Open House To Be Held At New South Fulton City Hall Sunday

Open House will be held Sunday from 2 to 4 p. m. at South Fulton's beautiful, new Colonial-style City Hall building on Broadway.

Everyone, both residents of South Fulton and Fulton, and the surrounding area are invited to attend.

The new City Hall building was completed this week. And, its lovely both inside and out!

The old City Hall structure was remodeled and an addition of several rooms was constructed. A. R. and Vaughn Stephens were the contractors. J. M. Shaffer of Union City was the architect.

The remodeling and addition to the building cost approximately $20,000.00.

The building is white with four large columns across the front.

There were four offices added on the first, or ground, floor. These are for the mayor, the city clerk, the treasurer, and for general collections. Another office is to be used for various business. The police department is now located in the office formerly used as the collection office and by the city clerk. The city council room is as before.

The fire station, which is also located in the building, has been painted and a new twenty-foot overhead electric door installed.

The basement has been completely remodeled, also. This is where the jail, the water and gas departments are located.

Two extra rooms have been added there, plus two bath rooms.

The collection office and the city clerk's office are furnished with beautiful Shaw Walker furniture. Some of the new equipment has not as yet arrived. A new vault has been installed in the collection office.

The original City Hall building on the present site was constructed in 1938. Prior to that, the City Hall was located in an old building on State Line across from Browder's Mill.

Note Book

The Westpheling family enjoyed its annual trek to St. Joseph, Missouri to spend the holidays with Paul's parents. It was a pleasant sojourn in the almost Spring like weather, but somehow this year it was something more than a trip and an event that I recommend for parents in this busy world in which we live. The long, long automobile ride with just the family was more enjoyable than ever this year with the children at the age that they are. Driving mile after mile, they and we have a captive audience and all the things we like to discuss from time to time unfold themselves in a leisurely and enthusiastic fashion.

We've thought it all along and now we're sure that R. Paul is going to be some kind of a historian and that Mary Jo bids well at this age to be a comedian. The trip to Missouri is a hard ten hour drive and you can get mighty weary towards the end of the trip. But with Mary Jo along, it doesn't seem that way at all. Just when the other three of us decide that a snooze would be the order of the day, Mary Jo decides that we should all have a good laugh and she furnishes one a minute. That is she furnishes them to us, but maybe to you it wouldn't be funny at all. Anyhow, she's a good tonic and here's a case in point.

When we got home Sunday night and all of us were pooped and had to unload the car I got a spree of energy and decided to hang up the clothes and unpack the bags at about midnight. When I decided I couldn't go another minute Mary Jo comes up with the idea that I get the vacuum cleaner and clean the rugs since I had so much energy. I really didn't, but it relaxed us all, and we all laughed at my expense.

R. Paul's penchant for history comes I know not from where. But it was made mighty evident about six weeks ago when Paul's cousin, Colonel Charlie Westpheling and his family visited with us and told of the research they had done on the Westpheling family in a little village in Germany. Helen Westpheling, Charlie's wife, author of "Army Lady Today," told of tracing the family back to the late fifteenth century when one portion of the family was Pheling and the other was West, because the latter branch lived in that section of the country. Helen was able to procure the coat of arms for both branches of the family and has incorporated them and told the children she would send them a copy. Since then R. Paul has watched every mail for his package.

You wouldn't believe it but while in St. Jo he urged that we take a tour of the cemeteries in St. Jo to read the tombstones of his Westpheling ancestors and that we did. He feels a keen responsibility to know everything he can about them because he is one of the four persons in the entire family, and its a big one, who can carry on the family name at this writing. Colonel Charlie Westpheling has two boys, and of Paul's three brothers, there's only one other boy. So R. Paul feels he's a mighty important fellow.

With so many interests in each of our busy lives I recommend that families take off periodically, with no other view than to talk together, laugh together and just be together for hours of uninterrupted hours. Perhaps I'm busier than a lot of people and I enjoy these respites more than others, but you'll have to admit that in COMMERCIAL AVENUE BRIDGE OPENED: On last Monday morning the barricades were removed from Commercial Avenue's handsome new reinforced concrete bridge in downtown Fulton and here is the way the street now looks, looking across the bridge. Street is full-width for first time in history. (Above): Removing barricades were (from left): Orrian Winstead, councilman in charge of the bridge construction project; George W. Stephenson, a partner in the firm of T. W. Cutchin and Associates, Dyersburg, and job superintendent; and W. S. Atkins, councilman in charge of the creek upkeep. The bridge spans Harris Fork creek.

NEW COMMERCIAL AVENUE BRIDGE is a triple-box bridge of reinforced concrete, having the same water-carrying capacity as the bridge in use at the Lake Street and State Line intersection. It replaced an old narrow iron bridge over 50 years old which had decayed to the point of being hazardous. New bridge cost $24,300 including removal of old structure, and entire job was accomplished in two months.

Grooms No Longer Associated With Pipeline Oil Co.

J. L. Grooms, former President of Pipeline Oil Company of Fulton, is no longer associated with the company. Mr. Grooms operated this business as J. L. Grooms & Son until January 1, 1949, at which time it was incorporated under the name of Pipeline Oil Company.

After severing connections with Pipeline Oil Company in July, 1960, Mr. Grooms again started in business under the name of J. L. Grooms & Son, at Mayfield.

CITY DIRECTORY

Gordon Jones, who directed the compiling of the new Twin Cities directory, reported today that the final compilation and tabulation has been completed and the information has been sent to the publishing house.

KU Story Reveals Local Rates In Middle Range; But TVA Rates Nearly 50% Less

The price of electricity in Fulton falls in the middle range of what American families are paying for the service, according to a new government report on typical electric bills in some 4,820 cities, the Kentucky Utilities said in a publicity story released to both local newspapers. While the report shows that a Fulton Kentucky family using 250 kilowatt hours of electricity a month paid $8.45 a month, and Alaskans paid $18.00 and Massachusetts citizens paid $11.69 for that amount, it did not point out that across the street in South Fulton, Tenn. a family pays just $5.00 for 250 kilowatt hours of electricity.

On the basis of the figures furnished by Kentucky Utilities Company an average family as stipulated above can save $41.40 a year if they lived in the Tennessee city across the border.

In the report released by Kentucky Utilities a family in the 100 kilowatt hours-a-month category, generally covering lighting, small appliances and refrigerators the typical monthly bill in Fulton is $4.45. In South Fulton it is $2.50, representing an annual saving of $23.40.

Homes using 500 kwh a month, representative of the electricity for lighting, small appliances, refrigeration, cooking and water heating, paid an average of $10.93. In South Fulton the cost for the same amount of electricity is $6.70. Rates in other towns served by K. U. are the same as those charged here. These rates are set by the Kentucky Public Service Commission.

"In presenting typical net monthly bills for electric service," the F. P. C. report states, "It is emphasized that no attempt has been made to determine their reasonableness based on cost levels. Many factors operate to cause differences in unit cost and to explain differences in the level of rates. An evaluation of these factors would involve analysis beyond the scope of this report."

Some of these factors affecting costs are the extent of the area served, the number of customers and their characteristics of use, load diversity, kind and amount of industry and business and location and quality of adequate fuel and water supplies. The report includes both cities served by public power and municipal systems which do not pay income taxes and cities served by investor-owned utilities which do not have the tax advantage and must include the tax cost in their rates.

So that News readers may compare their electrical bills with those of their present suppliers the TVA rates for residential users are as follows:

For the first 50 kwh, three cents per kwh.
Next 150 kwh, two cents.
Next 200 kwh, one cent.
Next 1000 kwh, four mills.
All over 1400, seven and one half mills.

Smith Cafe Equipment Is Sold At Auction

Equipment at Smith's Cafe was sold at public auction Monday afternoon. It was purchased by H. Stanfield, who operates Boyettes Cafe at Reelfoot Lake.

The News understands that the equipment has been moved and that the local cafe, which has been in operation here for many years will not reopen for business.

Demos Elect Party Leaders Saturday; Joe Treas Probable Choice For Top Post

The Democratic party in Kentucky will elect its officials at the precinct level on Saturday, December 3, at two o'clock. A precinct chairman and chairwoman will be elected in each of the county's 21 precincts. Democrats are urged to be at their individual precincts, where the elections are held, to elect the leaders who will officiate in those precincts for the next four years.

Next Saturday, December 10 at the same hour the newly elected precinct chairmen and chairwomen will meet at the Courthouse in Hickman to elect a chairman and secretary to guide the party's affairs for the next four years.

J. Turney Davie, a former sheriff and former field agent for the Alcoholic Beverage Board is the present chairman and Al T. Owen, now of Frankfort, but formerly of Fulton is the secretary.

It is the past history of the organization that partisans of the State Administration in power are usually elected to the precinct and county positions. While there is no likelihood that a factional fight is in the making, it is believed that popular Joe Treas, State Representative from Fulton and Hickman counties is the unanimous choice for chairman.

Mr. Treas, a prominent businessman of Fulton, has been working closely with all factions of the party to bring about a closer relationship with the State Administration and the residents of both counties. Returning recently from Frankfort, where he conferred with government leaders and highway officials in the interest of his constituents, Mr. Treas is vitally interested in seeing an accelerated road program planned for both counties. He is popular with the officials of both counties and is in constant touch with Henry Ward, State Highway Commissioner, who has commended the work of Mr. Treas on many occasions.

In discussing the coming elections with Mr. Davie he told the News: "I have not heard of any factional fight developing and I will work closely with whomever the party elects."

The Precinct chairmen and chairwomen elected four years ago are:

Fulton No. One—Jerry Jones, Mrs. Felix Gossum, Jr.
Fulton No. Two—Charles Rice, Mrs. Martha Roberts.
Fulton No. Three—Billy Blackstone, Mrs. Ellis Beggs.
Fulton No. 4—Harry Potter, Mrs. Ethel Freeman.
Riceville—J. B. Barkley, Mrs. Jim Olive.

Opponents Of Obion Creek Project Will Appeal Ruling By Judge Stahr

Circuit Judge Elvis J. Stahr upheld constitutionality of the Obion Creek Watershed Conservancy District and issued an injunction restraining its opponents from interfering with engineers who come on their land to make surveys for its dams and reservoirs.

The ruling was a sweeping victory for the district which is the first of its kind in Kentucky. In announcing his decision Judge Stahr said the district, to him, represents progress "and we can't let a few stand in the way of progress."

The injunction issued by Judge Stahr was aimed directly at C. B. Bellew and others owning land in Graves County southwest of Mayfield where surveyors for the district reportedly were forced off the owners' land with shotguns.

Directors of the district applied for the injunction after action by the landowners had blocked surveys for construction of a dam and reservoir known as "structure 20." The district takes in land of four counties with most of it lying in Hickman County.

In ruling on constitutionality of the conservancy district, Judge Stahr disposed of a suit he had had under consideration for some time. The suit was filed by David Reed and Robert Hines of Paducah on behalf of a group of opponents who called themselves "Farmers for Freedom."

The district was represented by Commonwealth's Attorney Harry Roberts of Clinton.

Minister And Wife Given "Pounding"

Members of the New Salem Baptist Church gave their pastor, the Rev. James Holt and Mrs. Holt an old-fashioned "pounding" Thursday night at the Mid-Week Prayer Service, when all kinds of food was showered upon the couple.

A pick-up truck was required to convey the articles to their home in Fulton.

Rev. Mr. Holt and his family are very grateful for this act of kindness on Thanksgiving Day.

No Trace Of Hit-Run Car Or Driver

No new developments have been reported in the police search for a motorist who killed Everett Horn of Mayfield-Rt. 3 last Wednesday at 6:15 p. m. in a hit-and-run accident on Highway 94 near Pilot Oak.

Coroner Jack Anderson said that it is believed the victim probably stumbled out into the path of the unidentified automobile. He said that had the driver stopped he probably would have been cleared of charges.

Now, however, when found the driver will face stiff charges. Anderson speculated that the driver of the death vehicle became panic-stricken and fled after the accident.

The coroner said Mr. Horn was walking west on the highway facing traffic when he was hit by an east-bound car.

Fulton Stores Bulging With Christmas Items; Santa Claus Here Again Saturday

With the arrival of Santa Claus in Fulton last Friday and his appearance in town again this Saturday from two until four o'clock in the afternoon, the Christmas season officially opened in the twin cities with an enthusiastic greeting. The streets of Fulton were jammed last Friday when Ole St. Nick arrived in fine style atop a beautiful white convertible. Santa Claus will walk in and out of the stores on Saturday.

The arrival was the kick-off of accelerated buying in the downtown stores where shelves and show-rooms are complete with every conceivable type of Christmas merchandise for gift-giving and for general buying.

The ready-to-wear stores are featuring everything from a handkerchief to a fur coat, with even-lingerie in between. This year, more than ever, the ladies dress shops are making gift-giving easier for the men folks to buy for their ladies fair and special clerks are being appointed to give attention to sometimes reticent male shoppers.

The appliance and furniture stores have such items as lounge chairs, bedroom, living-room, dining-room and kitchen suites all gaily decorated and ready for easy delivery on the morning of the big day. But these stores have on hand those ever necessary smaller appliances that makes Christmas all year for the comfort of the users.

The variety stores are bulging with everything from a baby bottle to Christmas tree lights and an early start on the Yule season is making for steady buying in gift wrappings, Christmas decorations and table knick-knacks.

The drug stores have that sweet fragrance of cosmetics, from Evening in Paris to Arpege by Lan-

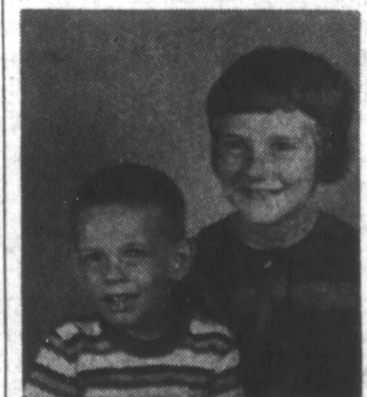

First Program Of Christmas Music To Be On Sunday

"Christmas begins with music." is the theme for the annual Christmas music program sponsored by the Music Department of the Woman's Club. The program will be staged next Sunday, December 4, at the First Methodist Church in Fulton.

The program will consist of some of the most beautiful of the holiday selections with vocal solos, choruses and organ solos. Members of the Beethoven and Junior Music Clubs will participate.

John Winter, professor of piano and organ at Murray State College and organist for the First Methodist Church in Fulton will be the guest organist. Rev. J. L. Leggett, pastor of the church will read the Christmas story from the scriptures.

The public is cordially invited to attend the first program of Christmas music for the year, which is presented annually by the Music Department. "Let Christmas begin in your heart by attending this program," a leader of the music department said today.

AMA Condemns Care For The Aged While High Medical Expenses Soar Out Of Reason

The news that was revealed over the week-end that the American Medical Association would battle to the bitter end medical aid for the aged comes as a surprise to no one. The association seems to have won its battle waged shortly after World War II in which they opposed certain types of medical care for veterans and for which they belittled loud and long about socializing medicine. A spokesman for the association said, in urging all members to come to the aid of their pocketbooks, that the medical plan for the aged through social security is "organized medicine."

There can be no doubt that the AMA will wage a costly (and they can afford it) Campaign to defeat the medical bill for the aged. We know that while advertising for the medical profession is a dirty word in normal times, the organization seems to have no such compunction using every media known to man to sell the public on the alleged "horrors" of old people getting medical aid other than through the route of the supposed sacro-sanct private practice.

Nobody knows better than we do the sadness that comes with a lengthy illness among elderly members of the family. It doesn't take long, and you can take our word for it, for a major operation and perhaps a lengthy period of recuperation in a hospital to wipe out the life's savings of an elderly couple and sometime leave exorbitant indebtedness on the part of the next of kin to settle.

It is an exhibition of the greatest hypocrisy to promote the sanctity of the patient-doctor relationship as a means to prevent outside intervention in the practice of medicine. It is high time that there be some strong organized effort to investigate the exorbitant cost of medical care in some areas and if this were done to a successful conclusion perhaps the American Medical Association wouldn't be in the position "of fighting to the bitter end the efforts of the Kennedy Administration to give medical care to the aged through social security."

There was great opposition to the social security program when it was inaugurated during the first Franklin Roosevelt Administration. Big business took a dim view of having to pay an equal share of taxes to grant security and independence to our aged citizens. The tax creates a hardship on some employers, but it is infinitesimal compared to the sadness that ensues when elderly people have to live in homes where they sometimes are not wanted.

Luckily, many members of the association have indicated that they will support the program for medical care for the aged through social security. Sincere and dedicated medical men are getting weary of dusting off the platitudes of private medicine, while they wipe the dust from their eyes caused by the speed of foreign cars and Cadillacs that have replaced the horse and buggy as the emblem of the private physician.

We don't like government intervention in any form of private business, be it newspapering, broadcasting, farming, wages, utilities or road building, but its here and those industries live with it.

It's high time the medical profession diagnose its operation or they're in for some governmental therapy. It's no secret that some doctors feel your pocketbook before they feel your pulse and the time is nigh to put the needle to the offenders. And if Uncle Sam has to do it, we're for him.

A revival meeting is being held this week at the First Baptist Church, with Rev. E. A. Autrey, pastor, conducting the services.

J. L. Beven, president of the I. C. Railroad, was in Fulton Monday night, enroute to Chicago.

All local quarters of this vicinity are invited to participate in a contest to be held at the Science Hall here Monday night, Dec. 16.

Loran Baker, TVA specialist, taken before a group at Science Hall Thursday afternoon upon the subject, "The Advantages of the Frozen Food Lockers."

Mrs. Sara Morgan Spence, 84, died early Monday morning at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Thomas Reagin, in Dresden, following a stroke of paralysis.

Within the next two weeks three new streamline trains will begin to operate for coach travel between Chicago and Miami.

The Fulton Building and Loan Association held its annual meeting at the company office Tuesday night, when the board of directors and officers for next year were chosen. The board of directors was reelected and Leon Browder was chosen to fill the place of W. P. Murrell, who died recently. Board members are Joe Browder, J. D. Davis, J. E. Am I glad the new bridge on Commercial Avenue is open. It was officially opened by city officials Monday morning. The bridge is very nice.

Now, maybe I'll be able to find a parking place, when my space in the back is taken up. Paying over-time parking fines is getting quite expensive.

Congratulations to Milton T. Callihan, who was commissioned a Kentucky Colonel by Gov. Bert Combs on November 16. Mr. Callihan has been representing Kentucky at the American Legion National Conventions as a goodwill delegate since 1929. He is an I. C. Railroad engineer and helped Combs in his campaign for Governor. Just before each national Legion convention, Milt grows a mustache and goatee and arrives at the convention with his famous jug of whiskey.

Well, Mother arrived home Thursday night and is doing fine, although she will have to remain indoors for some time. Mother would like to thank everyone who was so nice to her during her stay in the Jackson Hospital.

Last week I told you my cousin, Edwin Hamlett of Washington, was coming for a visit with me.

It was real interesting hearing about his six-weeks' appearance at Radio City Music Hall and of the Rockettes and members of the ballet he and his buddies dated, and the places they went.

From December 19 through January 3, Edwin and seventeen other Troubadours will be in Greenland and Newfoundland where they will sing at the U. S. Air Bases there. They will be flown there by the Air Force. Edwin, who has never sang bass before, will have the bass solo in the "Messiah." They will be accompanied by a famous orchestra.

The college students will be furnished appropriate clothing by the Air Force for their stay in Greenland and Newfoundland, as it will be fifty below zero while they are there.

Later on the group will go to Iceland to sing.

If you saw the November 8th issue of Look Magazine, you saw a story about the Troubadours, featuring one of the girls and Edwin's roommate in New York, a senior law student.

At present, Edwin is attending classes at George Washington University in the mornings and evenings, and in the afternoons he works at the Library of Congress.

A very charming and attractive young lady from Guatemala is visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Bizzle in Highlands this week. We have been invited out to meet her and hope that we will find time to do so. Mr. and Mrs. Bizzle met the young lady, who works for the government in Guatemala, while they were enroute there to visit their daughter, Nell, and her family back some time ago. They became friends and invited her to come for a visit. She arrived here Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Pete Green is all excited these days. Her younger daughter, Jackie, and her husband will be arriving any day now from Bermuda. Jackie plans to stay home and her husband will be returning to Bermuda in about a month, I believe. He is stationed there in the U. S. Air Force. Jackie has been there around a year, now.

Also, arriving in Fulton for a visit during the Christmas holidays will be Mrs. Green's older daughter, Mrs. Nick Nichols and her family from Lansing, Mich. They should arrive about December 19.

I understand that Mrs. Fred Holder is doing alright with her day nursery out on the Mayfield Highway. Someone suggested that I go out and do a feature. Will do, just as soon as I can find the time.

I understand that two local ladies are opening up a new business here soon. Maybe Saturday Watch for the announcement of their opening.

Everyone is invited to attend the open house at the new South Fulton City Hall next Sunday from 2 to 4 p. m.

We are so glad to see City Judge H. H. Perce back at work after having been a patient in a local hospital.

From time to time, I, along with other Commercial Appeal correspondents, receive letters of instruction on death notices, or other news items. The letter I received today follows, as I thought it might be helpful for local people and funeral directors to know just what the CA requires in death notices.

Dear Correspondent:

A recent survey of death stories published by The Commercial Appeal showed that about 20 per cent of the stories were incomplete.

Of those that were incomplete, the majority of them involved the so-called "retired farmer". A retired farmer can be anything from a day-laborer to a wealthy landowner. Some of the stories say John Jones died without giving any identification at all.

An obit without any identification is not publishable and The Commercial Appeal will not continue publishing such stories. Effectively immediately, each person must be identified.

If a person has farmed - he must have been a tenant farmer, a cotton farmer, a rice farmer, a general crops farmer, a livestock farmer, dairy farmer and he must have lived in some community. Perhaps the person is not widely known in the county, but he may have a son or daughter who is and in that case you can identify the person by saying he was the father of John Smith who is mayor of SOME TOWN.

There is usually a good story about everyone but it takes a little effort sometimes to get that information. I suggest that you discuss the problem with the funeral homes and let them know your requirements so they can obtain that information from the members of the family.

Each death story should include the age of the person but it is not mandatory in case of women. It is important to give the day of the death and the time, place and minister who will officiate at the service.

We on the Tri-State Desk are counting on your co-operation in making the death stories complete.

Sincerely yours,
Eugene D. Rutland

Is The Atom Good?..

By Thomas E. Murray
Former Commissioner United States Atomic Energy Commission

LIFE CHANGED for all of us with a blinding flash on July 16, 1945. On that day by the witchery of science a piece of sun was re-made over the sands of Alamogordo, New Mexico. What happened at Alamogordo when the first atomic bomb was successfully tested was the result of ages of man's study and research into the mysteries of the universe in which he lives. Something awesome, something inspiring and frightening took place. Man had controlled a new kind of force.

It is a part of man's duty to discover more and more of the nature of the world he lives in. It is a part of the instinctive search for God in the heart of every man. For in the unity, the harmony and the order of the universe, revealed little by little and at painful cost are found reflections of the perfections of God Himself. "See how the vault of heaven betrays His how the vault of heaven betrays His craftsmanship."

WHAT IS the atom with all its fearsome or awesome power but another creature of God, to be used to help man fulfill his purpose here on earth? Fundamentally, the situation of man in the atomic age is not different from the other "ages" which have marked his progress. The same principles govern his life, his purpose and his destiny. The same basic problem faces man in this new age, as his always faced him: using the power given him for his good or for his ill, for his aid or his destruction.

Out of a piece of steel, for instance, one can fashion a surgeon's healing scalpel or a cutthroat's dagger. The same choice that is laid before man in the use of any creature is now laid before him in the use of nuclear energy. The exercises of that choice is the fundamental problem of our atomic age.

Man's surroundings and the things he deals with have changed with the coming of nuclear energy. But two fundamental things remain unchanged.

THE FIRST is man's nature. Whether he be in a cave, striking sparks from a flint, or at the controls of a cyclotron, juggling with electrons and protons, a man cannot escape from the fundamental truth that he is a creature of God.

THE SECOND is the plan of God. Man's discovery of the atomic powers has taken place with the consent and the will of the Creator. It is completely within the design of God that man has come to this knowledge.

It will help us to keep our balance, if we remember that all man's knowledge, all his accomplishments, are not solely his own but are made possible with the ever-watchful help of God.

She offers these tips for shopping painlessly—without tired, aching feet by the time you've bought presents for everyone on your list.

Don't wait until the last minute to do your Christmas shopping, she warns. The more crowded the store, the more tired your feet will be when you get home.

"Shop" newspaper ads for gift ideas, and plan your shopping before you go, to save steps and "mis-steps". Divide your shopping into several trips, instead of trying to do everything in one hectic day.

Wear comfortable shoes, she recommends. A shoe with a low or medium heel gives you a firm stride and a balanced stance. Wear closed-toe foot-wear, for your shoes probably will be "walked on" almost as much as "walked in" during the holiday rush. Light weight but sturdy leather soles on your shoes cushion your feet against pavement pounding. And smooth linings protect against chafing, irritation and blisters.

Be weather-wise, too, she suggests. On wet days, a pair of smart leather boot-shoes keep out wind and rain but still leave you light-footed. Over-the-ankle boots make shopping in the snow less of a chore.

And pamper your feet when you get home from shopping, Mrs. McLeod concludes. Take a few minutes to put your feet upon a chair or couch and relax. Remember to "take it easy"—aching feet can take the enjoyment out of Christmas.

The Music Department of the Fulton Woman's Club met last Tuesday night at the club home. An interesting program was presented by Mrs. Win Whitnel, who gave a review of Symphonies.

The Susanna Wesley Circle of the Paris District met November 10 at 11:00 o'clock with Mrs. Jean Crittendon of Fulton, Kentucky. The business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Monette Adams. Plans were made for the Christmas banquet, which will be December 16 at 7 p. m. at the First Methodist Church, Paris, Tennessee. This will be a dinner for both the ministers and their wives of the Paris District. Mrs. Aileen Knott gave an inspiring devotional "If There is Anything Worthy of Praise."

Mrs. Crittendon, assisted by Mrs. Patsy Hilliard, and Mrs. Nell Dotson served a delicious Thanksgiving luncheon to 24 Susannas. Tables were decorated for the occasion. Mrs. Ann Lyles, Mrs. Monette Adams, Mrs. Doris Eubanks, and Mrs. Esther Marrs presented an extremely interesting and educational program on "Japan."

The November meeting of the State Line Homemakers was held in the home of Mrs. Doyle Phillips, with the president, Mrs. Adair Cannon presiding. In the absence of the Devotional Leader, Mrs. Edwin Cannon, Mrs. Ruby Phillips read the Psalms 100. Roll call was answered with "What I'm Thankful For", by eight members and four visitors, Mrs. Bertie Phillips, Mrs. Shirley Phillips, Mrs. Mary Inland and Mrs. Madaline Bowers.

On December 1 at 1:30 p. m. at the R. E. A. building in Mayfield, a lesson on Christmas decorations will be given. All members are urged to attend and visitors are welcome.

In the absence of Mrs. Marjorie Parrish, the major lesson on "Lighting" was given by Mrs. Ira Mae Hedge on how important lighting is and showed by demonstration how much light bulbs have been improved.

After a wonderful meal, Sunshine gifts were received by Mrs. Ruby Phillips, Mrs. Elsie Williams, Mrs. Mary Cavendar and Mrs. Sue Bruce.

The Minor Lesson was given by Mrs. Lillie Mae Walker on our two new states, Alaska and Hawaii. This was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Ira Mae Hedge gave the landscape notes—"How we should prepare our plants and trees for winter."

Mrs. Doyle Phillips led the recreation, which was enjoyed by the members.

The club adjourned to meet with Mrs. Thomas Bruce on December 14 at 10:30 a. m. for a Christmas dinner and gift exchange.

Misses Anne Fall and Judy Browning were hostesses Friday to a delightful luncheon, complimenting Miss Susan McDaniel and her houseguests, all of whom are students at St. Mary's of Notre Dame. The party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fall, Third street.

A tasty luncheon was served at twelve-thirty to the following: Miss McDaniel, Miss Marilyn Cacciatore of Rockford, Illinois, Miss Mary Griffin of San Francisco, Miss Pat Gallagher of San Francisco and Miss Charmaine Hitchcock of DeKalb, Ill., Miss Ella Doyle, Mrs. Charles Bowers, Mrs. Max McDade and the hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Parker and Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Jackson spent Wednesday and Thanksgiving Day in Memphis.

Mrs. Jimmy Jackson and Mr. Larry Glasgow of Fayetteville, Tenn. attended the Vanderbilt-Tennessee football game last Saturday in Nashville, Tenn.

The annual Christmas party of the local B&PW club is scheduled for next Tuesday evening at the Park Terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Luther and granddaughters and Mrs. Gene Roberts of Mayfield and Mrs. A. L. Gunter, Mrs. Brenda Paschall and son, Ricky, visited relatives in Fulton over the weekend.

The following officers were elected: president, Mrs. J. M. Mayberry; vice-president, Mrs. L. D. Allen; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. J. C. Roberts; reporter, Mrs. Oscar Faulkner.

A delicious lunch was served to 24 members, and three visitors. Miss Cora Livingston discussed small kitchen utensils and gave pamphlets of recipes.

The Christmas party will be at the Farm Bureau Hall in Union City Dec. 14.

A group of friends entertained with a luncheon in her home Friday at 1 p. m. at the Derby.

Mrs. M. W. Blankenship, popular visitor from Montgomery, Ala., was the inspiration for a luncheon and open-house during her weekend stay here.

Mrs. C. D. Edwards, Mrs. Paul Howard and Mrs. Wilburn Allen entertained with open-house all day Friday at the Allen home in Country Club Court.

Miss Linda Kimbell, bride-elect of John Jackson, was complimented recently with a bridal shower in the parlor of the First Baptist Church.

Miss Kimbell was presented a corsage made of ribbons and miniature household gadgets by the hostesses, Mrs. Billy Nelms, Miss Joan Kimbell and Miss Joan Clark.

The gift table was centered with an umbrella decorated with tiny stems of lilies of the valley. A series of games was played with Mrs. Herbert Jackson, Mrs. Stanley Beadles and Miss Betty Beadles as winners. The winners then presented their prizes to the honoree. Miss Kimbell received many lovely and useful gifts.

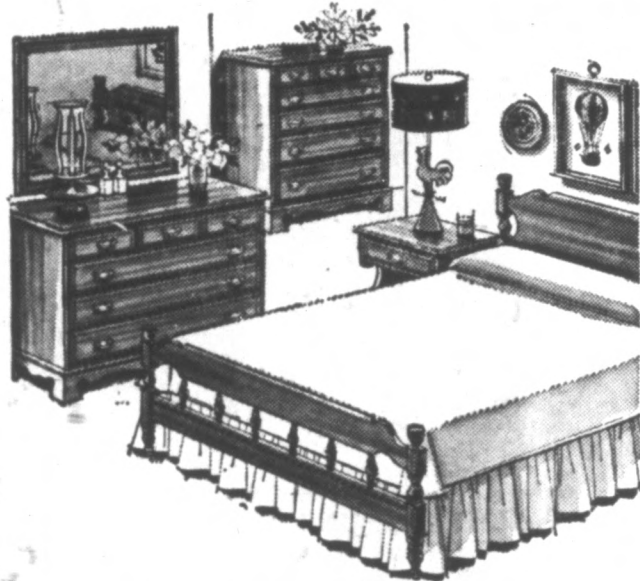

Refreshments of cup cakes and cold drinks were served to the guests.

Those attending included the honoree, Miss Kimbell, Mrs. James Kimbell, Mrs. Mayme Kimbell, Mrs. Herbert Jackson, Mrs. Charles Elliott, Miss Patsy Babb, Miss Betty Beadles, Mrs. Stanley Beadles, Mrs. Bobby Rhodes and Melodie and the hostesses.

Those sending gifts included Mr. and Mrs. Cleatus Wilbank, Mr. and Mrs. James Hazelwood, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Upton, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Kimbell and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Picklemeyer of Gary, Indiana.

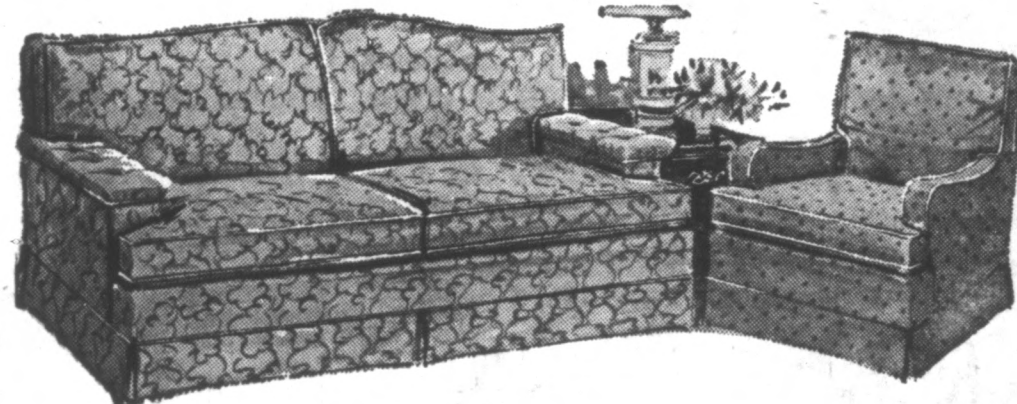

Arrangements and plans are almost complete for the Medical Auxiliary Fashion Show and luncheon to be held at 12:30 p. m. Thursday at the Fulton Country Club.

PIERCE STATION Mrs. Charles Lowe

Well, Thanksgiving is over and I hope everyone had something to be thankful for. I did, even though I'm still confined to a wheelchair.

The joint service between Johnson's Grove and Chapel Hill at Johnson's Grove Church was attended by a large crowd. Rev. Dave Hilliard brought a wonderful message. The Chapel Hill quartette rendered three numbers.

Mrs. Morris George of Dearborn, Mich., spent the holidays with her niece, Mrs. Alger Hay and Mrs. Edd Hay and visited her father, Jim Netherly in Haws Rest Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Raymond and son, Don, of Nashville visited relatives here during the holidays. They were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lowe Thanksgiving Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chandler of Jackson were guests of Miss Mary Holman Saturday.

Little Miss Paula Long is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Tucker and children of near Chicago were recent visitors of Mrs. Tucker's aunt, Mrs. John Smith and Mr. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McNatt spent Thursday in Dyersburg with their daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Alford.

Another daughter, Miss Frankie Ann of Memphis spent the week-end with her parents here.

Mr. and Mrs. Price Simon of Memphis spent a few hours Sunday night visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Jessie Raines at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lowe.

Mrs. Raines is recovering from an illness after spending 10 days in Hillview Hospital.

Mrs. Mattie Nicholson of Jackson is a houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McNatt.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Alford of Dyersburg visited Mrs. Alfred's mother, Mrs. Mattie Rogers Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Matthews and Harry of Dukedom spent Thanksgiving with DeWitt Matthews.

Mr. and Mrs. William Long, David and Paula, spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Parla Long in McConnell.

CAYCE NEWS Mrs. Charles Bonduant

Archie Cruce of Detroit spent several days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tucker, Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Harrison.

We are sorry little David McClanahan has been in Jones Hospital. We are glad he is better and at home.

Thanksgiving day dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rob Johnson were Mr. and Mrs. Horace Roper of Hickman, Mrs. Effie Roper, Mrs. Bertie Copeland and Miss Eva Johnson.

Lawsuits Against Governor, State Hold Up Vets Bonus Payments

Some 200,000 veterans have applied for bonus payments according to Major General Arthur Y. Lloyd, Kentucky bonus law administrator.

He said litigation against Governor Bert Combs and other state officials is holding up payment to the war veterans.

Lloyd explained the bonus cannot be paid until bonds are sold to finance it. Prospective bond purchasers will not buy until all legal questions about the bonus have been settled.

Sale of bonds, backed up by sales tax money, was specified on the ballot of the referendum in which Kentuckians voted to pay the bonus.

Lloyd said both he and the Governor are "anxious for the bonus to be paid as soon as possible."

Now awaiting decision by the Kentucky Court of Appeals is a ruling by Warren Circuit Court that is constitutional for the Commonwealth to pay a bonus to veterans who have moved to other states. The appeal was filed by attorney Paul R. Huddleston for two Bowling Green doctors.

They had attacked the bonus law after a special session of the Legislature, called by Governor Combs, amended it to authorize payment to out-of-state veterans.

Also pending decision by the appellate court is a petition for rehearing filed by Huddleston on a previous ruling by the high tribunal. This opinion upheld the residency requirement, later eliminated by the special session, and also upheld the bond sale procedure.

Huddleston has indicated he would take the cases to the Supreme Court of the United States.

Due to the number of applications already distributed under the old law, bonus director Norbert Rechlin said new application forms would not be printed leaving out the section concerning state residence. He explained applications will continue to use present forms without being required to fill out this section.

Application forms may be obtained at county clerk's offices and from veterans organizations.

CHESTNUT GLADE

Mrs. Harvey Vaughn

(Last Week)

Much preparation for the winter months has been possible for the past several days due to the unusually nice weather. Several have taken advantage of the ideal weather to prepare gardens for early spring planting.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Nanney are vacationing for the past several days with Mr. and Mrs. Minard Nanney in Detroit. Their plans are to spend Thanksgiving with the Millers in Akron, Ohio.

Word has been received that David Nanney had been so sick that he has been sent to a hospital in Germany from where he has been stationed in Turkey. His many friends are wishing him a speedy recovery.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Mrs. Tom Nabors who passed away last Saturday after a long illness.

Mr. Louis Burke remains in a critical condition at the Fulton hospital where he has been a patient for several weeks.

Mrs. Lucy Gibbs and Mrs. Harvey Vaughn visited Mrs. Sallie Nanney and Mrs. Minnie Brann at the Henderson Rest Home last week they both appear to be about as usual. Mamma Nanney due to her 95 years only sits up for a short time each day. Mrs. Minnie is still able to keep busy crocheting. She has most likely done more crocheting than any person of my acquaintance. Miss Flora Oliver was also visited. She is feeling much better although still bedfast. She thoroughly enjoys visits of her friends.

Mrs. Opal Pounds is another very busy person at this season. She enjoys an unusual hobby of shelling walnuts. She is taking orders for the shelling back walnuts and has already filled a large number of orders the past few weeks. She has an order from Chicago for all she can supply, but she says she will fill her local orders first.

F. H. S. Acquires Glass Backboards

After many years of trying, Fulton High has acquired glass backboards. Glass backboards were used first by colleges to provide a better view for fans sitting behind the backboard. Soon all tournaments were played on glass backboards. Therefore many high schools got these backboards so that their players would be accustomed to them.

Last year every team we played had these backboards. At home our backboards were an advantage because our opponents were not used to them. Away from home the situation was reversed.

This summer the people of the town helped raise the money needed, and the new backboards were installed. Good luck to the Bulldogs and their new backboards.

Dedication Of Tire Plant Has Been Postponed

Announcement has been made by Robert Rehm, manager of the General Tire and Rubber Company here, and officials of the company in Akron, that the dedication of the new $15,000,000 plant at Mayfield originally set for December 8 and 9 has been postponed.

Rehm said that several unforeseen circumstances had arisen that made it impossible to hold the dedication on the original dates. He said that Senator John Sherman Cooper, and First District Representative Frank Albert Stubblefield, had found it impossible to be here on those dates and that M. G. O'Neil, president of General Tire and Rubber Company also would have been unable to be here on the original dates.

Rehm added that a new date for the dedication of the huge plant will be set as soon as possible.

In addition to top officials of General Tire, Governor Bert Combs, Senator Thurston Morton and other Kentucky notables are expected to attend the dedication ceremonies.

VETERANS CORNER

Here are authoritative answers from the Veterans Administration to questions of interest from former servicemen and their families:

Q—I am a Korea veteran, discharged in 1953, and taking a correspondence course for college credits under the GI Bill. My eight-year- from date of discharge will be up in 1961, but at the rate I am going I will not be able to complete my course in time. Can I get an extension of time from VA?

A—No. The law says you must complete your GI education within eight years from your separation from the armed services. Better try to work in the courses you need before your deadline.

Q—I need the record of my discharge from the Army in order to apply for a VA benefit but can't find the one issued to me. Can VA provide me with another?

A—No. To get a replacement for your lost discharge, you should write to the Department of Defense, Military Personnel Records Center, 9700 Page Boulevard, St. Louis, Mo.

Q—I have a GI insurance policy and am entitled to take out the total disability income rider which would pay me $10 a month per each $100 of insurance if I were to become disabled. Would these payments start from the date of my disability?

A—No. The total and permanent disability on which the rider pays policyholders must have been in existence six months before payments can be made. Payments start with the seventh month after the disability occurred, and continue during the time of the disability thereafter.

Q—I am now receiving pension from the VA, and have a right to switch to the new system of payments which took effect July 1, 1960. If I decided I want to switch over, is there any deadline before which I must make the change?

A—No. You may make the change any time. Be sure you're right before you switch because your decision is final. See your nearest VA office if you need help.

this day and time when all of us are on the move, that to just sit and relax for hours with those you love the most is an occasion that doesn't present itself often enough.

I think that the old saying that the most lasting friendships are made aboard a lazy steamer plying its way across expansive waters is very true indeed. Before we get too far into those days when long vacations are laborious, rather than fun, I'd like to take a long cruise into foreign waters, just the four of us and have some cherished memories that will withstand the passing of time and years. I think I'll embroider on that in my spare moments. . . (????)

Hines charged that the conservancy district was not legally created because the election was not properly advertised, outer boundaries of the lands included in it were not accurately defined and the election was not legally conducted.

Judge Stahr overruled all the contentions and upheld the contention of Roberts that the opponents had waived their right to contest the election because grounds for the contest were not filed within 30 days.

The circuit judge held that notices published in the Hickman County Gazette, together with word of mouth advertisement the district proposal received, were ample to meet legal requirements for creation of the district.

Many of the opponents waived their right to challenge creation of the district when they failed to vote in the election, he said. The description of land included in the district is adequate, Judge Stahr added.

Owners of the land will be taxed five mills per dollar valuation to help pay for construction and maintenance of the dams and reservoirs. Included in the district are some 202,000 acres of land and 1,600 farms. Cost of the projects planned inside the district is estimated at $6,520,000.

The opponents have indicated they will appeal Judge Stahr's ruling in the case. The circuit judge's decision was handed down Friday afternoon after he had heard oral arguments by the attorneys. Briefs filed by the attorneys had been under study for some time, however.

F. C. H. S. CHATTER

By Martha Earl Cox

Well, it seems that the F. C. H. S. Pilots are not as yet ready for the space age. On Nov. 18 North Marshall Jets defeated them with a 87-46 score and on Nov. 22 the Carlisle County Comets downed them with a score of 66-62. The '59 champs bewildered the Pilots but in the last period of the Carlisle game the Pilots sacked up 34 points threatening to defeat the Comets.

At the PTA Variety show on Nov. 19 about $90 was cleared and approximately 200 attended the affair. Everyone enjoyed the show, especially the song and dance by the chorus girls made up of Jim Tipton, Junior Bequette, Flavous Statham, David James and Charles Murphy, all seniors.

FCHS students were tickled pink to get out of school for the Thanksgiving holiday. Everyone needed the vacation after being so busy and seemed refreshed upon returning Monday morning.

Next week, the Pilots compete in two more tough games. The results should be interesting so watch for them in this column next week.

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual membership meeting and election of officers of the Fulton Country Club will be next Monday night December 5th at the Clubhouse. All members are urged to attend.

BAND IN PARADE

The South Fulton band is one of nine bands which participated in the annual Jaycee sponsored Christmas parade at Union City on November 28. Other bands included—Dyersburg, Trenton, Humboldt, Martin, Milan, Union City, Hickman and Clinton.

Fulton Wins, South Fulton Loses Game

The Fulton City Bulldogs edged the Wingo Indians 52-49 in a nip-and-tuck contest at Wingo Tuesday night.

Fulton was ahead 49-48 with 40 seconds left in the game when Jerry Lacey hit a field basket and a free throw to ice the battle. Lacey led the Fulton attack with 19 points.

John Waggoner, who scored 13, and Harlon Parchman, with 12, led the way for Wingo.

South Fulton dropped its first loss in seven games here Tuesday night as a rough-and-ready game found Martin emerging victorious 62-60.

A nip-and-tuck game all the way, the home team never trailed by more than six points with the final period producing the game-winning blow when forward Bucky Harris pumped in eight points to ice the game.

Harris led the Martin victory with a total of 21 points, helped by George Hester, who chipped in with 19. Jimmy Lowe was the star of the game for South Fulton with 24 points and Donald Parchman added 16 points.

Professor Wayne Tansil, head of Public Relations at UTMB, was the principal speaker at the regular luncheon meeting of the Fulton Rotary Club Tuesday at the Park Terrace. He made an interesting and informative talk on how a civic club can serve its community effectively.

GRANTS OF $66,310

A total of $66,310 has gone into scholarships and honor loans for 115 engineering students at the University of Kentucky, according to R. E. Shaver, dean of the College of Engineering. Representing grants for this semester, the funds were given by 39 companies, organizations, foundations and agencies. Largest grant was $2,400 for a graduate student majoring in mining engineering.

Combs Announces 'Crash' Program For State Parks

Kentuckians "are going to be pleasantly surprised when they learn the full extent of the state parks program," Governor Bert Combs said recently in announcing a "crash program" in park development.

An earlier announcement had listed only three of the state parks to be developed—Jennie Wiley, Buckhorn Lake and Rough River Dam. But "these projects are just a segment of the overall plans," Combs said.

Details of the improvement program will be announced December 8, Combs said after conferring with Parks Commissioner Ed Fox and the Kentucky Parks Board. The program will involve use of the recently approved 10 million dollar bond issue.

Purpose of the crash program is to enable Kentucky to compete immediately with other states in attracting tourists. "We know that in 1959 out-of-state tourists spent $165 million in Kentucky," Combs said. "With added recreation areas and more modern facilities in our existing parks, the income from tourists can be greatly increased."

Services To Small Business Concerns During Year Exceeds Previous Years

R. B. Blankenship, Manager of the Small Business Administration in Kentucky stated that services to small business concerns in the state of Kentucky during the year 1960 are exceeding all previous years since the establishment of the office in 1953.

Over 4,000 business firms have been furnished assistance in some form. Approximately three million dollars in Government contracts have been agreed to and awarded small business concerns by U. S. Government installations located in this state.

Over four million dollars in loans have been approved for small business concerns and applications totalling one million dollars are now being processed. Loans in the amount of one-half million dollars are now pending disbursement.

The University of Louisville, Bellarmine College and Western Kentucky State College are now conducting Administrative Management Courses, in cooperation with the Small Business Administration, for the benefit of the small business concerns of this state.

Mr. Blankenship stated that every effort is being made to explain their program to the business men of this state, and that a speaker is available from the Louisville Office to address organizations who are interested in learning more about the services available to the small business man from the Small Business Administration.

PHYSICS WORK SEEN

High energy physics research equipment at the University of Kentucky will serve as models for similar equipment in the Atomic Research Commission's Argonne National Laboratory near Chicago.

Competition he subdues, who advertises in The News.

Farm News, Meetings, Events

(Editor's note: The following information, supplied THE NEWS by the USDA, ASC, nearby County Agents and agricultural agencies will be of special interest to progressive farmers in the Ken-Tenn area):

In response to questions raised by some growers about 1961 upland cotton allotments, Roy Bard, of the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office, today explained the difference between the 1961 program and the one in effect for the past two cotton crops.

He pointed out that the 1961 national allotment of 18.5 million acres compares with the "regular" 1960 allotment of 16.3 million acres. This 1960 figure was increased to 17.5 million acres under Choice (B) elections. In 1961, there will be only one upland cotton allotment, whereas for the past two crops growers had a choice between the "regular" farm allotment and the 40-percent-larger (B) allotment. All eligible growers in 1961 may receive the full available price support on their cotton, whereas in 1960 the eligible (B) growers received lower support but a larger acreage allotment.

Because of the provisions of the law the effect of the increased national allotment on the size of the State, county, and farm allotments will vary widely. Some farms may receive no increase or possibly a reduction from the available allotment acreage for 1960 primarily because of the operation of the minimum allotment provisions or participation in the Choice (B) program in 1960.

A two-thirds favorable vote in the referendum would mean quotas for the 1961 cotton crop, marketing quota penalties on any "excess" cotton, and price support at not less than 70 percent of parity. Opposition to the quotas by more than a third of the voters would mean no quotas or penalties for 1961 and support at 50 percent of parity so growers who complied with their acreage allotments.

COTTON FARM OPERATORS RECEIVING ALLOTMENTS

All operators of upland cotton farms in Fulton County should receive official notice of their 1961 farm acreage allotments through the mail within the next few days, Chairman Roy Bard of the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee said today.

Growers will vote at local polling places Tuesday, December 13, on the upland cotton program for 1961, and allotments are being mailed to reach all growers before referendum day, Mr. Bard said.

In a change from the programs in effect for 1959 and 1960, each farm operator will receive only one allotment for 1961. This will represent the farm's share of the national upland cotton acreage allotment of 18 1-2 million acres.

County Agent, Obion County OBION COUNTY AGRICULTURAL COMMENTS AND EVENTS

Only about 10 percent of the corn is in the field. Here again, two or three good days will complete harvest. Local prices still around .95 a bushel.

About 15 percent of the cotton is in the field. The seven cotton gins in Obion County have ginned 10,000 bales thus far this season. They expect to gin some where around 18,000 more bales. Grade not holding up as good - many SLM bales with shorter staple than earlier. Some 15 mechanical cotton pickers have been bought in Obion County this year.

All Cotton and corn fertilizer demonstration plots have been yield checked. Some 10 soybean plots remain to be checked. A report on these plots will be released when all data has been compiled.

Schedules of price-support loan rates for the 1960 crops of burley, fire-cured, and dark air-cured tobaccos have been announced, according to word from the Obion County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Office.

Under provisions of new legislation approved this year, price support for the 1960 crop of these kinds of tobacco is fixed at the same level as far 1959. These levels are 57.2 cents per pound for burley, 38.8 cents per pound for fire-cured, and 34.5 cents per pound for dark air-cured. The grade rates range from 24 to 72 cents for burley, 13 to 64 cents for fire-cured, and 20 to 52 cents for dark air-cured.

As in past years, growers will offer their tobacco at auction markets in the usual manner and price support will be made available to cooperating growers through farmer cooperative associations, which will use the services and facilities of auction warehouses and leaf packing firms.

The clipping of dairy cows is one of the essentials of dairying. Clean, pure milk can seldom be produced from udders with long hair. It is almost impossible to sterilize an udder with long hair in the short time most of us have in preparing a cow for milking. Most graded milk marketers require producers to practice clipping, however, whether you are selling on the fluid market, for manufactured milk market or just using the milk at home, you should clip the cows.

All dairyman, whether large or small, have problems in producing milk. Shall we look at some of the advantages of clipping and maybe you will recognize some of your trouble spots. First, clipping reduces sediment by removing dirt catching long hair; next, clipping lowers bacteria count. Long hair harbors bacteria as well as dirt and the bacteria cannot be strained from the milk as would be a leaf or stick that would happen to fall into the bucket. Clipping saves time and labor, because the hair is short, it is easy to clean udders with a bactericidal solution. This makes the job of preparation much easier and faster. Clipping helps control lice. Tests made at the University of Wisconsin prove that over-all clipping is a very definite aid in controlling lice. We do not clip all the cows in this area, but the three or four stripes up the back of the cow will give a great deal of control since this area is commonly called the highway of the lice. By this, it is a proven fact that the lice travel to the moisture sources via this route. When this area is clipped, entomologists say that the lice leave.

Hermes are the areas of the cow most commonly clipped: First, the tail head and tail, cropping the switch about hock high; then the rear and fore udder. Next, clip as far as can be reached under the belly and run a mark with the edge of the clipper from the milk well up to the hook bone (hip bone) and clip the flank and leg out to this line, now with the three trips down the back for the louse and you are through. Never stand behind the cow, but to the side. A cow will kick back much harder than to the side (pleasant though eh!) Keep the clippers against the skin of the cow at all times so that she will know where you are and will be more at ease.

Not too long ago we held a demonstration of clipping in relation to bacteria count in Hopkins County. I would like to give you the results. Before clipping his bacteria count was 160,000 on the raw milk and 8,100 for the pasteurized count. We clipped his herd without his knowing what we were trying to prove. After 10 days another check was made, this time the raw count was 84,000 and the pasteurized count was 400. This to me is ample proof that all cows should be clipped if the milk is used for human consumption.

Remember this, the cleaner the milk you sell to the plant, the cleaner the product that goes to the market, thus the stronger your company will be in this competitive era. Clean milk is sound business for the dairyman.

TOBACCO MARKETING

The tobacco grower has a four-fold responsibility in the handling and use of his marketing card during the tobacco marketing season, S. E. Holly, Office Manager of the Fulton County ASC Office tells us.

The grower's chief responsibilities are as follows:
First, the marketing card must be used to identify all tobacco marketed from the farm for which it was issued.

Second, the marketing card must not be left in the possession of the buyer.

Third, the marketing card must be returned to the ASC county office when all tobacco from the farm has been marketed or when all memorandums in the card have been used.

Fourth, all farmers must return their marketing cards to the county office within 30 days after the close of the markets in their area.

Observe these responsibilities, says Mr. Holly, and you help to assure fair treatment for all in the marketing of tobacco under the acreage allotment and marketing quota program.

C. D. Lancasters Observe Their Golden Wedding Anniversary Here

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lancaster

The 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Lancaster of Gordon, Ky., was celebrated with open house at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Charles Powell, of Fulton.

The couple was married November 6, 1910, in Waverly, Tenn., and have lived in Gordon for about 10 years. They have two other daughters, Mrs. Charles Besenbender and Mrs. Nis Juhl, both of Mt. Prospect, Ill., and four sons, Thomas and W. R. Lancaster, both of Route 4, Union City, L. H. Lancaster of Oak Park, Ill., and Charles Lancaster of Chicago, Ill. They have 14 grandchildren.

Mrs. Lancaster is the former Miss Emma Dotson.

Miss Betty Ann Powell, a granddaughter of the couple, presided at the register.

A lovely arrangement of yellow lilies, flanked by tall white tap-pers, formed the centerpiece of the serving table, on which was placed a three-tiered cake topped with a miniature bride and groom. Mrs. Besenbender and Mrs. John presided at the serving table.

Some 100 guests called between the hours of 2 and 5.

Bugg-Burnett Wedding Told

The wedding of Ruth Bugg, daughter of Mrs. Alice Bugg and the late Clyde Bugg of Mayfield, route 4, and Joe Burnett of Lynnville, Ky., was solemnized Nov. 11 at Sedalia, Ky.

Rev. Dotson officiated at the ceremony in the Methodist Church parsonage.

Mrs. Burnett is a graduate of Wingo High School and is employed at the Merit Clothing Co. Mr. Burnett is postmaster at Lynnville, Ky., where they will reside.

The Welfare Workers Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Brooks Oliver with an all day meeting with 10 members and 4 visitors present.

The visitors were Mrs. W. C. Permenter, Mrs. Robert Rucker, Mrs. J. C. King, and Mrs. R. E. Holiday. Mrs. Robert Rucker a chartered member has been out several years due to ill health but joined again. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Frank Parrish. Birdie Phillips lead the group in singing the Thanksgiving hymn.

Estelle Kimberlin gave the devotional. Club creed was read by Mrs. Roy Watts. Roll call was answered by a Christmas idea. New goals were set for 1961. The minutes were read by Lucille Palmer. Club adjourned for a delicious Thanksgiving meal.

Project leaders were Maud Holiday—Consumer Education, Martha Oliver—Food, Nutrition, and Clothing. The club adjourned to meet with Mary Parrish for the Christmas dinner December 14.

PTA TO MEET

There will be a special meeting of the South Fulton PTA on Thursday, December 8 at 2:30 p. m. at the school cafeteria.

FULTON HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

By Karen Dublin

Vacation is over for the FHS students and things are back to normal—for a while anyway. Everyone seemed to have a good time over the holidays, and are eager (???) to get back to work.

The report cards came out on Wednesday, and there is more than one student threatening to commit suicide or something!

The Big Blue Band marched in the Union City Christmas Parade on Monday night. They played "Christmas Parade March" which consisted of a medley of famous carols and songs of Christmas. The group worked hard for this performance, and really did a good job.

On Tuesday morning, the people who gave the seniors their State Aptitude tests last month, were back to interview each of us. Careers mentioned for girls ranged from nursing, secretarial work, and cosmetology, to engineering and drafting! The boys' aptitudes were mostly in the scientific and mathematical field.

Basketball season tickets went on sale in the business district on Wednesday. They will be on sale downtown all the rest of this week. The adult tickets are $3.00. Student tickets will go on sale at the school on Monday, and are priced at $1.50. The tickets are good for all home games except the Calloway County game on January 10. This is the annual polo game.

The Bulldogs opened their basketball season on Tuesday night at Wingo. A large group of fans accompanied the team, and a great deal of school spirit was evident. At the pep rally on Tuesday morning, the cheerleaders introduced the "pep jug." Everytime they take the top off, the FHS students have to give out with a great big yell!! It will be used at ballgames and pep rallies all year. Three types of candy—sweet

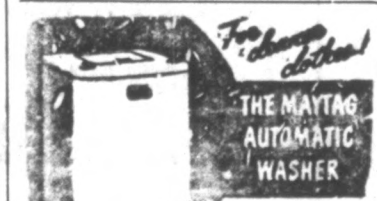

Very soon, the Band will start their sale of imported Dutch chocolate candy. There will be three types of candy—sweet chocolate, bitter chocolate, and chocolate with nuts. The three bars sell for $1.00, or may be bought individually at $3.5 a bar. The money will be used to boost the band.

The Bulldogs next game will be at Paducah Tilghman on Saturday night, December 3, at 7:00. The team needs YOUR support.

Two New Students Enter FHS Halls

As you walk the halls of Fulton High, you see many new faces. You will find that almost all of the Freshmen girls go down the hall whispering. The reason could be the new freshman boy, Gerald Bradley, Gerald went to Water Valley before he came here. His hobby is hunting. He is one of the first year Latin students, and is also an active member of the junior high varsity.

There is also a new freshman girl. Her name is Carol Dunn.
