NUMBER FOUR

ADDRESS BY LOCAL MINISTER

(The following address was written by Rev. Loyal O. Hartman, pastor of the First Methodist Church, and delivered to the Memphis Protestant Pastors Association. It is being published on request of THE NEWS.)

"The Professional Demands of the Ministry"

The professional demands of the ministry, grow out of the nature of the gospel, and the legitimate objective of a real ministry. They have their source in Him who came, not to be ministered unto, but to minister.

Sham and pretense are never more quickly discerned, nor more deadly in effect, than in the ministry. A real man is required to meet the demands of this profession. To profess, and not to be, is to parallel the barren fig tree, from which one has a right to expect fruit. The age in which we live, demands that the ministry be more than mere profession; there must be vital expression.

The profession demands a big heart, a good mind, adequate education, self-training, a developed personality and an acquired power of action and utterance. A pagan with a little veneer of Christianity, is not a preacher. Pop-guns cannot fire great explosives. A man without a country is a pitiful being, but a minister without a sky and heaven-born power is a forerunner in the midst of his profession.

A vital knowledge of the gospel with all its vast implications is essential. . . . This knowledge is the spiritual sunshine which sheds light upon all things human. Mere prejudices, inherited traditions, self-chosen theological systems and cock-sure assumptions are not the gospel. They constitute the ruin of many a minister's life work.

The ministry demands a background of large knowledge in human affairs. There must be a knowledge of our civilization, its origin, current thought, and the living problems of the age. The glory of our gospel lies not so much in what it has done, as in what it can and will do. This message is for men and women living today. The profession of the ministry demands a recognition of this truth.

There must be broad and deep sympathy with attitudes of men. The error, the mistakes of human thinking, must challenge the ministry, but not to the extent hate is engendered. Here is the root of patience that can avoid the making of needless issues.

Faithfulness is required. Loyalty is always a virtue. The object of one's loyalty may be nefarious and wholly beneath him, but loyalty is always a virtue. It is never more virtuous than when meeting the demands of the ministry. The Master did not say, "Well done thou efficient servant," nor did He say, "Well done thou genius," but He did say, "Well done thou good and faithful servant." Faithfulness in every part of the minister's work is a prime necessity. It may sound learned and smart to say we do not have time to call, or that we are not called to "burn shoe leather or ring door bells," and yet, it is everlastingly true that the shepherd who does not know his sheep cannot feed them. It is written, "The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up!" What a glorious consummation for a true ministry.

A great ministry must be constructive. The profession demands something positive. Criticism, fault-finding, denunciation of evil, or even dissent, while sometimes needed, do not constitute a saving gospel. A good fence does not feed the sheep, and beating them does not fatten them. When a man resorts to such tactics in the pulpit, he forfeits his right to be called a minister, and is not living up to the standards of the profession he claims to voice. The best way to get all the air out of a glass, is to fill it with water, a more substantial substance. The

Board of Education In Meeting

The Fulton Board of Education held its regular meeting Monday night at the high school building. A discussion was held to decide whether or not the Board will work with the WPA on the construction of a new building for Carr Institute school. Plans were made for members to go to Sedalia on Thursday or Friday to inspect a WPA building there.

After making the inspection tour, if a decision is made to attempt to secure a building, prospects will be discussed with local WPA officials. Plans will be definite by the March meeting date.

A budget was presented to the Board but was not decided on and will be discussed further at the March meeting.

Bulldogs Defeated By Milburn Five

The Fulton Bulldogs lost a badly played game to the Milburn team last Friday night in Milburn, 21 to 16. Milburn held the lead the entire game, the first victory of the season for that team. Bogle, Milburn center, was high point man. Moore and Hannah each scored 4 points.

In the opener the Pups won over the Milburn seconds 19 to 11. Milburn led at the half by a score of 11 to 3.

Lineup:
Pos. Fulton (16) Milburn (21)

GOOD CROWD AT TENDS SINGING SUNDAY

A large crowd attended the regular second Sunday community singing at the City Hall Sunday afternoon, with many out-of-town visitors present. Several singers from other communities were present, including a trio from Hickman and Mr. Burgess, radio artist of Paducah.

best way to scatter darkness is to turn on the light. The best way to eradicate error, is to disseminate truth. The profession of the ministry demands a similar procedure.

Little has been said concerning ethical demands. It is imperative that a minister pay his debts, avoid entangling contacts with the world and remain above reproach.

Above all, the ministry demands a voice of authority. There must be settled and mighty convictions. He must speak out of an assured spiritual consciousness. Nothing in preaching is a satisfactory substitute for the blessed realization of the abiding Presence of God. When the material sun shines over the material world, we have light in the physical universe. When the light of the Son of Righteousness shines in the benighted hearts of men, there is spiritual light indeed. Philosophy, science, even correct ethics cannot save a lost world. They therefore fall short of a great ministry, and can never fulfill the demands of the true profession.

On a hill called Calvary, were three bodies. Two were there because they fell below respectability. They did not coincide with the customs and standards of their day and society. The third was there because He dared to rise above the standards of respectability; the customs of His day. Had He been content with their standards, He could have avoided the Cross. He was there, not because he fell below their standards as did the thieves, but because he dared to rise above their standards, and announce the Kingdom of God.

Our profession demands that we take our place beside Him, rise above the standards of our day, and thus fulfill our mission as ministers to a complacent, yet sorely distressed civilization.

SCOUT WEEK OBSERVED IN FULTON

Beginning a week of celebration in honor of the 31st anniversary of the founding of the Boy Scout movement in the United States, a special union service for local Boy Scouts was held Sunday at 5 p.m. at the First Baptist church. Rev. E. R. Ladd, chairman of the Fulton Ministerial Association, presided over the services.

Troop 43 gave the Scout Oath and Scout Laws in a candle lighting service. Troop 44 gave the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag. Rev. Wulf of the Episcopal Church gave the invocation prayer and Rev. William Woodburn of the First Christian Church led the offertory prayer. The choir of the Baptist Church rendered a beautiful anthem, "The Ninety and Nine."

Rev. E. A. Autrey, pastor of the Baptist Church, made the address on "When Life Tumbles In." Rev. L. O. Hartman of the First Methodist Church pronounced the benediction.

Scouts present included Troops 43 and 44 of Fulton, troops from Cayce and Riceville, and colored troops from Fulton and South Fulton.

At a recent scout meeting in Paducah the district to which these troops belong was changed to the Four Rivers Area.

KITTY LEAGUE ADOPTS SCHEDULE

Directors and club owners of the Kitty League held their annual mid-winter meeting at the Irvin Cobb Hotel in Paducah Sunday afternoon. A schedule was adopted, calling for the season to begin May 12 and end September 12. The schedule provides for 126 games plus an all-star contest whose participants will be selected by the fans. Representatives from Hopkinsville indicated that there is small chance of that city remaining in the league but President Shelby Peace announced that Madisonville, Ky., and Paris and Dyersburg, Tenn., are interested in getting in the league if there are any withdrawals. The Paducah club will be operated this year by a group, headed by John H. Campbell, and will definitely remain in the league. Each club must have $550 on deposit with the National Association of Professional Leagues at Durham, N. C., by March 1 or forfeit its right to a franchise.

Directors voted to use the Goldsmith ball next season but refused a proposal to adopt that ball for three years instead of one. They also decided that only players listed on the roster as pitchers will be permitted to take the mound in Kitty League games. If a team has an outfielder who can also pitch he must be listed as an outfielder-pitcher. During the first 20 days of the season when the player limit is 20, a team may list as many as 12 as pitchers. After that time, when the limit is 15, only 9 players can be described as pitchers.

Attending the meeting from Fulton were: K. P. Dalton, president of the local club, H. H. Bugg, Bert Newhouse and J. R. Hogan.

A meeting was held in the Extension Office of the Post Office in Hickman, February 7, to discuss the cotton mattress project.

It was decided that there would be two more sign-up days which would be on Wednesday, February 19, from 1:30 to 3:30 at Sylvan Shade School, Graves School, Middleston's Store (Sassafras Ridge), Hornsby's Store (Bondurant), and the Extension Office (Hickman). YMBC IN GOOD MEETING TUESDAY

Visitors were 3 Scouts, Edward Crutchfield of Troop 43, Billie Johnson and James Mann of Troop 44, and Hoyt Moore, Editor of the Fulton Daily Leader.

The president turned the program over to Bertie Pigue, who is associate vice-president of the Four Rivers Area Council of Boy Scouts as well as chairman of the Fulton-Hickman Counties Council. Mr. Pigue asked Scoutmaster William Henry Edwards to say a few words and to introduce Scout Crutchfield to the club. Scoutmaster Edgar Jones then spoke briefly and introduced Scouts Johnson and Mann.

Mr. Pigue then presented Mr. Moore, who was the principal speaker. He stated that he was 100 per cent behind the Boy Scout organization and offered his cooperation.

The Y. M. B. C. voted to sponsor a basketball game Monday night, February 17, at the Science Hall, between the World Champion New York Celtics and the Union University team. There will also be a preliminary game.

Co-chairman H. L. Bushart and W. L. Holland of the Wild Life committee reported that one meeting had been held with the game warden of this district and other state officials in the conservation of game, and other good contacts in the forming of an all-sports club had been made. The club has received letters from Governor of Kentucky Keen Johnson, Director of Game and Fish Wakefield, Governor of Tennessee Prentice Cooper, and the Director of the Department of Conservation in the state of Tennessee and all had promised to see that the club obtained quail this season for restocking hunting territory of this community.

F. A. Homra, chairman of preliminary plans for the Ken-Tenn Exposition, reported that a date had been set for holding the fair this year and other detail work is under way. In all probability the fair will open September 29 and continue through October 5. A much larger fair is being planned, with the addition of community booths for such communities as Palestine, Lodgeston, etc. A handsome cash prize will be awarded for the best booth.

Three new members were voted into the club. They are Maurice Ward of the Ward Refrigeration and Radio Service, Leroy Latta of U-Tote-Em Grocery and Ben Saxton of Miller-Jones Shoe Store.

The club passed a motion to petition the state legislature and governor on revising laws so that TVA will be made available to cities of Kentucky.

The following by-law was put before the club and endorsed by the club: "Any member whose paid up membership shall expire while he is in active military or navy service of the United States shall be continued on the roll as a member in good standing during such active service and for ninety days following his discharge, without payment of dues during such period, and he shall enjoy all rights and privileges of active membership, including the right to vote."

After some discussion on the possibility of obtaining an airport, the president appointed Lynn Phipps and Oran Winstead to work with the Lions Club in any way possible for this to be obtained in Fulton.

The secretary read the "Pet Peeves" that had been received from the citizens of Fulton and community. Some asked that the streets be cleaned, some asked for cemetery improvements, others complained of the parking condition.

YMBC MEETING

tions and one asked that a signal light be installed at the intersection of State Line and Church streets. The one creating the most discussion among members of the club was about the fire department. This pet peeve asked that the Young Men's Business Club send a committee to the City Council and ask that the city buy a new fire truck instead of repairing the old truck that was wrecked recently. Several members discussed the fact that the fire department lost $75 to the South Fulton department recently when that truck was called to Highlands because the Fulton trucks were not able to take care of that fire. It is possible that a blanket increase in fire rates will be made if something is not done to improve the conditions. The president appointed the following committee to meet with the city council at an early date: Billy Blackstone, chairman, B. J. Pique, Foad Homra, Robert Graham and Orian Winstead.

"BEHIND THE SCENES IN AMERICAN BUSINESS"

By JOHN CRADDOCK
New York, Feb. 10—BUSINESS—Though you may have spotted price rises in some things, and got the impression that living costs were on a strong uptrend, fact is living cost rises have been amazingly low in comparison with what was feared on the war would bring, on the basis of the 1914-18 experience. National Industrial Conference Board's report on 1940 shows that the wage-earner paid only nine-tenths of one per cent more for his essential requirements in 1940 than in 1939—and nearly three per cent less than in 1937. The survey covers food, clothing, housing, sundries, light and fuel. The Board uses 1923 as the standard for living costs. With that as "100," costs during 1940 for the fields surveyed aggregated 85.3. Which means that the purchasing power of the 40 dollar was 117.2 per cent of what it was in '23. . . you could buy as much with a single round dollar in those essentials as you could have got for $1.17 in 1923.

NO RUNAWAY—So maybe prices aren't going to run away, after all—though we certainly heard plenty of talk expressing fear of just that when the defense drive was just starting. Maybe we should knock on wood. But the experts say this stability in cost of living, thus far, in spite of numerous "inflationary" influences, has been due mainly to three factors: (1) Our abundance of foodstuffs and raw materials; (2) mutual determination, arising out of experience in the other war, on the part of both business and government to keep prices down; (3) comparatively small number of labor disturbances, to date.

LOW-PRICE TREND—The auto industry, which has pledged itself to priorities on defense orders, finds itself able to surge ahead full-blast to meet what is predicted to be the greatest spring demand in its history. Announcement of new models shows a definite trend toward stepped-up production and continued low prices, indicating a noticeable shortage in basic materials. Among the late news on the industry is the announcement by one concern, Willys-Overland, of what is described as "the lowest-priced full-sized automobile in the world"—a new coupe priced at $70 under any other model of the company—in addition to five other low-cost models. According to Ward M. Canaday, chairman of the company, "the location of defense plants in outlying areas and the general trend of industrial decentralization make it imperative that hundreds of thousands of workers be provided with low-cost auto transportation to reach their jobs. We are gearing our production to meet these needs."

VETERAN CARRIER IS RELIEVED BY RETONGA

Distress From Indigestion, Constipation and Toxic Pains Promptly Relieved, States This Popular Hickman Citizen. Eats Plenty, Regains Several Pounds and Feels Much Stronger

When well known, substantial citizens like Mr. John D. Lewis publicly recommend Retonga there can be no doubt of the grand relief he found nor of the sincerity of his desire to tell other sufferers about Retonga. Mr. Lewis, who owns his own farm on Route 3, Bon Aqua, Tenn., was a Rural Mail Carrier twenty-eight years and is one of Hickman county's most respected and best known residents. In gratefully describing his happy experience with Retonga, Mr. Lewis stated:

"The tortures from indigestion, sour stomach and gas bloating made me dread to eat and I lost weight and strength till I could hardly stay up. I had to take purgatives regularly, but they failed to relieve the swimming headaches and sharp pains all through my muscles, and I often seemed to ache in every joint of my body. So many medicines failed to help me, I was almost in despair.

"Retonga promptly relieved these distresses and I eat everything I want now. I sleep fine and I have regained seven pounds. I would feel selfish not to recommend Retonga to other sufferers."

Thousand praise this stomachic medicine. Accept no substitute. Retonga may be obtained at DeMyer Drug Co. Adv.
