off that other seat and hold it in her lap.

Usher (back after a few minutes)—What'll I do now? She says she ain't got no lap.

No Way Out

The old man's wife had been ill for some time, and he was asked how she was getting on.

"Oh, ma'am," he replied sorrowfully, "the doctor won't give us no hope either way."

QUITE AMBITIOUS

First Hobo—Say, Pard, wouldn't it be great if youse could git all de eat an' drink youse wanted by jist pressin' a 'lectric button?

Second Hobo—It shore would if I had somebody ter press de button for me.

Art and Nature

The comic picture cheers our eyes. With quaint contortions, day by day, And yet how we would sympathize If anybody grew that way!

How Can He Know?

Boss—How is it you are never at work on time in the morning and often leave too early in the evening?
Clerk—Well, sir, you told me not to watch the clock, so I don't pay any attention to it.

When!

Yin Sing—What timee next tain go Denver?
Ticket Agent—Two-two.
Yin Sing—You no understand; I know tain go too-too. I no ask how he go; I ask when!"

Not Then

"An engaged girl should tell her prospective husband about her faults."
"A good plan. And she runs no risks."
"Eh?"
"He'll never believe her."

Path of Least Resistance

"When I was twenty I made up my mind to get rich."
"But you never became rich."
"No, I decided it was a lot easier to change my mind."

PUZZLING PITCHER

"Oh, isn't the man that throws the ball on your side just splendid?"
"Think so?"
"Yes, he sends it so they hit it every time."

Irony

He climbed the tallest mountains (The public cheered each feat). Then lost his life while climbing Into a rumble seat!

That Goes for Girls, Too

"Odd, isn't it?"
"What?"
"That often a man doesn't show how dumb he is till he starts talking."

Kentucky Governor Scoops Water To Be Used in Launching

Governor Flem D. Sampson of Kentucky pictured at the Lincoln Spring at Hodgenville, scooping up a container of water to be used during the launching, December 5, of the new United States Lines ship "Manhattan," largest ship ever built in America. The spring is supposed to be one where "Honest Abe" Lincoln quenched his thirst when a boy.

LET'S STICK TOGETHER

Any time is a poor time for a family to be divided against itself, and that applies as well to a town. If there ever was a time when the smaller towns of this country needed to maintain a 100 per cent spirit of co-operation, that time is right now.

There is no desire to hold Fulton up as an example of a town divided against itself, for it would not be a fair illustration. But neither would anyone be justified in declaring that the community is wholly and entirely free from petty factionalism, for it crops out occasionally in spite of itself. Here is one thing, however, that no one can dispute, and that is that so long as the least semblance of factionalism exists, or there is a tendency on the part of anyone to antagonize any movement that has for its object the improvement of local conditions, then the entire community is the loser.

The most prosperous and progressive towns to be found in any state in the union are those in which factionalism is unknown; those in which every proposition for the good of the public receives whole-hearted support; those in which no "rule or ruin" spirit is evidenced by even one citizen; those where teamwork is perfect and the slogan is "All For One and One For All." That kind of town gets by, even under such conditions as we have been passing through, far better than those wherein factionalism plays a part. If you want to do something worth while for yourself and your neighbors, ask yourself if you are doing all that you possibly can do to make this kind of town. Then be sure that you can truthfully and loyally answer "Yes!"

FORMER FULTON GIRL A SUICIDE

Mrs. Everett Rushton Takes Carbolic Acid in Mayfield

Mrs. Everett Rushton, 22, formerly of this city, but who has been living in Mayfield for the past week, committed suicide Tuesday morning in Mayfield, according to news received here by relatives. The message stated that Mrs. Rushton took carbolic acid. She was making her home with her sister, Mrs. Jennie Puckett, in Mayfield.

Mrs. Rushton is survived by her father, Ed Brooks, her husband, Everett, of this city, and a young son who lives with his father here.

JUDGE ROBBINS IS DEAD

Dean of Mayfield Bar Is Victim of Heart Disease.

Judge J. E. Robbins, 77, dean of Mayfield bar members, and one of Western Kentucky's outstanding citizens, died at 3:30 p. m. Sunday, Nov. 1, at his home in Mayfield, from heart disease.

Judge Robbins, who was born in the Brush Creek community, south of Mayfield, had been actively identified with the civic, political and religious life of Mayfield and Graves county for more than a half century. His first office was county surveyor in 1878, and since then he had served as city attorney of Mayfield, county judge, circuit judge of the first judicial district and representative in the Kentucky assembly.

He was the first president of the old Graves County Banking and Trust Company, and was actively identified with the First Christian Church. In 1903 he was appointed special judge of the Scott Circuit Court to try the case against Caleb Powers, indicted for the murder of Governor William Goebel, and presided during the trial. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Emma Pane Robbins, and a son, Bayle Robbins, by a former marriage. Judge Robbins was associated with L. R. Smith in the practice of law at Mayfield.

WARN DUCK HUNTERS

No Shooting On Reelfoot Lake This Year Until Nov. 16.

U. S. Commissioner J. C. Burdick, of Union City, Tenn., received a letter from S. W. Linebaugh, federal game warden, last week, in which Mr. Linebaugh stated that duck shooting on Nov. 1 will be held illegal by the federal game department and violators of this law will be prosecuted.

Commissioner Burdick has also been informed by J. P. Finley, state game warden, that he will co-operate with the federal department and that his assistants will be on duty until noon Nov. 16. All violators of this regulation will be arrested and prosecuted.

Commissioner Burdick states that he will see that local hunters who are obeying the law will not be forced to forego shooting while outsiders and professional sportsmen come to Reelfoot Lake and shoot ducks during the next ten days in defiance of the law.

FREAK POTATO

A sweet potato brought to Fulton Saturday by J. W. Norman, Route 5, Obion county, created quite a bit of comment by all who viewed it. It was a freak potato about seven inches long showing the outline of a human face and body in its growth.

FIRST DISTRICT EDUCATIONAL ASSN. TO MEET AT MURRAY

The program for the forty-seventh annual session of the First District Education Association, which will convene November 27-28 at Murray State Teachers College, has been released by the president, Supt. K. R. Patterson, of Mayfield. Approximately 1400 teachers of the First District are members of the association.

Educational exhibits are being prepared by schools in the following counties: Ballard, Caldwell, Carlisle, Crittenden, Fulton, Graves, Hickman, Livingston, Lyon, Marshall, Trigg, McCracken and Calloway.

Officers of the F. D. E. A. are: Kenneth R. Patterson, president, superintendent Mayfield schools; Mrs. Beulah Simmons, vice-president, superintendent Carlisle county schools; V. W. Wallis, vice-president, superintendent Ballard county schools; C. H. Arnett, treasurer, principal Sedalia High School; M. O. Wrather, superintendent Calloway county schools.

Among the speakers and subjects on the program will be: Dr. Johnathan Rigdon, president emeritus Central Normal College, Danville, Ind., "An Open Mind;" Supt. J. O. Lewis, Fulton City Schools, "The Value of Our State Organization;" Supt. J. W. Bradner, Middlesboro, Ky., president of the Kentucky Educational Association, "K. E. A. and Our Program;" Supt. Harper Gattton, Madisonville City School, "Our Added Responsibility;" Dr. G. T. Hicks, head of education in Murray State College, "Getting the Value Out of the Extra-Curriculars;" Dr. A. L. Crabbe, Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn., "Another Definition of Education;" Dr. Ruth Streitz, University of Cincinnati, "The New Elementary School;" Superintendent of Public Instruction of Kentucky, "Education in Kentucky;" Judge Camille Kelley, Memphis, Tenn.; Dr. John L. Hill, Nashville, Tenn., former dean of Georgetown College, Ky., "The Highest Pedagogy."

Supt. W. J. Caplinger, director of city schools and training school of Murray, has charge of the education exhibits.

AUSTIN SPRINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Perry entertained the string band of this place at their home Saturday night. A number of goblins, spooks, etc., were also present, and having a jolly good time. All report a nice time.

The writer spent last Wednesday with a sister, Mrs. Roy Hammett and family of Hollow Rock, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Vincent have moved back to their farm near here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ace Phillips and son, James Thomas, and Mrs. E. J. Jones and grandson, J. W., all of the Kingston store vicinity, were in our midst Saturday and were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Copeland.

Mr. and Mrs. Fount Gibson were in Mayfield Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. John Cane have returned from Detroit and are visiting parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will McCollum, of Foy's store vicinity.

Dan Lewis Davis was born Nov. 10, 1893, departed this life Oct. 26, 1931; age 37 years, 11 mos., 16 days. Was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Davis, who were former residents of this section, but now residing near Brown's Grove. Don had been afflicted for the past 20 years and bore his suffering with great fortitude and he passed away quietly as if drifting into a natural sleep. We have no doubts but that Don is at rest, he having been a member of the Church of Christ for the past 18 years. Surviving are his aged mother, father, and three sisters, and other relatives and many friends.

Funeral services were held at Knob Creek church by Rev. T. T. Harris, with interment at Pinegar cemetery. Many beautiful flowers cover his last resting place, that bespeak of the esteem in which he was held.

After all, the happiest people around Fulton are those who are too busy to attend to other people's business.

FRED INGRAM

DROPS DEAD

Well Known Railroad Man Dies in Blufford, Ill.

Fred Ingram, Illinois Central freight conductor who had been living in Fulton for some time, died suddenly Monday afternoon in a restaurant at Blufford, Illinois. Mrs. Ingram left on first train for Mount Vernon, to which place the body was taken. Burial took place at Centralia, the former home of the family. Mr. Ingram is survived by his wife and four children. Many local friends regret to learn of his sudden death and extend sincere sympathy to the bereaved.

TAKEN HOME

J. D. Walker, Jr., who was severely injured by a car last week was improved sufficiently to be taken to his home on Maple avenue Monday afternoon after being in the Curline hospital since the accident. The many friends of the family will be glad to know of his improvement.

The auto may be putting a few railroad trains out of business—but not when they meet at grade-crossings.
