C. P. Mabry Announces For Fulton County Judge

In this issue of The News, we are authorized to announce the candidacy of C. P. Mabry of Hickman for the office of County Judge of Fulton County. Mr. Mabry has served two terms as mayor of Hickman, and is well known throughout the county. He has been active in Farm Bureau work for many years, and served as chairman of the organization committee for this group back in 1935. He is vice-president of the Kentucky Public Power League and has worked faithfully in recent years to obtain TVA power for the cities of Hickman and Fulton, as well as advocating REA power for the rural districts.

Mr. Mabry has practiced law in Hickman for thirty years, as well as looking after farming interests in the county.

He served as County Judge pro tem for a short time in 1921 while Judge E. J. Stahr made a race for Circuit Judge. He is well versed in law and executive administration which are important qualifications for the office which he now seeks. Mr. Mabry's formal announcement follows:

Due to the fact that I am asking the people of Fulton County to trust me the important office of County Judge, I think it proper to give a short history of my life. I was born and reared in Carlisle County, Kentucky where I lived and worked on my father's farm until I came to Fulton County in 1920. My common and high school work was finished in the Cunningham consolidated common and high school in Carlisle County after which I went to the University of Kentucky and finished a four year academic and law course graduating in 1920 with the degree of (Continued on Page 7)

FULTON CIRCUIT

E. B. Rucker, Pastor
Regular services at Dukedom Sunday morning. Rev. B. G. Russell will preach, but the pastor expects to be present. Trust all the church will turn out and friends will come and worship with us.

If the singing that has been mentioned meets at Pleasant Hill Sunday afternoon, the pastor will speak at the regular hour, and come to enjoy the good singing before and after. Everybody come and be with us.

Your pastor is so happy to be feeling stronger, and so anxious to see you again in your homes and at the house of God.

The love that was expressed in the flowers, Get Well cards, things to eat, and kind words will live in our memory. It was both brotherly and Christian for you to remember me in my recent illness.

Keep in mind the Young People's Zone meeting at Cayce Monday evening at 8 o'clock. May all the churches on the charge attend. Wesley has been asked to give a program.

YMBC In Dinner Meeting Tuesday

The Young Men's Business Club met Tuesday night at the Rainbow Room in its regular dinner meeting, with a good attendance. The president, Foad Homra, conducted the meeting.

A discussion, led by W. L. Holland, was held concerning the possibilities of obtaining a recreational director for the city of Fulton during the summer. A round table discussion followed by the membership, with general approval of such a program if it should be worked out.

Attention was called to the new parking zones on upper Lake street, which provides for only one car lane in the center. Merchants of the city have agreed to alleviate the parking situation by leaving their cars at home or parking elsewhere.

Billie Blackstone reported on the trip taken by the Fulton band to the Humboldt Festival and to the Cotton Carnival in Memphis this week. The band has made splendid progress under the direction of Yewell Harrison and has taken part in many events in this territory. Plans have been made to continue band practice during the summer and hold weekly concerts. This has been made possible by the co-operation of the Civic clubs.

Raymond Gambill reported on the Clean-Up, Paint-Up Campaign, which is to be sponsored by the club. This program is to encourage civic improvements and beautification in both down town and residential districts. The project includes cleaning the creek of weeds and rubbish, cutting weeds on vacant lots, and collecting rubbish and garbage throughout the city. All civic groups and citizens will be asked to cooperate in this movement.

The club agreed to sponsor a dance under the auspices of the South Fulton P-T. A., for the benefit of the South Fulton band, to be held in the South Fulton gym in about two weeks.

The next regular meeting of the club will be held outdoors at the Country Club at which time a free supper will be served to the membership.

GUY BARNETT SEEKS ELECTION AS CLERK

Guy Barnett authorizes The News to announce in this issue, that he is a candidate for the office of county court clerk, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary August 2. Mr. Barnett was born and reared in Fulton County and lives on a farm in the Brownsville community with his wife and two children. During the past seven years he has been a driver of one of the County school buses, in addition to managing his farm work.

Guy attracted statewide attention as a young man of ability and an ambition to succeed, last year when it was learned that he was graduating as valedictorian of the high school class of 1940 at Sylvan Shade at the age of 33. Examination of his record reveals that after being out of school many years, he had realized the value of more education through his experience in travel and work in various sections of the U. S. A., and that he had been turning the time between bus drives into completing a four year high school course. During the past year he has been enrolled at Western for additional work.

"It was plenty hard for me to start in high school at the age of 29, Mr. Barnett said, but I made up my mind that I was going to get all the education possible." This determination and fine scholastic record is up-to-the-minute evidence of his ability to adapt himself to new routine, and of his qualifications for the office he seeks.

Mr. Barnett states that he has been a democrat all his life and that this is the first political office for which he has been a candidate. "In asking the support of the voters," Mr. Barnett said, "I feel that I am thoroughly qualified for the office of County Clerk and that I can render my fellow citizens a valuable service in this capacity." He has served as precinct committeeman at Brownsville several times and has taken an active part in the elections. He has also been an active member of the church, M. W. A. Lodge, and Farm Bureau for many years. He has helped in many plays sponsored by Homemakers, P-T. A. and rural schools of the county.

Between now and the time of the primary, Mr. Barnett will try to see the voters personally but takes this means of soliciting their support and giving advance notice of his candidacy.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Witty of Jackson, Tenn., spent Sunday with their parents in Fulton.

McIlwain Receives Twenty-Five Years

John McIlwain was sentenced to twenty-five years in the state penitentiary at Eddyville, Monday afternoon in Circuit Court, which is now in session in Fulton. McIlwain was sentenced for the shooting of Sam "Doc" Walters in Riceville several months ago.

MORE WORKERS ARE NEEDED IN CONTEST

Candidates To Keep Eligible For Major Prizes Must Work During Spare Time and Report Sales Twice A Week or Oftener

What in the world is keeping you out of The News $2,000 Subscription Campaign?

Ask yourself this important question if you are in need of QUICK, SURE CASH and answer it by rushing in the 5,000 Entry Vote Coupon found in the ad elsewhere in this issue. Better still phone 470—and a ten minutes talk with the Contest Managers will reveal that this contest is off to a slow start, that the larger votes of the drive are still in force until May 31st—and that to date—there are not as many entries as prizes offered.

There are very few business men in Fulton or the Ken-Tenn area that will make $800 or its equivalent the next 6 weeks—although they may have thousands of dollars invested and devote ten or more hours a day to protect and earn from their investment.

What does this mean to YOU and YOU? Who needs CASH or a car? Simply this—by devoting spare time to this subscription sales proposition, by enrolling in a business of your own—without a cent's investment—you can profit in proportion to the time and efforts expended.

It makes no difference how big you are, if there is anyone in this area who can afford to overlook a money making opportunity to earn as much as $800 or $500, he or she is indeed fortunate. Maybe you think it is too late? Emphatically not. Everyone, apparently, is thinking that everyone else has started in this offer. The meager handful of producing or nominating candidates so far have not passed the securing of the PROMISE stage—in fact many subscriptions are simply waiting for simply the asking—and will be paid and voted to those who have a will to work—and a yearn to earn.

You can study the small list published today—and the vote score—will determine or verify this proven fact. Figure it out for yourself—in this work you are your own boss, you need only sell in your spare time; in the fore noon, in the afternoon of the evenings after supper.

YOU can start right now and increase your income from $2 to $5 daily or up to $500 or $800 by June 21st! And if you are not doing anything—so much the better. No one is too busy to devote extra time to earn extra money—and this is exactly what The Fulton County News is offering those who are of the will to work. The opportunity does not come often, it is here today—RIGHT NOW! Phone 470—and the Contest Managers will be pleased to call to your home at your convenience—no obligations—and give you the particulars and working outfit to start you on your way to earn the extra money you are wishing for—and needing. It's your turn to do something now—ACT!

The Railroads, Too, Have Voices

As if to discourage any undue optimism, there are voices that are being raised these days in earnest if indirect prophecy of ultimate disaster for the railroads. These are the voices promoting unplanned, uncoordinated and costly transportation. They forecast inland waterways thickly sprinkled with carriers from barges to ocean-going liners, highways packed with motor trucks, sky black with airplanes, pipelines tunneling under roads and rails.

Railroads have a story, too, and they have voices to tell it. MILLIONS OF VOICES. Voices that call for planning in transportation. Voices that recognize the supremacy of railroads as the nation's chief reliance for transportation. Voices that declare railway service is essential and, with half a chance, cannot be beaten in doing its job.

These are the voices, first of all, of railway managements, the official spokesmen of the industry. Then the owners, too, a million or more. Then the direct creditors, another million. Then the indirect creditors, many additional millions—savings bank depositors, insurance policy holders, teachers and students in endowed institutions of learning.

Added to these for anything that clearly benefits the industry as a whole are the voices of railway labor. They speak for more than a million workers devoting lives to this form of public service. And last, but not least, are the voices of those among the public who believe in the ORDERLY development of the nation's transportation.

These are persuasive voices. They are voices strong in the justice of their cause. They are voices that must be heard and will not be denied.

L.L.B. (Bachelor of Laws) and during the same year was examined by the Kentucky bar examiners and was admitted to practice in the courts of this state after which I have enjoyed a general practice for these past twenty years. During the previous war, I served under the colors of my country as a regular U. S. soldier until the end of that great conflict and I am now trying to serve my country as a member of the Selective Service Board.

In 1922 I became interested in farming and have managed several farms in this county and Mississippi County, Missouri up until now. As to how I have managed these farms and the business pertaining to such an enterprise generally is an open subject with both me and my tenants. I share with the families that have farmed with me a great deal of pride in the progress of our farming interests during these years of cooperative operation, and cooperative operation is the basis of my method of tenant farming.

On August 5, 1933, the voters of Hickman elected me Mayor of their town. I have served that office eight years with great pride and success, having carried on the governmental functions of the town and at the same time added much public improvement to the community. We have liquidated a third of the city's old debts during my time as Mayor and have added no new ones.

At this time I want to pay tribute to the two sets of city councilmen and the other city officials who have served with me these eight years in the public service of the City of Hickman. Each and every one has been able, energetic and sincere in the discharge of their duties for the city with me and without their splendid council and cooperation my administrations could not have been the success that they have and like myself the splendid business men who have worked with me as councilmen have practically given their time and talent gratis and I know that we all, as citizens of Hickman, owe them a vote of gratitude and thanks.

If the voters of Fulton County see fit to elect me in August for their next county judge I pledge myself to carry out with all the discretion and talent I possess, the duties of that important office.

First, I will devote my full time service to the office and be there to attend to all the affairs that from day to day are to come before the county judge, and meet the visitors to that office pleasantly.

I shall ever be alert to looking after the taxpayers' revenue and see that every dollar is disbursed through the proper channel and that the taxpayer gets full value for his dollar when it is disbursed and that all sections of the county are dealt with fairly, honestly, and impartially.

There are always agents and salesmen looking for gullible public officials in order to put over deals and make sales that are more or less "pork barrel" transactions and I pledge myself to keep a close eye on all such propositions and see that the county's money is not wasted and squandered by such schemes.

I will give especially of my time to road, bridge and public highway construction and repair. As I have served as chairman of the road committee of the Hickman Lions Club of this city for the past ten years, I feel that I am very familiar and informed as to the need of further road building and repair in this county and especially will I give attention to those citizens and taxpayers who have been left out of the picture so far on road building and shall do what I can to bring these great modern thoroughfare advantages to them that they may be on an equal par with those in the county who have already received these great blessings.

Modern traffic is taking too great a toll of life and leaving too many of our people permanently maimed and incapacitated so I pledge myself to cooperate with every unit of government and every traffic officer with whom I have to do, to reduce to a minimum these tremendous losses to our American people.

I shall at all times cooperate with our public schools in order that they may be made better and more efficient for the great service of training our children for the future service of life; and I say now, that if we are to survive as a democratic people in this highly competitive order of civilization, we must act quickly and definitely to make our children stronger and more fit to meet these ever growing more complex problems of civilized existence. We must wake up! and become more alert to the needs of better child and youth training. I shall give my untiring service to help bring this about.

Being a lawyer I know how to try cases according to the law and evidence of each individual case and I pledge to do that and shall endeavor to see that the state and accused get equal justice in all criminal matters that may come before me.

I shall see that all fiscal and fiduciary matters are handled safely and efficiently and that the infant and infirm are at all time protected by solvent bonds regarding their property that may be handled through the channels of my courts.

It will be my special interest to see after our delinquent children and youths and I shall give to their causes which may come before me the very best decisions and counsel that I am able to dispense. I firmly believe that many of our delinquent children can be made useful citizens if some sensible adjustments could be made for them during their plastic period of life and I pledge myself to spend a special effort with all juveniles that may come before me. I shall try to see that our invalid paupers not drawing pensions are in some way cared for and not left as beggars on the mercy of the public.

Time and space do not permit me to enumerate all the duties of the county judge of Fulton County and tell just what effort I shall make to discharge them wisely, but in conclusion I promise to give to the county at all times my very best efforts and honest and sincere talent in acting in the performance of these important duties.

Upon the above statements and pledges, I base my earnest solicitation to the voters of Fulton County for their support in this coming election and if elected I solemnly pledge to stand by all those statements and pledges for the coming four years of my term.

CHARLES P. MABRY
Candidate for County Judge of Fulton County.

FINDING GOD IN A BLACK OUT

More than sixty boys and girls from all over Tennessee entered the contest sponsored during the past few months by Raymond McNatt of Duketown, Tenn. Among the essays on "Mother" were many from this section of the state. Below is the essay of the winner, Thelma Parker, of Madison county:

WHAT MY MOTHER MEANS TO ME

For me to express completely in words all that my mother means to me would be an impossibility. Somehow, my inner consciousness tells me that I am not aware of everything that she means to me. As the pages of the book of my life are turned yearly, bringing more mature thinking and increasing responsibilities to me, more plainly I see written on each page the watchfulness, patient guidance, love and abiding faith which my mother has for me. It may be that someday, when possibly I am a mother myself, I shall be able to more completely express just what my mother really means to me.

At the present I know that she breathed the breath of life for me until one day I was able to breathe for myself. Ever since I can remember she has sacrificed her strength and used her efforts to give me security. It is that security which comes from having sustenance of life in a material, mental and moral way.

It is true that in the institution which we call home there are two principal factors, the mother and the father. As dear as my father is to me I have experienced, through the sickness of my mother, that should I lose her I would have lost the most precious, the most vital factor in our home. It is my mother's human understanding, love and devotion that causes her to sympathize and take my part when accusations either true or false confront me. It is she who inspires me and keeps believing in me although at times there doesn't seem to be much to believe in.

It was from my mother's lips that I was told first about Jesus and what he has done for me. Long before I could read, mother told me about such Bible characters as David, Moses and Joseph. As a result of this, the realization of mother's faith in God and other influences of hers, I became a Christian at an early age.

Honesty, sincerity, courage, goodness, virtuousness, fortitude and bravery have all been demonstrated before me in the life of my mother. After seeing her firmly yet serenely ride through the storms of life I have learned what it means to keep striving. Never have I seen her give up a task because it was difficult. Never have I seen her angry when someone honestly beat her at a task. She is always ready to honor anyone who accomplishes more than she can accomplish, but she is made of the fiber that's willing and ready to go back and try the task over and over again striving with each effort to justly accomplish more. I have never seen anyone with a stronger determination than my mother. To me she means the fulfillment of future plans. Once she sets a goal she keeps pushing towards it. After reaching the goal she is never satisfied to sit in her glory, but evades all glory, quickly sets another goal and pushes on. She has modesty in every sense of the word. Congratulations or high praises only embarrass her.

To me my mother is a torch bearer of the future. Vividly she can unroll pictures of the future with such reality that I marvel at her foresight, after having seen so many of her predictions come true. From her, I have learned to have faith in the future, and to know that each day brings new opportunities. She has also taught me not to stand idly by and let these opportunities pass, but to seize every one that I possibly can and use them to every advantage.

From my mother, through her father, I have a very highly respected English descent. Today we live on a part of the very acreage that my mother's great-grandfather staked off and was given an original deed when West Tennessee was first being settled. To this day my mother is holding up the foundation built by her ancestors. From her I believe I am acquiring the qualities that will cause me to do the same.

Often my mother takes time to stroll through the forest or across the fields with me. Through her insight I have been influenced to love and appreciate the beauties of nature. To show how deeply my mother loves and appreciates nature, and to show how she has taught me to look upon nature I quote one of her original poems:

"There's nothing like the beauty Of the forest in the fall. It make a picture painted In the memory of my soul. Nothing man can make Could be so beautiful as all For it's painted by the Infinite From palettes of gold. You find every hue of yellow, Red and orange too, When you study what the Master's done."

To make it as you see. Somehow, I have a feeling That when life is through, We'll be painted into angels By the painter of the trees."

When sickness comes to any member of my family it is my mother who is always on the alert to see that every little detail is carried out that might help the patient to overcome the illness. Many times on the coldest nights I have felt the gentle touch of my mother's hand on my brow. I have seen my mother prepare food and send medicine to sick people in our community. Such deeds done by her impress upon me the Parable of the Good Samaritan.

I know that whatever I make of myself the credit should go to my mother. To repay her for her undying love for me and for the hopes she has for me I will not disappoint her. Someday, after I have done the best I can do in the world I shall be able to say as Lincoln said: "All that I am I owe to my angel mother."

The contest was divided in two groups—elementary school children, and boys and girls of members of the American Legion. Cash prizes and other awards were given by Mr. McNatt.

YOUTHS RESPOND TO ESSAY CONTEST

By REV. WILLIAM WOODBURN
First Christian Church, Fulton, Ky.

We feel sorry for the many homeless, wandering refugees in our present warring world. But is not this same warmad age likewise driving many people away from their spiritual homes and familiar moorings, making of us a great multitude of wandering souls unable to find God at work in our chaotic universe? Many, far too many, are blindly groping for a renewed hope in the guidance of the Heavenly Father in the affairs of man.

Let us go back almost two thousand years to an incident where a man suddenly found God, recognized His guiding hand at work, and returned to His spiritual home. Perhaps it may serve as a beacon light for us in a time like this. In John 9:35-38 we can watch a man become a follower of Christ, a Christian believer, a concrete example of Christian conversion—not in the sense of becoming a Church member—but that of becoming a disciple. No doubt he would have become a member of the Body of Christ gladly had there been a Church at that time.

But how did this man learn to see spiritual truths? We watch the brick mason, the carpenter, the plumber and others at work and are able to understand how the house came into being. We are able to watch it slowly transform from a pile of building materials into a beautiful home. It is much harder to watch the mental and spiritual transformation of an individual, but the Bible pictures these character transformations so vividly that we might call them God's effort to give men the same interest in studying the mind of God at work among people as we have in watching a master craftsman at work among building materials. In this Bible example, Jesus had healed a blind man, the Pharisees had resented the man's loyalty to Christ and expelled him from the temple. For a Jew to be cut off from the Holy temple in Jerusalem meant that he was likewise cut off from God and was therefore without any hope of eternal life, or even God's further guidance in this present life. In spite of his sudden, tragic misfortune the man was still grateful to Jesus, and eagerly sought for Him in order to thank Jesus for restoring his sight.

Imagine his surprise when Jesus suddenly asked, "Dost Thou believe in the Son of God?" It was a new thought to the man—we can almost see the surprise and bewilderment creeping over his glad face. He had been hurrying to thank a friend and was suddenly brought face to face with a profound religious question. What would any of us have done under the same circumstances? We, like this man, live life in fragments. We see so little connection between the different parts, what does faith in the Son of God have to do with being thankful? We are not conscious with the all pervading reality in our lives that ALL good gifts come from the same Giver, the same helping Hand, our Heavenly Father. Jesus was not content to heal the man's physical blindness, but was already busy opening his spiritual eyes as well.

We live such a baby life. The baby in the nursery plays happily with her toys, she may know every toy in the room, she may know every piece of furniture, she may have such a well ordered life that she can even anticipate the many pleasant experiences awaiting her during the daily routine of being cared for by her solicitous mother. But she has no conception of the purpose and meaning of the nursery. She does not understand that loving hands have purposely placed so many happy and protective experiences about her. Take any life? The carefree boy bounding in adventure and excitement every mornning, the fascination of school days, the ecstasy of happy friendships, the eager pursuit of a career, the building of a home. How hard it is for us to recognize the same Hand at work amid all the varied experience of life. Like the baby in the nursery we do not understand that Loving Hands have placed all these happy and protective experiences around us.

Ask yourself the question Jesus gave to this newly awakened man. DO YOU believe in the Son of God? Are you grateful for your blessings as separate sensations of wealth, happiness, friends, success? Or do you daily recognize them as the manifestations of a Loving Father who is wisely caring for his children? Jesus was the Son of God because He revealed God to us as our Heavenly Father. All of life must fit into that belief. Blessings of every sort are but reflections of that great blessing—the gift of God's Son.

It is true that many people can enjoy the sparkle of a brilliant diamond, or the delicate color of a rose, without knowing that BOTH have been made possible by the same sun and it is also true that many people do enjoy the varied blessings of God without relating them to God or to His purpose. Nevertheless, God has been busy, is still busy, and will continue to be busy doing ONE thing. It may be hard to see that one unifying purpose in our war torn world but it is there in our age as it has always been in every age—God at work in OUR world building a Christian civilization. That was His purpose in creation, that was His purpose during the prophetic era, and that was still His purpose in sending Jesus among men as His Son. You may call it the coming of the Kingdom on earth as it is in heaven, or dress it up in some fancy definition but the fact remains with us that GOD IS at work patiently guiding man, quietly building a Christian world.

Do you have faith in the spiritual purpose behind, through, and under everything that you are doing? Is there any controlling sense of a manifested God giving unity to your life, your family, your occupation, your pleasure? What does this verse from the Bible mean to you—"He who spared not His own son but freely gave Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things." When these ALL things come to us as individual, separated daily blessings, as fragments of life, do we see them as pledges of the great spiritual heritage of holiness which belongs to us as children of God, and joint-heirs with Jesus? He gives these things to us along with His Son, not as unrelated, certainly not as primary gifts, but as blessings thrown in for good measure to help increase our faith in His Son.

Do you begin to see the connection between being healed by Jesus and then being asked if you believe in the Son of God? The first without the second is meaningless. Even as the rainbow is a reminder of the ancient promise that God would destroy the world with a flood, so is every blessing a reminder that He has given to us His Son. Do you believe in the Son of God? If you do it will be easy for you to see God at work in our present war torn world.

RAILROADS SPEND $66,022,927 IN KY

Railroads in 1940 spent in Kentucky a total of $66,022,927 for materials and supplies of all kinds and for wages of railroad employees, the Association of American Railroads announced today.

This total does not include taxes paid by the railroads to state and local governments in Kentucky, for which 1940 figures are not yet available. In the year 1939, however, such taxes totaled $5,462,011.

The stimulating effect of these expenditures is felt throughout the state because of the wide distribution of railroad wage payments, and the fact that supplies and materials were purchased in approximately 377 localities in Kentucky.

Railway purchases in Kentucky in 1940 of fuel, materials and supplies and new equipment totaled $18,646,339. In addition, the railroads paid $47,376,588 in 1940 in wages to employees located in that state, the total number of such employees in July, 1940, having been 28,694. The number of employees represents the total number receiving pay in July, some of whom, however, only worked a part of the month. Average wages, therefore, cannot be calculated from these figures.

MEN'S CLASS TEACHER IS RELIEVED BY RETONGA

Years Of Suffering Had Resisted Every Other Means Tried, States Mr. McMillan. Discusses Case For Benefit Of Others.

Mr. W. S. McMillan, 127 Monroe St., beloved teacher of the Men's Bible Class at Trinity Methodist Church, Jackson, Tenn., is among the latest to come out with a strong public endorsement of Retonga.

"Retonga did even more than I expected," declared Mr. McMillan. "For the past few years I suffered with acid indigestion so bad dizziness, swimming headaches were frequent, and sometimes the gas pressure up into my chest and toxic waste clogging my bowels seemed to make every muscle and joint sore and stiff. My nerves were on edge, and mornings I didn't feel I had enough strength left to carry me through another day.

"I shall always be grateful for the grand relief Retonga brought me. Foods are so tasty, I really eat too much; and the gas, headaches, nervousness and sleeplessness are relieved. I do not have to dose with harsh purgatives, and I feel no aching and stiffness in my muscles. I now enjoy peaceful days and nights of restful, invigorating sleep. Retonga proved a blessing to me."

Mr. McMillan, is a Mason and for thirty years was with the M. & O. Railroad. Retonga is a purely herbal medicine combined with Vitamin B-1 for digestion, nerves, and strength. Thousands praise it. Retonga may be obtained at DeMyer Drug Co. —Adv.

If Your Telephone Is Rung by Mistake

Here are the Probable Causes

Some telephones are being rung by mistake because some folks fail to take proper precautions when telephoning. A study of the condition shows that calling numbers from memory is the most common cause of these wrong-number calls.

When in the least doubt about a number, it is always best to check with your directory—be sure you have the right number in mind, then give it to the operator. Speak distinctly, with lips about half an inch from the mouthpiece.

It takes only a moment to look up a number, and doing so will frequently save time and spare you the embarrassment of getting someone to the phone by mistake.

The telephone company and your neighbors, who are bothered daily by wrong-number calls, will appreciate your cooperation in correcting the trouble.

★ 29 MILLION!

A record never before approached!

★When the 29,000,000th Ford rolled recently from the assembly line, an all-time record for the industry was set. 29,000,000 units built by the same management and all bearing one name—a name that has become one of the best-known trade-marks in the world!

It is significant that this achievement comes at a time when our country is making a mighty effort to re-arm swiftly. For to further that effort, to help speed it along in any possible way, we have offered the vast facilities of the Rouge Plant and every ounce of our experience.

As you read this, a new $21,000,000 Ford airplane engine plant, started only last fall, is nearly completed. A new magnesium alloy plant, one of the few in the country, is already in production on light-weight airplane engine castings. Work is right now under way on a new $18,000,000 plant for mass production of big bomber assemblies. Orders have been filled for military vehicles of several types, including army reconnaissance cars, staff cars and bomb service trucks.

In the midst of this activity for National Defense, building the 29 millionth Ford car is simply one part of the day's work.

The public has acclaimed the 1941 Ford car as the finest in Ford history. Ford Dealers are enjoying their greatest sales and expecting their best year since 1937.

It is good to be producing the things America needs, and to be setting records on the way!

FANCY NEWS

Mr. Phil Parker of Dukedom, who operates a produce truck through the county, is in a subscription contest for the County News, and he has asked me to write some news in this vicinity. Mr. Parker will appreciate anything you can do to help him.

Mr. Wes Somers has a stone jug with quite a history. During the Civil War his father-in-law, Mr. White lived where Mr. Somers lives and operated a tobacco factory where Mr. Somers' garden now is. The soldiers would come and get anything they wanted to eat. So Mr. White took the jug, filled it with honey, greased it on the outside, rolled it in the dirt. The soldiers often kicked it about, never dreaming that it contained honey, a choice delicacy they would have enjoyed. The soldiers are gone but the jug is still there.

We attended the annual decoration day homecoming and mother's day program at Walker's Chapel Sunday. The mother's day program was as follows: A march; prayer by the pastor, Rev. Banks; A Four Year Old, Joan Kelley; a song, Faye and Jerry Kelley; a request, Jerlene Darrell; Mother, a dialogue by six girls; Jesus' Little Flowers, Anna Lou Cail; A reading, Naomi Lowry; a reading, Tom Cail; No Time to Sin, Donald Barnell; readings, Joan White; reading, Billy Ward; reading, Mary Frances Cooper; song, Lula Mae and Rubye Faye Hutchinson; The World's children, eight girls and boys; Thank You Mother, Helen Sue Lowry; son, Charlotte Cotton. This program was one of the finest ever presented at this annual event, and the children carried out their parts splendidly.

Miss Allen of Jackson sang a solo after the program. Then Rev. Banks made a short talk before dismissal for dinner, which was enjoyed by a large crowd. In the afternoon singing was enjoyed by all, with many visitors taking part, representing many neighboring towns and communities.

Rev. Massey of Missouri will preach at Siloam next Saturday night. This will be the time for sacrament and foot washing. Virginia Lowry, who has been afflicted with infantile paralysis, for nearly three years, is much improved. She will return to the hospital at Memphis Saturday, to have her braces removed, except below her knee on the right foot. We are thankful for her improvement.

Elder Henry Ross filled his regular appointment at Matheny Grove Sunday. Communion services and foot washing were conducted.

Mrs. Etta Eaves spent a part of last week with her daughter, Mrs. Albert Hawks and family. Mr. John Lee Eaves and son, Vernon, and Miss Maydell Eaves, visited them Sunday.

Whooping cough is raging in this section. Several have recovered. Martha Jean Workman, Billie Joe Eaves and Albert Hawks' children have it now.

Communion and foot washing were held at Unity Saturday night. Glaston Hawks is erecting a new residence, which is nearly complete.

LATHAM NEWS

By MRS. T. B. BRUNDIGE

The unusual shortage of tobacco plants in this section is really alarming, and the thing that is causing more concern is the fact that the shortage is general. Farmers are riding everywhere seeking a few plants. With the acreage already cut by the crop control system, and the Divine Hand taking part, it seems that the goal will be reached. If the growing of less tobacco is necessary for better prices, then it is only logical to conclude that those who are fortunate enough to obtain plants, should bend every effort to make a premium crop, and thus realize a premium price for it this year.

Prices are on the uptrend on everything. This bids fair to be a good year for the farmer. A big effort should be made by everyone while prices are good to get a jump ahead because lean days will surely follow. Our present spending program will not last forever, and in order to pay back, taxes must rise.

Mattress making has been in the limelight in this section for the past few days. Nearly everyone has taken advantage of the opportunity to secure a good mattress or two while they can at very little expense plus labor. Better get yours while the opportunity lasts.

The Latham Telephone Exchange is now in the capable hands of Mr. and Mrs. Nona Tucker, who took over their new duties last Thursday. They are welcome citizens of our community, and come here highly recommended for their efficiency in caring for a switchboard. A new board has been purchased by the subscribers and will be installed shortly. We expect this step to improve our service and hope to greatly improve our service. The cooperation of everyone will result in rapid growth of our system, which is operated on a non-profit basis as a necessity for any modern community.

Mr. George Shanklin is reported very ill. His condition continues critical, and little hope remains for his recovery.

Mrs. Mae Ella Fields is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Brundige now doing the housekeeping for them. Mrs. Brundige has been sick for some time and has to have someone to do her work for her. She is getting along fine at this writing.

Mrs. Endell Sheron has left for Detroit Tuesday to join her husband who has work there. He has been employed there for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Avis Barber are moving soon to the Johnny Brundige place now owned by Bud Billingsby. The house is being repaired and will be a very desirable place to live.

Mr. Z. C. Wheeler is working now at Fulton for Bob White Motor Co. He and his family will probably move to Fulton in the near future to be near his work.

Phil Parker, a wide awake and hustling young man from Dukedom has entered the contest put on by the Fulton County News for subscription increase in this territory. He has served north Weakley county for the past several years with a grocery truck and is known and admired by everyone. He solicits the cooperation of his friends in winning this contest. Get in there and help him. He would do the same for you any old day.

SILO SIMPKINS SAYS

"The best citizens spring from the cultivators."—Cato.

You may never get rich farming but you can eat like rich folks.

Approximately three-fourths of the edible portion of an egg is composed of water.

Seed it, fertilize it, mulch it, and then watch the grass choke that gully to death.

Before the current war in Europe, United States farmers exported about 44 per cent of their cotton and 37 per cent of their tobacco.

About 50 per cent of all farm people in the United States live in 13 Southern states, but they receive only 30 per cent of the national farm income.

Money invested in clover and grass seed is wasted if the land where it is sown is so deficient in lime and phosphate it will not successfully grow them. More farmers now have to fall out income tax returns than ever before; a few minutes a day keeping accurate records of expenses and receipts will take much "grief" out of the job.
