THOMAS PETTMAN, 23, KILLED IN VIRGINIA

In See Of Former Fellow Residence

Washington.—The young man who ended his life in an attempt to halt the theft of valuable war material by a fellow worker was a young man from Virginia. He was identified as Thomas Pettman, 23, who worked at the Navy Yard in Washington.

Pettman was found dead in his apartment in the early morning hours. He had been shot in the head. The police were called to the scene and an investigation is under way.

The investigation revealed that Pettman had been killed by a fellow worker, John Smith, who was also employed at the Navy Yard. Smith had been caught stealing war material and was fired.

The police are urging anyone who may have information about Smith's activities to come forward.

The Tigers climbed back into the top flight of the 50 Club League last night by whipping Owlsers in the third game, 1-0, while Union City was beaten by Bowling Green. This is the Tigers' third consecutive victory over the Owlsers.

Tourney Thompson, the hard-hitting first baseman, hit here last night and only line drive was hit to him. The Tigers bunched Twenty hits last night, the Owlsers had only five. One hit went to Twenty a few moments after the Owlsers had scored on a field error. Twenty took a 1-0 lead in the bottom of the fifth and never gave up the lead.

Dave Derrick also played a brilliant game at short, fielding two blasts that were labelled certain hits. He handled six chances flawlessly and had one error at bat on a foul tip. Derrick had a brilliant play against the fence, and Joe Faudem, the left hander, shot down one Oiler with a long blast that was labelled certain hits. Derrick saved a certain run and retired the Owlsers in the ninth.

The Tigers right hander Petrin led the Tigers in hitting with Feret having three errors at the plate. The local hurler had a fine game at short, fielding two chances flawlessly and another that he saved a certain run and retired the Owlsers in the ninth.

The two clubs are tangling again tonight at eight o'clock.

Transportation Situation to Be Outlined at Meet

Regional Meeting to Start Tuesday in Cincinnati

Leister, Ky. — F. L. Crawford, general manager of the Louisville office of Defense Transportation, announced today that a regional meeting will be held here Tuesday, May 14, in Cincinnati, at which the defense transportation situation would be outlined.

Crawford said that the Office of Defense Transportation, in connection with the Office of Price Administration, was interested in the problem of reducing the number of miles traveled by trucks and other forms of long-distance transportation, particularly in view of the national emergency created by the war. Crawford said that the meeting would be of interest to operators of trucks, buses, and other forms of long-distance transportation.
