$5,300,000 Taxes Paid by Railroads in Kentucky in 1940

Railroads operating in Kentucky paid a total of more than $5,300,000 in taxes to the State, counties, cities and towns last year. Of this amount, at least $2,645,000 went into School Funds; approximately $960,000 went to build and maintain county roads and city streets, and the remaining $1,695,000 went into General Funds.

IN THIS COUNTY ALONE IN 1940
RAILROAD TAXES* TOTALED
$14,442.78

Thus the railroads paid a generous share of all the money required to conduct State, county and local business. This includes public education, streets and highways, public health work, police and fire protection, mental and tuberculosis hospitals, penal institutions, public charity, administration, and all the other services that you and other citizens require of your State and local governments.

You can readily see by these figures that every section of our Commonwealth shares in the prosperity and earnings of Kentucky railroads. So it is to your interest, as a progressive citizen and taxpayer—

1. TO OPPOSE unfair national or state subsidies to competing forms of transportation.

2. TO SUPPORT fair and reasonable measures to put all other carriers for hire under regulations similar to those prescribed for railroads—which bear so large a part of the general tax burden and carry over their own roadways the bulk of the transportation load in peace and in war.

* The railroads also paid to the STATE taxes on all their property located in this county. A large part of these State taxes is spent in the counties for schools and other State services.

Notice To The People Of Fulton County

I want to advise my friends and voters of Fulton county that I have been unable to get out and make a very active campaign this year, due to the fact that duties of my office have kept me closer than usual. Election year and proper handling of birth certificates for those seeking government employment in connection with the national defense program have added extra work in the office, in addition to the regular routine matters.

I have from time to time endeavored to see as many of you as possible, but I know that there are many whom I have been unable to contact, and shall be unable to see before election day. So I take this means of explaining to you the necessity of sticking close to my duties of office, and my inability to see everybody. However, I want to assure you that I am anxious that you give me consideration in the coming election, and promise that I shall always endeavor to render the best service I know how at any and all times. I feel that I owe you this obligation as a servant in the office which I now hold as County Court Clerk.

I am thankful for all past favors, and shall strive at all times to serve you to the best of my ability, in a courteous, efficient manner.

Sincerely,

Clardie N. Holland,

County Court Clerk of Fulton County

I don't know of any thing I have done in the past four years that would cause my friends to vote against me. The only thing I have done is worked hard to make an honest living.

If I am elected your Sheriff I will pledge you a fair administration and will appreciate from the bottom of my heart your vote and influence, again thanking you, I am

Fulton County Whys and Wherefores!

C. P. MABRY

Why do our highway patrolmen have to take traffic violators to Mayfield for trial when the county judge of Fulton County has jurisdiction of such violations?

Why are our accused and criminals in misdemeanor cases allowed to run at large on the pretense that the county does not have funds with which to pay jail bills?

Why are our citizens and civic committees treated discourteously when they go before the present county judge to talk over matters pertaining to the public welfare?

Why was Hunter Jones, a bond broker in Memphis, paid $12,500 in cash and $10,000 in the county's funding bonds, making a total of $22,500 paid to one man for refinancing the county's bonded debt when $3,000 would have been a good fee to any broker for the same work?

Why was a Wickliffe attorney and a Benton attorney paid $10,000 to bring the repudiation suit for Fulton County, when $2,000 would have been a lucrative fee for any lawyer to have brought the same suit?

$10,000 of the taxpayers' money of Fulton County is being spent to repudiate some $40,000 of honest debts which the county owes to many of these same taxpayers. In other words, you taxpayers are paying lawyers fees to beat the debts that the county honestly owes you; under the pretext of economy for the county. In my opinion, and I believe the opinion of many other citizens of Fulton County, such repudiation is a public disgrace.

The roads that are being built in Fulton County are being built principally with state highway funds and W.P.A. funds. This money would be spent and roads would be built though the county had no judge at all. Each fiscal year money is appropriated for such work by the State Highway Department of Kentucky and W.P.A. and allotted to each county according to its population and revenue. And, of course, Fulton County receives her portion of the allotment. All that is required of local government is a nominal contribution and a cooperative effort on the part of the cities and counties. And there is no reason whatever, for any Mayor or any County Judge to fail to carry on such public projects.

I Hope the Wool Is Not COMPLETELY Over Our Eyes on These Issues.

C. P. Mabry,

Candidate for County Judge of Fulton County.

Kentucky Farm Bureau
Federation

Ben Kilgore, Executive Secretary

St. Matthews, Kentucky

July 22, 1941

Mr. Harry Lee Waterfield
Clinton, Ky.

Dear Harry Lee:

I was amazed to learn today that Governor Keen Johnson has thrown patronage and power of the State Administration against you in an effort to defeat you in your race for Representative for Fulton-Hickman counties. Fundamentally this procedure is dishonest and sets aside the true functioning of democratic government. The people of Fulton and Hickman Counties should elect their own Representative, according to their own wishes, without interference or pressure from a Governor or other high public officials at Frankfort.

The reason for this opposition is even more astounding and almost unbelievable. You are being singled out for slaughter because you had the courage to champion the farmers' cause at the 1940 General Assembly. At my request, speaking for the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation, you introduced and made a valiant but unsuccessful effort to pass a law to refund to Kentucky farmers the state gasoline tax on gasoline used in farm tractors and farm engines, that do not use the roads.

This law was pledged to Kentucky farmers by Candidate Keen Johnson during his campaign for Governor. Now, Governor Keen Johnson would override the wishes of the people of Fulton and Hickman counties to punish you, for fighting to redeem his own pledge, made publicly throughout Kentucky and repeated in his first message to the Joint Session of the General Assembly.

I can well remember what Governor Johnson said to you and me when we discussed this measure with him in his office, in our effort to cooperate with him. He again declared he favored the passage of the bill. Then he hesitatingly said, that he did not know how much help he could give us, but that he wanted you to go ahead and introduce this farmer's measure in the House.

The balance of the story is a pathetic repetition of how candidates for Governor in Kentucky "pour out their hearts" to the farmer during a campaign and then quickly forget him after being safely inaugurated as Chief Executive of a great, dominantly rural Commonwealth.

You made an eloquent plea for the measure, but while you were talking, the Governor's personal aides rushed into the House Chamber, button-holed the Representatives of the people and threatened patronage reprisals, if they voted even to consider on its merits this measure in the farmers' interest. The measure was finally effectively crucified by Floor Leader Joe Robinson of Garrard County, a vicious and avowed foe of a fair deal for farm people, who declared the Governor was against the bill and promised it to the farmers in his campaign only because of Farm Bureau pressure.

Following the accusation of Farm Bureau pressure by Governor Johnson's personally selected Floor Leader, I asked the Governor to publicly declare whether or not this was true. Then, Governor Johnson invited me to the Mansion to explain. He admitted that the Farm Bureau had never brought pressure on him on any measure, but at his own request we had explained the Farm Bureau program to him. Governor Johnson then denied that he had sanctioned opposition to the measure and declared that his personal representatives and Mr. Robinson had been requested by him to redeem his campaign pledge. Mr. J. Lyter Donaldson, State Highway Commissioner, expressed the same thing in substance to me by long distance telephone.

Despite these denials, Mr. Robinson's opposition continued, apparently without Executive disapproval. Governor Johnson's only public statement was a brief sentence that he still favored passage of this farmers' bill. He refused to comment or explain.

In the Farm Bureau's desire to cooperate with Governor Johnson and the State Administration and maintain a friendly relationship with them, I declared in the Farm Bureau paper that I believed Governor Johnson and Mr. Donaldson and that we would be generous and reserve judgment, believing in time this often repeated promise to farmers would be kept. We did not desire to condemn too quickly on circumstantial evidence.

The record is now complete. The passing of time has made it clear that Governor Johnson and the State Highway Department were determined that the tractor refund measure be killed. Frankly, I think farmers would have preferred for Governor Johnson and Mr. Donaldson to have opposed the bill publicly and to have given their honest reasons against it to all the farmers of Kentucky. There can no longer be any doubt that the Governor and his powerful "inner circle" are wholly responsible for this measure's defeat. Executive control was so complete at the 1940 Legislature, that all measures approved by the Governor were passed, while all measures disapproved by him met overwhelming defeat.

Harry Lee, you and I did everything in our power to keep Governor Johnson's friendship, except break our promises to farm people. We accepted every amendment to the gas tax refund bill offered by the Governor and Revenue Commissioner Reeves. We even agreed to make it an experimental bill for two years, subject to reenactment only if it worked satisfactorily. How we could have been more reasonable or friendly is hard for me to figure out.

It appears definitely certain that your defeat is desired because you will not break your promises to your own people, who elect you. The Governor apparently prefers a "rubber stamp," who will do exactly as he is told. Such procedure smacks of dictatorship and should not be tolerated in Kentucky.

The Farm Bureau has never endorsed candidates for public office in Kentucky. And yet, we have always fought militantly for the farmer and we have always been glad to defend our true and genuine friends. This is why I am writing you frankly and fully.

You have truly and courageously championed the farmers' cause. We would be ungrateful, indeed, if we stood by and permitted you to be sacrificed for fighting the farmers' battle. I am more than glad to tell our Farm Bureau members in Fulton and Hickman Counties about this situation and I am confident they will fight for you, just exactly like you fought for them.

The amazing and unethical procedure on the part of the present State Administration goes far deeper than one county election. It strikes democracy itself. To destroy the will of the people, by denying them the right to choose their own representative, through coercion from a powerful State Government, is a threat to a true functioning democracy in Kentucky.

We are committed to defending and preserving democracy in the world. We can best help by making democracy work in a fair and honest way throughout every precinct and county in Kentucky. This is why we are opposed to the election of Representatives and Senators from Frankfort. This is why we wish to see "FREE" men elected with convictions and the courage to represent their own people—and no one else, on the floor of the House and Senate.

With best personal regards, I am,

Sincerely your friend,

BEN GILGORE, Executive Secretary

AN OUTSTANDING RECORD!

A Remarkable Contrast

The Bankers Bond Company of Louisville is a company which deals in various securities, including many municipal and county issues. Investigators for this company are highly trained experts who are interested in only one thing. That is—Is a bond issue good? The Bankers Bond Company is not interested in politics or office holders except insofar as these affect bond issues favorably or unfavorably. Reports of the company are based only on known facts and certain figures. It is quite interesting to learn what this company said of Fulton County on two separate occasions. The first time was in December, 1933, when the Bankers Bond Company was investigating the prospects for certain bond issues made by Fulton County, and in July of the present year, when the company was offering for sale a $258,000 Road and Bridge Refunding issue. The contrast is remarkable, even startling.

In 1933

George K. Stucker, of the Bankers Bond Company, after making his investigations in Fulton County in December of 1933, said in part:

"A tax of 50 cents per $100 is levied for general county purposes, and 20 cents per $100 is levied for sinking fund purposes but these levies are not kept separate at the present time. The records, as kept, and bookkeeping methods employed by county officials make it impossible to determine with any accuracy the disposition of funds collected from taxes or bond issues over the last few years. For 1932-33 at least 45 per cent of the total taxes was paid in county warrants at their par value, which materially cuts down funds available to run the necessary expenses of the county and to meet debt service. The financial position of the county can only be approximated without a complete audit of its affairs. The only hope for the bondholders is a complete revamping of the situation, and a possible diversion of state funds in the future to help counties meet their road and bridge bonds outstanding.

Fulton County, in my estimation, is in a hopeless financial mess and unless help is received from its creditors and also from the state, will simply digress to the point of open repudiation of its indebtedness."

In 1941

Judge Claude L. Walker went into office in January of 1934, just a few weeks after the above report had been made. A serious financial emergency existed, for an audit of the books revealed a total debt of $601,443.45, plus past due interest of $24,450. That was the situation faced by Judge Walker and his Fiscal Court. The people of the county know in a general way what has been accomplished, but few know of how complete a reversal has been made in the county's financial standing. In July of this year the same Bankers Bond Company, which had made the dark and despairing report in 1933, took over the marketing of a bond issue of $258,000 for Fulton County. In giving the statistics of Fulton County for the benefit of prospective purchasers of the county bonds, some illuminating remarks were made. After calling attention to the fact that Judge Walker was faced with this tremendous debt, the report adds:

"The new administration put a stop to the spending of money in excess of the revenue and each year, since 1934, the budget has been balanced and the financial condition of the county has improved. The county's present excellent financial position is largely due to the business-like management shown by the present administration. During this period all the necessary functions of government have been adequately taken care of and 118 miles of road completed by the county and 38 miles by the state. The indebtedness of the county, both Funded and Warrant, has been reduced approximately $150,000 during the last seven and one-half years. The excellent financial management of Judge Claude L. Walker, and the present Fiscal Court, and the control exercised by the State Local Finance Officer have restored a high standard to the credit of Fulton County."

These things are not mere political claims. They are hard and fully attested facts set down by realistic financial men. Such a transformation within less than eight years sounds a bit fantastic, but experts on bonding houses are concerned only with real and provable facts. These are facts. This job has been done in Fulton County by Judge Claude L. Walker, who is asking to be returned to the office of County Judge in order that he can completely finish this job of making Fulton County sound from a financial angle, and as progressive as any county in the Commonwealth.

We, the friends of Judge Walker who prepared and paid for this advertisement, urge any voter to look up these facts if he so desires. These facts are down in black and white and there can be no successful refutation made.

We, Judge Walker's friends, also urge that you support this man who has done so much for the county during the past seven years, and give him another term in this important office. He is now in position to really get many needed things accomplished and is eager to do this.

Dear Judge:

I have recently held a conversation with Mr. Joe B. Williams of the Department of Revenue and Mr. Harry R. Lynn who handles county indebtedness for that department, and I was particularly gratified with the splendid improvements that you had inaugurated as county judge in the financial affairs of Fulton County, especially was I interested in the fact that you had placed all contracts of the county upon a cash basis and had made arrangements by which each contractor could secure cash in compensation for any service or material furnished to the county. This has no doubt brought to Fulton County a large saving during your term. While you do not have to make such arrangements it is to your credit that you have done so. No county in the state has made more progress than has Fulton County under your administration. The Attorney General's Office appreciates county officials who face actualities and who use common sense in trying to solve the problems that confront each one of you. Anytime that we can be of any assistance to your county in the solution of these problems, I command us.

If I felt like giving you these facts as they came to me from these investigators because I do not wish to wait until you are dead before I send you any flowers.

With kind personal regards, I am,

Very truly yours,

M. B. Holifield
