FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

(June 9, 1927)

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holman announce the birth of a daughter in their home at West Street and Fourth Avenue. The baby, who is the second child of the couple, was born on June 8th. The baby is the first girl to be born to the Holman family. The parents are grateful for the birth of their daughter, which they consider a blessing from above.

The baby is the latest addition to the family, and the arrival of the new member brought joy to the entire family. The parents, along with the baby's three older siblings, are all healthy and happy. The family is looking forward to the future with great anticipation, and they are grateful for the support of their community.

The family is thankful for the support of their neighbors and friends, who have come to visit and offer their congratulations. The family is enjoying this special time together, and they are looking forward to the next chapter in their lives.

Paper Stock Is Undergoing Many Changes

Paper for letterheads and envelopes is slowly undergoing many changes. Bond papers will be dingier, lack the white crackling finish they have known for many years. Probably the price will be higher also.

We still have some stock on hand of the better finishes. Better order some today.
