Two More of the Family Dying.
Poison Was Put in the Coffee
By Accident.

Hopkinsville, Ky., April 11.—Two children of Lewis Campbell died this morning after drinking a poisoned coffee. The mother and another child are dying. The shocking accident was caused by a bottle of rat poison being dropped into the breakfast coffee. Mr. Campbell is a farm hand; he is completely ignorant of the deaths of his children.

FIRE IN MARION.

Marion, Ky., April 11.—About half of the little city was destroyed and damaged Friday night by burning in business houses in the most prominent part of the city.

The fire originated in C. D. Jenkins' grocery store and was caused by a defect in the flue. It started about 1:15 o'clock and lasted until after 4 o'clock. No assistance could be had to stop the flames, but everything had been to the ground.
The names of the houses burned out are as follows:

C. D. Jenkins, grocer.
L. B. Gregory, grocer.
L. K. Cook, jeweler.
Nina Barnes, milliner.
A. C. Gilbert, saddlery.
M. E. Fink, tailor.
J. H. Clifton & Sons and Pierce Yandell and Copenhagen's stock were damaged to quite an extent.
The total loss is about $5,000, covered by $1,500 insurance.

ARMED INTERVENTION M'KINLEY'S POLICY.

The Remedy the President Proposes to Use in the Situation Regarding Cuba.

THE FRIENDS OF CUBA ARE DISSATISFIED.

Senator Lindsay Will Attack the Message and Urge Immediate Action by This Government in Behalf of the Cubans.

IMMEDIATE INTERVENTION

Will Be the Report of the Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs.

CUBAN RECOGNITION OPPOSED.

But the President Declares for Cuban Independence in Plain and Unmistakable Terms.

SENATOR LINDSAY UP IN ARMS.

Will Fight for Cuban Recognition and Will Attack the Position Taken by the President.

A CAUCUS OF REPUBLICANS TONIGHT.

Washington, April 11.—The president's message was sent to congress today at 1:30 p. m. The galleries of both houses were crowded as never before with eager and anxious throngs waiting to hear the message read, and the floors of both the Senate and house of representatives were filled. The message contained 4,000 words.

The message was read and referred to the foreign relations committee in both houses. These committees are not expected to report before tonight or tomorrow morning.

The opening part of the message is devoted to a review of the whole Cuban situation. The terrible sufferings of the Cubans are depicted.
The President shows the origin and spread of anarchy in the island and refers to the devastation of the fertile plantations, the starvation of innocent and inoffensive people, and recalls the fact that Spanish officers have participated in these outrages.
Americans in Cuba have been in-sulted while distributing supplies to the suffering and the dying.

The President calls particular attention to Spain's inability to put down the insurrection or to suppress anarchy.

To put a stop to this state of affairs the President urges armed intervention to terminate hostilities in Cuba, and the anarchy and lawlessness now running rampant on the island.

The President, however, asks discretionary authority in using the army and navy to back up intervention, and as to the times of intervention.

The message plainly opposes a recognition of the present Cuban government. The President assumes that such a government exists but points out the fact that its headquarters are in New York and that it is utterly incompetent of guaranteeing to the Cubans peace and order. He thinks that the question of choosing their form of government should be left to the Cubans themselves after order is restored in the island, Spanish authority terminated, and Cuba is independent.

The fact is recited that Spain has admitted her regrets over the loss of the battleship Maine in Cuban waters, but no recommendation is made as to the ultimate solution of the Maine question. The facts of that case, however, are given at length and are submitted to congress.

The president says that the loss of the Maine proves Spain's inability to guarantee security to foreign vessels in her own waters if it proves nothing more.

Enforced pacification of the island is the only means by which relief can come to the Cubans, and that must be done by this government.

Spain's armistice proposition is submitted to Congress simply for what it is worth.

In fact the whole Cuban question is submitted to Congress for its disposition, with the suggestion that if Spain's proposition is not far reaching or practical enough to solve the situation in Cuba, that this fact is in itself ample justification for the contemplated action of this government, meaning the proposed armed intervention.

The message furnishes no definite conclusion as to the next step to be taken. He leaves to the Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs to prescribe the mode of procedure.

As a matter of fact this has already been decided upon and the committee's report will be the sequel of the message. The President has read the report and approved it. The committee will report for armed intervention which will mean war.

Washington, April 11.—The message of the president is unsatisfactory to many of the republicans who think they see in it another chance for delay. All the democrats are dissatisfied.

Senator Lindsay, of Kentucky, will attack it in the senate at the very first opportunity.

The senate resolution will call for immediate armed intervention.

A republican caucus will be held tonight and there is a prospect of a lively time. Many republicans threaten to revolt and to vote regardless of the President's wishes.

Washington, April 11.—Senator Lindsay is working among the Senators for support of his resolution recognizing the Cuban belligerency.
He believes he can secure a big vote for it. He will attack the president's message in a speech tomorrow.

MILLIONS FOR POWDER.

Circle Sam Said to Have Placed a Big Order With DuPont Mills.

Wilmington, Del., April 11.—The E. I. DuPont Nemours Company, it is understood, has received from the United States government a contract for furnishing $15,000,000 worth of powder, and the mills are being rushed to turn out the material as rapidly as possible. Most of the powder manufactured at the mill at present is red, and being more difficult to ignite than black powder there are fewer explosions, and it can be produced more rapidly by the machinery.

The company is building a new mill in the lower yard, and also a machine for the manufacture of prismatic powder, which is to be the largest in the world.

The wages of the employees of the company have recently been increased.

IMPORTANT POST AWAITS HIM.

Lieut. Commander Wainwright
May Command a Warship.

Washington, April 11.—Lieut.
Commander Richard Wainwright, late executive officer of the Maine, arrived here Saturday, and reported his return to Secretary Long. He was the last officer of the Maine to leave Havana. He denied himself to all newspaper men who sought his views in regard to the cause of the explosion, and the situation in Havana at the time of his departure.

There is an impression among naval officers that Secretary Long proposes to compliment Commander Wainwright by giving him the important assignment of Chief of the Bureau of Naval Information, which carries with it ex-officio membership on the Naval Strategic Board.

Several men got drunk, and in driving recklessly about, broke up two or three haggies. It was one of the most exciting days experienced at Fancy Farm for several years.

Paul Dunbar, the negro poet of Lexington, Ky., who is now filling a government position as a clerk in the

The first act takes place in the act in Thompson street, where the heroine meets an African King, who is traveling incognito.

On March 31, Al G. Field received the pleasing intelligence that he had been unanimously chosen exalted ruler of Columbus lodge No. 37. Mr.
Field has long been an earnest and enthusiastic member of this lodge, and is one of the most popular mem-message from the assembled lodge was his first intimation that he was to be selected, and it goes without saying that the genial comedian will perform the duties incumbent upon the position with dignity and credit to the lodge which honored him. Mr.

Field is a favorite with Paducah Elks has once or twice presided over social sessions here. His picture adorns

Only a Portion of Her Fleet

Washington, April 11.—Few of the Spanish cruisers which have been with the fleet at Cadiz have left that place for the Cape Verde islands, where one of the torpedo fleets is rendezvoused. This information came to the navy department today.
These two vessels are the Cristobal Colon and the Infanta Maria Teresa, both armored cruisers.

The information in possession of the navy department is that only a portion of the original torpedo fleet that left Spain and the Canaries, presumably for Porto Rico, reached the Cape Verde Islands.

A rumor was circulated at the navy department that Capt. Sampson's squadron at Key West had sailed from that place. Secretary Long, when appealed to about the matter, refused to discuss it.

A Man Retailed Whiskey In

There was an exciting time at Fancy Farm, Graves county, yesterday. There were elaborate services at the Catholic church there yesterday, and there were people there for miles around.

Some fellow showed up with a supply of whiskey, and began selling it full view of the hundreds of people. After disposing of the first lot, he went back and soon appeared with more.
Before he disposed of it, however, Constable Burley appeared and shot him at him. He left his buggy and what remained of the whiskey, and has been seen no more. He was a stranger.

EASTER AT THE FLOOD.

One Hundred and Fifty Paducah People View the Scene of Death and Destruction at Shawneetown.

Only Four Bodies Recovered Up to Yesterday—The Mayor Allowed the Paducah People to Land There.

About 150 Paducah people left on the Dick Fowler yesterday for Shawneetown, which was almost entirely washed away one week ago last night. The crowd encountered a hail storm about Cave-in-Rock, and when Shawneetown was reached at 4:30 in the afternoon, it was raining.

It was only after a conference with the mayor that Capt. Cole was allowed to land the boat, and the people to look over the ruins. Many having no overcoats, or umbrellas chose to remain on board and view the waste of waters from a distance.

There was a great difference in Easter Sunday in Shawneetown, and in the preceding Sunday.

Death is now everywhere, for out of all the drowned only three bodies have been recovered. The body of Mrs. W. R. Galloway was taken out of the water at the south levee yesterday morning. There also was found the body of aged Mrs. Holly. Near the same place the body of a negro woman was found Saturday. The current of the water from the break through the city seems to have been so powerful as to dislodge bodies from houses and carry them half a mile and more away to the other side of the city.

Mrs. Galloway's body was taken to the court house, dressed and placed in a coffin to be taken to a burial place in Tumbula, Neb. Mourning friends, with the bereaved father, followed a funeral procession away over the hill to the far country where a train was boarded. The waters still hold Misses Dora and Mary Galloway, daughters. Sheriff Galloway is no more himself. Grief has unstrung his mind. It is a melancholy which will cause the man's death. He is now almost 70, and his years in this life are not long.

Though the searchers found Mrs.
Holly's body they could not take it from the water, having no coffin in which to bury it. A few coffins were received and all of them have been used.

Mrs. Galloway's remains having been encased in the last large consignment of coffins is on the way and has been on the way since Tuesday. It is lost some place nobody knows where. Traders have been sent out and the car has been found to have been lost at East St.
Louis, Mo. If it does not arrive in two days it will be necessary to send for another lot of coffins.

The searchers worked all Easter Sunday. There are several crews at work at night too. The water has fallen to five feet in depth. The driftwood is piling so as to impede the searchers.

Ten state militiamen arrived from Mt. Vernon Saturday night, under command of a sergeant. They were summoned to guard property in the town. Brigands work each night and much has been lost. Hundreds of trunks have been found on the shores of the hills to the rear of the city, broken open and robbed of every valuable thing. Two hundred special policemen are on duty in the city under direction of the Marshal C. A.
White.

Those persons who still cling to the city are living on the hills in tents, or under rudely constructed rafts. The tents set by Gov. Tanner have arrived. Many citizens of the town have left permanently, preferring to live where there is no possibility of being flooded and drowned at each high water.

The levee around the city is breaking in many places by reason of the continued washing from both sides.
If the city is ever re-inhabited it will not be until the levee is rebuilt. The present one is unsafe.

There are now more than 500 skiffs in use in and around Shawnee-town. Last week at this time there were not 200. Every boat has brought skiffs. Early Monday morning enormous sums were offered for skiffs and even for the use of them for half hours. It is said that Hanker Peelies gave $100 to use a skiff five minutes.

The only mode of communication with the outside world is the Cumberland telephone. The company's line has been working since Tuesday morning. The Western Union Telegraph company has several gangs of men at work in the vicinity, but the lines are not yet ready to be worked.
The White County Telephone company's line is still disabled.

The Paducah crowd remained an hour, and many rode about the city in skiffs. They arrived in Paducah about 10:30 last night. There were about twenty-five or fifty people to get on the boat at way landings.

The book auction will hold its last sale tomorrow, Tuesday, night. This is positive.

Mr. John Lyton, of the Blademan Grocery Co., is offering from a sprained wrist, sustained by falling from his wagon Saturday afternoon.

Yesterday was not very promising at dawn, but there were Easter displays galore, and the day brightened up considerably before noon, and greatly increased the crowds of promenaders on the streets.

Some little excitement was created at the wharf yesterday morning as a rouster on the Fowler falling into a river near the wharfbank. He was fished out little the worse for the plunge. It was probably the first bath he had had for some time.

The churches, as is the invariable custom on Easter, were all crowded yesterday. There were splendid services, too, special music being given at nearly all of them.

Oak Grove cemetery claimed most of the people yesterday afternoon on account of the weather and the many people who had new spring clothes to display. Now that the weather has become warmer and more conducive to outings, the Sunday crowds at the cemetery will increase each pretty Sabbath. Sexton Porteous is polite and attentive to all, and has made the place one of the prettiest in this end of the state.

Oak Grove always opens earlier than any of the other Sunday and summer resorts in Paducah. It gets the first birds, the first flowers and the first tender touch of spring.
There is no better place to go on Sunday.

Fane King, the little son of Mr.
Chas. King of West Broadway, fell into the back water Saturday afternoon and came near being drowned before assistance could reach him.
