Location Of Veterinary School At University Gaining Support

By GENE McCUTCHEON
Ledger & Times News Editor

Support for the location of a veterinary school at Murray State University is expected to grow rapidly following the introduction of a bill Wednesday night by State Sen. Pat McCuiston, D-Pembroke.

Resolutions in support of the measure have already been approved by the Murray City Council, the Calloway County Fiscal Court and four area Chambers of Commerce—the Murray-Calloway County chamber, the Greater Paducah chamber, The Marshall County chamber and the Mayfield-Graves County chamber.

The board of directors of the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce is scheduled to consider a resolution in support of locating the vet school at MSU in late January.

"Twenty other area chambers have resolutions for consideration at meetings later this month," James Johnson, executive secretary of the Murray-Calloway County Chamber said.

A report compiled by the local chamber and the Southern Regional Education Board (SREB) of the Veterinarians for the South supports the location of a veterinary school in Kentucky. The report says that "unless student enrollment in veterinary medical schools can be increased substantially, and new ones built, the nation will have a crisis in veterinary."

The report points out that in 1973, Kentucky had 97 qualified applicants to veterinary schools but only 22 openings available in out-of-state schools. The state annually places approximately 20 students in three institutions:

Ohio State University, Tuskegee Institute and Auburn University.

The report also warns that states with veterinary medicine schools could withdraw spaces traditionally provided for out-of-state students due to pressures within those states. If this should happen, Kentucky's already minimal support of veterinary opportunities would be hampered even more.

The resolutions passed by area chambers of commerce and governing bodies all recognize the need for expanded livestock production on Kenucky farms and support the establishment of a vet school in the state to enhance this increased production.

The resolutions point out that at the present time only one of five qualified vet school applicants from Kentucky gain admittance to the schools. The resolutions urge the state administration and related agencies to provide their support for the establishment of a school of veterinary medicine at Murray State University.

Sen. McCuiston has reported that he feels enough interest has been generated "that they're going to build a vet school in Kentucky" in the next 8 to 10 years.

McCuiston's bill is practically identical to a bill filed in the House except that the House bill leaves the location of the school to the state Council of Public Higher Education while McCuiston's bill stipulates that the school be located at Murray State.

Both bills call for annual appropriations of $15 million each over the next two years for establishment of the school. McCuiston has admitted that he holds no high hopes either bill would succeed in the 1974 General Assembly because "the budget is pretty well planned now, and it would be unlikely, to be frank, to have that kind of money turn up."

The Senator, who is a Murray State graduate, indicated that he hoped the matter would be thoroughly explored through consideration of the bills so that planning could be made for future years.

McCuiston, a Calloway County native, said that the only "real competition" he feels Murray State has for the school is with the University of Kentucky.

The local university made public last spring that it was studying the need for a veterinary school and a few weeks later, officials of Western Kentucky University expressed a desire for having a veterinary school located in Bowling Green.

Murray's study was followed in the summer by a higher education council study regarding the need for such a school. The council did not make a recommendation but sought only to gain information.

Routine City Business Handled By Councilmen

By GENE McCUTCHEON
Ledger & Times News Editor

The first regular meeting of the 1974-75 Murray City Council last night was taken up mainly with routine business on an agenda that was somewhat more lengthy than normal.

City Clerk Standford Andrus and City Attorney Wells Overbey were both rehired to the two posts by the council, which also approved Mayor John Scott's recommendations that councilman Dave Willis be appointed to the Electric Plant Board and councilman Hugh Tom Rushing as the council's representative on the planning commission. The council also accepted "with regret" the resignation of James Spann from the fire department.

All of the appointments were unanimously approved and councilman Paul Mansfield said of Andrus, "I think he's the most capable and competent employee the city has."

The only topics that were discussed at length during the meeting were:

—a suggestion that the council consider employing a full time city planner, and;

—discussion concerning the use of the Douglas Center by the Japan International Karate Center.

In other action, the council approved the bills payable for the general fund, water and gas systems; passed ordinance 591, rezoning a piece of property located on Glendale and Whitnell streets from residential to commercial; approved a lease with the Tappan Company for the city's use of the Tappan owned Douglas Center; authorized the city to borrow operating funds to be used until tax revenues begin coming in; approved a resolution expressing gratitude for former councilmembers; and asked the chairmen of the finance and purchasing committees to study and make a recommendation on the retaining of auditors for 1974 for the various city departments.

The recommendation that the city consider hiring a full-time city planner was made to the council by councilman Tom Rushing, chairman of the council's city planning and traffic committee.

Rushing introduced W. A. Franklin, a professor at Murray State University and the secretary of the Murray Planning and Zoning Commission, who summarized a report he had prepared dealing with the benefits the city could receive through the employment of a full time planner.

Franklin pointed out that R. D. Key, city building inspector for a number of years announced his intentions to retire from that position about a year ago but agreed to remain on the job until a replacement could be found.

Local Tobacco Sales Reach Record Level

A "very active" tobacco market produced a record average of $71.13 on the opening day of the dark-fired market here Thursday.

Holmes Ellis, general manager of the West Kentucky Dark-Fired Tobacco Growers Association, was "extremely pleased" at the high price paid by buyers here Thursday. Some of the leaf sold for as high as $80 per hundred weight.

The total pounds sold on the three Murray floors was 228,286 pounds, according to David Hill, local tobacco market reporter. The leaf brought a total of $162,374.46 on the three floors.

Monday will be the next sales day in Murray. The buyers are in Mayfield today for the Mayfield sale.

Rotary Endorses Veterinary School

The Murray Rotary Club has unanimously and enthusiastically endorsed a bill introduced Wednesday in the Kentucky Senate calling for the establishment of a school of veterinary medicine at Murray State University.

Nat Ryan Hughes, Murray attorney and past governor of the 53-club Rotary District 671, has been named chairman of a committee charged with the development of a resolution to be forwarded to Kentucky Gov. Wendell H. Ford and the areas' senators and representatives in the Legislature in support of the bill.

Introduced by State Sen. Pat McCuiston, D-Pembroke, the bill, SB69, would provide the new veterinary school with two departments: One for teaching and one for research. The university also would be authorized to confer a doctor of veterinary medicine degree.

In calling for the resolution and the club's support of the bill, Hughes urged the 108-member club "to let the world, including Governor Ford, know that we enthusiastically and wholeheartedly endorse the establishment of the veterinary school at Murray State University."

He also urged the club members to write each of their representatives in the General Assembly reaffirming the club's action.

"We want them to know that there is one gang down here in Murray that's behind this effort 100 percent and which is not mealy-mouthed about it," Howard Reid, counselor of

TO PERFORM IN MURRAY—Buddy Rich, world-famous drummer, will be in Murray Jan. 19 to perform a concert at 8 p.m. in Lovett Auditorium. The concert is sponsored by the Murray Band Boosters and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia.

Buddy Rich Concert Set For January 19

Buddy Rich, world-famous drummer, will be in Murray January 19 to present a concert at the Lovett Auditorium.

The concert, sponsored by the Murray Band Boosters and Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, will begin at 8 p.m.

Proceeds from the event will go to the Murray High School Band for their trip to the Orange Bowl next year.

Rich began his career at the age of one and one-half years. By the time he was seven years old, Rich was the second highest paid child star in the world, topped only by Jackie Coogan.

Born in Brooklyn, Rich has had little formal education but he is an articulate and intelligent performer. Except for brief periods in children's professional schools, when engagements permitted, he accumulated his remarkable fund of knowledge from specialized correspondence courses and, with his natural desire for learning, absorbed vast, fascinating facts during his many around-the-world entertainment tours.

Winner of every Jazz Poll in the world, Buddy has recorded some 25 albums with such greats as Dizzy Gillespie, Count Basie and Charlie Parker.

The drummer makes frequent guest appearances on the Tonight Show with Johnny Carson.

Tickets for the Rich concert are four dollars in advance and $4.50 at the door.

Advance tickets can be purchased at the Student Union Building at Murray State, at the music office on the second floor of the Pine Arts Building, at Chuck's Music Center, J & B Music Center or from members of the MHS band boosters or Phi Mu Alpha members.

Two Men To Be Charged In Hog Killing

Charges will be placed against two men in connection with the killing of a hog on the farm of Tommy D. Taylor, according to the office of the Calloway County Sheriff.

The sheriff's office would not release the names of the men, pending acquisition of warrants against them, which was expected this afternoon.

The men were apprehended after Sheriff Maurice Wilson was called to the farm at about one a.m. today. The hog had been shot with a shotgun, Wilson said.

Also, in connection with the incident, Deputy Sheriff James Hamilton was not injured when his car overturned while he was on his way to assist in the arrest of the men.

Hamilton had turned into a side road which was covered by waters after heavy rains in the area, and when started to back out of the road, his car slipped off into a creek bank, and the car overturned coming to rest in about two feet of water. The accident occurred one mile east of Pottertown.

Merger Is Announced Today Of Local Men's Clothing Stores

The merger of two local men's clothing stores has been formally announced today.

Buckingham-Ray Ltd., and Graham-Jackson will merge into one corporation at the end of this month, a spokesman for the two said.

The four partners will be Cliff Cochran, a partner in Graham-Jackson at this time; Buddy Buckingham and Rob Ray, of Buckingham-Ray; and Charles Cochran, brother of Cliff who will be moving to Murray this week.

Bradburn Hale, who has been associated with Graham-Jackson for nearly 41 years, will retire at the end of this month.

The purpose of the merger, according to one of the partners, is to "give our customers a better opportunity to find what they want in the two stores."

The image of both stores, as well as the names, will remain essentially the same, with no major changes in clothing lines planned for either store.

Graham-Jackson opened in 1916 under the ownership of Foreman Graham and Luther Jackson. Buckingham-Ray opened in 1968. Buckingham was an industrial engineer for Tappan for nine years, while Ray was an auditor for the Bank of Murray for 12 years.

Jim Etheridge, a salesman for Graham-Jackson for 14 years, will continue with the downtown store.

The main emphasis of the new owners is that both stores will continue to operate as they have, but with a broader market appeal to their customers, and also more convenience for customers of both stores.

CAVE-IN—L.W. Lyons, County road employee, was not seriously injured this morning while operating the new "Grad-All" machine at a gravel pit north of Murray. Lyons was loading gravel with the machine, when a bank collapsed and buried part of the cab of the machine, severely damaging the equipment, and leaving Lyons with leg abrasions. He was treated and released at the Murray-Calloway County Hospital.

Chapter M of P.E.O. Meets At Hart Home: Program Is Presented

Mrs. George Hart entertained members of Chapter M of P.E.O. in her home Monday evening, January 7. Mrs. John C. Quertemous, president, presided with the chaplain, Mrs. Larrie N. Clark, reading from Romans: 31-37.

Other officers in official duties were Mrs. Harry M. Sparks, secretary; Mrs. Morgan E. Sisk, treasurer; and Mrs. Howard Tisworth substituting for Mrs. Olga Freeman.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Hart, local chairman of International Peace Scholarships, read a letter from Dr. Donald E. Jones, dean of the Graduate School, Murray State University, concerning Miss Shu-Chen "Peggy" Liang. The complimentary letter noted that Miss Liang, graduate student at Murray State from Taiwan and sponsored by Chapter M, "did quite well" in her courses last semester. Her high grades and courses were noted.

Pleased with the tangible results of I.P.S. and Educational Loan Fund, members voted an additional sum for the 1973 projects for which previous contributions had been made.

During the program hour Miss Ann Herron presented "A Bird's Eye View of Cottey College." The junior college located at Nevada, Mo., was founded and presented to the P.E.O. Sisterhood by Mrs. Virginia Alice Cottey Stockard. The school has been owned and operated by the Sisterhood

PERENNIAL VEGETABLES

There are perennials in the flower world; so why not perennials in the vegetable world? Indeed, there is such a thing, and the two most widely grown perennial vegetables are asparagus and rhubarb. Many gardeners buy these as roots for quicker results, but they can be grown less expensively — and quite reliably — from seed. Rhubarb from seed will take two years to reach an adequate size, and asparagus will take at least three, but once you have a well established bed they will keep producing year after year without the need for replanting.

Cook Efficiently To Save

NEW YORK (AP) — How can the American woman help conserve fuel energy these days when preparing a meal? Experts say the amount of time spent at the range can be reduced, fuel bills lowered and energy saved at the same time.

Chefs at Ogden Foods, a division of the Ogden Corporation, who prepare meals for visitors to stadiums, arenas, race tracks and airports, have developed short cuts that can enhance meals while reducing waste.

There are four factors to consider — utensils, menus, ingredients and motivation. The family budget and advance planning are other factors.

The chefs said proper utensils are essential, such as pans that can be put to multiple uses.

Combine vegetables in a larger pan, rather than having three separate pots boiling away on the stove. Many people overcook food, particularly vegetables, the experts said. Vegetables taste better when firm and are better for us.

Boiled one-container dishes are often less expensive and more healthful, the chefs added. A bit of ham with potatoes, string beans and onions puts all points together. A cold buffet once a week, or a salad made of leftovers such as cubed meat and cold vegetables can also save time and energy.

Make larger quantities at one time and freeze the remainder for another meal, the experts added.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have been married for 10 years and have two children. My life is my husband, home and family, but I know that my husband isn't as turned on sexually with me as he should be. [I have to make all the advances.]

Lately, he shocked me by telling me that when we make love, he has fantasies about Sylvia—the girl he went with all thru college. He says that's the only thing that turns him on. I feel hurt knowing he has to think of another girl to get something out of making love to me.

I've never had sex with anyone except my husband and I wouldn't want to have.

I feel somehow that he is being "disloyal" to me, if not in actuality, in his thoughts. I also feel if Sylvia were to become available, he would have an affair with her.

Sometimes I wish he weren't so honest. I am so confused. I need someone to explain this whole thing to me. Please try.

NOT SYLVIA

DEAR NOT: Almost everyone has fantasies. They are an important part of lovemaking. But it's unkind and unwise to disclose fantasies which are hurtful. Your husband may rate an "A" in honesty, but he flunks "common sense."

DEAR ABBY: Several weeks ago our daughter was married. We invited 150 guests to her wedding. After checking all the wedding gifts, we found that we did not receive a gift from one of the couples who attended the wedding.

How does one go about finding out whether a gift was given or not? We don't want to embarrass anyone.

WORRIED

Hubby passes honesty, flunks common sense

DEAR WORRIED: I can't imagine anything more tasteless than asking someone if he brought a gift or not. Just assume that you got a pretty good return on your investment, and let it go at that.

DEAR ABBY: I am 21 and my husband is 36. We've been married for two years and have a 3-month-old boy. When the baby was only a month old I had trouble with my nerves, so Children's Service took him from us. They still have him, and I'm still being treated for my nerves.

I hate to say this, but I'm afraid if the baby comes back it is going to interfere with our life. Every time we want to go someplace we have to worry about getting a baby sitter, and baby sitters don't come cheap.

Besides, we just bought a new mobile home, and the expense of that plus caring for the baby just don't fit our budget.

Maybe I'm not ready to settle down yet. I feel terrible telling you all this, but you said, "If you have a problem, you'll feel better if you get it off your chest," so I did. Can you help me?

FEELS BETTER

DEAR FEELS: Don't make any decisions now. When you have finished with your treatment, you may feel entirely different. God bless you.

Bills Deserve Support

A bill filed in the Kentucky House of Representatives by Rep. Kenneth C. Imes (D-Murray) should be of vital interest to consumers across the state.

Rep. Imes, who represents all of Calloway County except the Coldwater District and a portion of Trigg County, has filed a measure that would credit the purchaser of a new automobile for state taxes previously paid on a vehicle being traded in toward the purchase of the new auto.

As the Kentucky Revised Statutes now stand, for example, when a person trades in a $1,500 auto on a new $4,000 auto, he must pay tax on $4,000 even though the actual amount of money changing hands is only $2,500. Not to mention that the poor fellow paid tax on the $1,500 auto when he purchased it.

This measure is commendable in that it, if approved by the legislature, will remove an unfair tax from the Kentucky taxpayer. The present method of taxation on automobile purchases could be construed as a form of double taxation.

Another bill filed by Imes this week provides that a charge of drunken driving could not be amended or reduced to a lesser charge.

This bill stipulates that if a driver is charged with driving while under the influence of intoxicants by a police officer, the driver must be tried on that charge. The bill would prohibit judges across the state from amending the charge or reducing the charge and would provide a mandatory penalty for the offense.

We endorse both of the measures and urge all citizens to give support to the passage of these pieces of legislation.

Readers Hurt By Hike

Benjamin Franklin, mindful of the dependence of the people of a fledgling nation on the printed word for education and information, two centuries ago established a policy of low postal rates for periodicals.

And Congress since 1782 has maintained its benevolent view of the publishing industry as a stimulant to the circulation and exchange of new ideas.

But in 1970, in response to public complaints of poor service, Congress passed the Postal Reorganization Act, assuming that businesslike methods would bring new efficiency and corresponding economy to the mail delivery service.

The legislation required that within five years of its effective date—by July 6, 1976—each class of mail should pay its own way.

The optimism of 1970 has been proved invalid.

Postal service has not improved. Costs have gone up. The public has been asked to share the increased cost burden through higher rates for letters.

But few Americans are aware of the more startling demands made of the publishers of newspapers as well as national magazines. Second-class rates—under which 30,000 publications operate have risen 57 per cent in three years.

They will be hiked again by an estimated 127 per cent by the 1976 deadline.

In the past five years, postage costs to this newspaper alone have increased to five times the amount charged in 1968.

Look and Life magazines, faced with probable increases in mailing costs of millions of dollars annually, quietly went out of business in 1971.

All newspapers and periodicals have been forced to increase subscription rates in an effort to keep pace with the spiraling postage costs.

"Will Congress kill the publishing industry?" the editors of the Reader's Digest have asked their readers.

Conceding that their own healthy publication will survive, they see the spiraling postal rates as a death sentence for less robust publications.

The scheduled increases in postal rates combined with inescapable boosts in the costs of paper and printing, if passed along to subscribers, would create, in the words of a spokesman for Time magazine, "an industry for the affluent only."

The Cost of Living Council, in ordering delays in postal rate boosts scheduled for Jan. 1, has given Congress a chance to reassess its mandate to the Postal Service.

The federal rate subsidy to publishers in 1973 amounted to $190 million—about the same support given to rice farmers.

The level should be maintained for the benefit of readers who look to daily newspapers and magazines as sources for keeping informed and for mental stimulation.

The 14 per cent TVA rate hike is resulting in rate increases ranging up to 21 per cent to some Murray and Calloway County users of electric power, as the result of action taken by the local electric systems. Doubtless other power boards in the Tennessee Valley have also been forced to increase their rates somewhat to offset the TVA hike, but some others have not. While we do not know what the average increase to TVA power users will be throughout the Valley as a result of the TVA rate hike, we do feel that local consumers have been handed a pretty hefty package, which they'll begin to feel next month on their electric bills.

The TVA was the greatest thing that ever happened to the South. It started this great region on its way to industrial, financial and cultural expansion. Hopefully the famous "TVA yardstick" will not be swallowed up in a sea of increased profits, retained earnings, fat surpluses and overloaded budgets like the greedy power trusts which TVA replaced in this region.

In lieu of rate-raising, we suggest some fat-trimming and belt-tightening in the ranks of TVA and the boards which distribute its power to the people of the Tennessee Valley.

—The Paris Tn. Post-Intelligencer

LIGHT FOR THE BLIND
John 9:1-7, 35-41

This dramatic, and fascinating story possesses an irresistible charm. Both the words of the actors and their movements on the stage of action intrigue us.

The Case

One autumn Sabbath as Christ and His disciples were leaving the temple in Jerusalem, where He had taught publicly that He was the light of the world, He saw a blind beggar whose eyes had rolled in irksome night since his birth. He had never looked into the face of his father or mother. Unknown to him were the glory of the heavens, the majesty of the mountains, the sublimity of the seas, the beauty of the meadows, and the waving of the trees. Daily this beggar sat near the gate and begged for the wherewith to obtain the very necessities of life. While he was not permitted to solicit alms on the Sabbath, his very affliction was a plea for help.

The Conversation

Christ stopped and looked sympathetically at the blind beggar. His disciples stopped to philosophize about the cause of his blindness, believing that his affliction was the direct result of some sin. Their attitudes remind us that to know the cause for something is not so important as trying to do something to correct an unfortunate situation or condition. Denying that the man's blindness was due to his sin or the sin of his parents, Christ declared that his blindness had been permitted in order "that the works of God should be manifest in him." His life was a screen upon which God displayed His goodness, grace, and glory.

When the disciples asked Christ, "Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?" it was as if they were saying, "Here is a specimen, let us examine it. How did it happen? Who was responsible?" It seems that people have an inordinate curiosity about those who are afflicted or handicapped. Christ's answer to their question made it clear that the man's blindness was not the result of sin on the part of either member of the family.

The Cure

Christ took ordinary clay, moistened it with saliva, smeared it over the eyes of the beggar, and said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam." Christ wanted him to have faith before He gave him sight. Instead of doubting, questioning, or delaying, the man arose immediately and did exactly as he had been commanded. As soon as he did so, Christ demonstrated His ability to confer the power of vision where it had never existed. The man's cure was supernatural, immediate, complete, and permanent.

In this man who was sought out and ministered to by Christ without a single appeal from him, we have a beautiful illustration of the activities of God through grace reaching out to people in their unsaved condition. The initiative is always with God. He seeks us before we ever think of seeking Him.

The Consequences

The man hastened to inform his parents that he could see. He created quite a sensation among his neighbors, who took him to the Pharisees, but he never deviated in the least in his testimony when they cross-examined him. The man was not able to tell them very much about how he was cured of blindness, but he did boldly and courageously testify that Jesus Christ was the One Who had enabled him to see.

When the Pharisees failed in their desperate effort at intimidation, they reproached and mocked the man who had received his sight, and cast him out of the synagogue. No sooner had they scorned, ostracized, and excommunicated him than the Saviour sought him out and talked with him. He asked him, "Dost thou believe on the Son of God?" The man answered, "Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?" The Master revealed Himself to him saying, "It is he that talketh with thee." Instantly there came to the soul of that man that light which the Holy Spirit alone gives and he recognized Christ as God the Son Whom he could trust to save his soul. The man believed on Christ and was saved. He promptly acknowledged Him as his Saviour and worshipped Him as his Lord. Having discovered that it was much better to be outside the synagogue with Christ than on the inside without Him, it was his desire to please Him.

Claiming to see, and thinking they did not have any need, the Pharisees refused to receive Christ, the light of the world, and continued in their spiritual blindness. Christ informed these light-rejecters that their rejection of Him would not be excused on the basis of ignorance on their part. Willful spiritual blindness is never excusable.

Do you really believe on Christ, the Son of God? So many stop short of this! Faith is confidence and trust in and reliance upon the crucified, buried, and risen Christ for salvation and ever lasting life. It is that act of the will by which you turn your soul and your life over to Him Who loved you and gave Himself for you. If you have not trusted Christ as your personal Saviour, trust Him now and from Him receive light, life, liberty, and love. After you truly believe on Christ, you will have a desire to please Him. You will also have a great love for Him, a strong urge to advance His cause, and an intense longing to glorify Him.

Seen &amp; Heard Around Murray

By JAMES C. WILLIAMS

We know we are sort of slow, but will somebody please tell us how daylight saving time is going to save fuel, and energy.

At this time of year darkness comes early so lights are turned on early. With daylight saving time being instituted, darkness comes later, but with the short days, you merely swap it for darkness on the front part of the day. Therefore lights are turned on early in homes, schools and businesses and turned off earlier in the evening.

It seems to us that we are merely swapping darkness from one end of the day to the other with absolutely no saving of fuel or energy. Maybe we just can't see it, so if anyone has the right answer let us know.

Not that we are not patriotic or anything like that and not that we are against daylight saving time. We have always felt that the time for DST is in the winter and not in the summer, purely to get some daylight on the end of the day.

Over in Europe this past summer and some folks were taking our US dollars with a slight smirk on their faces because the dollar was at a new low and the francs, marks, etc. were at new highs. We knew that the US dollar is as sound a currency as there is in the world even though it was having a tough time. This belief was vindicated this week as the dollar soared and the yen, franc and mark dropped. We certainly wish no currency any difficulty however.

We are always amused by the critics who review the various TV shows. They hardly ever find anything well worth mentioning. Of course we agree with them on the mediocre presentations, but too many critics think they must give only adverse criticism to qualify as a critic.

We just thought we were being careful Wednesday morning. We figured the rain had cleared out most of the snow and ice and it did, but where we stepped was slick as alfalfa and down we went, but hard. We saw several people fall.

Had we not switched to daylight saving time, you would have noted a slight lengthening of the daylight by now.

Now, here is a prayer for the New Year written by Robert Louis Stevenson.

Lord, behold our family here assembled. We thank Thee for this place in which we dwell; for the love that unites; for the peace accorded us this day; for the hope with which we accept the morrow; for the health, the work, the food, and the bright skies that make our lives delightful; for our friends in all parts of the earth.

Give us courage, gaiety, and the quiet mind. Spare to us our friends, soften to us our enemies. Bless us, if it may be, in all our innocent endeavors. If it may not, give us the strength to encounter that which is to come, that we be brave in peril, constant in tribulation, temperate in wrath, and in all changes of fortune and down to the gates of death, loyal and loving to one another. Amen. Robert Louis Stevenson

Funny Funny World

Completely exhausted from her chores, Mrs. Rebecca Frost of Fresno lay down on the couch the other day to catch a few minutes sleep. She felt one of her youngsters patting her face and drowsily enjoyed the child's affections. The doorbell rang and she hurried to the door and told the vacuum salesman she didn't need one. He looked at her so strangely when she closed the door on him that she took a reflexive glance at the hallway mirror. Her face was plastered with Blue Chip trading stamps.

Bible Thought for Today

Ye shall know the truth and the truth shall make you free.—John 8:32.

Ignorance and superstition enslave us, bad habits enslave us. Only truth makes us free.

Isn't It The Truth!

by Carl Riblet Jr.

A book of etiquette published a hundred years ago suggests that a gentleman may not strike a lady until and unless she has struck him first. That rule, probably motivated by a felling of chivalry, would not be practical in this day and age when a lady who is younger and bigger and eager, and who has a black belt in karate, throws her weight around. That's when a pre-emptive strike is called for.

"If men knew how women pass the time when they are alone, they'd never marry."

—O. Henry

Ironside Tracks

Music Pirate

At a rock group's recording session, Chief Ironside (Raymond Burr) is tracking a music pirate when the group's guitarist is electrocuted in the "Ironside" collocation of "Once More for Joe."

Thursday, Jan. 17 (9-10 p.m. NYT), on the NBC Television Network.

Judy Carne, who became famous as the "Sock It to Me" girl on NBC-TV's "Rowan and Martin's Laugh-In," guest-stars as the manager of a rock group.

Convinced that the unauthorized duping and sale of the "Onda Sight" group's records in an inside job, Ironside and his aides scan all possible suspects, including the group's blind members, Nancy (Pamela Bellwood), Mo (Geoffrey Deuel), Willie (Roger Davis) and their only sighted member, Joey (Kip Niven). Also, their manager Miss Manning (Miss Carme), sound engineer Dee (Paul Hampton), studio owner Max (Richard B. Shull) and security guard Prudy (Don Barry). K.r./sna, Shab directed from a script by Sam Rocca.

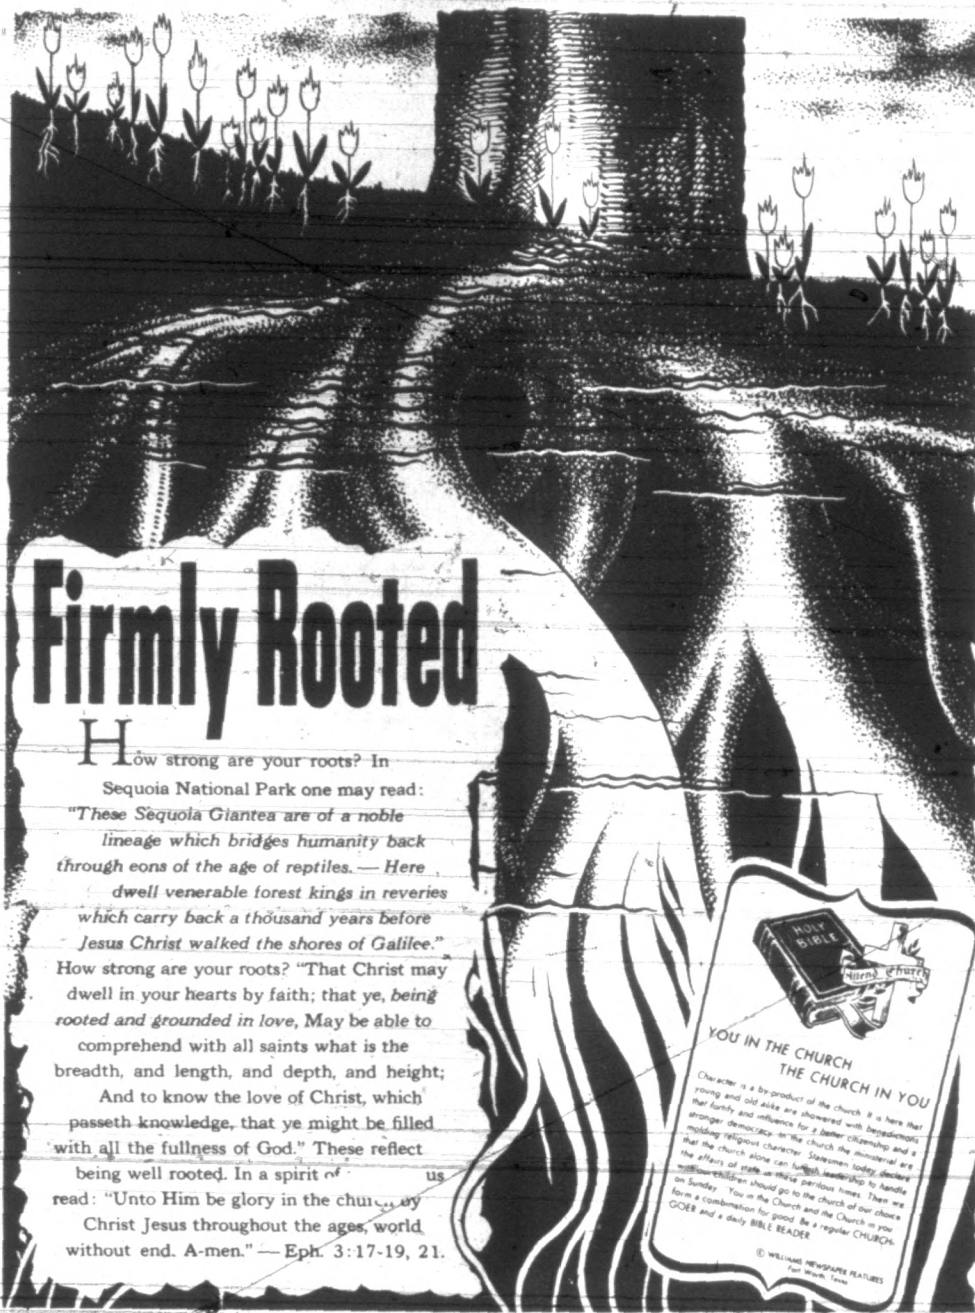

Pedro Armendariz (1) is starred with Sean Connery — the actor who brought James Bond to life on film — in "From Russia With Love," the television premiere of the secret agent adventure on the ABC Television Network's "ABC Monday Night Movie," Monday, Jan. 14 (8:00-10:30 p.m. CDT).

ATTEND CHURCH

Firmly Rooted

How strong are your roots? In Sequoia National Park one may read: "These Sequoia Giants are of a noble lineage which bridges humanity back through eons of the age of reptiles. Here dwell venerable forest kings in reveries which carry back a thousand years before Jesus Christ walked the shores of Galilee." How strong are your roots? That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fullness of God. These reflect being well rooted. In a spirit of us read: "Unto Him be glory in the church, by Christ Jesus throughout the ages, world without end. Amen." — Eph. 3:17-19, 21.

Racers Host Eastern To Open OVC Season

By MIKE BRANDON
 Ledger & Times Sports Editor
 No it's not like one of those storybook endings because he didn't really leave a legend behind him.
 What he left for Eastern Kentucky was the toughest non-conference schedule of any team in the Ohio Valley Conference. And for that matter, the Colonels have faced one of the toughest schedules anyone could face.
 As a result, Eastern Kentucky has won only one out of eight games this season, that being an 86-82 victory over Indiana State.
 But the losses have been to the nation's third-ranked team, Maryland, and as such powers as Florida State, Oral Roberts, Louisville, South Carolina, Virginia Tech and Marshall.
 So for those going to the 7:30 p.m. game in the Fieldhouse Saturday night, you can bet you

 The Racers are 5-4 on the season, after having Wednesday's game with McNeese postponed because of weather conditions at the Louisiana school.
 The Racers last played Monday night when they took a home 70-58 win over Texas Wesleyan.
 Included in the four losses for the Racers are setbacks on the road to Oral Roberts, Memphis State and Kansas and a two point defeat at home against Baylor.
 Mike Coleman, a 6-5 junior forward, is currently leading the Racers in scoring with a 25.0 point scoring average. He is followed by Marcelous Starks with a 14.0 point average and Jesse Williams with an 11.3 average.
 Carl Brown, a 6-4 sophomore guard has been pacing the Colonels this season and is averaging 16.1 points per game.
 Roberts Brooks, a 6-5 center, is scoring 13.5 points per game.
 Murray and Eastern have played one common opponent, that being Oral Roberts and both teams played at Tulsa.
 Murray lost to the Titans 86-83 while Eastern dropped a 90-80 game.
 The Colonels will be playing at Clarksville Monday against Austin Peay.
 Monday night, a talented Morehead team will be in the Fieldhouse for Murray's second conference game in three nights.
 The Eagles are currently 5-4 on the season after losses to Mercer, Virginia Commonwealth, Marshall and the University of North Carolina at

Ohio Valley Conference Set To Open Saturday

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 The Ohio Valley Conference season begins Saturday night with one of the most wide-open races expected in recent years.
 Austin Peay, Middle Tennessee, Murray and Morehead all are given chances of winning the title with Western Kentucky considered a dark horse contender.
 East Tennessee, Tennessee Tech and Eastern Kentucky are expected to finish in the second division.
 In a pre-season poll, OVC coaches picked Austin Peay to repeat as conference champs.

Murray was picked second, followed by a tie between Middle Tennessee and Morehead, then Western Kentucky, Eastern Kentucky, East Tennessee and Tennessee Tech.
 Middle Tennessee has compiled the best non-conference record, 9-2. The Blue Raiders, blessed with board strength, good outside shooting and depth, have won eight straight.
 Austin Peay must be considered a title threat because of sophomore star Fly Williams. However, the Gobs are missing 6-foot-7 forward Howard Jackson, who broke both legs in a summertime construction fall.
 Morehead's super sophomores of two years ago, who tied for the OVC crown, are seniors now and probably the most solid starting five in the conference.
 Western Kentucky has the ingredients—size, quickness, some speed and good outside shooting.

Middle School Tigers Split Pair Of Games

The perfect season for the Murray Middle School Eighth Grade Tigers came to an end last night at Mayfield as the Cardinals took a 40-31 win over Murray.
 In the seventh grade game, the Tigers kept their perfect slate intact with a 49-37 win to run their season record to 6-0 for the season.
 It was an 18 point scoring outbreak in the first period of the eighth grade game by Mayfield that ended the Murray winning streak.
 In the second period, the two teams played even but Mayfield had a 26-15 lead at halftime.
 Murray closed to within seven points at the end of the third period but could come no closer as the tall and talented Mayfield team held off the Tigers' bid to remain undefeated.
 Buck paced Mayfield with 14 while Clymer added 10. David Youngblood, a 6-3 seventh grader playing on the eighth grade team added 10 points also.
 For Murray, Frank Gilliam hit for 10 points and pulled off eight rebounds.
 "We just didn't play any defense in the first period and that is why we lost," Coach Lee Hook said.
 "We did get some fine defensive efforts though. I thought John Harrison and Roy

Financer Seeks To Buy Padres

HOUSTON (AP) — Reuben Askane, a Houston financier, has been reported heading a group that will seek to purchase the San Diego Padres baseball club in the National League.
 The Houston Chronicle named Askane Thursday as leader of the group. The newspaper said the Padres would remain in San Diego under the Askane plan.
 Askane was unavailable for comment Thursday night.
 Club owners rejected Wednesday in Chicago a proposal to sell the San Diego club to a group that includes Marjorie Everett, a Los Angeles race track owner.
 Askane arranged a $38 million loan last year to consolidate the debts of the giant Astrodomes Corp. complex, which includes the Houston Astros baseball club, the Astrodomes lease, the Astro world amusements park and a group of hotels near the Astrodomes.

North All Stars Are Picked In Senior Bowl

By ED SHEARER
 AP Sports Writer
 MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — A trio of All-American backs, David Jaynes of Kansas, Heisman Trophy winner John Cappelletti of Penn State and fleet flanker Lynn Swann of Southern California, give the North All-Stars a slight edge over the South in the 25th Senior Bowl football game.
 The nationally televised (NBC) professional debut for some of the nation's most promising collegiate seniors is set for a 1 p.m., EDT, kickoff in Ladd Stadium. A sellout crowd of 40,646 is expected.
 Television viewers will see a few new wrinkles in this allstar clash since the kickoff will be made from the 35, rather than the 40-yard line. All kickoffs must be returned except those going out of the end zone.
 "This brings back the most exciting play in football — the kickoff return," said Rea Schuessler, general manager of the game.
 College rules, in general, will prevail, although fumbles may be advanced and a runner falling may return to his feet and continue to advance the ball.
 The two-point conversion will not be used and a team behind by nine or more points will have an option to receive a kickoff.
 Jaynes, holder of six league records in the rugged Big Eight Conference, passed for 2,131 yards and 13 touchdowns in his senior season at Kansas. He edged out Mike Boryla of Stanford for the quarterback spot on the team coached by Mike McCormack of the Philadelphia Eagles.
 Cappelletti rushed for more than 1,600 yards in his senior season but was held to only 50 yards in Penn State's Orange Bowl victory over Louisiana

Csonka And Tarkenton Matchup To Come Sunday As Dolphins Six Point Favorite

By BRUCE LOWITT
 AP Sports Writer
 HOUSTON (AP) — It all seems to come down to Larry Csonka vs Fran Tarkenton — brutal, relentless strength vs. deadly, explosive agility.
 Csonka typifies the Miami Dolphins, the one-touchdown favorites in Sunday's Super Bowl VIII against Tarkenton's Minnesota Vikings.
 The Dolphins are a business-like team, methodically wearing down the opposition, finding a play and sticking with it until somebody comes up with a way to stop it.
 Nobody found a way to really stop Csonka in 1973. Bulling straight into the line or slanting off the tackles, he punched out 1,003 yards on 219 carries.
 When the enemy decided to concentrate on Csonka, Mercury Morris went to work. With his waterbug speed and moves, he weaved his way for 954 yards on 149 runs. He most likely would have reached 1,000 yards, except for an injury that kept him out of the final regular-season game.

 And to add to the running strength, the Dolphins again had Jim Kiick. He used to be known as half of the "Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid" team with Csonka before Morris "arrived." He's been fading into the background since then — but he can't be overlooked.
 In 1971, when Csonka gained 1,051 yards, Kiick had 738 and Morris only 315. In 1972 Csonka had 1,117 yards, Morris flashed onto the scene with exactly 1,000 and Kiick, shunted aside a bit, had 521.
 This season, though, Kiick became more of a specialist — coming in when the Dolphins faced a third-down and long situation or when they were within a few yards of a touchdown. Kiick was used not only as a runner — he finished with 257 yards — but also as a fine blocker and a dangerous short-yardage receiver. As the team's No. 3 receiver behind Marlin Briscoe and Paul Warfield, Kiick caught 27 passes for 208 yards.

 "Those three backs," said Minnesota linebacker Jeff Siemon, "give the Dolphins everything they need — everything anybody could need — in an offensive backfield attack."
 It's not that the Dolphins can't pass. It's that they don't have to — but they can put the ball in the air with the best of teams. Bob Griese, a cool, precise, almost mechanical quarterback, threw the ball 218 times this season, completing 116 of the passes for 1,422 yards and 17 touchdowns while having only eight passes intercepted. When Griese goes to the bomb, his usual target is Warfield, the 10-year veteran from Ohio State.

 Whether Warfield will be gliding around Rice Stadium Sunday, though, is uncertain, because of a pulled hamstring tendon in his right leg. He suffered the injury during a workout and spent Thursday strolling around the practice field sidelines in a sweatshirt.
 Coach Don Shula was concerned. "We can't afford to lose a player of that magnitude," he said. And Warfield was a bit down, too. "It certainly dampens a guy's spirits before the big game."
 If Warfield is unable to play, Howard Twilley, who usually plays behind Briscoe, would start. Twilley caught only two passes all season.

John Hicks Wins Lombardi Award

HOUSTON (AP) — Ohio State's lethal All-American tackle John Hicks scored another first Thursday night when he received the fourth annual Vince Lombardi Award as the nation's outstanding lineman.
 Hicks, a sure-shot pro prospect from Cleveland, was the first kid from his high school to earn a college scholarship.
 On New Year's Day Hicks became the first player in the history of the Big 10 to play in three Rose Bowls, helping the Buckeyes to a 42-17 victory over Southern Cal.
 By winning the Lombardi Award, which honors the late coach of Green Bay and Washington, Hicks made Ohio State the first school to turn out more than one Lombardi winner. Ohio State's Jim Stillwagon won the initial honor in 1971.

Hazel And Kirksey Take Wins As Basketball Tourney Opens

By MIKE BRANDON
Ledger & Times Sports Editor

Hazel and Kirksey claimed opening round wins Thursday night at Jeffrey Gymnasium in the Calloway County Junior High Basketball Tournament.

Hazel, who rolled to a 7-3 season record in county play and finished third in the conference standings, withstood a late Faxon rally to claim a thrilling 28-25 win over the Panthers who entered the game with a 1-9 season mark.

In the nightcap, Kirksey's Eagles, defending champions, easily defeated the Almo Warriors who were 1-9 entering the game, 50-29.

The semifinal round will be held Saturday at Jeffrey Gym with Lynn Grove, who compiled a 9-1 season mark, meeting Hazel at 7 p.m. The second contest will find New Concord, who was 8-2 in county play, meeting Kirksey.

The underdog Faxon team, coached by Tommy Brown, took a slim edge early in the first period but Hazel came back with two consecutive baskets late in the quarter to forge to a 7-6 lead at the end of the first six minutes.

Near the end of the second quarter, the winners scored four consecutive points to take a 15-10 lead at intermission.

Faxon pulled to within a point at the 2:31 mark of the third quarter when Marc Darnell scored from under to clip the Lion lead to 17-16.

Seconds later, Darnell notched a charity toss to tie the game at 17 apiece.

A 15 footer at the holt by Clay Latimer snapped a 19-19 deadlock and lifted Hazel to a two point edge entering the final period.

After falling behind 24-19 early in the last stanza, Faxon mounted a rally and pulled to within a point at 24-23 at the 1:31 mark of the game when Richie Morris hit a charity toss.

Front ends of bonus situations by Cohoon and Morris, the last with 53 seconds left, gave the Panthers a 25-24 lead.

But 16 seconds later, the Lions were again on top when Latimer hit from 10 feet out.

With only 22 seconds left, the Panthers had a shot to tie the game but Morris' front end of the bonus just fell off the rim and the Lions wrapped the win up just before the buzzer when Terry Gibson hit from under to put the final score of 28-25 on the board.

For Coach Roy Cothran's Lions, Latimer and Gibson each scored seven points to lead the win while Garland and Barrow added six apiece. For Faxon, Morris turned in 11 points in a fine effort while Darnell added eight.

Kirksey Ramps

After a slow first quarter start, Kirksey's Eagles broke loose for 16 points in the second period and gained the momentum for their win over the Almo Warriors.

A bucket from under by Randy Stalls snapped a deadlocked score and gave Almo a 6-4 edge, a lead they held until early in the second quarter.

Baskets by Stalls and Terry Cleaver moved Almo to an 8-4 edge before Kirksey rallied to pull within a point at 9-8 at the end of the first period.

After Tracy Phelps hit a bucket for the Warriors, the Kirksey team, coached by Jim Nix, rattled off four consecutive baskets as Rogers and Adams each scored two points and McCallon hit for four.

Darrell Walker scored the only other points of the period for Coach Bill Outland's Almo team and by halftime, the Eagles were flying along with a 24-13 cushion.

In the third period, Kirksey stretched the lead out and at one point led by as much as 22 points before the quarter ended with the Eagles holding a 40-20 bulge.

The largest lead of the game for the Eagles came in the final period when a basket by Adams boosted Kirksey to a 48-23 lead. Adams scored 12 for Kirksey while Watson, Rogers and McCallon all added 10.

For Almo, Cleaver and Dumas each tossed in 11 points.

SPORTS MURRAY LEDGER & TIMES McNickle Shares Lead In The Phoenix Open

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Arnie McNickle had a surprise share of the top spot in the $150,000 Phoenix Open, but he held no real illusions about winning the title.

"I just hope I do a little better than I did the last time I was in this spot," the obscure, curly-haired sophomore on the pro golf tour said Thursday after his erratic, four-under-par 67 had given him a tie for the first-round lead with rookie Mark Hayes.

The last time — and only previous occasion — the 26-year-old McNickle had been in this position was in the Southern Open last season.

Tied with 66s were veteran Texans Miller Barber and Fred Marti, along with Paul Purtzer, Bob Wynn and Larry Wood. U.S. Open champion Johnny Miller, winner of last week's weather-shortened Bing Crosby National Pro-Am, was in solid contention at 69.

Billy Casper, and Masters champion Tommy Aaron were at 70, and defending Phoenix Open titlist Bruce Crampton of Australia matched par 71 on the 6,709-yard Phoenix Country Club layout. Tom Weiskopf had a 72.

Lee Trevino, making his first start of the year, didn't have a birdie in firing a four-over-par 75. Trevino must improve if he is to survive the cut to the low 70 scorers after today's round.

Jack Nicklaus and Arnold Palmer are not competing.

Walton Won't Be In Game Tonight

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A back injury suffered in a spill last Monday night probably will keep Bill Walton on the bench during both of UCLA's basketball games this weekend, says Coach John Wooden.

Walton "probably won't even suit up" for tonight's Pacific-8 Conference game against California or against Stanford Saturday, Wooden said Thursday.

College basketball's Player of the Year the last two seasons, the 6-foot-11 Walton suffered a bruised back muscle when he tumbled to the floor at Washington State.

He was expected to play after X rays proved negative but he was unable to practice because of back pain, a spokesman said.

The Bruins go for their 85th consecutive victory tonight and it will be the first absence of Walton, who played in 70 straight UCLA wins.

Ralph Drollinger, a 7-foot-1 sophomore, will start in Walton's place.

LAYUP—Mike Watson (53) of Kirksey drives under for two of his 10 points as the Eagles took a 50-29 win over Almo in the second game of last night's tournament. Terry Cleaver (11) and Ricky Dumas (10) watch the action.

Dick Williams Makes It Official: He Has Said Goodbye To Oakland

By JOHN R. SKINNER
AP Sports Writer

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — With the stroke of a pen, self-exiled Oakland A's Manager Dick Williams has switched from baseball's major leagues to the leagues of business.

Williams inked an agreement Thursday to be administrative assistant to Florida billionaire John D. MacArthur.

MacArthur said he hoped the pact would be permanent but Williams talked more like it was a stop-gap measure.

He's waiting either for his attorneys to overturn a court injunction preventing him from managing another major league team or for expiration of the final two years of a contract to boss the Athletics.

Although terms weren't announced, Williams apparently eliminated any financial need to give in to Oakland owner Charles O. Finley and return to the Athletics, winners of the last two World Series under Williams.

MacArthur conceded that Williams' services were "expensive" and Williams, smiling, said, "I appreciate the kindness of my neighbor, Mr. MacArthur."

Williams is a resident of Riviera Beach, near the Colonnades Hotel which MacArthur owns and uses as headquarters for his financial empire.

Williams refused to criticize the stand Finley made that cost him the managing job of the New York Yankees this summer. Finley demanded compensation and when the two clubs couldn't agree, former American League president Joe Cronin stepped in and quashed Williams' transfer plans.

"He's (Finley) a businessman," explained Williams. "We still speak on friendly terms. I don't believe in ripping anybody."

Williams admitted he was going to miss baseball but also talked happily about having time to spend with his wife, Norma, and their three children.

MacArthur, 76, said Williams' duties would be "to do whatever I don't have time to do. There's a great many places he'll be helpful. I'm getting older every day."

Asked whether he'd retain Williams just for winter months if Williams got a chance to manage again, MacArthur said, "It's subject to negotiation."

Mercer Pulls Upset Over Manhattan While Memphis State Falls In Upset

Manhattan's shooting stars were blocked out by streaking southern comets Thursday night.

And Mercer College doesn't expect to come down to earth after an upset, 81-71 basketball victory.

The unheralded team from Macon, Ga., outshone an Eastern power that has admirable credentials this year — including the championship of the Holiday Festival Tournament at Madison Square Garden.

Memphis State, the nation's No. 19 team, and No. 20 Hawaii were also upset Thursday night. Drake ripped Memphis State 91-80 and Missouri turned back previously unbeaten Hawaii 88-74.

Long Beach State, No. 9, played more to form by beating the University of Pacific 72-53.

Mercer's dramatic victory was fashioned behind Leonard Hardin and Billy Smith. Hardin scored 25 points and combined with Smith for 27 of Mercer's 50 rebounds.

The winners held every Jasper in check except Bill Campion, a 6-foot-10 brute who went wild with 28 points and 15 rebounds. But even Campion was nullified in the late going, when Mercer moved away from a 42-42 tie.

The Jaspers, described by some basketball "experts" as the kings of New York City, lost their third game in 10 starts this season.

Larry Haralson scored 30 points in Drake's stunner over Memphis State. The Bulldogs used 17 of Haralson's points to build a 21-point lead in the first half and the Tigers never got closer than six thereafter.

Dexter Reed scored 22 points for the Tigers, who lost their fourth game in 15.

Gary Link connected for 24 points and Al Eberhard added 18 in Missouri's success. The game spoiled Hawaii's perfect 11-0 record.

warmups to decide if Warfield would play. Dolphins' trainer Larry Gardner said, however, that he thought Warfield would be ready.

"We're being very conservative about this," Gardner said.

"I expect to be ready," Warfield said. "Something like this dampens your spirit somewhat. I can only tell Coach Shula how I feel and then the decision is his."

If he plays, Warfield, who caught 29 passes, including 11 for touchdowns, during the regular National Football League season, will get plenty of attention from the Vikings.

Warfield said Thursday he's had to adjust to the fact that zone defenses are forcing professional football into conservatism.

"With today's zone defenses, there are so many men downfield waiting, that a quarterback has to be super to complete a pass," said Warfield. "On Sunday, the percentages are not with me or any other receiver."

Warfield caught a career high 50 passes at Cleveland in 1968, but his totals at Miami the past two seasons have been 29 catches each year. Lining up is instant frustration, Warfield says.

"First, the cornerback is there to jam me and I have to go around him," he said. "Then maybe a linebacker will pick me up and there's a safety behind him just waiting for me to come into his zone."

Warfield said rotating zone defenses, which he'll be seeing against the Vikings, take away the individual challenge of one-on-one.

"When I was in high school our coach told us if each of us beat our man we would win," Warfield said. "Now you have to beat three."

Senate Approves Bill Returning Veterans Day To Original Date

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The Senate unanimously approved today its first legislation, a bill to return Veterans Day to its original date of Nov. 11.

The bill, SB15, would apply only to non-federal employees. Employees of the government would continue to observe the holiday on the fourth Monday in October.

The bill's sponsor, Sen. Carroll Hubbard, D-Mayfield, said Kentucky would become the 32nd state to have returned the observance to its original date.

The Senate recessed Thursday after a brief session but legislators continued to file bills later in the day.

The Senate approved a change of committee assignment for Sen. Denver Knuckles, R-Middlesboro, transferring him from the Health and Welfare Committee to the Committee on Cities, and for Sen. Moseley-Columbia, with him going from that committee to the Health and Welfare Committee.

Republican Minority Caucus Chairman Joe Graves, said Republicans would caucus at 3:30 p.m. Monday. The Democrats will announce a caucus time on Monday.

In other action Thursday the Education Committee held a special late meeting and approved a bill that would allow a teacher to use accumulated sick leave for absence at the beginning of the school year.

Under the present law teachers are required to be present at the start of the school year.

The bill, SB 20, was sponsored by Sen. William Quinlan, D-Louisville and Gene Huff, R-London.

The committee also debated the merits of a bill relating to experimental year round school operation.

Committee Chairman Pacey Smith offered an amendment to the bill, SB 18 that would appropriate $1 million for carrying out each of two years of the program in three districts.

Council . . . (Continued from Page 1)

Franklin suggested that the job of the building inspector could be combined with that of a city planner coupled with supplementary funds from the federal Housing and Urban Development program, which would result in little if any additional expense to the city.

Franklin said that the financing plan had been worked out by Rushing and Mayor Scott.

"I think Murray has reached a point in our growth and development where it's very difficult for us to work each year with a consultant coming into our community and doing planning for us," Franklin said.

The discussion centering around the use of the Douglas Center by the Japan International Karate Center (JIKC) followed the approval of the lease with the Tappan Co. on the building.

Mrs. Jo Crass, council chairman of the park and playground committee said that concern had been expressed to her about the use of the building by JIKC due to experiences in the past. The building is also used by the Murray Headstart program.

It was pointed out that in the past when activities other than the Headstart program were held at the center, the problem of vandalism had arisen.

The council had decided at a previous meeting to allow JIKC to use the center on a trial basis.

Councilman Dave Willis said that he did not want any program to jeopardize the Headstart program but he indicated that he would be in favor of allowing JIKC to use the center on a trial basis.

JIKC plans to institute a youth program at the center and has agreed to abide by regulations set forth by Park and Recreation Director, Gary Hohman. The regulations stipulate that permission to JIKC to use the center may be withdrawn at anytime if the regulations are not upheld.

Councilman Ed Chrisman questioned the need for the city to borrow operating funds saying that "we might should start catching up."

Mayor Scott explained that each year at this time the city is forced to borrow operating capital because anticipated tax revenues have not yet been received. The council approved the city's borrowing from revenue sharing funds, or if that is not enough, equal amount from local banks. The total amount to be borrowed is not to exceed $100,000.

Councilman Art Lee suggested one method that could be used by the city to "catch up" would be the implementation of a payroll tax. Lee said that most of the municipalities in the area already had a payroll tax and indicated that he felt Murray should also use this method of gaining additional tax revenues.

County Judge Robert O. Miller told the council that the Calloway County Fiscal Court was willing to cooperate with the city on any projects for the betterment of the community.

Councilman Rex Alexander reported that the Murray Independent School Board had agreed to a procedure for joint use of planned new tennis courts by the school system and the city park department.

A complaint from a resident on Sycamore Street concerning water backing up into a basement was referred to John Trotter, supt. of the water and sewer system.

Police Chief James Brown and Fire Chief Jackie Cooper both presented annual reports of the departments activities for the past year to the council.

Rotary . . .

vocational rehabilitation at Murray State, was the principal speaker at the meeting, outlining the educational assistance services provided for the physically handicapped "regardless of sex, race or religion" through his office.

First organized in 1918 by President Woodrow Wilson to help rehabilitate America's World War I physically handicapped, the rehabilitation agency was established at Murray State five years ago with offices in Wilson Hall.

Since then, the number of physically handicapped individuals being assisted through the office has increased from 25 to more than 200 today, Reid, a native of Symsonia in Graves County and former principal of the Wingo High School, said. More than 500 people have been helped by the state and federally-funded office since it was established on the Murray campus.

"Anyone with a disability preventing them from functioning vocationally in a normal way of life is eligible to receive our services," he told the Rotarians.

"There is virtually no limit to what we can do to help an individual once we determine their need and know that we can fill that need."

Guests at the meeting included C.T. (Teetum) Winslow, Mayfield, and Lance Corporal Pat Jacks, who will be leaving Saturday for two years of duty with the five member Marine detachment at the U.S. embassy at Kabul, Afghanistan.
