Paper for letterheads and envelopes is slowly undergoing many changes. Bond papers will be dingier, will lack the white crockling finish they have known for many years. Probably the price will be higher also.

We still have some stock on hand of the better finish. Better order some letterheads today.

Take a Tip from Mammy!

You see, you can take a tip from Mammy—

Mammy isn't a "toot nibble"—nor does she use an extra amount of sugar on cereals for breakfast. She still bakes a big pan of those biscuits just as she did back when.

Did you know that what has been a dependable source for food since time immemorial? Flour milling dates back more than two thousand years, so we believe you can depend on FLOUR as a part of your daily diet. So, take a tip from Mammy and serve more hot biscuits.

P. S.—Be sure to ask for BROWDER FLOUR.
