Dental Care—

Diets Of Children Discussed By Group

This is the fifth in a series of six articles on dental health published in cooperation with the Southwest Dental Society in observance of National Children's Dental Health Week.

My son has a couple of teeth filled each time he goes to the dentist. But he does not eat a lot of candy. What can I do about this?

Unfortunately, there are a lot of other sweets in addition to candy that can lead to dental decay: cakes, cookies, sweetened drinks, candied popcorn, even breath sweeteners. He may be one of those compulsive sweet eaters who is ruining his dental health.

To minimize tooth decay, it is important to avoid eating such sweetened foods and beverages, particularly between meals. Each time that foods containing sugars are eaten, certain bacteria in the mouth are stimulated to create acids that attack the tooth enamel, eventually causing decay.

The most serious damage to the teeth is done within about 20 minutes after eating sweetened foods. So the more often the sweets are eaten and the longer they remain in the mouth, the longer the decay process continues.

If your child must eat between meals, select items like fresh fruits, raw carrots and celery, potato chips and popcorn, milk and cheese. Or foods and beverages that are made with artificial sweeteners.

During the pre-school years, it is a lot easier for you to control your child's diet. This is the time to help him establish good eating habits by providing the proper foods and by eliminating an abundance of between-meal snacks that contain decay-causing sugars.

Your Individual Horoscope

Frances Drake
FOR SATURDAY,

Look in the section in which your birthday comes and find what your outlook is, according to the stars.

ARIES
(Mar. 21 to Apr. 20)

Whether you have little or much to do, your attitude and approach to all matters will be important — from the start. Stress your good judgment and innate perceptiveness.

TAURUS
(Apr. 21 to May 21)

When least expected, you may have to take on some extra responsibilities, but all the rewards will be worth it — IF you handle them well, and aimably.

GEMINI
(May 22 to June 21)

If you go out of your way to make changes, they should be both reasonable and in order, or you will run into difficulties. In general, stick with routine.

CANCER
(June 22 to July 23)

Look over what is planned and eliminate completely what would deter you from doing things fully, completely; what would crowd your schedule needlessly.

LEO
(July 24 to Aug. 23)

In all matters and projects requiring training and practice, if you are consistent and careful, you will gain new advantages. Just one admonition: curb aggressiveness.

VIRGO
(Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)

It may take longer than usual to put across a proposition or a point, but you can still get much accomplished and make a good impression.

LIBRA
(Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)

Care needed in both your budgetary and your domestic matters. Also, avoid restlessness and changeability. A day for straight-line thinking and action.

SCORPIO
(Oct. 24 to Nov. 23)

An excellent day for both business and personal interests. Even if you have to make some compromises, it will be profitable in the long run.

SAGITTARIUS
(Nov. 24 to Dec. 21)

You may be given some extra responsibilities, but if the end results seem worthwhile, accept them — ambitiously. Curb a tendency toward restlessness.

CAPRICORN
(Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)

You may make a discovery — both unexpected and profitable. Your clue lies in reading between the lines, studying the "fine print."

AQUARIUS
(Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)

Give a little extra time to matters which have been neglected, and remain flexible in your thinking; but DON'T go to extremes. Stress your inherent good sense.

PISCES
(Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)

Be extremely careful to discriminate between rumor and fact, not to accept hearsay as accurate information. Some deceptive trends prevail.

YOU BORN TODAY are governed by one of the zodiac's most stimulating configurations. You can excel as executive, in statesmanship, the law, the arts. The Aquarian's flair for entertainment is evident even in his home life, and all make delightful party hosts, raconteurs. Your courage, independence and generosity are outstanding. You will share your assets with others, but often demand your own way with the recipients of your bounty — and achievements.

Pure Prairie League Concert Slated Here

Pure Prairie League's latest album, "If The Shoe Fits" on the RCA Victor label may be considered a tight squeeze. The album is above average, however it is not a smash hit as compared to their second album, "Bustin' Out." There are some excellent cuts on the album.

Our favorite is the famous Buddy Holly hits of the fifties, "That'll be the Day." The League gives his oldie a good country rock beat.

"Aren't You Mine" is another good cut that appeals to us. This one could easily pass for a pure country tune for a country group or country radio station.

Other cuts on the album which were considered excellent are "Lucille Crawford," "Goin' Home," and "Sun Shone Brightly."

Even though the Prairie League's new album is a little slow in places, John David Call on the steel guitar and Larry Goshorn on lead guitar comes on strong on nearly all the cuts.

Hearst Lawyers Plan To Call Patty's Ex-Fiance To Stand As First Witness

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — With the prosecution ready to rest its case, Patricia Hearst's attorneys planned to call her ex-fiance today to recount the night of the kidnaping that ultimately led to her trial for bank robbery.

U.S. Atty. James L. Browning Jr. said he would wrap up his case against the 21-year-old newspaper heiress today when he resumed questioning FBI agent Thomas J. Padden, "our final witness."

Chief defense counsel F. Lee Bailey said he would immediately begin reconstructing Miss Hearst's kidnaping by calling her former fiance, Steven Weed, to the stand.

Weed was left beaten and bleeding at their Berkeley apartment the chilly night of Feb. 4, 1974, when the Symbionese Liberation Army abducted Miss Hearst. He and the defendant have not met since the kidnaping. Miss Hearst was captured here Sept. 18.

The defense maintains that Miss Hearst took part in the bank robbery two months after her kidnaping out of fear for her life.

Browning based his case on Miss Hearst's own words and actions during her bizarre 19-month odyssey through the terrorist underground and on testimony of witnesses who saw her during that time.

The evidence he offered included bank camera photos of her during a San Francisco robbery two months after the kidnaping and a tape recording in which she proclaimed allegiance to the SLA.

Browning called 32 witnesses, including law enforcement officers, persons at the scene of the bank robbery and a Los Angeles area teenager who was kidnaped and spent a night with Miss Hearst and SLA members William and Emily Harris.

Bailey has secured U.S. District Court Judge Oliver J. Carter's approval to take the jury to two hideouts where Miss Hearst was kept in closets in the weeks just after her kidnaping.

They also will visit the bank that Miss Hearst and the SLA robbed on April 15, 1974.

Bailey said the excursion will be Monday. There will be no courtroom session because of a legal holiday.

The 13th day of the trial ended emotionally for the pale defendant Thursday as the government played for the jury a tape from the SLA featuring Miss Hearst saying she voluntarily joined her captors in the bank heist.

The frail young woman wept when she heard the strident, angry voice of SLA chieftain Donald "Cinque" DeFreeze spew a cold, militaristic account of the bank robbery.

Her shoulders shook visibly, and tears rolled down her face. She seemed to slightly regain her composure when a voice now identified as Harris railed about the news media and authorities fanning racism.

However, when her voice, soft but brimming with disdain, spoke as "Tania," a soldier in the people's army" she bowed her head and nervously rubbed her temple and lips.

Carter stared at the defendant when she referred to Weed on the tape as a "sexist, ageist pig" and then turned toward the recording machine again.

Her father, San Francisco Examiner president Randolph Hearst, stiffened when she called him "Adolf," presumably a reference to Adolf Hitler.

Her mother, Catherine, sat stone-faced, but the seven women and five men on the jury appeared enraptured as they followed her words with a government-prepared transcript.

The jury must decide whether Miss Hearst was forced under threat of death to rob the bank and make the dramatic tape, as she has testified outside their presence.

Browning originally intended to play only the portion containing Miss Hearst's speech, but Bailey insisted that the jury hear the entire reel.

DeFreeze and five other SLA members were killed in a gun battle with Los Angeles police a month later. The Harris are in custody in Los Angeles.

Bailey fought long and bitterly to have the tape barred from his trial, contending that "words forced from her should not be used to convict her."

Miss Hearst, at a special two-day hearing this week on whether to admit the tape, testified that her boastful revolutionary words were written by slain SLA member Angela Atwood.

If she had refused to make the recording, she said, "I was told that I would be killed."

Bailey contended the SLA was angered that four of them were charged with bank robbery and Miss Hearst was only named as a material witness. The prime purpose of the holdup, he said, was to make the defendant "an outlaw."

Less than two months later, a grand jury indicted Miss Hearst on bank robbery charges.

The government won a crucial victory when it convinced the judge there was a preponderance of evidence that Miss Hearst had joined the terrorists and was in the bank of her own volition. Carter overruled Bailey's objections and allowed the jury to hear the 15-minute reel.

The dramatic scene in the hushed courtroom came only hours after Hearst had been summoned from his front-row seat and told by defense attorney Al Johnson that a bomb had ripped a wall in a guest house at the seaside castle of his late father, William Randolph Hearst, 150 miles south of San Francisco.

Hearst said he was concerned about the safety of his family and assailed the blast as a "stupid and vicious thing to do to the people of California."

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — While most Kentuckians probably wish for warm weekend weather, some state officials are hoping for cold, rainy conditions suitable for chemical extermination of blackbirds.

"We're on hold-right now," Hank Lindsey, an aide to Gov. Julian Carroll, said Thursday. "We've got the PA-14, but the weather's not right."

PA-14 is a detergent that is mixed with alcohol and water and sprayed on the birds to remove protective oils from their feathers.

Cold, wet weather can then cause the birds — viewed as feathered pests by health officials and residents of areas where they roost — to lose consciousness and die of exposure.

State pest control officials directed the spraying of a roost of some 6 million blackbirds last week at Russellville. The weather was cold, but predicted rain failed to materialize, and the birds swarmed out of the roost as usual the next day.

Health officials blame the winter-roosting blackbirds for spreading histoplasmosis, a human lung disease, and farmers say the huge flocks cause millions of dollars worth of grain and livestock damage.

Gov. Carroll has certified, as required under emergency legislation signed by President Ford, that the Russellville roost and seven others pose a threat to health, and U.S. Interior Secretary Thomas Kleppe has given permission to spray the eight roosts when the weather is right.

Lindsey said Thursday that the forecast for the areas where the birds roost is for a slim chance of rain and temperatures above 40.

"That isn't cold enough, he said, but he added that if temperatures drop and rain is predicted, one or more of the roosts could be sprayed this weekend.

'Some Understanding' Reached By Paducah Officials, Firemen

PADUCAH, Ky. (AP) — City officials have met with representatives of city firefighters and reached "some understanding" but no definite agreement that firefighters will be given the written contract they demand.

City Manager J. William Howerton and other officials met for about four hours Thursday with representatives of Local 168, International Association of Firefighters.

"There is nothing final but I think we do have some understanding on a couple of things that will be worked out," Howerton said. "We talked about the possibility of having a contract sometime, but as far as working on a contract, we didn't do anything on it."

Firemen have demanded a written contract and threatened not to be responsible for answering fire calls unless they receive one.

City officials have offered a "letter of intent" outlining a wage fringe benefit agreement reached with the firemen last month.

"We will have to discuss what we talked about today with our respective boards and committees," Howerton added.

Meanwhile, Howerton said firemen were at work on Thursday.

"The group that stayed over Wednesday would have been due in tomorrow (Friday) but as I understand it they won't call in sick or anything for the time being, so we can expect normal work out of them at this point," he said.

About 25 firefighters, all members of Local 168, called in sick Wednesday morning.

The Paducah Fire Department has three platoons, each of which is on duty 24 hours and off 48 hours. The Tuesday platoon was held over to cover Wednesday's shift and arrangements were made for some volunteer firemen to help if needed.

Mayor William S. Murphy said firemen who called in sick would have to provide "a doctor's statement" concerning their illnesses in the 24 hour period following the start of their shift.

Ruling Says School Board Not Required To Provide Busing

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The attorney general's office said today that the Marshall County school board need not provide transportation for 60 former Briensburg Elementary School students now attending the Gilbertsville Elementary School.

The students had been assigned to attend an elementary school in Benton last August when the Briensburg school was closed.

But they refused to attend at Benton and began going to the Gilbertsville school which officials said was inadequate to accommodate them.

After first declining to enroll the students the superintendent decided to allow them to attend at Gilbertsville, hiring extra teachers and obtaining additional facilities.

The opinion said, in effect, that the board can determine where a child attends school and added that the Gilbertsville facility "is not the school the board of education provided for the children."

Wholesale Prices Stable In January

WASHINGTON (AP) — Wholesale prices remained stable in January as another big drop in farm prices offset increases for industrial goods, the government said today.

The Labor Department said prices actually rose four-tenths of a per cent last month but after adjustment for seasonal variations, the wholesale price index was unchanged.

Since rising 1.8 per cent in October, wholesale prices showed no change in November and declined an adjusted four-tenths of a per cent in December. Over the past three months, they have declined at an adjusted annual rate of 1.7 per cent.

This continued moderation of inflationary pressures and the report last week of a sharp drop in the nation's unemployment rate gives support to the Ford administration's forecast of continued economic recovery in the new year.

It also offered consumers the prospect of an easing in retail prices in the coming months, as trends in wholesale prices usually are reflected later at the retail level.

In January, the wholesale price index for farm products, processed foods and feeds fell 1.6 per cent following declines of 2.5 per cent in December and 1.2 per cent in November.

The decline in agricultural products offset a four-tenths of a per cent increase in industrial commodities.

Over the past 12 months, wholesale prices were up 4.4 per cent. The index stood at 179.4, meaning that it cost $179.40 to purchase a variety of goods that sold at wholesale for $100 in the 1967 base period.

Declining prices for live poultry, cattle, eggs and fresh vegetables led a 2.8 per cent drop in farm prices last month. The index for processed foods and feeds dropped 1.5 per cent after declining 2.9 per cent in December.

'Estate Planning' To Be Theme Of Study By Adult Classes Here

The New Concord and Lynn Grove Adult Farmer classes will begin the first of two sessions on the topic of "Estate Planning for the Farmer" on February 16 and 17 at the Murray Vocational Center.

The New Concord class will meet on Monday, February 16 at 7:00 p.m. and the Lynn Grove class at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday, February 17.

Ken Wade, Farm Management Consultant, Jackson Purchase PCA, will present information concerning property rights in Kentucky, inheritance and estate tax considerations, farm business arrangements and how to go about the estate planning process.

Mike Roby, Agent for Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance Company, will discuss the types of insurance and the role of insurance in estate planning.

The February 23 New Concord class and the February 24 Lynn Grove class will continue the discussion of things farmers should be aware of in estate planning. These sessions will be conducted by local attorneys and accountants and will deal with gift tax considerations, examples of state inheritance and federal estate taxes, making a will, procedures in settling an estate and related questions.

The adult farmer program is designed to help meet the needs of farmers in the areas of production agriculture, farm management, current agricultural problems and related interests. Farmers and those with agricultural interests are invited to attend.

Police Search For Killer Of Sal Mineo

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actor Sal Mineo, known as "The Switchblade Kid" for his many film roles as a teen-age tough, has been stabbed to death outside his Hollywood apartment house, authorities said.

Witnesses told police they heard screams and saw a man with long, blond hair running from the alley where Mineo was killed Thursday night.

Neighbors found the 37-year-old actor lying face-up in a pool of blood about 20 feet from a parking area behind his apartment, police said. He had been stabbed in the chest.

Bill Jones, a neighbor in the moderately expensive apartment near the Sunset Strip, said, "We heard about three yells. The last yell was 'Help.' We rushed out and saw Sal lying face-up, breathing really hard."

"He was like in a daze, trying to breathe. He didn't say anything."

Another neighbor, Mary Chance, 21, said, "It was too quiet. Then all of a sudden those screams, we heard those screams."

Neighbors said Mineo was quiet and kept to himself.

Authorities said the actor apparently lived alone and that his family resides in New York.

Mineo was in rehearsal for a starring role in "P.S. Your Cat Is Dead," a play scheduled to open next week at the Westwood Playhouse.

Recent television appearances by the baby-faced actor included roles in the Ellery Queen and Joe Forrester shows.

Highlights of his acting career included his portrayal of a juvenile delinquent along with James Dean in "Rebel Without A Cause" and later as an Israeli terrorist in "Exodus." Both performances won him Academy Award nominations.

As a delinquent in "Dino," he won a television Emmy in 1955.

A Gene Krupa fan, one of his favorite roles was that of the drummer in "The Gene Krupa Story." He more recently appeared as an ape in "Escape from the Planet of the Apes."

Mineo won a gold record in the late 1950s for "Start Moving."

Mineo was born Jan. 10, 1939, in New York City, the son of Italian immigrant parents. He began his show business career when he was 11.

Proposal Would Change Dates Of Kentucky's Fair

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The State Fair would be switched from mid-August to late July if a proposal being considered by the Kentucky State Fair Board is approved.

In recent years, the fair has coincided partially with the Indiana State Fair. This year, the Kentucky fair will be Aug. 17-28, the Indiana fair Aug. 19-29.

Board executive director Don L. Johnston called the move "a golden opportunity," saying an earlier fair would help get better livestock exhibits.

The committee's staff was directed to study the proposal.

Local Club Adopts New Facility Rental Policy

Changes in the rental policy for the use of the clubhouse facilities and discontinuance of its junior membership program were voted by the board of directors of the Murray Country Club at its February meeting Monday night. Under the new clubhouse facilities rental policy, which becomes effective immediately, no charge will be made for use of the facilities when rented by any member, or group of members, for a social activity to be attended only by members of the club and their out-of-town guests. A $25 cleanup charge, however, will be made. A charge of $100 will be made when the facilities are rented by any member for an activity to which non-member guests living in Murray or Calloway County will be invited. The cleanup charge is included. A charge of $175 will be made for business or social organizations for private parties, subject to the approval of the club president, Tim Miller. This also includes the cleanup charge. Effective Feb. 10, the junior membership program was discontinued. Anyone joining the club thereafter must do so as a full member, either as a single membership, with options of paying the $450 initiation fee in one sum or two or three-year installments for consecutive years. The club's annual dues are $240 for a family membership and $120 for a single membership. For the past several years, junior members have been given the privilege of waiving payment of the initiation fee until they reached the age of 30. The new policy, the directors emphasized, will not affect those junior members presently in the club under the provisions of the former policy. In other action Monday night, Director Dick Stout announced that Charles and Nancy Walston will be in charge of the tennis activities at the club during the coming season, and that Mrs. Joy Waldrop will be in charge of the swimming activities. The club's social calendar for 1976 has been completed, is being readied for the printer and is expected to be available for distribution about March 15. Announcement was made at the meeting that the annual Murray Shrine Club tournament at the club had been rescheduled from August 14 and 15 to August 7 and 8. President Miller appointed Stout and Director George Oakley as a two-man committee charges with the responsibility of investigating the feasibility of building two more tennis courts at the grounds.

Carroll To Outline Details Of Severance Package Next Week

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Gov. Julian Carroll said he will outline the details of a two-year severance tax package next week. Observers expect the governor to propose an increase in the severance tax of up to 1 per cent, to help finance projects in several categories—from a new highway in eastern Kentucky to increased funding for black lung benefits. Carroll met briefly Thursday with legislators and local officials from the coal-producing counties, to pledge that he would build a modern highway from Hazard to the Prestonsburg area—if they found the financing. Carroll said building a road to connect the Mountain Parkway with the Daniel Boone Parkway is vital to the economic growth of eastern Kentucky. "I can think of no investment more important," he said. "This draws two major four lane roads together in an area where you can't travel more than 35 miles an hour."

The four lane highway would be the most part parallel existing Ky. 80. Although the governor pledged he would build the highway, he danced around the issue of how it would be funded. But the coal-county representatives knew what he was saying. "You can't build it without money," he told them. "I can't ask the people of Kentucky to go in debt for me, but we will have to pay the debt," he said. "If we can find a way to get funds, we will build it."

Carroll then urged the local officials to "talk to your legislator and support him...with their (the legislature's) support, we can get it passed, with my help." Carroll said afterward it would be up to the general assembly to propose funding for the road, and when asked if the funding would hinge on a hike in the severance tax on coal, he replied, possibly. "The governor pointed out that he was committed his administration to not raising taxes that would increase the financial burden on the consumer, so that any increase in the coal severance tax would have to be accompanied by a decrease to the consumer. He mentioned "reducing elec-

Carroll said the program he will propose next week will fall into several categories, but he said figures have not been finalized on allocations to each of the areas.
