Two years while it was the Experiment Company, moneyed with the capital of the county. I have kept faith with the tenants and my duty to the State. I have worked to make the county Jail secure and in such a condition to meet all requirements.

FULTON COUNTY AGRICULTURE

When Secretary of Agriculture Claude N. Wickard asked for a 50-acre plot of commercial tomatoes, the people of Fulton County turned out in droves. Hundreds of acres of tomatoes were planted, and growers in Henderson, Muhlenburg, and Montgomery counties were also growing tomatoes. Many growers in Kentucky have turned to growing tomatoes for canning. Kentucky has been one of the leading states in the production of tomatoes for canning.

Spoken From the Heart Out

BY P.F. "Aunt" Kate, a well-known member of the Society of Elders in the Southern States, who has traveled extensively and has a wonderful sense of humor.

In the year 3142, during the reign of Emperor Vespucci, there was a great festival in the city of Wibbly-Wobbly, a port in the empire of Zibbittia. The festival was held in honor of the birthday of the emperor, and the entire population of the city turned out to celebrate the occasion.

The festivities started early in the morning with a grand parade that wound its way through the streets of the city. The parade was led by the emperor himself, riding a magnificent elephant, and followed by a procession of soldiers, musicians, and dignitaries from all parts of the empire.

The highlight of the festival was the afternoon show, which took place in the grand arena of Wibbly-Wobbly. The arena was filled to capacity with spectators from all walks of life. The show featured a variety of acts, including acrobats, clowns, and animal acts. The crowd was delighted by the performance of the acrobats, who managed to balance on one foot while juggling three balls.

As the evening drew to a close, the emperor made a speech to the assembled crowd, expressing his gratitude for their attendance and wishing them a happy birthday. The festival ended with a fireworks display that illuminated the sky with a dazzling array of colors.

The festival was a huge success, and the emperor was pleased with the turnout. He announced that the festival would be held annually, and the people of Wibbly-Wobbly eagerly awaited the next year's celebration. The festival became a popular event, and the city of Wibbly-Wobbly became known as a center for the arts and entertainment.

2 BIG EVENTS! Mother's Day, Sun., May 11

— And— GRADUATION

There are two happy periods during the month of May—Mother's Day on Sunday, May 11, and the other is graduation, when the boys and girls complete an important chapter in their lives and launch out upon another episode. This store is prepared for these grand occasions, when family life is so pleasantly stimulated to new joys and pleasures. Here you will find an abundance of gifts for Mother and for the Graduate. For years it has been our pleasure and privilege to serve hundreds of homes in this territory. Today many graduates of former years are mothers and fathers with children who finish high school this term. Tomorrow, the next year and on, others of our good patrons will enter that period in which they will give gifts to their children, or these children will bring joy to their mother—and their father—by giving them a token of adamant. We are always ready and glad to aid in your gift problem, whatever the occasion may be.
