Juveniles Caught Robbing School

Two juveniles, both of them boys, were arrested at North Marshall High School Tuesday night by Sheriff Billy Watkins. The boys are accused of taking about $15 in cash from the agriculture room of the school. Entrance to the building was gained by breaking a window. Sheriff Watkins was lying in wait at the school and caught the boys as they were leaving the building. The sheriff had gone to the school building because of recent vandalism there. Last week, someone tossed a pumpkin through a window of the school building. The boys were brought to the office of County Judge Atelle Hallom and turned over to juvenile authorities for investigation. Two break-ins were reported Monday to the office of Sheriff Billy Watkins. Burglars entered Leigh's Barbecue Restaurant, located on Highway 62 between Calvert City and Gilbertsville, by breaking open the front door. The thieves took about $50 in cash from the pinball machine, about $25 worth of barbecue meat and two pounds of hamburger meat. The vacant house owned by Clyde Chumbar on Route 6 also was entered, either by thieves or loafers. Some furniture is stored in the house, but nothing was known to be missing. The break-in was discovered Monday.

Big Vote is Predicted Tuesday

A record high vote is expected in Marshall County in next Tuesday's general election, provided the weather is favorable. Politicians are predicting a vote of 5,500 and 6,000. Recent tabulations show there are 8,925 registered voters in this county. Approximately 800 youths from 18 to 21 years old have registered in the county since the new state law was passed, swelling the ranks of voters. Marshall County is expected to go Democratic by more than two to one. In the 1952 presidential race, Adlai Stevenson polled 3,445 votes to 1,474 for Dwight Eisenhower in this county. That made a total vote of 4,919. In the 1948 presidential election, Harry Truman polled 2,942 votes to 711 for Thomas Dewey, making a total of only 3,653. Largest vote in Marshall County in recent years was cast in the 1933 election. Total vote that year was 5,630. Politicians are predicting that the vote next Tuesday will exceed the big 1933 vote, if the day is warm and sunny. Aside from the presidential and senatorial races and the road bond issue, Marshall County will vote on candidates for three places on the Benton City School Board and three places on the Marshall County Board of Education.

Poll Reveals Cooper Race Will Be Close

A poll of 82 Kentucky newspaper editors across the state shows that they believe Adlai Stevenson will again carry Kentucky. Earl Clements will be re-elected, the Lawrence Wetherby and John Sherman Cooper race will be a virtual toss-up, and most incumbents will be returned to Congress. The poll, conducted by the WHAS radio and TV news department, was completed just one week prior to the voting. News Director Bill Small reveals that 51 of the editors see Stevenson carrying Kentucky while 30 pick Eisenhower. One saw it as too close a race to predict.

In Kentucky's senatorial contest, incumbent Senator Earl Clements is running ahead of his opponent, 70 to 12 in the editors' opinion. In the other race, John Sherman Cooper leads Lawrence Wetherby 38 to 36, four editors seeing it too close for comment, four others just skipping comment. There was no evaluation made by WHAS of the Third District race because so few newspapers are in that area.

(Ky. State Police Photo) MUSCULAR MUFFLER CHECK is conducted by two Kentucky State Policemen as the auto's owner, 82-year-old B. D. "Pop" Tracy, Frankfort, looks on. Tracy drives the 1923 Ford every day. Sergeant John Ed Tomlinson is lifting the auto while Trooper Bob Calvert checks the muffler. State Troopers may not lift every auto off the ground to check for vehicle deficiencies, but if your car doesn't have adequate equipment it will probably be inspected in the near future by a State Trooper.

Key Awards are Presented Lions

The Benton Lions Club held their annual Ladies Night Banquet at Kentucky Dam State Park Tuesday night with 87 members and guests attending. The banquet was served buffet style. The menu included roast turkey, roast beef, ham and shrimp creole. The tables were beautifully arranged with autumn flowers. Highlight of the program was the presentation of plaques to George Erickson, selected as Lion of the year, and to Ray Linn who has been responsible for 12 new members of the club, more than any other member of the Benton organization. George Erickson, employed by B. E. Goodrich at Calvert City was selected for the honor because of his work in civic affairs and as a member of the Lions Club. He and his wife, Elizabeth, and daughter, Gloria, moved to Benton in 1951. Body Is Recovered From Lake After Four-Month Search

The body of a Fort Campbell soldier who was drowned last June 30 in Kentucky Lake, was found last Thursday, Oct. 25. Officers from the military base identified the body as that of Gerald L. DeYoung, Grand Rapids, Mich., who fell from a motor boat in the Jonathan Creek area nearly four months ago. The body was found at 3:45 p.m. by Bernice Witt, conservation officers, while on duty at the lake. He said the body was lodged in bushes on the lake shore at a point where Jonathan Creek enters the lake proper. He said the body might have been held under water by the bushes, which are now exposed because of the low water line. Deputy Coroner Johnny Ray Linn went to the scene and notified Ft. Campbell officials. The body was taken to Ft. Campbell.

Jurors are Deadlocked In Big Suit

A Marshall Circuit Court jury failed to reach an agreement Tuesday in a $50,000 damage suit resulting from the death last April of a two-and-a-half-year-old child. The child, Sharon Howard, was fatally injured last April 5 when struck by an M. Livingston Co. truck in front of her father's grocery store at Palma. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Howard, who now reside on Paducah Route 4, brought the damage suit. The jury deliberated almost an hour and a half before reporting it was hopelessly deadlocked. The truck was driven by Vincent Cunningham, a Negro, who was one of the key witnesses at the trial. Last week, the court disposed of several criminal cases. Louise Redder was sentenced to one year in prison on a charge of child desertion. Charles Walker, on probation under a five-year sentence for operating a motor vehicle without the owner's consent, received revocation of his probation and was sent to prison. Arthur Faughn was sentenced to 30 days in jail on a charge of assault and battery. Bose Stalcup and Virgil Egner pleaded guilty to a charge of storehouse breaking and received four-year suspended sentences and were placed on probation.

72 Present At Dinner Event Of Chamber

Thursday night of last week the executive and tourist committees of Marshall County Chamber of Commerce held a dinner meeting at Big Bear Camp at which 72 men and women directly interested in the tourist industry were present. The meeting was arranged by the tourist committee, composed of Ralph Moore, chairman, Bill Omeybaker, Shelby McCallum, F. D. Boone and Tye Gohsen. Several matters of particular interest to the tourist business were discussed and considerable interest was indicated by all attending as to the need of a county-wide organization. Included in the topics discussed were the needs for improved access roads to lake properties and for future developments; centrally located tourist information center to give all tourists a free choice of selections; county-wide telephone service; cooperation with state-owned facilities; and publication of specific tourist information brochures for Marshall County. The group favored the holding of schools sponsored by the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce for instruction to all personnel and employees of those directly engaged in the tourist business and this will be one of the objectives adopted by the local chamber. Membership campaign plans were announced by the officers, with the tentative date being about the middle of November. It was also announced that plans are being made for a meeting this week at South Marshall school with the agriculture committee, and a meeting at an early date at Calvert City with the plant managers.

ATTENTION ALL VETERANS!

YOUR MARSHALL COUNTY VETERANS COMMITTEE CALLS YOUR ATTENTION TO THESE FACTS!

HERE Is What The Democratic 84th Congress Proposed:

- 1st. - Raise Compensation for Veterans injured in Service.
- 2nd. - Raising Pensions of World War II and Korea Widows to equal those of Widows of World War I.
- 3rd. - Democrats sought to extend home loan guarantee for 1,000,000 qualified World War II Veterans who do not own their homes

The above quotations are how the president sounded the retreat on Veterans Benefits and here is how the Republicans in Congress answered the President's Call.

24,000 Veterans on Hospital waiting list and 300,000 approved service connected dental cases were awaiting treatment for lack of funds. Democrats proposed increase in funds to take care of this situation.

The Republicans attempted to give certain Government agencies Blanket Authority to fire Veterans without regard to Veterans-Preference Laws.

The Republicans attempted to force Veterans to submit to searching Government Investigation of Personal Finance before being admitted to V. A. Hospitals.

THIS Was The Presidents Position:

NO. 1. QUOTE: "IT IS NOT BELIEVED THAT SUCH A NEED EXISTS."

NO. 2. QUOTE: "NOT IN ACCORD WITH THE PROGRAM OF THE PRESIDENT."

NO. 3. QUOTE: "NOT IN ACCORD WITH THE PROGRAM OF THE PRESIDENT."

THE ROLL CALL

91% OF HOUSE REPUBLICANS VOTED AGAINST INCREASE.

THE ROLL CALL

86% OF HOUSE REPUBLICANS AND 100% OF SENATE REPUBLICANS VOTED AGAINST VETERANS.

SOLID DEMOCRATIC OPPOSITION KILLED THE PLAN. BUT THE ROLL CALL 81% HOUSE REPUBLICANS VOTED AGAINST VETERANS.

This year the President appointed a study of Veterans Legislation Commission headed by retired General Omar Bradley. This is part of their proposal:

Gradually ending pensions to G. I. widows and orphans and transfer them to welfare rolls or relief.

Ending G. I. Bill of Rights.

Ending Veterans Preference in Government employment.

Reducing compensation to Blind, Paraplegic and Amputee Vets.

Cutting G. I. Bill by eliminating benefits in education; vocational training, housing and loans.

Which is opposed by all Veterans Organizations, quote: "Proposed to strip the Veteran of the dignity of a special status which throughout the history of our Country has always been accorded him.

V. F. W. call it "A Brush off to the Nations Veterans."

THE DEMOCRATS STAND PROTECTS VETS RIGHTS

The Democratic 84th Congress passed laws that rescinded the arbitrary Eisenhower action cutting off (as of Jan. 1st, 1955 the right of men then in service to continue acquiring educational benefits under G. I. Bill of Rights.

Extended educational benefits for Veterans' orphans.

Broadened the Home and Farm Loan Program.

Provided funds to improve 74 V. A. Hospitals.

Passes 16 other laws designed to strengthen the Veterans Administration.

STUDY CAREFULLY THEN VOTE TO PROTECT YOUR OWN INTEREST WHICH WE FEEL SURE WILL BE THE STRAIGHT DEMOCRATIC TICKET, NOVEMBER 6.

"Under God, we espouse the cause of freedom and justice and peace for all peoples!"

Dwight D. Eisenhower

"God has given us freedom... and justice... and peace. And when we frame our plans around the reverent belief in a God of order, justice and love, there is bright hope for the world."

"Millions of families in homes around the globe pray for freedom and justice just as we do. And they look to us to use our strength to keep the peace."

"Now, as I see it, there are three imperatives for peace."

"The first imperative for peace is the elementary necessity of maintaining our own national strength—military, economic and moral."

"During the past three and one-half years, our military strength has been greatly increased. Never before in peacetime have we been so strong as today. Our economic power is reaching new peaks every day. But, most important, we are competing today for men's hearts and minds and trust. So what we do and say at home is even more important than what we say abroad!"

"The second imperative for peace is collective security."

"We live in a shrunken world in which oceans are crossed in hours. Today it is madness to suppose that there could be an island of tranquility and prosperity in a sea of wretchedness and frustration. For self-preservation we must engage in a mutual economic and military cooperation with the free nations."

"But even this is no longer enough."

"The third imperative for peace is this:

Giving BOTH our guns away!

Communist leaders . . . RUSSIAN LEADERS . . . have heartily approved Adlai Stevenson's hydrogen bomb proposals. They have, in fact, been seeking that type of proposal from America for several years. Kentuckians hope the United States will never have a President so naive that he would give away the STRENGTH which equalizes the military potential of America and that of the Soviet Union and its mighty, teeming, hordes of slave laborers of vast production and fighting power.

As president of the United States, as Commander in Chief of the U. S. Armed Forces, and as a leader for peace and understanding in the free world, President Eisenhower has made definite proposals to the Soviet Union for discontinuing nuclear experiments and paper bombs. All of these plans were based on a positive system of supervised international inspection.

The safety of our nation should not be in politics. Limitation of testing and use of all weapons is clearly a diplomatic problem and cannot be decided by popular vote!

In the last two years Soviet Russia has REJECTED 14 specific disarmament proposals. Soviet Russia has violated every major treaty and agreement it has entered into in the quarter of a century. Any disarmament agreement not guaranteed by President Eisenhower's inspection plan would be a "scrap of paper."

The super-bomb is war's greatest deterrent in the world today! Except for the influence of the H-bomb, Russia would probably be in control of all of Western Europe at this moment.

If they ever trick an American President into discontinuing nuclear research, the Soviet Russians will have won a diplomatic victory fraught with disaster for the United States and the Free World.

Kentucky vote for national suicide on November 6th?

The answer is emphatically NO!

The Farm FRONT

BY J. HOMER MILLER
June Story, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Story of Benton, has been selected as state winner in canning. This is a distinction that has come to the county only twice before. Ruth Creason and Carl Wade Chester were state winners a number of years ago. June will attend the national 4-H Club Congress in Chicago on Nov. 25-29. Congratulations June!

It was a wonderful trip to the National County Agents Conference in Houston, Texas. The weather was fine and the scenery was beautiful. Many new ideas are secured from agents over the entire nation. Many that can be used in this county.

One observation I made was the use of the rotary field mowers in corn fields. Corn stalks can be completely ground up and scattered over the ground in one trip over the field. The closing date to sign up on the soil conservation part of the Soil Bank Program has been extended to Nov. 30. Check with your ASC office if you are interested in participating.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Myre and Mrs. Mary Marshall left today (Thursday) for Tucson, Arizona, where they will spend the winter.

Big Crowd at Sharpe Festival

Before a record breaking crowd Friday night the climax of the Sharpe Halloween Festival was reached when Judy Harper and Sammie Bryant, students of Sharpe Grade School, were crowned king and queen of the festival.

The ceremony was very impressive. The stage was beautifully decorated by Mr. Dorso O'Dell, Mrs. Donna Perry, Mrs. Earl Walker, and Mrs. Vernie Long. Fall colors of Brown and Gold were used and the decorations were in keeping with the Halloween theme. Benton Florist donated the lovely arm bouquet presented to the queen.

Judy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Harper, wore a brilliant yellow party dress and was crowned by last year's queen, pretty Janice Ctagner, who was dressed in flowing white. Sammie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bryant, was crowned by last year's king Johnny Warren.

The door prize, a linoleum rug, was donated by M. Livingston Co. of Paducah and won by Danny Koerner. A sandwich grill, given by Morgan, Treva-tham & Gunn of Benton was won by Paul Koerner, who came closest to guessing the number of peas in a jar. A large basket of fruit contributed by Peck Bros. of Paducah was won by Clayton Bailey.

The E. M. Bailey Distributing

Co. of Paducah gave a large box of prizes which were used in the doll walk. Many other contributions were made by individuals and were greatly appreciated by Sharpe PTA who sponsored the event. Publicity was by George Little and Mrs. Reece Barrett.

Prizes for the best costumes were won by Billie Ann O'Dell, who won first prize dressed as a witch and second prize winner was Mrs. James Gilliam, who came dressed as an old, old woman.

Proceeds from the festival will be used to buy school needs. Sharpe is proud of the many new residents who, through the children become affiliated with the school and all patrons are urged to attend PTA meetings. The next meeting will be held November 5 at 7:00 p.m. A door prize will be given.

Elwood Gordon underwent surgery for the removal of his appendix at the Baptist Hospital in Paducah during the weekend.

Miss Ernestine Lyon of Frankfort visited her aunts, Mrs. Geneva Gregory and Mrs. Zora Stone, until Sunday night of last week, when she went to Paducah.

Mr. and Mrs. Orran Darnel of Route 1 were in Benton Saturday shopping.

Mrs. V. H. Burnette and children of Huntingdon, Tenn., were in Benton Friday night for the Halloween activities at the Benton High School.

COUNTY Soil Notes

BY HERBERT ANDERSON

Public hearings have been set to determine the need for the formation of Watershed Conservancy Districts on Cypress Creek and Clark River. The Cypress Creek hearing will be Saturday afternoon, November 3, 1956, at 1 o'clock at North Marshall High School.

The Clark River hearings will be Saturday afternoon, Nov. 10, 1956, at the Benton High School. The East Fork will be from 1 to 2 o'clock and the West Fork from 2 to 3 o'clock.

A watershed conservancy district may be a sub-district within one or more soil conservation districts. Its purpose is to develop and carry out plans and programs of soil and water conservation, flood control, drainage, etc.

A conservancy district is formed by the process petition, public hearing, and referendum. A simple majority of those voting will be required for the formation of the sub-district.

A board of five directors, elected by a vote of the people within the area, will govern the conservancy district, subject to the approval of the supervisors of the soil conservation district. If more than one soil conservation district is involved, there will be three additional directors elected from each of the other districts. The directors are elected for four-year terms.

It is within their power to levy an annual tax of not more than fifty cents per one hundred dollars of assessed valuation on real property within the conservancy district. The directors may also sell bonds or borrow money to carry on the operations of the district.

In the case of issuing bonds, the proposal must be submitted to the landowners in the area. A two-thirds majority of those voting must favor the bond issue.

The directors of the sub-district can acquire land or rights-of-way necessary for the funcsociation are: Mrs. Woodrow Hill, vice president; Mrs. J. D. Gammel, treasurer; and Mrs. U. R. Trimble, secretary.

Suffering for Us

Lesson for November 4, 1956

IN THE days when a running man could overtake a carriage that was in no hurry, a Christian man named Philip was led to run up close to a very handsome carriage—they called it a chariot—in which sat a man reading aloud to himself. Something about the way he was reading made Philip, now jogging along beside the carriage, ask the rider a question. For the man was reading aloud from a book which is no doubt owned by every reader of this column, a book which to this very day outsells all others, every month of every year: the Bible. Philip didn't ask the man where he got the book, or what he thought of it, much less what the book was. Philip asked, "Do you understand what you are reading?" The distinguished stranger admitted he did not. But he was so eager to find out that he invited this unknown pedestrian to ride with him. He was reading a chapter from Isaiah, the very same one that is our lesson scripture this week. It is all about "my servant," that is, God's servant. But who is this servant? The prophet himself, or somebody else? Could Philip please explain?

A Prophet Sees Christ

The book is 25 centuries old, the story of Philip about 19 centuries ago; but that chapter is still a favorite with Christians. The Church today gives essentially the same answer Philip gave: this is a prophecy about Jesus. Even those Christians who doubt whether the prophet actually set out to describe the history of Jesus of Nazareth agree that the picture fits Jesus remarkably well. Most of the Christian church says not only that, but Jesus is the only person the description does fit remarkably well. It is a fair question: Would the first Christians, such as Philip, have thought this to be a prophecy of Christ if Jesus had never thought so himself? Are we to say that Jesus was less bright than his followers? The beauty and power of this great chapter from Isaiah do not come from accuracy in details; it is pretty difficult to make all the details match exactly the fact of Jesus' life. Nevertheless this chapter is more than beautiful in language and thought; it is powerful in giving us, in a few sentences, the central spirit and underlying intention of Jesus' life. It is this: What he endured and suffered, in life and in death, he suffered and endured not for himself alone but for others, for us.

Levels of Suffering

Suffering can be undergone on different levels, as it were. At lowest level there is mere pain, the kind known by animals. The beast does not think about it, animals around him do not; he simply suffers. At the next level there is pain suffered and resented, by human beings. Above this is pain which is suffered bravely, even defiantly, by a saint ("I am the captain of my soul"). Above this again is pain which is borne with resignation not because it is necessary, but because God wills it. On a still higher level is suffering which is offered to God as a sacrifice—all the sufferer may have to give. As high as this, if not higher, is suffering which is undergone for the sake of others, as a mother for her child. The suffering of Christ, the church believes, is on a plane even higher than all these, though it is like some that have been mentioned. For his sufferings were for men and women everywhere, always.

"He Poured Out His Soul"

The tragedy of Jesus, taken as a human tragedy alone, is sadening. "To what purpose was all this waste?"—we ask Judas' old question as the alabaster box pours forth its treasure. If we remember that this was not only a man but God, undergoing this tragic darkness, shot with "lightning of his pain," we can understand a little better (but dimly, for the opaqueness of our selfish minds) what the suffering of Jesus meant and means. It was for us; he bore our griefs and carried our sorrows; he made himself an offering for sin. You remember the girl who said to her older sister: "Oh, sometimes I wish I could take all the miseries of the world and put them on my shoulders!"

And the older sister said, "Didn't you know Jesus did that, long ago?"

4 Million Dollars Paid Ky. Farmers By Soil Bank Plan

Roy C. Gray, chairman of the Kentucky State ASC Committee, has announced that 14,261 Kentucky farmers have been paid a total of $4,180,917.51 in 1956 acreage reserve Soil Bank payments.

Mr. Gray went on to say that he was very much pleased with the amount of payments which Kentucky farmers are receiving under the 1956 acreage reserve Soil Bank program since the program was approved too late in the planting season for Kentucky farmers to reap the full benefit of the program and the indications are that a majority of all Kentucky farmers will participate in the 1957 program.

Mr. Gray stated that all county offices in the State were instructed to proceed with making Soil Bank acreage payments on Sept. 18.

PONTIAC CUSTOM CATALINA SEDAN—Longer, lower Star Flight styling of the luxurious 1957 custom Catalina sedan combines with the powerful new V-8 engine and the more responsive Strato-Flight Hydra-Matic transmission to make the new car the most exciting ever offered by Pontiac. Body finish of Lucite lacquer in "dream car" colors and upholstery of fine hand-buffed leather are featured on the Star Chief series. The sleek Catalina four-door hard-top model is also offered in the Super Chief and Chieftain series in 1957.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Acock and children left during the weekend for Decatur County, Tenn. to visit relatives and friends.

Miss Winnie Young of Paducah, who is employed at the Baptist Hospital, was a business visitor in Benton Friday.

Mrs. Era Jones and Mrs. Ben-trice Tucker of Hardin were shopping visitors in Benton Friday.

New 1957 Pontiacs to Be Shown Here Nov. 9

The 1957 Pontiacs will go on display officially Nov. 9 at Roberts Pontiac and Implement Co., Inc., Benton.

Pontiac offers three series — the Star Chief on a 124-inch wheel base, the Super Chief and the Chieftain on 122-inch wheel base — in 16 body styles.

"The 1957 Pontiacs are the most exciting new cars we have ever offered," Van Roberts said. "From the massive gleaming front to the smart, streamlined fins of the rear fenders, the 1957 Pontiacs are a triumph of modern design and safety engineering. The body design is new. The overall length has been increased 1.2 inches; however, the lower silhouette and the dramatic styling creates a much longer and sleeker appearance."

Hooded head lamps surmounted by sleek front-fender ornaments are prominent in the front-end styling. Greater vision is achieved by lowering the hood 1.6 inches and increasing the windshield area 75.4 square inches in the Catalinas, convertibles and custom station wagons and 69 square inches in sedans and other station wagons.

Pontiac's completely new instrument panel for 1957 offers the ultimate in safety, convenience, and modern styling.

Another influence of "dream car" styling in the 1957 Pontiacs is the deep swallow-tail steering wheel, which adds the final touch of modern, safety design to the passenger compartment.

American car buyers, who over the past few years have grown increasingly interested in "what's under the hood" of their new cars, will find that Pontiac engineers have developed the 1957 car to a new level of efficiency and smooth, durable performance.

The Strato-Streak V-8 engine, with displacement increased to 347.04 cubic inches, has higher horsepower, 10:1 compression ratio, larger manifold, completely machined and contoured combustion chambers, larger, more efficient valves and newly designed carburetors. The 1957 line will offer engines with horsepower of 252 and 270.

Mr. and Mrs. Uel Sledd of Arlington, Va., visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Sledd and his sister, Mrs. Fred Dunnigan on Route 2. Mr. Sledd was in Benton Friday.

W. B. Kennedy of Gilbertsville Route 1 was a business visitor in Benton Friday.

Here and There

Mrs. Arthur Faughn of Route 1 was a shopper in town Friday and while here subscribed for the Marshall Courier.

Mrs. Dan Wyatt of Hardin visited at the Filbeck-Cann Funeral Home Friday to pay respects to the family of Mrs. Lillie Hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Gardner of Hardin attended the Cope-rites in Benton Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bogges of Hardin attended the Cope-rites at the Linn Funeral Home Friday afternoon.

Walter Peck of Benton was a business visitor in town Friday and while here subscribed for the Marshall Courier. Mrs. R. E. Norman and Mrs. Florence Love of Route 1 were business visitors in town Friday. Mrs. Dawson Edwards of Benton was a business visitor in town Friday. S. P. Johnson of Route 1 was a business visitor in town Friday and while here subscribed for the Marshall Courier.

Long, lean, and packed with punch, the new Ford Custom 300 is actually larger than many medium-priced cars... and it's offered at low Ford prices!

What's new in the new kind of Ford

Custom and Custom 300

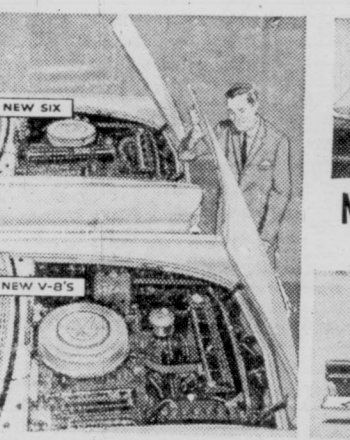

Fairlane and Fairlane 500

NEW choice of sizes. These '57 Fords make "big" a low-priced word. The new Ford Custom and the Custom 300 are lower, wider, than any Ford before and over 16 feet long. The Fairlane and Fairlane 500 are even lower and longer... over 17 feet long! Ford is the only car in the low-price field that comes in two sizes. You'll find them all only roof-high to a parking meter... and they're as easy to get in and out of as putting the coin in the meter slot! There are 20 beautiful new models to choose from.

NEW outboard chassis design cradles passengers in a new kind of way for a level, smoother ride. It's a completely new chassis idea wherein the frame flares out to hold the floor of the rear seat compartment is inside the frame girders. There's more inside room than ever. And there's full road clearance under the heavier frame.

NEW forward-hinged hood... and new engines to go under it! There's a mighty Silver Anniversary V-8 to fit every horsepower need. And there's more power and economy in the new Mileage Maker Six!

NEW low-sweep station wagon roof line. All five of Ford's new station wagons have even more of the beauty and low-for-duty that has made Ford America's favorite wagon. There are three with four doors, two with two doors... seating room for up to nine.

NEW wider wrap-around rear opening. A completely new design provides greater vision, easier loading. In length and width there's enough room to load a 9-foot boat.

SCIENCE IN YOUR LIFE

Snake Stab

Rattlesnakes, copperheads, water moccasins and other pit vipers do not bite. They stab.

Mouth wide open and free-moving hollow fangs on either side of the upper jaw aimed for business, they stab their victim with a puncture much the same as a hypodermic injection according to the medical magazine Pfizer Spectrum.

Within minutes there is searing pain in the strike zone. Rapid swelling follows and fans out along the limb, which may swell to three or four times its normal size.

The object of immediate first aid is to prevent spread of the venom and remove as much of it as possible. A snake-bite kit contains all the first-aid equipment you need until a doctor takes over. If you have no kit, you can improvise.

Keep the victim absolutely quiet and apply a tourniquet around the limb just above the swelling to prevent the spread of venom. A belt, necktie or shirt will do the job.

With a sharp, sterile knife, make a series of incisions over the swelling, about an eighth of an inch deep, and a quarter to half inch long. You can sterilize a knife with a match, iodine, or alcohol.

Then suck out the poison and blood by mouth if a suction cup isn't available. The poison won't hurt you unless you have an open cut or a sore in your mouth. If the swelling advances, move the tourniquet higher up the limb and, if necessary, make another row of incisions.

Get a doctor as fast as possible. He can neutralize the venom with a counter-injection of antivenin.

Paul Castleberry of Route 2 was a business visitor in Benton Saturday and while here subscribed for the Courier.

JOE PAUL BROWN NOW AT AIR BASE IN TEXAS

Joe Paul Brown, son of Eucley Brown of Route 5, has completed the first phase of his basic training as an airman at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio.

He is now taking the advanced course, after which he will be assigned to one of the Air Force's 43 major fields of duty.

State's Top Farmer Named

An Estill farmer and his wife have been selected to make an 11-day trip to sunny Florida on the basis of their farming achievements and their contributions to the farm life of their community.

The winners, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Rose, of Irvine Rt. 2, own and operate a 116 acre farm about eight miles southeast of Irvine. The couple were judged to have the best balanced farm and civic life in the county.

"It's one of the grandest things that has ever happened to us," said Mrs. Rose, when told of the award. "We've never had a vacation. Elmo has traveled some, but I've never been anywhere much. I'm afraid I won't sleep much for the next few days."

While in Florida the couple will attend the American Farm Bureau Federation's annual convention at Miami from December 9-13. Before and after the convention, they will spend several days sight-seeing around the state with the expenses being paid by the Kentucky Bankers Association.

Mr. Rose grows grasses, legumes, corn and tobacco on 90 acres of tillable soil. Most of his income is brought in by 12 acres of burley and beef cattle sold from the farm. He has, at present, 40 head of mixed Herefords and Shorthorn cattle.

Rose takes an interest in improving farm life, both his own and that of Estill County. He has been a member of the board of directors of the Estill Farm Bureau for the past four years. He is a member of the county 4-H council, the county fair board and a charter member of the Estill Agricultural Improvement Association. He works very closely with the extension service and is a cooperator with the Soil Conservation District.

FRIEND

Kentucky is a State of farms. And the Kentucky farmer has a friend in John Sherman COOPER, because COOPER has worked successfully in the United States Senate—for higher price supports, for the first permanent 90% support for burley tobacco, for dark tobacco supports, for increased exports, for more money for extension work, county agents, soil conservation, and for loans to farmers through the Production Credit Administration. And COOPER unloaded more farm surpluses in one sale—$360 million worth—than ever before. Keep COOPER at work for Kentucky farmers in the United States Senate. You can depend on COOPER.

Super Shell

with TCP

The most powerful gasoline
the most powerful cars can use

- a new grade of gasoline—the successor to Shell Premium
- higher than high test
- more aromatics—the power ingredients of aviation fuel
- TCP unleashes the full power of high octane

To meet the needs of today's high-compression engines and, at the same time, to fill the requirements of the even more powerful cars expected for '57, the Shell Oil Company has introduced an entirely new grade of gasoline.

It is Super Shell with TCP*.

Super Shell is higher than high test—even more powerful than Shell Premium Gasoline which it replaces.

Cars which have been using premium grade gasoline will deliver more power than they ever delivered before, when they switch to Super Shell. And that power will be quieter, smoother. For there is anti-knock protection in Super Shell that is effective over your entire speed range.

The source of this new performance is a "power pack" of special aviation gasoline ingredients known as aromatics. These are benzene, xylene and toluene—the most precious power ingredients a gasoline manufacturer can use.

In addition, Super Shell contains TCP to neutralize power-wasting engine deposits. That's why Super Shell unleashes the full power of high octane—why it keeps a car delivering its full power.

Stop at your Shell Dealer's new white pump and get Super Shell with TCP. It's the most powerful gasoline the most powerful cars can use.

*Shell's Trademark for this unique gasoline additive developed by Shell Research. Patent applied for.
