FIRE DESTROYS MARTIN COLLEGE

Tennessee Junior College at Martin was destroyed by a fire Sunday afternoon, causing an estimated loss of $41,000. The fire originated in the 4-1-1 Club tents, which had been sprayed with oil and stored in the grounds since firemen, augmented by a small water supply. Several students and the Fulton fire department, and agricultural departments, and one student narrowly escaped injury when the roof caved in. Steve P. Wood, head of the Industrial Arts Department, said the structure, built three years ago, was lost.

CRUTCHFIELD NEWS

May the 5th was an eventful day for the people of Crutched Field. The day was marked by a number of activities, including a concert, a parade, and a picnic. The day was also marked by the passing of a beloved community member, Mr. Richard Mobley, who died suddenly.

Mr. Richard Mobley was a respected member of the community. He was a dedicated farmer and a devoted family man. He was also a member of the local church and a leader in the community. His death has left a void in the community.

It is with a heavy heart that we remember Mr. Richard Mobley. He was a true community member, and his passing will be felt by all who knew him. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family and friends during this difficult time.

W. E. G. D. ANNUAL LUNCHEON

The Woman's Society of Christ Church held its annual luncheon at the church yesterday. The luncheon is held each year to raise funds to purchase tons of church supplies and furniture. The luncheon committee is in charge of the event.

The event had a successful turnout, with more than one hundred students in attendance. The majority of attendees were female, reflecting the majority of the church's congregation. The luncheon was hosted by Mrs. W. J. Kink and Mrs. W. J. Kink, Jr.

Following the luncheon, which was thoroughly enjoyed, the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Louis Weaks, program leader. Mrs. Weaks announced the marriage of her daughter, Miss Jane Scott, to Mr. W. T. Butler and Mrs. W. T. Butler of the Miller apartment on Carr Avenue.

The closing prayer was lead by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jordan of Paducah, Kentucky. Mr. Jordan is a prominent member of the church and has been a faithful member for over twenty years.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Butler and Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Johnston of Union City, Tennessee, were also in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Johnston are long-time members of the church and have been very active in the community.
