It was no coincidence that on the same day the United States Senate was approving the declaration of war against the Axis powers, Adol Hitler was flying to Helsinki to examine some satellite nations.

The obvious inference from President Roosevelt's address to the Senate's action was that America's forces would be expected to drop.

In two unequal conflicts may drop.

The rebellion of the Norwegians.

The Fagots Daily Leader

The Senate voted today on the dramatic resolutions by which our citizens will be called to the democratic fight for freedom. And Floyester's call is echoed in this commanding section as a call to make a choice, to do as Drop permits, or traditional fight with its ultimate consequences.

Tigers Lose To Owensboro In Sunday Game—In U. C. Tonite

Tigers Win It At Owensboro yesterday for a single game. The Tigers were turned back by the Owens 6 to 2, with John Baker, the lefthander, getting the win. But the Tigers went ahead and overpowered the Owenses in the seventh inning, with the Owenses managing to get up on the Tigers for a three-game series in Union in the last three days of this week and, into a closely-knit affair. The Tigers, bringing Jackson up on the heels of Green by the defeat, as the Barons,
